NATIONALS PARK

CONSTRUCTION OVERVIEW

THE BALLPARK

The New Washington Nationals Ballpark is located in Southeast Washington along the Anacostia River bounded by South Capitol Street to the west, N Street to the north, First Street to the east and Potomac Avenue to the south.

Included in the Ballpark's configuration are approximately 24,000 seats in the lower bowl; 12,100 in the upper seating bowl, from where fans can see the U.S. Capitol building, 2,500 club seats; 1,112 suite seats, 500 presidential seats with indoor dining; and 1,330 diamond seats with indoor dining. More than half the crowd will walk straight off of the street into their seats, without ever taking elevators or climbing ramps or stairs, because the field is 24 feet below street level, and the main concourse is at the same height as the sidewalk.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

500 Presidential Seats

1,112 Suite Seats

1,330 Diamond Seats

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE BALLPARK'S CONSTRUCTION

EXCAVATION

- A total of 340,948 cubic yards (34,095 truck loads) (A typical truck can hold 25,000 pounds of dirt, or about 10 cubic yards) of soil was excavated.
- Layers of fill and old bricks were found 12-14 feet below grade, indicating the probability of road and habitation at this level in the 1800s, until trash/fill was dumped to the existing level.
- There were approximately 185,087 cubic yards of contaminated soil. It was cleaned, and then sent to a landfill.
- Approximately 4,500 cubic yards of dirt was removed each day, or about 450 truckloads per day.
- Some portions of the excavation required digging below the water table.
- A total of approximately 2,400 piles were driven to 55-foot depth, which, equals a total of 25 miles of piling.

STEEL

- The completed Ballpark will have approximately 3,500 pieces of steel in the bowl structure, equaling 7,800 tons.

CONCRETE

- The heaviest pre-cast unit is 55,000 pounds.
- Approximately 58,000 cubic yards of cast-in-place concrete will be used.

FIRE PROTECTION

- Feet of Pipe 65,000
- Fire Pumps 1
- Wet Sprinkler systems 25-30
- Dry Sprinkler systems 6-7
- Pre-Action systems 2
- Approximate number of sprinkler heads 7,000

MECHANICAL SYSTEMS

- Approximate miles of pipe 9 miles
- Approximate pounds of mechanica ducts 600,000 pounds
- Total number of plumbing fixtures 110

ELECTRICAL SYSTEMS

- Over 3 million feet of power wire
- 714,000 watts of light being used, the equivalent of 11,900 60-watt light bulbs
- 180,000 hours of manpower to install electrical systems
- 14,000 lights will be used in the Ballpark

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

WASHINGTON NATIONALS MISSION STATEMENT AS IT PERTAINS TO COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Washington Nationals are committed to providing programs that enhance education, increase participation in youth baseball and softball, while improving the quality of life in our local communities of the District of Columbia, Northern Virginia, and Maryland.

The Washington Nationals look forward to further developing their commitment to the Greater Washington DC community by collaborating with community partners and providing programs and initiatives that will help area residents. In 2006, the Club expanded upon their community outreach and made a noticeable impact through a number of activities, such as the hugely successful toy drive where we collected over 500 toys, the blood drive on Save-A-Life Saturday at which 125 pints of blood were collected and the Thanksgiving in June Food Collection where over 5500 pounds of non-perishable food items were collected. Also in 2006, over 52,000 tickets were distributed to schools, non-profit groups and churches in Greater Washington, DC. We look towards 2007 and beyond with increased commitment to education and a number of other programs that will include area player appearances and complimentary ticket donations. The Washington Nationals care about our fans and our community.

THE WASHINGTON NATIONALS 2007 COMMUNITY RELATIONS CALENDAR:

2007 WINTER CARAVAN
In Jan. 2007, Manny Acta and numerous players, including Nook Logan and Ryan Zimmerman set out on an 8-day, 12-city journey through DC, Maryland and Virginia. They visited with fans of all ages at area hospitals, schools, libraries and retailers to shake hands, sign autographs and say "hello." They conducted baseball clinics and read from their favorite children's books. It was a wonderful experience and we look forward to next January!

NATIONALS SCHOOL DAYS
The Nationals have "adopted" Kimball Elementary School, located in Southeast Washington, DC, as part of our commitment to education and our partnership with DC Public Schools. The Club has committed to player appearances, and front office employees volunteering their time as part of the school's after-school tutoring/mentoring programs.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS YOUTH BASEBALL/SOFTBALL CLINICS (APRIL 28, MAY 12, MAY 19, JUNE 23, JULY 17, AUGUST 15)
To stimulate the growth of youth involvement in baseball and softball programs in DC and its surrounding areas, the Nationals will host a series of baseball/softball clinics. Nationals coaches and trainers will offer young children a real baseball workout and offer pointers on how to improve their game or just understand baseball a little better.

BASEBALL EQUIPMENT DRIVE (MAY 18, 19, 20)
The Baseball Tomorrow Fund Equipment Drive collects gently used or new baseball equipment (gloves, tees, balls) for area youth sports non-profit organizations. The Nationals will receive a $5000 grant to purchase new equipment for a selected organization. Last year, 250 pieces of equipment which were donated to the DC RBI program.

THANKSGIVING IN JUNE CANNED FOOD COLLECTION (JUNE 1,2,3)
Working in partnership with Capital Area Food Bank for the second annual canned food drive, the Nationals will host a collection of non-perishable food items at the gates. All those who donated will receive a Nationals promotional item. Over 5,823 pounds of food were collected during last year's initiative.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS SUMMER READING PROGRAM (JUNE 21– AUGUST 17)
Working in partnership with the District of Columbia Public Library and Fairfax County Public Library, we roll out the second year of the Washington Nationals Summer Reading Program. Children who participate will be eligible to win a prize as they complete their reading lists. The more they read, the more they advance and can score a "Home Run"! If the child scores a Home Run, he/she will receive two (2) tickets to a game in early September. In the inaugural year of 2006 of the program, over 1,000 children participated.

CHRISTMAS IN JULY TOY DRIVE (JULY 6,7,8)
In partnership with the Toys for Tots Foundation, the Nationals will conduct its second annual toy drive where Marines and Nationals Wives will collect new, unwrapped toys at the gates. All fans who donate receive a Nationals promotional item. These toys are given to several pediatric units and foster care agencies in the DC area.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS WIVES BACK TO SCHOOL DRIVE (AUGUST 4-5)
The Washington Nationals First Ladies (Wives) will launch their signature program — the First Annual Back to School Drive. On these days, the First Ladies will be present at all gates to collect school supplies from fans. Fans can donate backpacks, pens, pencils, notebooks, etc. which will then be donated to a school or agency in need of supplies.

SAVE-A-LIFE SATURDAY BLOOD DRIVE (AUGUST 18)
For the third straight year, the Nationals will host a blood drive the morning of our game against the New York Mets, in partnership with the American Red Cross. Chad Cordero will again serve as our player rep. We are looking forward to surpassing the 125 pints of blood collected in 2006. During the Winter Caravan this past January at the Fairfax Blood Donor Center, the American Red Cross recorded the highest walk-up donor rate in recent years.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS DREAM FOUNDATION

The Washington Nationals Dream Foundation and the Washington Nationals Baseball Club are committed to community partnerships that improve the lives of children and families across the Washington Capital Region. The Foundation's cornerstone programs are focused on children's education, health and recreation. A 501(c)3 charitable organization, the Washington Nationals Dream Foundation has committed to, among other projects, a partnership with the District of Columbia Government to build the Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Academy to teach the fundamentals of baseball and provide after-school educational programs for children in the DC region.

THE 2007 WASHINGTON NATIONALS DREAM FOUNDATION BLUEPRINT:

MOST VALUABLE PUPIL FIELD TRIP (March 31)
As part of the commitment the Washington Nationals Dream Foundation has to education, the Foundation has partnered with the District of Columbia Public Schools for the March 31st Exhibition game against the Baltimore Orioles. On this day, middle school students who attend DC Public Schools are invited to attend the game as part of this reward and recognition program. The students will receive free tickets, free lunch and a workbook which will be used throughout the game to answer with a baseball theme on math, history, health and fitness. Students are selected based on the following criteria: attendance, citizenship, and academics. The purpose of this program is to inspire academic excellence, reward attendance improvement, and encourage citizenship and community involvement.

SATURDAY NIGHT SILENT AUCTION (April 7, May 12, June 2, July 7, August 4, September 15)
On one designated Saturday home game every month during the regular season, WNDF will host a Silent Auction at the Washington Nationals Community Booth. As part of the memorabilia that is auctioned off, there will also be a Mystery Grab Bag where signed baseballs of current players and coaches are available for sale. Additionally, signed memorabilia of popular, former Nationals will be available for auction. The sales of this memorabilia benefit the Washington Nationals Foundation. In 2006, these Saturday Silent Auctions generated over $20,000 for the Washington Nationals Dream Foundation.

SHIRTS OFF THEIR BACKS (September 23, Final Home Game of 2007)
For the week leading up to the final game of the 2007 season, raffle tickets will be sold for an opportunity to win a Shirt off the Back of one of our players and coaches. The fundraiser was a huge success in '06, as over $18,000 was collected at various collection points throughout RFK. We look forward to exceeding those numbers in 2007.

★ EDWARD L. COHEN ★

★ ROBERT K. TANENBAUM ★

Major League Baseball has long held a special place in the hearts of everyone in our family. Many of our fondest and earliest memories were made at Griffith Stadium, watching the old Washington Senators. When that team left the second time in 1971, we hoped we could one day be a part of bringing the national pastime back to the Nation's Capital. We knew it mattered to us and to many other families just like ours. We also believed it was critical to the cultural future of the Washington D.C. area that this most authentic and family-friendly of American games have a vital, living presence here. We are extraordinarily honored to be able to offer your family a chance to experience the thrill of hometown baseball.

We were overjoyed when MLB chose to return to our area two years ago and are excited by the prospect of our first full season running the team. We are working hard planning the opening of a new world class ballpark for the Nationals on South Capitol Street in Southeast D.C., and are pleased to report that construction is progressing on schedule for the April 2008 opening.

In the meantime, we recognize that RFK Stadium is our baseball home through the end of the 2007 season, and we have made every effort to ensure that your experience at every single Nats game is enjoyable. We are proud to say that stadium concourses are brighter, in-game concessions offer more varied and appetizing menus, and we have made sure that more staff is on hand to respond to all our game-day fans. There are one hundred new concessions, and an outdoor food court has been built on the mezzanine. In-game entertainment has also been made more lively, and the introduction of the President's Race has been highly popular. Upgrades at RFK will continue during the season even as we march toward our new ballpark opening.

On the field, we are delighted with the addition of rookie manager Manny Acta. We believe his infectious energy and drive will be reflected in our players, and we promise you a hard-working team that hustles every day, all season long. Long-time baseball professionals Stan Kasten and Jim Bowden will spare no effort in building an organization – player by player – that guarantees the kind of franchise this City deserves.

From our family to your family, we pledge to you our passion for the game and its fans, competitive performance 162 times a year, and to respect and honor our role as stewards of the national pastime in the Nation's Capital.

At the Washington Nationals, we are just beginning a new family tradition. Be a part.

Sincerely,

Theodore N. Lerner

Mark D. Lerner

ON BEHALF OF THE ENTIRE LERNER FAMILY

THEODORE N. LERNER

MANAGING PRINCIPAL OWNER

For the lifelong baseball fan who used to pay 25 cents to sit in the bleachers at Griffith Stadium and watch the Senators with his father, and who later worked as an usher in the ballpark as a teenager, owning the Washington Nationals is the realization of a lifetime dream. When MLB Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig named Ted Lerner as the new Managing Principal Owner of the Nationals on May 3, 2006, it was the culmination of nearly 81 years of hard work and vision.

Major League Baseball ratified the Lerner family and their limited partners as the new owners of the Nationals on July 21, 2006, continuing baseball's tradition of encouraging family ownership with strong ties in their community. In the short time that the Lerner family has been running the franchise, they have worked non-stop to oversee the construction of the new first-class ballpark for the Washington Nationals on South Capitol Street in Southeast DC, while greatly improving the fan experience at RFK Stadium – the team's home until the end of the 2007 season.

Knowing how important baseball is to the capital area and to the quality of life for the people who live here, Ted Lerner believes that the new Nationals Park will be the center of summer activity in Washington, DC. He and the rest of the Lerner family ownership are dedicated to building a world-class baseball team, practically from scratch, here in their home town. The crucial day-to-day management of the Nationals is the responsibility of the extremely capable Stan Kasten, President of the Nationals, and his experienced and talented organization.

Ted will run the Nationals with his son Mark, his daughters Debra and Marla, his daughter-in-law Judy, and his sons-in-law Ed Cohen and Bob Tanenbaum. It is his hope that his grandchildren will continue the family legacy and run the Nationals far into the future.

Born and raised in Washington, Ted is the Founder and a Principal of Lerner Enterprises, the largest private real estate developer in the Washington, DC area. He founded Lerner Enterprises, based in North Bethesda, Maryland, in 1952. After graduating from The George Washington University with an Associates of Arts degree, he earned an LLB from The George Washington University National Law Center.

With a long history of community involvement in the Washington-area, the Lerner family is pleased to be to be able to expand their active participation in the area through the Washington Nationals Dream Foundation.

Ted Lerner has served on the Board of Trustees and Executive Committee of The George Washington University, and his family dedicated the Annette and Theodore Lerner Family Health and Wellness Center and Theodore N. Lerner Hall at the GWU Law Center. Their private foundation, The Annette M. and Theodore N. Lerner Family Foundation, provides support to many local and international organizations, including: Food and Friends; The Hebrew University of Jerusalem; the Weizmann Institute of Science; The Scleroderma Foundation of Greater Washington; YouthAids; Junior Achievement of the Greater Washington Area; Georgetown Day School; the Charles E. Smith Jewish Day School; ADL In Concert Against Hate; the Jewish Community Centers of Greater Washington and District of Columbia; and Imagination Stage, among many others. Ted and wife of 55 years Annette, are founding members of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, DC.

The American Academy of Achievement awarded Ted Lerner the Golden Plate Award of Excellence in 1990. In 2003, he was elected to the Washington Business Hall of Fame by Junior Achievement and in 2007 was honored as a Charter Inductee in The George Washington University School of Business Sports Executives Hall of Fame. Lerner Enterprises was voted Greater Washington Family Business of the Year in 1999.

MARK D. LERNER

PRINCIPAL OWNER

Mark D. Lerner is a native Washingtonian and a Principal of Lerner Enterprises, the largest private real estate developer in the Washington, D.C. area. An enthusiastic sports fan since he was a child, Mark also represents the Lerner family as a minority partner in Lincoln Holdings, LLC -- the sports investment group that owns the NHL Washington Capitals and the WNBA Washington Mystics, and a minority interest in the NBA Washington Wizards and Verizon Center. He has a BBA from The George Washington University.

Mr. Lerner holds numerous volunteer positions within the community. Until recently, he served on the Board of Directors and Co-chair of the Building & Grounds Committee of the Charles E. Smith Jewish Day School in Rockville, Maryland and Co-chair of the 2004 JCC Maccabi Games of Greater Washington. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington, Hillel at The George Washington University and the Advisory Board of Israel Bonds.

Mark's wife, Judy Lenkin Lerner is a lifelong Washingtonian and is involved in many community and educational volunteer positions in the Washington area, including being a docent at The Smithsonian American Art Museum, Everybody Wins and the Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington Book Fair, among many others. In addition, she serves as President of the Judy and Mark Lerner Family Foundation, which supports many local organizations.

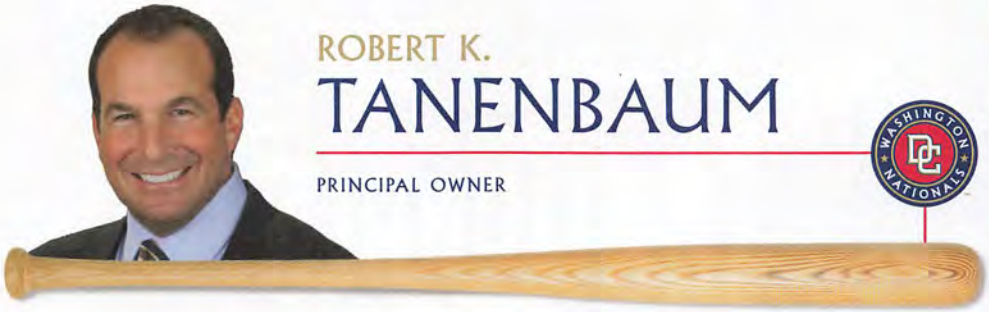

EDWARD L. COHEN

PRINCIPAL OWNER

Edward L. Cohen, a Washington, DC resident for almost 40 years, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and the Georgetown University Law Center. He is a Principal of Lerner Enterprises, the largest private real estate developer in the Washington, D.C. area. Prior to becoming involved in real estate, Mr. Cohen was an associate at the law firm LeBoeuf, Lamb, Leiby & MacRae specializing in nuclear energy generation. He serves or has served on the Boards of Capstar Hotel Co., Georgetown Day School, Weizmann Institute of Science and Junior Achievement of the Greater Washington Area. He and his wife, Debra Lerner Cohen, are involved with many community and philanthropic causes in the Washington, D.C. area.

Debra is a lifelong Washingtonian. She is or has been a Member of The United States Holocaust Memorial Council; Chairman and Board member, American Committee for the Weizmann Institute of Science; Board member, Imagination Stage; Board member, District of Columbia Jewish Community Center; and Co-Chair, Georgetown Day High School Capital Campaign.

ROBERT K. TANENBAUM

PRINCIPAL OWNER

Robert K. Tanenbaum, who has lived in the Washington, D.C area for more than 35 years, is a graduate of Union College and The George Washington University National Law Center. He is a Principal of Lerner Enterprises, the family's real estate, development and investment company.

Mr. Tanenbaum is on the Boards of The George Washington University and of Imagination Stage, a local theater arts center that nurtures young people of all abilities through participation in professional theater arts education experiences. He and his wife, Marla Lerner Tanenbaum, are also involved in a variety of other educational, political and community activities.

Marla, chairman of the Washington Nationals Dream Foundation, has long served as the head of the family's philanthropic foundation, which has distributed millions of dollars in the capital region. She is a former board member of Food and Friends, and is currently the Vice President of the Board for the Koby Mandell Foundation, is Chair of the Anti-Defamation League's Washington DC region, and a member of the National Board of Hebrew University in Jerusalem, where she attended school. Marla received her B.A. from Tulane University, and her JD from The George Washington University National Law Center.

EXECUTIVES

STAN KASTEN

PRESIDENT

Stan Kasten was officially introduced as Nationals President on May 3, 2006. His name and reputation are well known throughout the sporting landscape, seemingly no matter one's favorite athletic pastime.

In 1999, Kasten became the first person to hold the title of president of three different teams in three different major sports simultaneously. He accomplished this unique feat with MLB's Atlanta Braves, the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and the NHL's Atlanta Thrashers. At the same time, Kasten also served as TBS Vice President of Sports Teams and Chairman of Philips Arena.

Although his professional career is highlighted by the Braves 1995 World Championship, his Braves and Hawks made a combined 30 post-season appearances and claimed 15 division titles, including 12 straight during the Braves' unprecedented run 1991-2003.

Now, in Washington, Kasten has accepted the challenge of not only re-energizing baseball in the nation's capital, but to establish a crown-jewel franchise in the World's Most Powerful City.

Kasten will rely heavily on Three Pillars—scouting and player development, enhancing the fan experience, and community outreach—to accomplish the goal of establishing a franchise built on long-term success, both on and off the field. To do so, Kasten will draw heavily on experiences gained with the Braves, who were at a similar stage upon his arrival in 1987.

Kasten has been tasked with strengthening a scouting and player development system which had been lagging in recent years. Since June of 2006, ten scouts were hired to bolster the Nationals scouting department, and 46 new pitchers have been added to the Nationals system via trade, draft or free-agent signing.

Kasten's leadership is the common thread in the successes of the Atlanta Hawks in the 1980s, the Braves of the 1990s and the Thrashers of the new millennium.

During his tenure with Atlanta, Kasten's Braves included, among others John Smoltz, Chipper Jones, Andruw Jones, Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine, Terry Pendleton, Deion Sanders, David Justice, Brian Jordan, but it was Kasten's ability to convince then-General Manager Bobby Cox to return to the dugout in a managerial role that sparked the Braves' string of 14 straight division titles, five NL pennants and one World Championship. During baseball's renaissance in Atlanta, the Braves posted more wins than any team in baseball and drew in excess of three million fans on six occasions. Kasten also served baseball as Chairman of the Player Personal Development Committee, and on various committees dealing with labor, realignment and expansion.

In November of 1979, Kasten was named Hawks General Manager, and thus, became the youngest GM in NBA history at the age of 27. Kasten was named Hawks President in 1986, yet remained in the role of GM until 1990. He remains the only person in NBA history to be named by his peers as "Executive of the Year" in consecutive seasons (1986 and '87). Kasten has served on the NBA's marketing committee, the player pension committee and the expansion committee. He is also a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

During his career with the Hawks, the team made tremendous strides on the court and at the gate. Over the latter half of the 1980s, the team posted four consecutive 50-win seasons and subsequent playoff berths, and set numerous team records in attendance. In the '90s, the Hawks posted a trio of 50-win seasons en route to seven straight playoff appearances.

In November of 1999, during Atlanta's inaugural NHL season, Kasten was named President and Governor of the Thrashers. His goal was the same as it was with the Braves, to construct a team built for the long haul. The Thrashers have been one of the more successful expansion teams in NHL history. Kasten enjoyed positions on both the NHL's Board of Governors and Executive Committee.

Kasten's experience also extends to the constructions of state-of-the-art sports venues. That will serve him well in Washington, as the Nationals' new ballpark is slated to open in April of 2008. While in Atlanta, Kasten oversaw the construction of Turner Field as it was sculpted from Atlanta's Olympic Stadium. Kasten also quarterbacked the planning and construction of Philips Arena, the home of the Hawks and Thrashers, and site of the 2003 NBA All-Star and 2008 NHL All-Star games. Atlanta's newest sports venue opened in 1999 and continues to gain accolades for its uniqueness and top-notch fan amenities.

As the Nationals begin to spread their wings internationally, Kasten will lend expertise gained with TBS and the Hawks, the first team to widely draft international players. In the summer of 1988, Kasten's Hawks became the first NBA team to visit the USSR.

Kasten's introduction to pro sports management came as a result of a 1976 meeting at a Braves-Cardinals game with Braves owner Ted Turner, when Kasten was celebrating his law school graduation with a tour of major league ballparks. Soon after, he was appointed legal counsel for the Braves and Hawks, and one year later (1977-78) became the Hawks' Assistant General Manager.

Kasten was born February 1, 1952, in Lakewood, NJ. He attended New York University, where he graduated in 1973 with a degree in psychology, earned magna cum laude honors and was chosen Phi Beta Kappa. He received a Juris Doctor degree from Columbia Law School in 1976. He played in the Jersey Shore Summer Baseball League during his law school years.

Kasten is on the Board of Directors of the Sports Lawyers Association, which awarded him their coveted "Award of Excellence" in May 2000. Stan and his wife, Helen, live in Foggy Bottom and have four children.

BOB WOLFE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Bob Wolfe joined the Nationals as Executive Vice President on June 1, 2006. He returns to the baseball front office after serving with the Atlanta Braves and Atlanta Hawks for over 20 years, including over a decade spent as Braves Senior Vice President of Administration (1992-2003).

In Washington, Wolfe's first task was to transition a new administration into a front office hired during Major League Baseball's stewardship of the Nationals. His leadership and experience will be vital in shaping the Nationals' business operation as they prepare for the long-awaited move into the Nationals' new ballpark in 2008.

Wolfe's responsibilities include oversight of the club's various business areas, including finance, sales and marketing, communications, ticket operations, stadium operations, community relations, and food service operations.

After working in the Braves' accounting department from 1980-84, Wolfe accepted a post as Hawks business manager in 1985. He was named Vice President/Business Manager of the Hawks in 1988.

Wolfe has served on the board of directors for the Atlanta Hawks Foundation and the Atlanta Braves Foundation, as well as the Atlanta Sports Council and the Atlanta Convention & Visitors Bureau.

Wolfe and his wife, Kelly Koelker, have one daughter, Ellery

JIM BOWDEN

VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Jim Bowden was appointed interim Vice President and General Manager of the Washington Nationals on November 2, 2004. After the sale of the club, Nationals President Stan Kasten removed the interim title and named Bowden permanent Vice President and General Manager on June 30, 2006.

Bowden is in the midst of rebuilding the Nationals from the ground up, with continued emphasis on scouting, player development and the acquisition of young talent.

Bowden began by overseeing the selection of third baseman Ryan Zimmerman with the fourth overall selection in the 2005 First-Year Player Draft. Less than three months later, Zimmerman was in the big leagues, and in 2006, he finished second in NL Rookie of the Year balloting after posting 20 home runs and 110 RBI at the age of 21.

Bowden continued in 2006, as the Lerner Family was granted ownership control of the Nationals. He made a flurry of trades, netting young talent with each transaction. On July 13, Bowden accelerated the process by brokering an eight-player trade with Cincinnati that brought outfielder Austin Kearns, infielder Felipe Lopez and right-handed pitcher Ryan Wagner—all former first-rounders, none of which was older than 26—to the nation's capital. Kearns later committed to the franchise, and the city of Washington, by inking a three-year contract with a club option through 2010.

Under Bowden's leadership, the Nationals also made their initial foray into the international baseball market by signing 16 year-old shortstop Esmailyn Gonzalez of the Dominican Republic. Later in the summer, Bowden acquired premium righthanders Luis Atilano (former first-round selection) and Jhonny Nunez from Atlanta and Los Angeles (NL) in exchange for Daryle Ward and Marlon Anderson, respectfully. Then in late December, Bowden acquired right-handed pitcher Emiliano Fruto and outfielder Chris Snelling from Seattle in exchange for Jose Vidro and cash considerations in a deal that expunged $12 million from the Nationals' payroll the next two seasons.

With the goal to construct baseball's best scouting department, Bowden has focused long and hard on strengthening the Nationals' scouting system. In two-plus years in DC, Bowden has acquired 12 of the Nationals' top 15 prospects, as rated by Baseball America entering the 2007 season, including a pair of first-round selections in the 2006 draft from the Florida high-school ranks (outfielder Chris Marrero and right-handed pitcher Colton Willems). After the draft, Bowden further bolstered the scouting department by recruiting 11 of the best talent-evaluating scouts baseball had to offer to Washington.

Bowden (pronounced "BOE-den") made history on October 16, 1992, when, at age 31, he became the youngest General Manager of a Major League Baseball Franchise. Three years later, he became the youngest GM in baseball history to lead his club, the Cincinnati Reds, to the League Championship Series. Bowden continued to serve as General Manager of the Reds through July 28, 2003.

He enters the 2007 season just 17 wins shy of recording his 1000th win as a general manager.

Following the 1999 season, during which the Reds won more games (96) in a single season since 1976, Bowden was named "Executive of the Year" by Baseball America, as well as the Boston chapter of the BBWAA, Mike Mittleman of Stats, Inc., and the Touchdown Club of Columbus. Additionally, Bowden was named the National League's "Executive of the Year" by national baseball writer Jon Heyman of Newsday.

In 1984, Bowden began his baseball career with the Pittsburgh Pirates prior to moving on to the New York Yankees for one season (1989) as Assistant to the Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations. In December 1989, Bowden joined the Reds as an assistant in Player Development and Scouting. Subsequently, he was promoted to Director of Player Development before being named General Manager of the Reds in the fall of 1992. After being named General Manager, Bowden also temporarily assumed the duties of Team President and CEO during Managing Partner Marge Schott's absence from the club.

A native of Weston, MA, and Boothbay Harbor, ME, Bowden was born on May 18, 1961. A 1979 graduate of Weston High School, Bowden received a bachelor's degree in business administration/communications from Rollins College in Florida in 1983.

Engaged to actress Joy Browning, Bowden has five sons: J.B., March 10, 1987; Tyler, July 7, 1991; Chad, February 17, 1994; and, identical twins Trey and Chase, October 20, 1998.

MIKE RIZZO

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER & VICE PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Mike Rizzo was appointed Nationals Assistant General Manager and Vice President of Baseball Operations on July 24, 2006. Rizzo's hiring was the first significant addition made by the organization after the Lerner Family officially took control of the Nationals the same day. Rizzo's arrival in DC has continued the momentum gained in both international and domestic scouting circles the last year.

During the off-season, Rizzo and the Nationals began hosting exclusive workouts in Latin America, and the results were immediate, as Washington signed four top talents from the Dominican Republic (December '06) and four more from Venezuela (in January '07). Rizzo also had a hand in bolstering the Nationals' scouting core by recruiting/attracting 10 of baseball's top scout, all of which joined the organization on November 7. The 10 additions brought in by Rizzo added over 200 years of scouting experience to the Nationals' think tank.

Rizzo, 46, joined the Nationals after spending the previous seven seasons with the Arizona Diamondbacks, primarily as Director of Scouting. Following the 2005 campaign, when eight Diamondback players were honored with individual awards and/or designations to their leagues' All-Star teams, Rizzo was promoted, earning the title of Vice President of Scouting Operations after the Diamondbacks were named Topps' Organization of the Year.

In 2001, upon being named Arizona's Director of Scouting, the Diamondbacks' minor-league system ranked 29th in baseball according to Baseball America. Five highly successful drafts and a few hundred thousand miles traveled later, Arizona's system was ranked No. 1 in baseball by the same publication entering the 2006 season.

Brandon Webb (2006 Cy Young Award winner), Chad Tracy, Justin Upton and Stephen Drew are among the numerous players drafted by Arizona under Rizzo's watch. While with the White Sox, Rizzo inked future two-time American League MVP Frank Thomas.

Rizzo, who is entering his 25th season of pro ball, joined the Diamondbacks for their inaugural 1998 campaign after enjoying stints with the Boston Red Sox (area supervisor, international scout and major league advance scout) and Chicago White Sox (Midwest and Southeast territorial scout).

Raised in Chicago, IL, Rizzo spent four seasons as a minor league player in the Angels organization before retiring and beginning a coaching career at the University of Illinois, where he served as an assistant coach while earning a Bachelor of Arts in Communications. He currently resides in Scottsdale, AZ with his wife, Sheilah, and son, Michael Jr. (2/15/90).

BOB BOONE

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER & VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Bob Boone joined the Nationals upon being appointed by Jim Bowden as Special Assistant to the General Manager on December 11, 2004. He shifted into his current role as Assistant General Manager & Vice President, Player Development during the 2006 season.

From his first day with the Nationals, Boone has worked closely with Bowden and been involved in every aspect of the Nationals' baseball operation. He played an extremely vital role in the all big league evaluations, both internal and external, and helped "recruit" a new wave of player-development talent to join the Nationals' scouting and coaching ranks. Among those to join the Nationals after listening to Boone's pitch: Moose Stubing (Special Assistant to the GM), Mitchell Page (current Nationals hitting coach) and Triple-A Columbus manager John Stearns. Boone's presence helped the Nationals sign Player Development Contracts with Columbus of the Triple-A International League and Hagerstown of the Single-A South Atlantic League following the 2006 campaign, thus tightenting their player-development footprint.

Boone also spent considerable time and energy scouting amateur talent, specifically in preparation for the 2005 First-Year Player Draft, which netted University of Virginia 3B Ryan Zimmerman.

Boone joined Washington after spending the 2004 campaign with Philadelphia as a Special Assignment Scout, a position he accepted on December 3, 2003 after a 22-year hiatus from the Phillies organization.

One of the premiere catchers of his generation, Bob was named to four All-Star teams (1976, 78-79, 83) and won seven Rawlings Gold Gloves (1978-79, 82, 86-89), including two at ages 40 and 41, during his 19-year career. Only Ivan Rodriguez (11) and Johnny Bench (10) have won more Gold Gloves for catching.

Selected by the Phillies in the sixth round of the 1969 draft as a third baseman out of Stanford University—where he graduated with a degree in psychology—Boone spent the first ten years of his major league career with Philadelphia (1972-81), which won four division titles and one World Series Championship in 1980.

Following his tenure with the Phillies, Boone played for Anaheim (1982-88) and Kansas City (1989-90). Upon retirement, Boone held the major league records for games caught in a career (2225), a record which was later broken by Carlton Fisk, and most seasons catching at least 100 games (15).

In October of 1994, Boone was named manager of the Kansas City Royals, a position he held until July of 1997. Following tenure with Kansas City, Boone joined Cincinnati as a special assistant under (then) GM Jim Bowden before being named manager of the Reds in November of 2000. He held that position until July of 2003.

Bob was born on November 19, 1947 in San Diego, CA and resides in Villa Park, CA with his wife, Sue. Two of their sons played major league baseball and achieved All-Star status: Bret (three-time All-Star, retired) and Aaron (2003 NL All-Star, currently with Florida). His father, the late Ray Boone, was an All-Star infielder during his 13-year career in the big leagues (1948-60). Bob's brother, Rodney, played in the Kansas City and Houston farm systems from 1972-75. The Boones are one of only three 3-generation baseball families, along with the Bells (Gus, Buddy and David) and the Hairstons (Sam, Jerry Sr. and Jerry Jr.).

JOSE RIJO

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Jose Rijo was appointed by Jim Bowden as Special Assistant to the General Manager on January 5, 2005. Rijo, 41, broker's much of Washington's Latin American operations, specifically pertaining to scouting and player development in his native Dominican Republic. Rijo is chief administrator of the Nationals' Dominican Academy in San Cristobal. He will also serves as a special on-field instructor during Spring Training and completes various on-field projects deemed necessary by Bowden.

Rijo began his post-playing career as a scout/instructor with Cincinnati, as he was hired by (then Reds GM) Bowden in 2003 to scout his native Dominican Republic and administrate the Reds' academy in the Dominican Republic.

During his playing days, Rijo went 116-91 with a 3.24 ERA in 14 major league seasons with New York-AL (1984), Oakland (1985-87) and Cincinnati (1988-2002).

Rijo made his big league debut with the Yankees in 1984 as a hard-throwing phenom. He was just 19 and the youngest player in baseball. Two eye-catching trades later—deals that included Rickey Henderson and Dave Parker, among others—Rijo landed in Cincinnati, where he would win 97 games and help the Reds claim, in 1990, their first World Championship since 1976.

A 1994 National League All-Star, Rijo went 3-0 with a 2.28 ERA in four post-season starts for the 1990 World Champion Cincinnati Reds. In the World Series, Rijo went 2-0 with a 0.59 (1 ER/15.1 IP) in two starts and was named Most Valuable Player as Cincinnati stunned the baseball world by sweeping the heavily-favored Oakland Athletics.

In four seasons from 1990-93, Rijo won 58 games for the Reds and twice finished among the top five in National League Cy Young voting (fourth in 1991, fifth in 1993). He won a career-high 15 games in both 1991 and 1992. Thanks to a 15-6 record in 1991, Rijo led the National League in winning percentage. Two years later, in 1993, he paced the NL in strikeouts (227) and finished 2nd in the league's ERA (2.48) chase.

Rijo's playing career appeared to be over in 1995, at the age of 30, due to chronic elbow problems. However, thanks to six elbow surgeries, including three "Tommy John" procedures, and an unheard of amount of perseverance, Rijo returned to the mound six year later in 2001. He pitched two more seasons for Cincinnati before retiring at the completion of the 2002 campaign.

Rijo was elected into the Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame during on June 11, 2005 along with former teammate center fielder Eric Davis.

CHUCK LaMAR

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER & NATIONAL CROSSCHECKER

Chuck LaMar was named Nationals Special Assistant to the General Manager and National Crosschecker on November 7, 2006. LaMar works closely with Nationals Vice President and General Manager Jim Bowden, Nationals Assistant General Manager and Vice President of Baseball Operations Mike Rizzo, as well as Scouting Director Dana Brown, among others.

LaMar joined the Nationals after serving a 10-year tenure with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. During those 10 seasons in Tampa Bay, LaMar developed a nucleus of young talent that should serve the Devil Rays for years to come. Players such as AL All-Stat Carl Crawford, Rocco Baldelli, Delmon Young, B.J. Upton, Scott Kazmir, Reid Brignac and Jeff Niemann were all drafted and developed, or acquired during LaMar's stay with the Devil Rays.

By joining the Nationals, LaMar returns to the National League for the first time since working for five seasons (1991-95) as Atlanta's director of scouting and player development, and later, assistant general manager for player personnel.

LaMar started his big league career in 1985 as a scouting supervisor with the Reds, helping build an eventual world champions (1990) as he later did with the Braves (1995). In four years with the Reds, 10 players LaMar signed ended up on Cincinnati's 40-man roster, including six who eventually became big leaguers. He also directed Pittsburgh's minor-league operations from 1989-90, and the Pirates subsequently claimed three consecutive NL East flags (1990-92).

LaMar's reputation in scouting is well known, and he has been appointed to selection committees covering Team USA (during the 2000 Gold Medal Olympics), the MLB Futures All-Star Game and the Pan Am Games.

A long-time advocate of diversity in baseball, LaMar helped launch the game's first minority intern program while with the Braves. Later, in Tampa Bay, LaMar implemented a Career Initiative Program which exposed various minority groups to the player development, scouting and conditioning aspects of baseball.

LaMar is a graduate of TCU, where he was team captain in 1978, and later coached at both the high school and collegiate levels. He resides in Clearwater, FL with his wife, Cheryl. For years, LaMar and his wife have been active participants in various charitable organizations in and around Tampa. The couple has three children: Sarah, Emily and Charlie.

MOOSE STUBING

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Stubing was appointed Nationals Special Assistant to the General Manager on November 7, 2006 after spend the previous 40 years with the Los Angeles Angels as a player, coach, big league manager and scout. During his career as a scout, Stubing performed at a high level in nearly every conceivable capacity. His vast experience in talent evaluation helped build a foundation for the Angels' 2002 World Championship club. In 1996, Stubing was the inaugural recipient of the Nick Kamzic Award, which is given annually to the Angels scout who epitomizes the dedication, perseverance, and excellence demonstrated by the award's namesake (Kamzic was Gene Autry's first hire with the Angels and ultimately scouted 39 seasons with the organization).

A long-time manager at the minor-league level, in 1984, Stubing's Edmonton Trappers became the first team from Canada to win a Pacific Coast League title. In 1988, Stubing managed the Angels for the season's final eight games after skipper Cookie Rojas was fired.

Stubing, a first baseman by trade, began his playing career in 1956 played for the 1967 California Angels. He also spent time in the minor leagues with Pittsburgh, New York Giants, San Francisco, St. Louis and California.

Stubing is a retired college basketball referee who worked for 30 years primarily in the Western Athletic and Mountain West conferences. He resides in Villa Park, CA.

DANA BROWN

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Brown was promoted to Expos Director of Scouting on March 7, 2002 after working with the Pittsburgh organization for eight years as area scouting supervisor and East Coast scouting coordinator. Under Brown's watch, the Nationals franchise regained its touch in the first round of the draft by tabbing Chad Cordero (2003, 20th overall out of Cal-State Fullerton), Bill Bray (2004, 12 overall out of William & Mary) and Ryan Zimmerman (2005, 4th overall out of the University of Virginia) in recent years.

All three players paid nearly instant dividends for the franchise, as Cordero and Zimmerman made big league debuts less than three months after ending their college careers, and Bray was an essential cog in the Nationals' acquisition of Austin Kearns, Felipe Lopez and Ryan Wagner from Cincinnati as part of an eight-player mega trade in July of 2006. Cordero was a 2005 NL All-Star, while Zimmerman finished a close second in the 2006 NL Rookie of the Year balloting after posting 20 homers and 110 RBI at the age of 21.

In addition, half of the Nationals' top 10 prospects entering the 2007 season, per Baseball America, were products of the 2006 First-Year player draft (Marrero, Willems, right-handed pitcher Zech Zinicola, left-handed pitcher Glenn Gibson and shortstop Stephen King). Brown is also credited with signing top-hitting prospect first-baseman Larry Broadway in 2001.

A graduate of Seton Hall University, Brown played with Pirate teammates Craig Biggio, Mo Vaughn and John Valentin in 1987 prior to being drafted by Philadelphia in 1989 as an outfielder. He played three pro seasons in the Phillies' chain before enjoying a two-year stint as a minor-league coach. Brown began his scouting career in 1994. Dana and wife, Casandra Waters, have 2 children—Dana Jr. and Autumn—and live in Franklin Park, NJ.

BARRY LARKIN

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Larkin was named Nationals Special Assistant to the General Manager on February 13, 2005, thus ending a legendary 19-year playing career spent with one team, his hometown Cincinnati Reds. He accepted a front-office position under Jim Bowden to gain a broad-working knowledge of every facet of Washington's baseball operation, including but not limited to player development and scouting (pro and amateur).

Mission accomplished, as Larkin did just that and more in first two seasons with Washington. Listed among Larkin's highlights with the Nationals are on-field tutorials with various infielders/hitters and participation in consensus built prior to drafting of third baseman Ryan Zimmerman with fourth overall selection in First-Year Player Draft. Larkin also helped the Nationals evaluate their own, both in the big leagues and in the minors. He has since worked extensively with Zimmerman on his defense, with particular attention paid to the footwork associated with playing the hot corner at a Gold Glove level.

At the time of his appointment/retirement, Larkin's tenure with the Reds was baseball's longest streak among active players having played with just one club.

Born in Cincinnati and a 1982 graduate of Moeller High School, Larkin hit .295 (2340-for-7937) with 441 doubles, 76 triples, 198 home runs, 960 RBI and 379 stolen bases in 2,180 games spanning 19 seasons with Cincinnati. Larkin's 19-year tenure with the Reds matched Pete Rose and Dave Concepcion as the longest in the annals of baseball's oldest franchise.

A 12-time National League All-Star, Larkin served as Reds' captain from 1997-2004. He was named MVP of the Reds on four occasions, including 1990, when Cincinnati won the National League West wire-to-wire en route to a World Series sweep of the heavily-favored Oakland Athletics. Larkin batted .300 during the Reds' 1990 post-season run, including .353 in the Fall Classic. However, Larkin's extended offensive excellence is best represented by his nine Louisville Silver Slugger Awards.

In 1995, Larkin was named National League Most Valuable Player, becoming the Reds' first MVP since George Foster won the same award in 1977. He garnered the citation by hitting .319 with 29 doubles, 15 home runs, 66 RBI and 51 stolen bases while leading the Reds to a National League Central Division title.

Larkin followed up his '95 MVP season with an even better effort the following year. In 1996, Larkin hit 33 home runs and swiped 36 bases to become the first shortstop in major league history—and only the second non-outfielder—to post 30-or-more home runs and 30-or-more stolen bases in the same season.

Larkin left the Reds ranked among the franchise's top five in numerous categories, including games (third), hits (second), total bases (third with 3,527), doubles (second), runs (second with 1,329), extra-base hits (third with 715).

In the field, Larkin's rare combination of arm strength and range resulted in three Rawlings Gold Gloves (1994-96) and the admiration of a generation of shortstops.

Off the field, Larkin's 19-year tenure was filled with tireless efforts in the Cincinnati community. In 1993 Larkin received the Reds' Roberto Clemente Award for performances both on and off the field. He was also twice a finalist for Major League Baseball's Branch Rickey Award. For years, Barry hosted underprivileged children at Reds games as part of his "Barry's Bunch" program. Barry also founded Caring Team of Athletes, Inc., a national organization of professional athletes that raises money for various children's charities.

SQUIRE GALBREATH

DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

Galbreath, 46, enters his third season with the Nationals, his first full campaign as Director of Baseball Administration. Galbreath was appointed Special Advisor to the General Manager in late 2004 by Nationals General Manager Jim Bowden.

Galbreath's recent duties include, but are not limited to, brokering deals that establish the Nationals in international baseball circles, specifically in the Far East and Mexico. On February, Galbreath announced that the Nationals had signed their first working agreement with an international club, the Tabasco Olmecas of the Mexican Summer League. Per the working agreement, the Nationals will be granted access to Tabasco's vast scouting network and information, which is based primarily in, but not limited too, Mexico and Latin America. Galbreath also played a vital role as the Nationals courted, and ultimately signed a Player Development Contract with, the Columbus Clippers of the Triple-A International League.

The working agreements with Tabasco and Columbus are consistent with the task Galbreath inherited upon joining the Nationals' organization: To improve and enhance the Nationals' baseball operation by way of long-range forecasting and strategies. Galbreath also assists in special projects, sabermetrics and other forms of baseball analysis.

In addition to working for the Nationals, Squire is Managing Partner of Darby Dan Farm, a 3,000 acre farm in Columbus, OH. He was President of the Florida region for The Galbreath Company, a 75 year-old family owned international commercial real estate company, for five years.

Galbreath is a third generation member of the Galbreath family that owned the Pittsburgh Pirates for over 40 years and won the World Series in 1960, 1971 and 1979. In addition, he now owns and races thoroughbred horses, thus continuing the family tradition that has won two Kentucky Derbies, the English Derby and Breeder's Cup.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Galbreath received a bachelor's degree in business administration/communications from Rollins College in Florida in 1983 before earning his masters in business administration from Duke University in 1988. Galbreath and his wife, Alison, have four children: Caroline (March 10, 1997), John III (October 9, 1998), Charlotte (January 11, 2000) and William (April 16, 2001).

ROB McDONALD

DIRECTOR OF TEAM TRAVEL

McDonald begins sixth season with the Nationals organization as the Director of Team Travel. Following a trying 2003 season, which featured the Expos' first-ever 22-game game slate in Puerto Rico, McDonald was voted by peers as the recipient of the Don Davidson Memorial Award as MLB's traveling secretary of the year. Prior to joining the Expos, he served 3-year stint (1999-01) as Baseball Operations Assistant with Florida. In the fall of 1998, McDonald served as the Operations Manager for the Sun Cites Solar Sox of the Arizona Fall League. In 1998, during Arizona's inaugural NL season, he worked with the Diamondbacks' Major League Coaching Staff during spring training and the Marketing Department during the regular season. After attending Northern Illinois University on a football scholarship, McDonald later earned his Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from the University of Arizona. He is single and resides in Crystal City, VA.

ALPHONSO MALDON, JR.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, EXTERNAL AFFAIRS &
PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONALS DREAM FOUNDATION

Alphonso Maldon, Jr., a partner in the Lerner Group, is the Senior Vice President, External Affairs and President of the Washington Nationals Dream Foundation. A retired Army colonel, Maldon served as Assistant Secretary of Defense for Force Management and Policy before enjoying a five-year tenure (1993-98) at The White House as Deputy Assistant to the President of the United States for Legislative Affairs. He joined the Nationals after serving executive-level posts with PNC Bank, Bank of America and Fleet Boston Financial Services. Maldon lives with his family in the Washington, DC area.

MICHAEL SHAPIRO

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS AFFAIRS

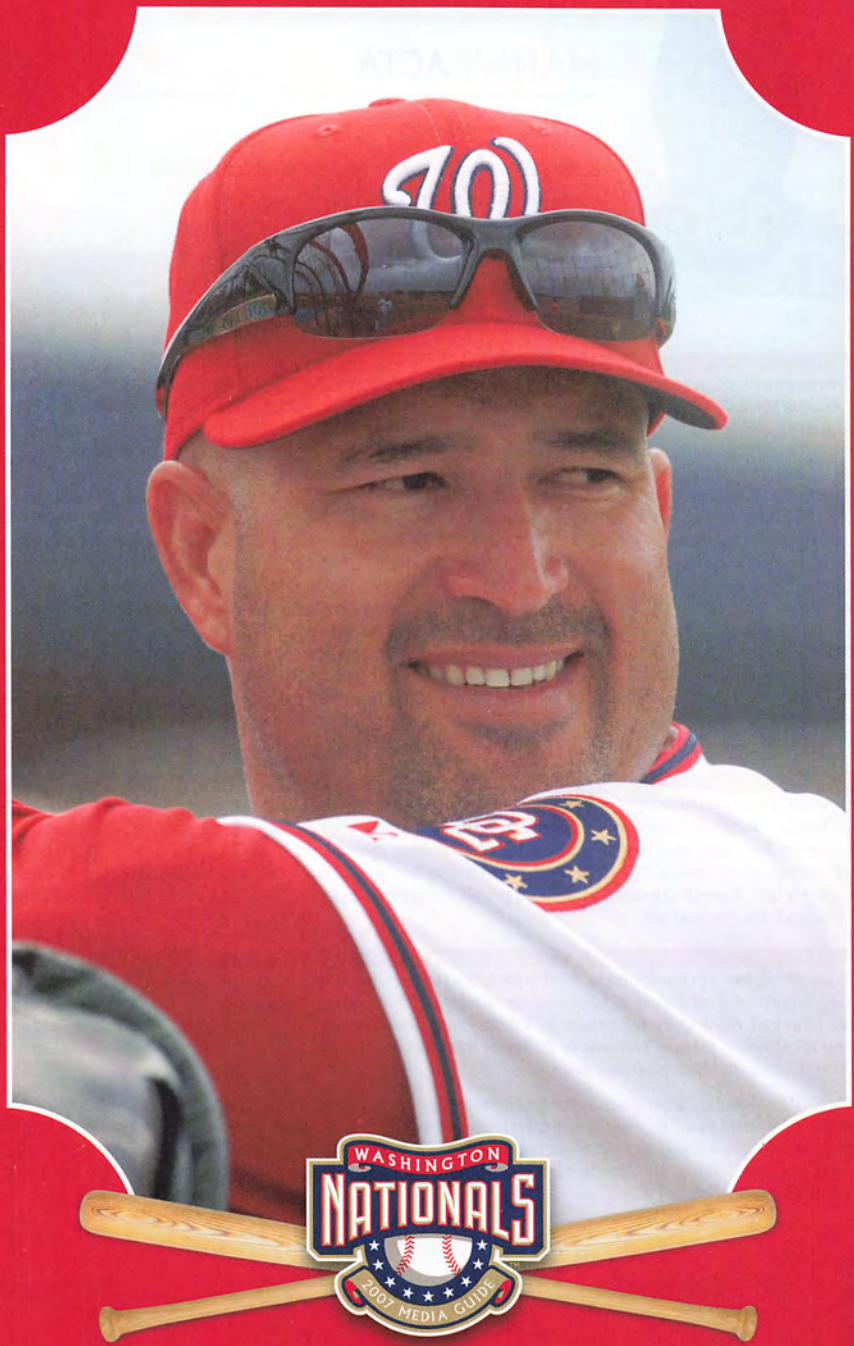

Michael Shapiro was appointed Nationals Senior Vice President, Business Affairs, June 1, 2006, after most recently serving as the Managing Principal of Centerfield Management Group, a consulting company whose clients included—among others—the Lerner Family in their pursuit of the Nationals and Frank McCourt in his successful acquisition of the Los Angeles Dodgers in January of 2004. Shapiro previously managed Tiger Woods' relationship with Nike, served as Vice President of Business Affairs for Turner Sports and Senior Counsel of the Turner sports franchises, including the Atlanta Braves and Hawks. Shapiro attended Georgetown University and was Vice President/General Counsel of the San Francisco Giants from 1985-93.

TOM WARD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT
& CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER

Tom Ward returned to his native Washington, DC in 2006 as Nationals Senior Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer. Ward joins the Nationals after helping birth and develop three franchises; the NBA's Charlotte Bobcats in 2003 (Executive Vice President of Business Operations and Chief Marketing Officer), the NHL's Nashville Predators in 1997 (Executive Vice President of Business Operations) and the NBA's Charlotte Hornets in 1988 (Vice President of Marketing). Raised in Rockville, MD, Ward is a graduate of James Madison and began his sports career in 1979 with the Washington Bullets, eventually serving as their Director of Marketing.

MANNY ACTA

MANAGER
BORN: 1/11/69, San Pedro De Macoris, Dominican Republic
POSITION AS A PLAYER: INF

ACTA RESUME

After a thorough search, was hired as Nationals manager on November 14, 2006, at a press conference at Washington Square in downtown DC...became the 2nd manager in the history of the Washington Nationals, the 12th in the history of the franchise...replaced Hall-of-Famer Frank Robinson, who managed the Nationals/Expos for 5 seasons (2002-06)...was 37 years-old at the time of the appointment and immediately became the youngest active manager in baseball...is the 2nd-youngest manager in club annals (Tom Runnels was 36 upon getting the job in 1991)...a native of the Dominican Republic's highest profile baseball city, San Pedro de Macoris...becomes just the 4th native of the Dominican Republic to manage in the big leagues, joining Felipe Alou (1992-2001, 2003-06 with MON and SFG), Tony Pena (2002-05 with KCR) and Luis Pujols (2002 with DET)...with retirement of Alou, becomes baseball's lone active manager from the Dominican Republic...sports dual citizenship (Dominican Republic and United States)...became a United States citizen in 1999...was the 4th of 5 first-time managers hired prior to the 2007 campaign, joining Freddy Gonzalez (FLA), Bud Black (SDP), Ron Washington (TEX) and Bob Geren (OAK)...prepped for current post while coaching third base in the highly competitive NL East for 5 straight seasons (2002-06)...thus, is a veteran of over 375 intradivision contests...managerial resume is bolstered by 2 Manager of the Year citations (Single-A Florida State League in 1999, Dominican Winter League in 2003-04)...is familiar with the Nationals organization, having spent 3 seasons (2002-04) as Expos' 3B coach...no fewer than 10 current Nationals coaches or players worked with Acta during his tenure on the Expos' coaching staff: Randy St. Claire, John Patterson, Chad Cordero, Jon Rauch, Luis Ayala, Shawn Hill, Nick Johnson, Jose Vidro, Brian Schneider and Ryan Church.

WORLD BASEBALL CLASSIC

Is perhaps best known for managing the Dominican Republic's entry in the inaugural World Baseball Classic (February/March of 2006)...Dominican Republic reached the WBC's Final Four before falling to Cuba, 3-1, in the semis on March 18 and being eliminated...was widely praised for his handling of the Dominican Republic's star-studded roster that included, among others, Albert Pujols, David Ortiz, Alfonso Soriano, Ronnie Belliard, Miguel Tejada, Francisco Liriano and Bartolo Colon...despite numerous potential pitfalls pertaining to playing time, squad played with heart, spirit and vigor throughout the tournament.

BIG LEAGUE COACHING EXPERIENCE

Has coached third base in the NL East, for the Mets and Expos, for 5 consecutive seasons (2002-06)...teams posted a winning record in 4 of those 5 seasons, going 183-193 (.487) in NL East play...coordinated NYM's infield defense...inherited NYM club that made 97 infield errors in 2004...in first season (2005) piloting infield drills and alignment, NYM infield made 77 errors, or 20 fewer than the season prior...that infield error total dipped to 57 during NYM's '06 NL East championship campaign.

2006 SEASON: Reached post-season for first time in 2nd season with NYM...helped club post 97 wins, which not only tied NYY for most in MLB, were 9 more than any other NL club posted...waved in 834 runs, which represented the 2nd-highest single-season total in Mets history...flashed signals to Jose Reyes, who swiped an MLB-leading 64 stolen bases...tutored infield that made just 57 errors...lived in same apartment building that was the site of Cory Lidle's plane crash on October 12.

FIRST-TIME MANAGER	TEAM	DATE HIRED	PREVIOUS JOB
Fredi Gonzalez	FLA	October 3	ATL 3B coach
Ron Washington	TEX	November 8	OAK 3B coach
Bob Geren	OAK	November 17	OAK bench coach

2005 SEASON: In first season with NYM, club posted 12 more wins than the season prior...worked closely with Jose Reyes and David Wright, both of whom were in first complete big league campaigns.

2004 SEASON: Astutely directed traffic as 3B coach for the Expos in their 36th and final season in Montreal...for 3rd straight season, served as a Spanish-English translator for the Expos' front office, coaching staff and media in the club's heavily-Latin clubhouse.

2003 SEASON: The Expos infield defense improved dramatically in '03, making 28 fewer errors than in 2002...worked closely with Orlando Cabrera, who regained his Gold Glove form by making 11 fewer errors and improved fielding percentage by .013 compared to an injury-plagued 2002 season...the Expos won 83 games and were tied for Wild Card lead as late as August 28.

2002 SEASON: Played a large role as the Expos made a remarkable run by finishing 2nd in the NL East with an 83-79 mark...Montreal remained in post-season contention for much of summer...aided Expos front-office, management and media by serving as an interpreter in a clubhouse with a distinct Latin influence.

MANAGERIAL EXPERIENCE

Domestically, was a member of Houston's player-development staff for a decade (1992-2001), including 8 seasons as a minor-league manager (1993-2000)...4 times in those 8 seasons as manager, club posted a winning record, including a pair of first-place finishes and post-season berths...Billy Wagner, Roy Oswalt, Brad Lidge, Julio Lugo and Morgan Ensberg are among the numerous current big leaguers to have played for Acta during his decade as a minor-league manager/coach with the Astros...managed Tim Redding (12-5, 2.68), who recently signed with the Nationals as a free agent, in Kissimmee in 2000.

RICARDO APONTE

BULLPEN COACH
BORN: 4/3/56, El Seibo, Dominican Republic
POSITION AS A PLAYER: RHP

APONTE RESUME

Was appointed the Nationals' bullpen coach by Manny Acta on November 21, 2006...joins the Nationals after serving the previous 32 seasons within HOU's minor-league system as either a player, coach or scout...enjoyed a 6-year playing career (right-handed pitcher)...while there, came across and mentored a young Manny Acta, as a player (amateur and professional) and minor-league manager...scouted and set the stage for Acta to sign first professional contract with HOU, along with Julio Linares...will be coaching at the big league level for the first time...is a long-time winter-ball pitching coach...enjoyed stints with Azucareros and Escogido, and an assistant-manager position with Estrellas...during the 2004-05 winter-league season, became Acta's pitching coach late, and helped the Dominican Republic capture the Caribbean World Series...will work hand-in-hand with Nationals pitching coach Randy St. Claire both before, during and after games...is slated to keep Nationals' bullpen ready for action at a moments notice.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT EXPERIENCE

Has spent the last 14 seasons either managing or performing pitching coach duties for the Astros' Dominican Summer League entry located in San Pedro de Macoris...after 6 seasons as a player, began coaching career and spent more than 10 seasons domestically as a pitching coach in HOU's minor-league system at various levels, including stints in Auburn (1987), Kissimmee (1988-89) and Burlington (1992)...managed HOU's Rookie-level Dominican Summer League entry for 7 seasons, from 1993-1999, before shifting into pitching coach role from 2000-06...in all, was an instructor or scout for the Astros for more than a quarter century...while there, developed relationships and worked closely with Daryle Kile, Jeff Juden, Tim Redding, Brad Lidge, Roy Oswalt, Tony Eusebio, Wandy Rodriguez, Rodrigo Rosario and Santiago Ramirez.

PLAYING CAREER

Pitched in HOU's chain for 6 seasons, beginning in 1975...was a right-handed pitcher, and pitched in nearly every conceiveable role (starter, middle relief, long relief, closer) during professional career...reached Triple-A level with the Charleston Charlies of the International League and Tucson Toros of the Pacific Coast League...was a closer at the Double-A level...upon completion of playing career in 1980, jumped into the coaching ranks almost immediately.

PERSONAL

Ricardo Aponte...lives in The Bronx, NY, with wife of 27 years, Juana...has 5 children: Kenny, Lindsey, Ricardo Jr., Phedias and Odrie Ricardo...Ricardo Jr. plays baseball at Bronx Community College.

1 TO 1000

The Nationals are slated to play the 1000th regular-season game at RFK Stadium on, barring rainouts of any kind, Monday, June 18, 2007 vs. DET.

- Coincidentally, the Tigers took part in the first game in the history of RFK Stadium on April 9, 1962...in that game, the Senators topped the Tigers, 4-1, as Bernie Daniels tossed a 5-hit complete game, allowing one run...Bob Johnson hit the game's only homer, a 2-run shot in the 4th inning off Tigers starter Don Mossi...Johnson finished 3-for-4 with 2 RBI...44,383 fans witnessed the initial contest.
- 2 future Hall-of-Famers played in the game, both for Detroit: RF Al Kaline and RHP Jim Bunning (who entered the game as a pinch runner).

PAT CORRALES

BENCH COACH
BORN: 3/20/41, Los Angeles, California

CORRALES RESUME

Was named Nationals' bench coach by Manny Acta on November 21, 2006...initial season with Washington will be 49th in baseball, 31st as either a big league manager or coach (3946 games as manager or coach)...is reunited with Nationals President Stan Kasten...comes to Washington after serving the previous 17 seasons on Bobby Cox's staff in ATL, the last 8 as bench coach...while there, ATL won staggering 14 consecutive NL East titles and a World Championship in 1995..besides obvious experience in the NL East—only Cox has managed and/or coached in the NL East longer—will lend expertise and knowledge gained during 9 seasons as a big league manager...posted a 572-634 (.474) record while skippering TEX (1978-80), PHI (1982-83) and CLE (1983-87)...coached in 7 All-Star Games...was teammates with Nationals 1B coach, Jerry Morales, with SDP in 1972 and '73.

BIG LEAGUE MANAGING EXPERIENCE

Has managed nearly 1500 games professionally, including more than 1200 at the big league level...went 572-634 (.474) in 9 seasons managing TEX, PHI and CLE...managed both PHI and CLE in 1983, thus becoming just the 4th manager in MLB history to manage in both the AL and NL in the same season.

With TEX: Was named Rangers manager on October 1, 1978...replaced Billy Hunter...despite never having a player hit as many as 20 home runs, went 160-164 in 2-plus seasons with TEX...won first game, 9-4, on October 1, 1978 at Kingdome...in that initial win, (then) future Hall-of-Famer Ferguson Jenkins nabbed his 18th win in TEX's final game of the '78 season...1979 club went 83-79 and finished 3rd in the NL West, 5.0 games behind division-winner CAL...'80 club was 69-68 and in 2nd place in the AL West as late as September 8, but went 7-17 to close the season.

With PHI: Appointed PHI manager prior to the 1982 season...went 132-115 (.534) in one-season plus at the Phillies' helm...'82 version won 89 games and contended in the NL East, finishing 3.0 games behind eventual World Champion STL...PHI was in first place as late as Sept. 13, but STL won 11 of its next 13, including 8 straight (Sept. 14-20) to take a stranglehold of the division...guided the '83 Phillies to a 43-42 mark, but was replaced by Paul Owens on July 18...the Phillies went on to claim the NL flag that season before losing to BAL in the World Series, 4-1.

With CLE: Hired as CLE skipper on July 31, 1983, replacing Mike Ferraro...went 280-355-2 (.440) in 4-plus seasons as CLE's manager...tenure was highlighted by 84-78 (.519) effort in 1986 that rendered Tribe's largest win total since the '68 Indians posted 86 victories...the '86 club finished 5th behind BOS, but the 11.5-game deficit was the franchise's smallest since 1959...that same club was also just the 10th in history to finish above .500 after losing 100 games the season prior...finished 4th in AL Manager of the Year balloting in '86.

BIG LEAGUE COACHING EXPERIENCE

Was named to Cox's coaching staff on June 25, 1990, just 2 days after Cox was named ATL manager...joined the Braves as an advance and special assignment scout in Sept. 1989...first 9 seasons on Cox's staff were spent as first-base coach, the last 8 as bench coach...ATL went 1549-1070 (.591) during those 17 seasons...the 1549 wins were the most in MLB during that span...in the same 17-season span, the NYY posted the 2nd-best winning percentage in MLB, yet finished 42.5 games behind the Braves...major contributor as ATL won an astounding 14 consecutive division titles (1991-2005) and one World Series (1995)...helped ATL post 66 post-season wins...while with ATL, worked with Tom Glavine, John Smoltz, Greg Maddux, Andrew Jones, Chipper Jones, Fred McGriff, Javy Lopez, Fred McGriff, Kenny Lofton, Deion Sanders, among others...also coached with TEX ('76-78) and NYY (1989)...has coached in 7 All-Star Games.

PLAYING CAREER

A catcher in his playing days, Corrales played in 300 games over 9 seasons with PHI, STL, CIN and SDP...reached post-season once...playing for CIN, pinch hit in Game 5 (Oct. 15) of 1970 World Series at BAL's Memorial Stadium...in 1972, was dealt with Jimy Williams to CIN in exchange for C Johnny Edwards (Corrales and Williams eventually combined on 2273 managerial wins)...during playing career, caught or played along side Jim Bunning, Ferguson Jenkins, Bob Gibson, Lou Brock, Johnny Bench, Tony Perez, Pete Rose, Joe Morgan and Dave Winfield, among others.

PERSONAL

Patrick Corrales...lives in Big Canoe, GA, with wife (Donna) and son (Pat)...has 4 other children: Rene, Michele, Patricia and Jason...has participated in various international clinics on behalf of MLB International and Nike...in 2004, coached in MLB's annual tour/series in Japan.

RANDY ST. CLAIRE

PITCHING COACH
BORN: 8/23/60, Glenn Falls, New York
POSITION AS A PLAYER: RHP

ST. CLAIRE RESUME

Returns for 5th season as Nationals pitching coach...was named Expos pitching coach on December 4, 2002... replaced Dick Pole...since arrival, has nurtured the talents of Luis Ayala, John Patterson, Jon Rauch and Chad Cordero...the entire back end of the Nationals' 2005 bullpen was tabbed to participate in the inaugural World Baseball Classic (Cordero and Majewski with Team USA, Ayala with Mexico).

COACHING CAREER

Despite struggles of pitching staff, cemented status as one of MLB's top pitching practitioners in 2006...worked with a franchise single-season record 29 pitchers (12 starters)...staff ace John Patterson made only 8 starts due to injury...saddled with MLB's worst defense...connected with Jon Rauch (18 holds, .231 batting average against).

In 2005, staked claim to be rated among MLB's best pitching coaches battled attrition, as 25 pitchers toed the rubber for Washington (15 starters)...staff helped the club go 81-81, thus winning 14 more games than the season prior...Washington's 2.95 bullpen ERA after the All-Star break paced the NL among 'pens...for 3rd straight year, Livan Hernandez led the NL in innings (246.1)...John Patterson posted long-awaited break-out season (9-7, 3.13 ERA, 31 starts).

In 2004, staff performed at high level despite significant injuries to 4 of 5 starting pitchers (Tony Armas Jr., Zach Day, Tomo Ohka and John Patterson)...despite tough luck and the employment of 22 pitchers (12 starters), Expos posted a 4.33 team ERA...broke in 4 rookie pitchers (Chad Bentz, Shawn Hill, Joe Horgan and Gary Majewski)...Hernandez led MLB in innings (255.0) and tied for the lead in starts (35)...Chad Cordero's 14 saves established a new franchise rookie record...in 2003 debut as pitching coach, staff performed at a high level despite employing 25 different pitchers...lost 4 projected starting pitchers to injury for extended periods, including Orlando Hernandez (did not pitch in 2003) and Tony Armas Jr. (made only 5 starts)...St. Claire's starting staff ranked 4th in MLB—3rd in the NL—with a 3.82 ERA...his starters also led the NL with 15 complete games (only OAK, with 16, recorded more in MLB)...helped Livan Hernandez, who accounted for 8 of Montreal's aforementioned 15 complete games, regain top form...Hernandez led the Expos in wins, innings, complete games, and ERA among pitchers making 20 or more starts...in the bullpen, nurtured the development of Rocky Biddle (team-high 34 saves)...staff also walked the fewest batters (463) in the NL.

St. Claire made his big league pitching coach debut in 2003 after 7 seasons in the minor leagues, including 5 years in the Expos' chain...advanced as far as Triple-A Ottawa in 2002...signed on to be TOR's Triple-A pitching coach for 2003 before getting the call from the Expos to join their big league staff...began coaching career with the Brewers' Single-A Stockton entry from 1996-97...joined the Expos organization in 1998 as Single-A Cape Fear's pitching coach...became the 10th former Expo to return to the organization as a coach...the first 9: Brad Mills, Bob Natal, Claude Raymond, Pete Mackanin, Joe Kerrigan, Jerry Manuel, Felipe Alou, Ken Macha and Bob Gebhard.

Spent the entire season with Triple-A Oklahoma...appeared in 52 games (51 starts) at catcher,10 games at third base and 10 as the DH...following the season, played with Estrellas of the Dominican Winter League.

2002

Began '02 with Omaha of the PCL, played in 25 contests and was released, May 15...signed with TEX a day later and played for both Tulsa of the Double-A Texas League and Oklahoma of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League.

2001

Spent the entire year with Triple-A Edmonton in the MIN organization...played in 88 games, making 81 starts, at catcher...hit .301 (29-for-93) against lefthanders...went 4-for-5 with 4 doubles and 3 RBI, July 6 at Portland.

2000

Made major league debut with MIN on August 2 at BAL...started at catcher and went 0-for-2 with 3 walks...hit first big league hit homer off Tanyon Sturtze on August 10 at TBR...gunned down 4 of 8 would-be basestealers (50%) in 15 games (10 starts) with MIN...opened the season with OAK's Triple-A Sacramento club before being traded to MIN on July 31.

1999

In first Triple-A exposure, helped Vancouver win the Triple-A World Series...matched a professional-high of 109 games played for the Canadians...threw out 47% (30 of 64) of would-be basestealers.

1998

Set career highs with 16 homers, 62 RBI, 21 doubles and 67 runs playing for Huntsville of the Double-A Southern League.

1997

Played for Huntsville and Visalia of the California League...combined to hit .232 with 7 homers and 42 RBI.

1996

1995

Led all short-season Single-A Northwest League catchers in games, total chances, putouts and assists.

PERSONAL

Daniel Wayne Ardoin (are-DWAH)...has 4 children (Andrew, Silas Daniel, Erin and Samuel) with wife, Hope...played collegiately at McNeese State (LA) University...graduated from Sacred Heart (LA) High in Ville Platte...played baseball, football, golf and track...was the Class AA MVP in baseball as a senior.

BOTH BELTWAYS

The list may not be as long as one you'd see in Chicago, but entering the 2006 season, one manager, 3 coaches and 6 players have suited up for both the Washington Nationals and BAL (in the same role):

MANAGER	COACHES	PLAYERS
Frank Robinson	Don Buford	RHP Hector Carrasco
	Davey Lopes	INF Bernie Castro
	Tom McCraw	INF Deivi Cruz
		OF Jeffrey Hammonds
		OF Luis Matos
		C Keith Osik

ADDITIONAL NOTES: Hector Carrasco was the first player to don the jerseys of both the Orioles and Nationals... Dave Huppert played for BAL and coached for the Nationals...meanwhile, Robinson played for and managed BAL before later managing Washington.

CAREER

The most successful Rule 5 selection in franchise history...posted 62 holds during 3-year span, 2003-05, most among NL right-handed relievers...in fact, only 3 pitchers in MLB posted more than 62 holds since the beginning of '03: Tom Gordon (76), Scott Eyre (75) and Ray King (65)...has seen hold total rise each season (22 in '05, 21 in '04, 19 as a rookie in '03), excluding injury-plagued 2006...in 214 career appearances, has walked the first batter faced only 6 times...owner of remarkable control, has issued only 1.6 walks per 9.0 innings during career...worked a remarkable 26.2 consecutive scoreless innings from June 18-August 4, 2004...among relief pitchers, Ayala's single-season scoreless innings streak was, at the time, the longest in MLB since NYY's Mariano Rivera capped the '99 season with a streak of 30.1 innings...it was also the first such streak turned in by a Montreal reliever since Mike Marshall threw 29.1 scoreless innings in '72...other scoreless streak tidbits: Luis' streak was the longest by an Expo since Javier Vazquez tossed a MLB season-high 29.0 consecutive scoreless innings, Aug. 18-Sept. 2, 2003...in '03, Ayala pitched a pseudo perfect game: from May 7-June 1, 2003, retired 27 straight batters, the longest such streak in MLB since '01...participated in the '05 World Baseball Classic for Mexico...skipped 2006-07, but is a winter-ball veteran, suiting up for hometown club, the Culiacan Tomato Growers.

Did not pitch for the Nationals in 2006 after having successful season-ending right-elbow UCL reconstructive surgery performed in Los Angeles, CA, by Dr. Lewis Yocum and Nationals team orthopedist Dr. Ben Shaffer, March 30...began rehabbing a week later...spent majority of summer rehabbing...visited the club during Washington's lone visit to Phoenix, Septemer 11-13...did participate in the World Baseball Classic...pitched in 3 games for Mexico despite multiple appeals levied by the Nationals front office...entered training camp with elbow soreness, but Nationals had belief that rest and elbow strengthening exercises would render eventual health...nevertheless, recorded final out of Mexico's 9-1 victory on March 9 at Chase Field in Phoenix, AZ...pitching on March 15 at Anaheim Stadium, allowed one run on 2 hits and a walk in a 2-1 loss to Korea...then on March 16, in a meaningless game for a Mexican team that was mathematically eliminated from advancing to the 2nd round, faced only one batter, Alex Rodriguez, in the 9th inning...walked Rodriguez and left the game...did not pitch again before aformentioned surgery.

Again one of the NL's top middle relievers...battled right elbow troubles the season's final 5 weeks...made just a pair of appearances and faced just 2 batters after Aug. 21...with one pitch, retired only batter faced on Sept. 22 vs. SFG, but didn't pitch thereafter...one of the NL's most durable relievers, led MLB in relief appearances for much of season, or until the aformentioned bone spur became an issue...had successful surgery to remove a bone spur performed by Dr. Lewis Yokum on Oct. 28 in Los Angeles...expected to be ready for Spring Training...set career high in holds with 22...increased holds total for 3rd consecutive seasons (20 in '03, 21 in '04, 22 in '05)...posted sub-2.00 ERA for 3rd straight season, although both batting average and slugging percentage against rose for 3rd time in as many years...stranded 70 percent of inherited baserunners (11 of 37 scored)...scoreless 8th rendered first hold in the history of the Nationals, April 6 at PHI...notched 6 holds in 15-game span, June 2-18...registered team-high 4 wins and 9 holds during Washington's 20-6 month of June...established new career high with 22nd hold in a 4-2 win at COL on August 12...ranked among NL leaders in relief wins (tied for first with 8) and holds (tied for 6th with 22)...excelled against NL East-foes ATL (2-1, 3 holds, 2.84 ERA), PHI (1-0, 2 holds, 1.17 ERA) and FLA (2-0, one hold, 1.80 ERA)...pitched on consecutive days 25 times...retired 42 of 67 first batters faced (63%)...one of 4 Mexicans to play for the '05 Nationals (Vinny Castilla, Esteban Loaiza and Antonio Osuna)...strikeouts per 9 innings was lowest of career...suffered 2 blown saves: July 4 vs. NYM and July 15 at MIL...when making an appearance, Washington went 37-71 (.544).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Worked 1-2-3 9th to earn the save on May 16 vs. MIL...the save was first since Aug. 25, 2004 vs. LAD...snapped bullpen's string of 11 consecutive losing decisions in 7:05 game on August 18 at PHI.

Followed up stellar rookie season with improved sophomore campaign...was again one of NL top middle relievers, but battled periods of inconsistency...led Montreal relievers and ranked 8th in the NL by appearing in 81 games...set career bests in games, innings (90.1), home runs allowed (6), strikeouts (63), strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.2/1), ERA (2.69), holds (21), games finished (21) and pitches per inning (14.6)...12 losses not only led all MLB relievers, they established a new Expos record for relievers...loss on September 22 vs. NYM was club single-season record 12th loss in relief this season... Mike Marshall lost 11 games for the 1973 Expos...pitched in every series of the season except 2 (June 11-13 at SEA and August 27-29 vs. SD)...worked 2.0 or more innings 16 times, including a career-long 2.1 scoreless innings on May 11 at MIL...when pitching at least 2.0 innings, ERA was 1.11 (4 ER/32.1 IP)...issued only 1.49 walks per 9 innings pitched...6 of 21 holds came in June...worked scoreless 8th inning on October 1 at NYM to nab career-high 20th hold (posted 19 holds in 2003)...padded career-best total with 21st hold in final 2004 appearance, October 2 at NYM...at the plate, collected his first big league hit at Hiram Bithorn Stadium on April 9 vs. NYM off David Weathers (single)...went 3-5 with one save (July 25 vs. FLA) and a 2.25 ERA (10 ER/25.0 IP) against NL East foes...posted more holds against NYM (5) than any other club...Montreal went 41-40 when Ayala pitched...was 2-3 with 2 saves and a 2.18 ERA at Olympic Stadium...threw fewer pitches per inning (14.6) than in 2003 (16.0)...pitched better after the All-Star break (2.47 ERA) than in the first "half" (2.89 ERA)...ERA from May-August was 1.93...pitched well when working on consecutive days (2.67 ERA)...posted 5 HBPs (all right-handed hitters)...retired 56 of 81 first batters faced (69%)...pitched in 20 ballparks.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Recorded 100th career strikeout on August 25 vs. LAD (Jason Grabowski)...fanned a career-high 5 on June 29 at PHI...pitched in 100th career game, June 27 at TOR.

Made big league debut after 5 years with Saltillo of the Mexican League, going 10-3 with a 2.92 ERA in 65 games out of the 'pen...became one of the Expos most dependable and important players...led the Expos in relief wins (10) and holds (19)...converted 5 of 8 save opportunities...allowed only 5 of 30 inherited baserunners to score (16.7%)...65 appearances ranked 4th among NL rookies...10 relief wins tied for 2nd in MLB...only SF's Joe Nathan recorded more (12)...tied for 4th among National League rookies with 10 wins...the 10 relief wins in a single season rank 2nd all-time among Montreal rookie relievers...only Bill Sampen (11 in 1990) tallied more in his rookie campaign among Expos...tied for 8th in the NL with 19 holds...tied for 5th in MLB (3rd in the NL) having allowed only 16.7 percent (5 of 30) inherited baserunners to score...Montreal went 43-22 (.662) when Ayala pitched (36-14 beginning May 7) ...not surprisingly, the Expos went 9-15 during Luis's 24-game stint on the DL, June 22-July 20...issued only 1.6 walks per 9.0 innings pitched to rank 4th among all National League relievers (did not walk a batter from April 12-June 14, the walkless string lasted 24.0 innings)...only Joe Roa (1.0), John Smoltz (1.1) and Brian Meadows (1.4) walked fewer out of the 'pen...came into his own in May, going 4-0 with 5 holds and a 0.84 ERA (1 ER/10.2 IP) in 10 games (0 BB, 6 K)..went 2-0 with 2 holds and 2 saves in 13.0 scoreless innings against NYM and PHI...recorded first career big league win, April 19 vs. CIN in PR...first career save also came in Puerto Rico, June 7 vs. TEX...nabbed first hold of career, April 2 at ATL...closed strong, posting a 2.12 ERA (7 ER/29.2 IP) in August and September...averaged 16.0 pitches per inning.

2002

Arrived in Triple-A Ottawa in August after contract was purchased from Saltillo of the Mexican League...appeared in 6 games with the Lynx, posting a 3.25 ERA...opened the season with the Sarape Makers and finished 6th in the Mexican League with 23 saves and tied for 3rd with 43 games finished.

2001

Opened the season with Salem in the Carolina League...posted saves in 6 of last 7 appearances before having his contract purchased by Saltillo...ranked 5th in the Mexican League with 21 saves...was 0-2 with 11 saves and a 0.76 ERA in first 18 games with Saltillo...posted 10 saves in final 13 appearances.

2000

Loaned by Colorado to Saltillo...his 25 saves tied for 3rd in the circuit...closed out the season with 16 saves and a 1.88 ERA in 24 outings during July and August...recorded saves in 10 consecutive appearances to close the season.

1999

Established a new Mexican Summer League record for saves with 41...snapped the old mark of 39, which was set by Miguel Alicea for Union Laguna in 1994.

1998

Returned for 2nd season with Saltillo...appeared in 47 games, including 4 starts...touched for only 4 home runs in 83.1 innings...after going without a save in rookie season, notched 7 in sophomore campaign.

1997

PERSONAL

Luis Ignacio Ayala...wife is Liliana Mendez...the couple have a 3-year-old son, Luis, Jr...became the 3rd Mexican-born player to don the Expos' uniform...the first 2: RHP Tavo Alvarez (1995-96, from Ciudad Obregon) and INF Hector Torres (1972, from Monterrey).

CAREER

Returns for 2nd straight Spring Camp with the Nationals...enters 12th professional season...son of former big league pitcher Mike Bacsik, who went 8-6 with a 4.43 ERA in 5 major league seasons with TEX (1975-77) and MIN (1978-79)...with 3-start stint with TEX in 2004, Mike and father became the first father-son combo to play for the Rangers.

2006

Went a perfect 11-0 with a 2.79 ERA in 28 games (10 starts) for Tucson of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League...the 11 wins ranked 2nd on club (Dustin Nippert, 13)...spent 2006 Spring Training with the Nationals, but did not pitch in the Nationals' system...went 7-0 with a 2.85 ERA in 10 starts...posted quality start in 6 of final 8 starting assignments...fanned 5.1 per 9.0 innings as a starter, 7.7 per 9.0 innings when pitching out of the bullpen...batting average against in 18 relief appearances was .168...won at least one game in each month of season (April-August).

2005

In lone season in PHI's organization, went 7-10 in 30 games (27 starts) for Scranton/W-B of the Triple-A International League...posted a .232 batting average against opposing left-handed batters, but those swinging from the right side hit .309...was touched for 6 first-inning home runs...struck out a season-high 8, but took the loss on June 18 at Norfolk...won consecutive starts only once, July 22 vs. Buffalo and July 27 vs. Ottawa...recorded 14 quality starts, 5 of which came in August/September...6 of 7 wins came at home (lone road victory came June 13 at Durham).

2004

Began '04 with Oklahoma of the Triple-A Pacific Coast league...pitched primarily out of the bullpen for first time in career...won 3 consecutive starts, June 26-July 10...had contract purchased by TEX, July 31...made TEX debut with 7.0 shutout innings, Aug. 4 at DET, but after 2 more starts, was designated for assignment, August 15.

2003

With NYM, earned spot on first Opening Day roster...made 2 appearances before being optioned to Norfolk of the Triple-A International League on April 3...was recalled from Norfolk on May 31 and made 3 final big league appearances of '03 prior to being optioned back on June 26...earned lone major league win on June 13 at ANA, allowing 2 runs in 5.0 innings...posted a 2.65 ERA in 6 July starts for Norfolk.

2002

Began 2002 with Norfolk, but pitched well enough to earn most extensive big league time...pitched in 11 games (9 starts) for NYM...was recalled by NYM on July 5 and earned first career big league win in first career major league start that day at FLA...allowed 2 runs in 5.0 innings...tossed first career complete game in 2nd career start, July 15 vs. FLA...scattered 7 hits and a walk to become the first NYM rookie to go the distance since Masato Yoshii turned the trick on May 21, 1998 vs. CIN...in the same game, collected first career RBI via a sacrifice bunt in the game...by notching the win in first 2 starts, became just the 4th NYM pitcher in the last 25 years to win first 2 career starts...the other 3: Eric Hillman (1992), David Telgheder (1993) and Robert Person (1995-1996)...was optioned back to Norfolk, July 21...was recalled again, July 31, before being optioned back on August 1 after just one relief appearance...recalled for a final time on August 16 and started that night vs. LAD...touched for only a single unearned run on 4 hits in 6.0 innings, but did not garner a decision...posted first big league hit (an RBI double) on September 3 vs. FLA...allowed 3 earned runs or less in 7 of 9 starts...posted 2 quality starts.

2001

Pitched for both Buffalo of the Triple-A International League and Akron of the Double-A Eastern League, going 13-6 with a 3.03 ERA...efforts garnered CLE's Minor League Pitcher of the Year citation...began '01 with Buffalo...while in the EL, tossed a 7.0-inning shutout on May 23 at Reading...returned to Buffalo on June 3 and remained with the Bisons until August 3...was then recalled by CLE...made big league debut in relief on August 5 vs. SEA, allowing 6 runs in 6.0 innings...was optioned back to Buffalo on August 9...was then recalled again in September and finished the season by making 2 appearances out of the bullpen.

2000

Began season with Kinston of the Single-A Carolina League, but was pitching in Triple-A by August...led all CLE minor league pitchers with 165.1 innings...combined to go 10-10 with a 3.97 ERA for 3 CLE affiliates.

1999

Spent 1999 season with Akron...led the Aeros in starts (26), wins (11) and innings (149.1).

1998

Spent entire season with Kinston and paced all CLE minor leaguers with a 2.88 ERA...ranked among Carolina League leaders in innings (4th with 165.2), starts (4th with 27) and ERA (6th)...entered season ranked as CLE's No. 10 prospect by Baseball America...also credited with best control among CLE minor league pitcher per the same publication.

1997

1996

Kick started pro career with Burlington of the Rookie-level Appalachian League...went 4-2 with a 2.20 ERA and was named to the Appy League's post-season All-Star team...ranked among Appy League leaders in starts (2nd with 13), batting average against (4th at .189) and ERA (6th at 2.20).

PERSONAL

FAMILY TIES

Entering 2007, Nationals have had a pair of 2nd-generation players, or players whose fathers played in the big leagues:

WASHINGTON NATIONAL	MLB FATHER OF WASHINGTON NATIONAL
Tony Armas Jr. (2005-06)	Tony Armas (1976-89 with PIT, OAK, BOS, CAL)
Daryle Ward (2006)	Gary Ward (1979-90 with MIN, TEX, NYY, DET)

CAREER NOTES

Signed with the Nationals on February 18, 2007 and reported to camp 2 days later from native Miami...represented CLE in the 2004 All-Star Game in Houston...has played for 4 teams: MIL (1998-02), COL (2003), CLE (2004-06) and STL (2006) and averaged nearly 30 doubles a season in his 8 complete big league campaigns, including a career-best 48-double effort with CLE in 2004...is a career .307 hitter (120-for-391) in 103 interleague games...signed by MIL scouts Demie Mainieri and Russ Bove.

Helped STL to its first World Series Championship since 1982, starting 14 of 16 post-season games at 2B after being acquired from CLE in exchange for INF Hector Luna, July 30...hit a combined .272 with 30 doubles, 13 homers and 67 RBI in 147 games for the 2 clubs...was hitting .291 with 21 doubles, 8 homers and 44 RBI in 93 games with CLE at the time of the trade...hit .320 with 18 RBI in 26 games in June for the Tribe...batted just .237 in 54 regular-season games with STL...hit .321 with 4 homers and 10 RBI during a career-best 14-game hitting streak June 25-July 9.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Launched 4 homers in a 7-game span, June 27-July 4...posted a season-best 4 RBI on 4 occasions: June 1 vs. CWS, June 11 at CWS, July 4 vs. NYY and September 11 vs. HOU...with his RBI double September 29 vs. MIL, reached the 30-double plateau for the for the 6th time in 7 seasons, including 4 straight.

In the postseason: Hit .240 (12-for-50) with 4 RBI and 2 steals in 14 games in first career post-season experience...went combined 12-for-38 (.316) in the NLDS and NLCS, but went hitless in 12 World Series at-bats vs. DET.

Hit a career-high 17 homers and collected a career-best 78 RBI in 145 games with CLE...hit .284 to notch highest average since batting .295 in first full big league season (1999)...made 139 starts at 2B, and compiled the 5th-best fielding percentage among American League 2B with a .981 mark...hit .280 or higher every month but August (.255)...on August 25 at TBR, hit first career grand slam (off Travis Harper) in his 872nd career game...had 2006 contract option exercised by CLE on November 3.

2004

Was an AL All-Star, and ranked 2nd in the AL with a career-best 48 doubles...the 48 two-baggers were the most posted by an Indian since Albert Belle registered 52 in 1995...hit 12 home runs, 6 of which came at the expense of CWS pitching...was named to the Mid-Summer Classic in Houston by fellow players...hit .304 with 5 homers and 37 RBI in 84 games in the season's first half to garner the All-Star attention...made 148 starts at 2B for the Indians...hit .353 (18-for-53) during a 13-game hitting streak, July 30-August 12...batted .308 (33-for-107) in August.

Was signed by COL as a minor league free agent in January after being non-tendered by MIL in December of 2002...became COL's first Spring Training non-roster invitee in franchise history to start on Opening Day, getting the nod at 2B on April 1 at HOU...went 5-for-5 with 2 doubles and 4 runs scored on May 29 vs. LAD...the 5 hits and 4 runs scored were career highs...missed nearly all of June with a sprained right ankle, suffered June 1 at SFG while trying to stretch a 6th-inning single into a double...belted 5th career first-inning lead-off homer September 11 at STL off Sterling Hitchcock...September 23 vs. ARI, went 4-for-5 with a double, 2 homers and 8 RBI...the 8 RBI were a career-high, matched a COL record, and were the most notched by a lead-off hitter in a MLB game since DET's Jim Northrup drove in 8 runs, July 11, 1973 vs. TEX.

In his 9th and final season in the MIL organization, batted just .211 with 3 homers and 26 RBI in 104 games...made 40 starts at 2B, and 20 more at 3B...was 6-for-23 (.261) as a pinch hitter.

GO FOR 2!!

Ronnie Belliard ranks among MLB's top 4 in doubles—as a second baseman—since the beginning of the 1999 season:

RK	PLAYER	DOUBLES AS 2B (1999-2006)
1.	Jeff Kent	293
2.	Jose Vidro	269
3.	Ray Durham	250
4.	Ronnie Belliard	239
5.	Craig Biggio	210

2001

Was MIL's Opening Day 2B...went on to bang out 30 doubles and 11 homers in 101 games...suffered a high left ankle sprain August 8 at NYM...spent the next 7 weeks on the Disabled List until being activated on September 30...ended the season in an 0-for-22 slump...season's last hit was home run off ATL's Jason Marquis August 3 at Miller Park...recorded his first career multi-homer game on July 24 vs. LAD.

2000

In 152 games with MIL, posted career highs with 9 triples, 83 runs scored and 82 walks...also legged out 30 doubles... established a Brewers NL franchise record with the 9 triples...hit safely in 13 straight games, May 9-23, at a .396 (21-for-53) clip with 9 RBI and 9 walks...batted .306 in 46 games through that streak (ended May 23), just .244 in 106 games thereafter.

1999

Led NL rookies with a .295 batting average, 64 walks and a .379 on-base percentage with MIL, and was named the Brew Crew Rookie of the Year...among NL rookies, also ranked 2nd with 29 doubles, 6th with 58 RBI, 4th with 135 hits and 3rd with a .429 slugging percentage...posted first big league homer and first RBI via a 4th-inning solo shot, May 15 vs. FLA off Brian Meadows.

1998

Was a post-season International League All-Star with Triple-A Louisville, and made his major league debut with MIL in September...led the IL with 114 runs scored, and finished 2nd with 163 hits, 4th with 36 doubles and 5th with a .321 batting average...also stole 32 bases...was recalled by MIL on September 12, and made debut that day at CHI as a pinch runner...on September 16 at CIN, singled off Gabe White for first big league hit.

1997

Hit .282 in 118 games with Tucson club of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League...batted .347 during a 22-game hitting streak from July 27-August 21...hit .325 with 19 doubles, and 31 RBI in the season's final 2 months.

1996

Double-A Texas League All-Star with MIL's El Paso club, batting .279 with 20 doubles and 57 RBI in 109 games...posted a TL season-best 23-game hitting streak, April 21-May 17...tied for 4th in the TL in triples (8) and stolen bags (26).

1995

Playing for Beloit of the Single-A Midwest League, ranked 2nd on club with 137 hits, and tied for 2nd with 76 RBI.

1994

An 8th-round selection in the First-Year Player Draft, was assigned to Rookie-level Arizona Summer League Brewers...ranked 6th in the ASL in batting at .294.

PERSONAL

Ronald Belliard...makes off-season home in Miami, FL with his wife, Candida, daughter Rachel and son Ronnie Jr...is a 1994 graduate of Central (FL) High in Miami...is a distant cousin of former ATL shortstop, and current DET infield coach, Rafael Belliard...father, Diogenes, was a power-hitting ballplayer in the Dominican Republic.

CAREER

Looks to return to form in 2007...is in need of at-bats after getting little playing time in both 2006 (missed season's final 2 months with a right-shoulder strain) and 2005 (Rule 5 selection)...is coming off January 11, 2006 right-shoulder surgery that repaired labrum...was the Nationals' 2nd of 2 selections in the major league phase of the 2004 Rule 5 Draft, which took place on December 13 in Anaheim, CA (OF Tyrell Godwin (from TOR) was Washington's first selection)...among current Nationals, Luis Ayala (16-15 with 40 holds, 7 saves and a 2.79 ERA in 2 major league seasons) is the best example of a Rule 5 pick that seized the opportunity to forge a successful big league career... was rated as high as the Red Sox's No. 2 prospect by Baseball America entering the 2002 season (was No. 3 entering '01)...signed by BOS-scout Robinson Garcia.

2006

Missed final 2 months of minor-league season with right-shoulder strain, but prior to injury, combined to hit .260 with 10 home runs and 40 RBI in 63 games with Harrisburg of the Double-A Eastern League and Potomac of the Single-A Carolina League...averaged one homer every 22.7 at-bats...did not play the field all season while working way back from off-season shoulder surgery...41 percent of hits went for extra bases (14 doubles, 10 home runs)...missed season's first 10 days, but debuted on April 14 with Harrisburg at Akron...homered in 2nd game, April 15 at Akron... hit safely in 8 of 9 EL contests, and posted 8 RBI in the 9 games...made '06 Potomac debut on April 28...spent the remainder of season in the CL...batted .339 (19-for-56) withRISP while with Potomac, including .400 with RISP and 2 outs...homered in back-to-back games, June 17-18 vs. Frederick...went 12-for-31 (.387) with 3 doubles, 3 homers and 7 RBI during season-best 8-game hitting streak, June 8-22...batted .310 at Potomac's Pfitzner Stadium, just .200 on the road...posted season-best 15 RBI in May, then followed by hitting .309 with 4 homers and 10 RBI in June.

The Nationals' 2nd of 2 selections in the 2004 Rule 5 Draft, showed flashes of potential, especially early in the season, in first big league campaign...drafted by Jim Bowden from CIN in the Rule 5 Draft's 2nd round (TOR outfielder Tyrell Godwin was the Nationals' first selection)...hit .268 with 3 doubles and 6 RBI in 23 Grapefruit League contests to earn a spot on the Nationals Opening Day roster...of the 17 Nationals to play in the inaugural contest, was the only one to have never played for the Montreal Expos or another big league team...recorded first big league hit with 9th-inning pinch-hit single (through the 5.5 hole), April 8 at FLA off Dontrelle Willis...the clean single came in 3rd big league at-bat...was placed on 15-Day DL on July 13, retro to July 11, with vertigo associated with a sinus infection...after rehab stint, was reinstated from the 15-Day DL on August 5...hit .250 (11-for-44) with one homer and 7 RBI prior to the injury, but went hitless in final 18 at-bats at the big league level after returning to the active roster...started games in both left (4 starts) and right field (one start, June 17 at TEX), as well as first base (one game, September 24 vs. NYM), for Washington...also appeared defensively at 3B (5 games, zero starts)...4 pinch hits tied for 2nd on club with

Jamey Carroll and Marlon Byrd (only Carlos Baerga, 13, had more)...hit .400 with RISP...following the regular season, reported to the Arizona Fall League...hit .286 with a double, triple, 2 homers and 3 RBI in 8 games for the Peoria Saguaros, who were managed by Nationals bench-coach Eddie Rodriguez...with permission, left the AFL to shift to the Dominican Winter League.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Fanned in pinch-hitting appearance in first game in history of Washington Nationals, April 4 at PHI...in first big league start (in LF), recorded 2 hits, including a double, April 23 at NYM...first big league homer was a 3-run shot on May 22 at TOR off Vinnie Chulk...for his effort, was rewarded with pair of diamond earrings by teammate Jose Guillen, who promised to deliver if first major league long ball came within first 50 at-bats...the 3-run shot off Chulk came in career at-bat No. 22.

Rehab Assignment: Hit .281 (18-for-64) with 4 doubles, 2 home runs and 14 RBI in 16 Pacific Coast League contests during rehab stint from July 19-August 5...posted 3 hits, including a home run on both July 23 and 25 vs. Albuquerque...recorded 3 RBI, July 29 at Las Vegas...posted at least one RBI in 9 of 16 games during the rehab stint... played primarily 3B for the Zephyrs.

In breakout season, emerged as the top power hitting prospect in CIN's organization...combined to hit .275 with 29 home runs and 78 RBI in 120 games for Potomac of the Single-A Carolina League and Chattanooga of the Double-A Southern League...led all Reds farmhands in home runs and tied for fourth in RBI...was selected to play in the Carolina League vs. California League All-Star Game...also played for the World Team in the Futures Game at HOU's Minute Maid Park...following the season, was selected the Carolina League's best power prospect by Baseball America... began the season at Potomac, where he batted .306 with 17 HR and 47 RBI in 62 games...was named the Carolina League's Batter of the Week for the period ending April 25...recorded a pair of 2-homer games for the Cannons: April 17 at Myrtle Beach and May 27 vs. Salem...was leading the Carolina League in home runs and slugging percentage (.588) upon being promoted to Chattanooga on July 1...batted .245 with 12 home runs and 31 RBI in 58 games at Chattanooga...was named the Southern League's Hitter of the Week for the period ending August 12.

Batted .266 with 10 home runs and 49 RBI in 69 games for Potomac...began the season on the DL with a sprained right elbow...did not appear in a game until June 17...following the season, played for Licey in the Dominican Winter League...Licey's manager was former Expos 3B-coach Manny Acta...was a teammate of, among others, RHP Carlos Beltran and LHP Joe Horgan.

2002

Entered '02 season rated as the Red Sox's No. 2 prospect (behind RHP Seung Song) by Baseball America, but batted just .221 with 6 home runs and 32 RBI in 65 games with Sarasota of the Single-A Florida State League...did not play until June 9 because of a fractured left hand...was acquired by CIN on December 16, 2002 with RHP Josh Thigpen in exchange for 2B Todd Walker.

2001

Hit .265 with 17 homers and 69 RBI in 96 games for Augusta of the Single-A South Atlantic League...was named to the South Atlantic League's All-Teen Team...in a poll of league managers, was voted the best defensive 3B in the South Atlantic League...began the season with an 18-game hitting streak (22-for-69, .319)...although the 18-game streak ended on May 17, bounced back on May 18 with a season-high 5 RBI vs. Wilmington...posted 2 home runs and 5 RBI on August 21 at Hagerstown...entered the '01 campaign rated as BOS's No. 3 prospect by Baseball America.

2000

Spent majority of season with the Rookie-level GCL Red Sox (.384 with 13 home runs and 50 RBI in 52 games)... led the Gulf Coast League in home runs and slugging percentage (.668)...also ranked among the league leaders in batting average (2nd), RBI (2nd), extra-base hits (2nd with 27), total bases (2nd with 127), on-base percentage (2nd at .442) and hits (3rd with 73)...was named to the GCL's post-season All-Star Team...was selected by Baseball America as a Rookie League All-Star...hit for the cycle on July 6 vs. GCL Rangers...belted a grand slam on August 22 vs. GCL Orioles...was promoted to Lowell of the Single-A New-York-Penn League on August 28 and appeared in 9 contests.

1999

In first professional season, hit .277 with 8 home runs and 41 RBI in 67 games with the Red Sox's Rookie-level Dominican Summer League entry...was named MVP of the DSL Red Sox by the Red Sox's player developement staff...led club in doubles (12), triples (5), home runs, RBI and slugging percentage (.462).

CAREER

10-year pro has enjoyed a pair of stints in MLB, appearing in 9 games with KCR in 2002 and in 54 games with ARI in 2004...spent the last 3 seasons in the ARI chain after playing his first 7 campaigns in the KCR organization...in 619 minor league contests overall, is hitting .263 with 34 homers and 247 RBI...played for the Dominican Republic, and manager Manny Acta, in the inaugural World Baseball Classic in March of 2006...appeared in 3 games and made one start (vs. Puerto Rico, in Round 2)...older brother (by 11 years), Jorge, is a former big league catcher...signed by KCR scout Luis Silverio.

2006

In his 3rd and final season in the ARI system, batted .296 with 8 homers and 43 RBI in 73 games with Tucson of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League...threw out 20 of 75 would-be base stealers (36.2%)...hit .368 (25-for-68) with RISP, including a .458 mark (11-for-24) with RISP and 2 outs...was on the DL, May 18-June 3, with a right hamstring strain... batted .316 (37-for-130) with 5 homers and 25 RBI in 36 games beginning July 1...posted a season-best 12-game hitting streak August 10-27, batting .361 (13-for-36)...went 8-for-24 (.333) with a homer and 4 RBI during Tucson's run to the PCL and Triple-A Championships, starting 7 of Tucson's 8 post-season contests...the homer was a 5th-inning solo shot against Toledo of the Triple-A International League that snapped a 1-1 tie and gave Tucson the lead for good in its 5-2 win in the inaugural Bricktown Showdown...following season, played for Gigantes del Cibao of the Dominican Winter League.

2005

Returned to Tucson and threw out 42.5 percent of would-be basestealers (23 of 54), the 2nd-highest percentage in the PCL...recorded a .998 fielding percentage, which led league catchers who play at least 70 games...batted .302 (19-for-63) with runners in scoring position, including a .353 average (12-for-34) with runners in scoring position and 2 outs.

2004

Made 53 starts at C with ARI after having his contract purchased from Triple-A Tucson on June 9, when Brent Mayne went on the DL with back spasms...threw out 12 of 47 potential base stealers (25.5%) with ARI...clubbed his first big league home run, June 17 vs. NYY, a 7th-inning solo shot off Jon Lieber.

2003

Was limited to just 36 games with KCR's Omaha club of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League due to a broken hamate bone in his left hand and a strained left hamstring...started the season on the Disabled List with the broken hamate, and didn't make his season debut until May 15...hit .225 in 31 games before returning to the DL on July 21 with the hamstring injury...came back in mid-August, and appeared in just 5 games the rest of the way.

2002

Made his major league debut with KCR, appearing in 9 games (8 starts), May 1-28, and going 7-for-23 (.304) with 2 doubles...spent the majority of the year with Wichita of the Double-A Texas League...also appeared in 3 games with Triple-A Omaha from April 28-30 before getting the call to KCR...made his big league debut May 3 at BAL, starting at catcher...went 1-for-3...his first big league hit was a 5th-inning infield single off Scott Erickson.

2001

Spent entire season with Wichita...hit just .200 in April, and .295 (49-for-166) in 50 games thereafter.

2000

Split the year with Triple-A Omaha, Wichita and Wilmington of the Single-A Carolina League, hitting a combined .255 with one homer and 21 RBI in 73 games...lone homer, July 27 vs. Nashville, was first homer since 1997.

1999

Hit a combined .243 with 20 RBI in 81 games with Triple-A Omaha, Double-A Wichita, Single-A Wilmington and Charleston -West Virginia of the Single-A South Atlantic League...opened the season with Wilmington, and was transferred to Charleston, where he played the majority of the remainder of the year.

1998

1997

In his first year of pro ball, hit .314 with KCR's Rookie-level Gulf Coast League entry...fanned just 5 times in 70 at-bats, or once every 14.0 at-bats.

PERSONAL

Juan Ramon Brito...graduated from Liceo Juan Pabloe Duarte High School in 1996...older brother, Jorge, caught in 26 big league games for COL during the 1995 and '96 seasons.

CATCH THIS

Juan Brito enters the '07 season as one of only 23 natives of the Dominican Republic to have even caught in at least one game in the big leagues...4 of the 23 have caught for this franchise: Sandy Martinez (2001), Gil Reyes (1989, '91), Wilfredo Tejada (1986, '88) and Yohanny Valera (2000)...a closer look:

CAREER

The Nationals' top power-hitting prospect beyond Rookie-ball...hopes to finally reach big leagues after methodically climbing through the franchise's minor-league system...currently ranks among the Nationals' top 15 prospects, per Baseball America, but entered 2006 rated as the No. 9 prospect according to the same publication...this, after peaking as the franchise's No. 2 prospect entering 2005, per BA (trailed only LHP Mike Hinckley)...also rated by Baseball America entering the 2004 (No. 3) and 2003 (No. 10) campaigns...following '04 season, was rated by same publication as No. 13 prospect in Double-A Eastern League...entered 2005 ranked by Sports Weekly as the Nationals' top hitting prospect...signed by Dana Brown (Expos).

2006

Got back on track with New Orleans of the Pacific Coast League, hitting .288 with a career-best 78 RBI in first complete Triple-A season...led the Nationals' minor-league system in batting (.288)...also ranked among top 10 in RBI (2nd) and home runs (6th)...42 extra-base hits (25 doubles, 2 triples, 15 home runs) matched 2nd highest total of pro career...as of June 29, was hitting .311 with 9 home runs and 53 RBI and was invited to play in the Triple-A All-Star Game...did not play in the July 12 contest, played at Fifth Third Field in Toledo, OH...went 4-for-5 on June 10 vs. Nashville to raise batting average to .356, but hit just .219 thereafter...went 7-for-9 with 2 homers and 9 RBI during 2-game span, May 27-28 vs. Oklahoma...suffered season-ending subluxation, or dislocation, of right shoulder on August 20 at Omaha...batted .373 in April and .324 in May...hit .355 with RISP, including .367 with RISP and 2 outs...went 8-for-14 with the bags loaded... following season, played with Navegantes del Magallanes of the Venezuelan Winter League.

2005

Struggled with injuries for much of '05, but took step forward after the season, hitting .339 with 5 doubles, 2 home runs and 9 RBI in 19 Arizona Fall League contests...posted more AFL walks (13) than strikeouts (11) en route to a stellar .446 on-base percentage...before excellent fall campaign, combined to hit .269 with 22 doubles, 13 home runs and 33 RBI in 78 games at 3 levels in the Nationals chain...started the season with New Orleans, but sustained sprain of posterior cruciate ligament (PCL) in right knee...played in just 18 April contests...did not return until June 29 and hit .429 during 2-week stint with the GCL Nationals...returned to Harrisburg in mid-July...hit 9 home runs in August...posted 2-homer efforts on August 20 at Akron and August 31 vs. Reading.

2004

For first time, spent entire season with one club (Harrisburg)...22 home runs ranked 2nd among Expos minor leaguers behind only Valentino Pascucci (25)...72 RBI ranked 5th in Expos' minor league system...endured horrific slump to begin season...was hitting just .198 on May 13...hit .290 thereafter...tallied 2 home runs and 5 RBI on April 19 vs. Akron...posted season-high 12-game hitting streak, June 6-18.

Combined to hit .295 with 20 home runs and 76 RBI for 3 clubs at 3 levels...hit .307 with 25 doubles, 14 home runs and 51 RBI in just 83 games with Savannah of the Single-A South Atlantic League before being promoted to Single-A Brevard County...also received first taste of Double-A, batting .321 in 21-game late-season stint with Harrisburg of the Eastern League...hit better than .300 against left-handed pitchers at all 3 levels...at midseason, was rated by South Atlantic League managers as the circuit's top batting prospect, power hitter and defensive first baseman...a SAL All-Star, won the league's home run derby as part of All-Star festivities...playing for Savannah, hit 2 home runs on May 11 at Hickory and June 7 vs. Augusta...following the season, was named South Atlantic League All-Star...also nabbed spot on Baseball America's low Single-A All-Star Team.

2002

Playing for Vermont of the Rookie-level New York-Penn League, excelled in first professional season...homered in pro debut June 18 at Oneonta...went hitless in 2nd game, but then strung together 10-game hitting streak (13-for-39, .333)...hitting just .275 at the end of July, went 15-for-36 (.417) thereafter to finish at .315.

PERSONAL

Larry Lee Broadway...married to the former Amanda Sinclair...played collegiate baseball at Duke...in 3 seasons with the Blue Devils, hit .324 with 44 doubles, 17 homers and 104 RBI...pitched as a frosh at Duke (1-1, 4.68 ERA)...earned lone college win in 7-6 victory, May 7, 2000 vs. Old Dominion...played in the Cape Cod Summer League in 2001...played for the Orleans Cardinals and ranked among league leaders in home runs, RBI, walks, slugging percentage and runs scored...was a Cape Cod League All Star and won the league's home run contest...1999 graduate of Wellington (FL) High...pitched and played 1B in 3 prep seasons...named first team All-Area and first-team all county as a senior.

CAREER

The Nationals' top hitting prospect...enters 2007 rated as the No. 4 prospect in the Nationals' chain according to Baseball America (ranked No. 6 entering 2006, No. 9 entering 2005)...has earned 2 consecutive (2005, '06) Nationals Minor League Player of the Year citations...after spending much of the last 2 seasons playing 3B, returns to the outfield, where career began...in first 3 pro campaigns, saw offensive totals rise with each passing season in batting average (.239 in '03, .286 in '04, .290 in '05), runs (26, 67, 86), doubles (14, 35, 36), home runs (4, 16, 22), RBI (28, 88, 90) and walks (30, 31, 84), as well as on-base (.322, .337, .394) and slugging (.355, .474, .510) percentages...entered pro ball as an outfielder, but spent 2-plus seasons (2004-first half of 2006) playing third base...signed by Expos scout Doug McMillan.

2006

Did nothing to lose luster as the Nationals' top prospect among position players...playing for Harrisburg of the Double-A Eastern League, hit .272 with 20 home runs and 80 RBI in first exposure above Single-A level and was again named Nationals Minor League Player of the Year...began season at 3B, but begining July 1, shifted to LF...was named EL Rookie of the Year in a poll of league managers, coaches, writers and radio/TVbroadcasters...following season, was rated by Baseball America as owning the EL's best strike-zone judgement...ranked among EL leaders in games (first, 140), walks (first, 81), runs (2nd, 84), RBI (3rd, 80), OBP (3rd, .379) and home runs (tied for 5th, 20)...ranked among organizational leaders in batting (5th), homers (tied for 2nd) and RBI (first)...hit .324 with 7 doubles, 7 homers and 29 RBI in June...hit 2 homers on June 13 at Altoona and Aug. 6 vs. Reading...following the season, hit .302 (16-for-53) with 4 doubles, one homer and 9 RBI in 15 games with the Peoria Saguaros of the Arizona Fall League...was named the No. 14 prospect (No. 8 position player) in the AFL, per Baseball America, despite taking a 2-week hiatus to get married.

2005

Garnered Nationals Minor League Player of the Year honors...in first season with Potomac of the Single-A Carolina League, blasted 22 home runs, or 2 more than career total (20) entering the season...also recorded 84 walks, nearly triple previous career high...in just 2nd year as a 3B, was named top defensive 3B in the CL in a survey of league managers...saw error total drop to 16 (35 the year prior)...ranked among organizational leaders in batting (10th), homers (2nd) and RBI (first with 90)...paced the CL in games (first with 135)...among CL leaders, ranked 3rd in runs (86), hits (145) and walks...ranked 4th in total bases (255), extra-base hits (62) and RBI...ranked 5th in doubles (36), home runs and OBP (.394)...named CL Player of the Month in July (.413, 11 homers, 27 RBI)...garnered CL Player of the Week honors for the period ending July 10 (.519, 3 homers, 7 RBI)...hit walk-off 2-run shot in bottom of the 10th, July 19...doubled at least once in 11 straight games, May 15-29....named to Carolina League post-season All-Star team.

CAREER

Considered one of minor league baseball's premier base stealers the last 4-5 years...won a minor league stolen base crown in first 5 pro seasons...reportedly has 3.9 speed to first base, even faster on bunts...a winter-league legend in the Dominican Republic, won back-to-back DWL batting titles in 2001-02 and '02-03...has stolen 40 or more bags at the minor league level 6 times, including a career-high 79 in '01...is a .296 career minor-league hitter with 99 doubles, 8 home runs, 216 RBI and 379 stolen bases in 8 professional seasons.

Played well and flashed tremendous speed during 2-plus month stint with the Nationals...hit .227 (25-for-110) with 18 runs scored, a double, 3 triples, 10 RBI and 7 stolen bases in 42 games with the Nationals...collected first hit as a National on August 12, 2006 vs. NYM...legged out infield single and then scored one batter later on Alfonso Soriano's 2-run homer...posted the game-winning RBI in back-to-back victories, Aug. 15-16 vs. ATL...legged out 10 infield hits, including 4 bunt singles...went 6-for-19 (.316) with runners in scoring position and 2 outs...started 24 games at 2B...twice appeared defensively off the bench in LF (July 28 at LAD and August 26 at ATL)...when in the starting lineup, Washington went 11-13 (.458).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Down 4-2, 7th-inning pinch hit single on Sept. 11 at ARI sparked 4-run inning and eventual 7-6 win...legged out 2 triples and matched career-high with 2 RBI in an 8-5 win on Sept. 16 vs. MIL...became the first franchise player to post 2 triples in a single game since Orlando Cabrera turned the trick on July 30, 1998 vs. SFG...took career-high 3 walks, September 24 at NYM...posted 2 hits and started at 2B in Frank Robinson's final game as Nationals manager on Oct. 1 vs. NYM.

In Minor Leagues: Batted .284 (76-for-288) with 22 stolen bases in 69 games with New Orleans of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League...was successful on first 17 stolen-base attempts...in all, was successful on 92 percent of stolen-base attempts, going 22 for 24...hit .333 (29-for-87) through the end of May...swiped 9 bags in June...hit .308 (20-for-65) with runners in scoring position, including .357 (10-for-28) with RISP and 2 outs.

Spent majority of season with BAL's top affiliate, Ottawa of the Triple-A International League, but earned first taste of big leagues via September promotion...hit .288 with 6 stolen bases in 24 games for BAL this season in big league debut...made that debut on September 1 at TOR and had 2 hits, including a triple, and a stolen base...first big league hit was an infield single off Dustin McGowan in the 3rd inning...also drew a walk in first game to become the first player in MLB in '05 to reach safely in his first 3 plate appearances of his major league debut...made 11 starts at 2B, 7 at DH, one in LF (September 18 vs. TBR), entered as a pinch-hitter 3 times and pinch-ran twice...was in Sam Perlozzo's starting lineup in 14 of the season's final 15 contests...was outrighted following the end of the season.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Posted a career-high 3 hits and matched a team-season high by scoring 4 runs on September 27 vs. NYY.

In minor leagues: Batted .315, posted a .360 on-base percentage and stole 41 bases in 47 attempts with Ottawa of the Triple-A International League to earn the promotion...set club record and ranked 2nd in the IL with 158 hits...ranked 3rd among IL leaders in batting and stolen bases...paced all BAL minor leaguers in hits and stolen bases...also ranked 3rd in the system in batting...hit a remarkable .340 through July 1...was named the Ottawa's Most Valuable Player...was selected to the International League Postseason All-Star team...played in the mid-season IL All-Star Game.

In final season in the Padres system, played in only 90 games for Portland in repeat season in Triple-A Pacific Coast League...walked more than once in a game only 3 times, all of which came prior to May 14...stole career-low 17 bases...posted 4 hits, April 10 at Las Vegas...batted .304 in July, but earned just 4 walks on the month.

2003

In first exposure to Triple-A, led league, this time the PCL, in stolen bags for a 3rd straight campaign...playing for Portland, was successful on 79 percent (49 of 62) stolen base attempts...batted .330 against right-handed pitchers...hit .392 (20-for-51) during 12-game hitting streak, May 18-29...went 0-for-1 in a pinch hitting role on May 30 to end the streak, then started an 11-game hitting streak the following day...hit .409 (18-for-44) during the 11-gamer, which lasted from May 31-June 11...hit first professional homer in first game of June 10 twinbill at Colorado Springs...batted .398 with 9 walks in June...went 16-for-33 (.485) in final 7 PCL contests to finish season with .311 batting average, however, season ended prematurely on August 13 due to sprained ACL...despite the injury, was rated as the PCL's fastest baserunner in a poll of league managers.

2002

In first season with the SDP organization and at the Double-A level, led the Southern League with 53 stolen bases...ranked 3rd in the Padres' chain in stolen bases...hit just .193 in May, but reached base 40 times in 28 contests thank in large part to 19 walks on the month...posted 3 stolen bases on May 20 vs. Birmingham and June 4 at Carolina...rated by Southern League managers as the circuit's best and fastest baserunner, as well as most exciting player...batted .327 with RISP and 2 outs...following season, won 2nd straight Dominican Winter League batting title.

2001

Paced the Single-A South Atlantic League with 67 stolen bases, despite spending season's final 2 weeks with Staten Island of the short-season Single-A New York-Penn League...combined to swipe professional-best 75 bags for the 2 clubs...stole more than one base in a single game 18 times in '01, including a season-high 4 on July 2 at Macon...went 5-for-5 with a double and 2 RBI on August 23 at Jamestown...after the season, claimed first of 2 consecutive Dominican Winter League batting titles.

2000

Excelled in the Rookie-level Dominican Summer League, hitting .348 with 56 stolen bases and 69 runs scored in just 55 contests...graduated to the Rookie-level Gulf Coast League for late-season stint...posted 15 hits in 9 contests.

1999

Did not play due to injury.

1998

Hit .330, posted a .432 on-base percentage and stole 63 bases in just 61 Dominican Summer League games in professional debut...scored 78 runs, or 1.28 per contest.

2005

Went 10-11 with a 4.21 ERA in 29 starts with CIN and established career highs in nearly every statistical category...with 10 victories and 14 quality starts ranked second on CIN's staff in both categories (Aaron Harang posted 11 wins and 19 quality starts)...in 12 starts from July 28-September 27, went 6-2 with a 2.92 with 8 quality starts...posted a career-best and team-high 5-game winning streak from July 28-August 25...allowed 3 earned runs or less in 21 of his 29 starts...when starting, CIN went 15-14 (was the only Reds starter for whom the Reds posted a winning record)...on May 10 vs. SDP, was hit on the left triceps muscle by a Ramon Hernandez line drive, but suffered an injury to his left ankle while falling off the mound...missed next 2 starts...in '05 finale, Oct. 2 at STL, started the final regular-season game at Busch Stadium...suffered the loss as STL prevailed, 7-5.

Struggled in rookie campaign, going 2-8 with a 6.14 ERA in 14 big league starts...started strong, allowing 2 runs on 5 hits in 7.0 solid innings during CIN debut, July 20 vs. MIL (only runs allowed came via Bill Hall 2-run shot)...when toeing the rubber, CIN went 2-12...made 4 quality starts...began season with Triple-A Louisville...ranked among International League leaders in strikeouts (first with 111), wins (tied for 4th with 8) upon being recalled by CIN...despite July promotion, was Louisville's leader in K's...in the 10-5 Bats win on June 14 vs. Scranton/W-B didn't allow a hit...left that start after 7.0 innings because of pitch count restrictions...fanned a team season-high 12 on July 7 vs. Ottawa.

Combined to go 4-1 with a 2.48 in 15 starts with Triple-A Columbus and Single-A Tampa prior to being acquired by CIN on July 31...made first and only career start with NYY on June 28 at Shea Stadium...garnered the win in NYY's 9-8 victory...allowed 2 runs (one earned) on 8 hits in 6.1 solid innings...walked one, fanned 5...the game came in the nightcap of a highly unusual Yankee Stadium/Shea Stadium doubleheader...took a shutout into the 6th inning before the Mets plated an unearned run...in the 7th allowed a solo shot to Roger Cedeno...recorded first career K by fanning Cedeno in the first inning (first batter in NYM's half of the first)...at the plate, went 1-for-4...first career big league safety was a 5th-inning RBI-single off NYM's Dan Wheeler (infield hit)...upon being traded to the Reds, made 3 starts for Louisville before being shut down as a precaution.

2002

2001

Pitching at Double- and Single-A levels for Norwich and Tampa, respectively, combined to go 14-4 with a 2.31 in 29 starts in dominating performance...led all NYY minor league pitchers in ERA and tied for 2nd in wins...led minor league baseball with 220 strikeouts and tied for 5th with 187.0 innings...ranked among Eastern League leaders in strikeouts (tied for 2nd with 151) and ERA (third at 2.13)...was rated by Baseball America as the No. 3 prospect in the Yankees organization and the 5th-best left-handed pitching prospect in all of minor league baseball.

2000

Combined to go 10-10 with a 3.72 with 2 complete games and a shutout (6.0-inning SHO, August 25 at Kissimmee) in 26 starts with Single-A Greensboro and Tampa...at Greensboro was a mid-season South Atlantic League All-Star.

1999

In first pro season went 6-6 with a 3.83 in 15 starts for 3 NYY affiliates...thanks to 110 K's and just 16 walks, posted an astounding 6.9/1 strikeout-to-walk ratio...averaged 11.1 strikeouts per 9.0 innings.

PERSONAL

Brandon Allen Claussen...lives in Tampa with wife, Kelli...graduated in 1999 from Howard (TX) Junior College...is a '97 graduate of Goddard High in Roswell, NM.

CAREER

Veteran has appeared in 186 big league games with TBR since debuting in the big leagues in 2001...made at least 30 appearances each season from 2001-05...has allowed fewer hits (244) than innings pitched (251.0) at the big league level...owner of a devastating fastball that has been clocked at triple digits on multiple occasions...was born and raised in San Pedro de Macoris, DR, as was Nationals skipper Manny Acta...signed by scout Santiago Villalona (OAK).

2006

Went a combined 3-1 with a 3.35 ERA with NYY's Double-A Trenton and Triple-A Columbus clubs after being released by TBR on April 6...had appeared just once with TBR: April 5 at BAL, giving up a run on a walk in 0.1 inning before leaving the game with shoulder stiffness...signed with NYY on April 17, but didn't appear in a game until June 19... appeared 3 times with Trenton before joining Columbus, where he posted a 3.55 ERA in 25 games the rest of the way...had a 2.93 ERA (5 ER/15.1 IP) in his final 10 appearances beginning August 4.

2005

Was limited to just 36 appearances with TBR due to right shoulder injuries that caused a pair of 15-Day Disabled List stints...made 5 outings before landing on the DL for the first time April 15 with right shoulder tendinitis...returned on May 10, and allowed 16 runs (10 earned) in 11.2 innings over 9 games before returning to the DL on June 10 with right shoulder inflammation...allowed 9 runs (4 earned) in 1.1 innings in his final outing, June 9 at CIN...made 3 rehab appearances with Montgomery of the Double-A Southern League - tossing 4.0 scoreless innings - before returning to TBR July 22...posted a 3.10 ERA (10 ER/29.0 IP) in 22 games the rest of the way, including a 1.08 ERA (2 ER/16.2 IP) in his last 12 appearances...tossed a career-high 4.0 innings August 25 vs. CLE...led TBR relievers with 5 wild pitches...posted a 2.96 ERA (9 ER/27.1 IP) in 21 games at Tropicana Field and a 7.00 ERA (14 ER/18.0 IP) in 15 road games...notched a 2.75 ERA (6 ER/19.2 IP) against American League East Division foes.

2004

Began season with Durham of the Triple-A International League, but by season's end, had registered 3 saves, 8 holds and a 3.27 ERA in 33 games with TBR...was recalled to TBR on June 3 after going 2-1 with 2 saves and a 3.52 ERA in 18 IL games...with TBR, posted a .193 batting average against, including a .163 mark when facing opposing right-handed hitters...retired 28 of 33 first batters (85%)...stranded 19 of 24 inherited baserunners (79%)...surrendered first career grand slam, July 22 at MIN, to Nick Punto...in 8 appearances from August 4-28, worked 13.0 consecutive scoreless innings...according to Baseball Info Solutions, recorded 8 pitches that traveled at least 100 MPH...only CHI's Kyle Farnsworth, with 30, had more in MLB in 2004...left nitecap of September 9 doubleheader at NYY with right shoulder inflammation and missed the season's final 3 weeks.

In his first full major league season, went 3-7 with 11 holds, 2 saves and a 4.50 ERA in 54 appearances with TBR...was tied for the club lead in appearances upon sustaining a left oblique strain on September 4 vs. SEA while warming up in the bullpen...did not pitch again for the remainder of the season...at the time of the injury, 74.0 innings ranked 3rd among AL relievers...in 2nd appearance of '03, April 4 at NYY, allowed 3 home runs in the 9th (Jorge Posada, Alfonso Soriano and Jason Giambi) to tie a TBR record for most homers allowed in an inning (record has since been broken by Travis Harper)...fanned 3 in 2.0 perfect innings to notch first big league save in TBR's 10-6 victory on July 26 at CWS.

2002

Made 32 appearances during 4 stints with TBR...8.27 ERA was the highest among big league relievers with at least 40.0 innings in '02...only 2 major league pitchers had a higher ERA who worked as many innings: TEX's Aaron Myette (10.06 ERA) and CLE's Charles Nagy (8.88 ERA)...member of TBR's Opening Day roster...ERA was 11.57 ERA in 13 appearances before being optioned to Triple-A Durham, May 15...was recalled to TBR, June 25, and again on Aug. 18.

2001

In first taste of big leagues, enjoyed pair of stints with TBR...appeared in 30 games overall, posting a 3.33 ERA...posted a .208 batting average against to rank 4th among AL rookies...made big league debut on June 21 vs. BOS...entered with 2 outs in the 9th induced a Dante Bichette groundout (no save)...notched first big league win on June 28 at BOS...tossed the final 3.0 innings in TBR's 4-3 triumph...began the season with Triple-A Durham, but first appearance did not come until May 20 due to a strained right hamstring...rated by Baseball America as the No. 69 prospect in all of baseball...was credited with the best fastball in the International League, according to Baseball America's annual Best Tools survey of league managers.

2000

Entered season as OAK's No. 3 prospect according to Baseball America...went 9-4 with a 3.59 ERA in 20 starts with Midland of the Double-A Texas League before being traded to TBR...was acquired by TBR along with cash considerations in exchange for RHP Jim Mecir and LHP Todd Belitz...ranked 5th in the TL with 95 strikeouts at the time of the trade (ranked 7th in the league in ERA by season's end)...was assigned to TBR's Orlando affiliate in the Double-A Southern League...after just 2 starts, was shut down (right forearm tightness)...made just one start the rest of the way: August 23 at Jacksonville...following the season, was named as TBR's No. 5 prospect according to Baseball America...also rated by the publication as owning the organization's best fastball.

1999

Earned a spot on the Howe Sportsdata All-Teen team after going 8-4 with one save and a 3.36 ERA in 31 games (22 starts) for Modesto of the Single-A California League (it was later divulged that birth certificate was inaccurate)...also earned honorable mention honors as a CL post-season All-Star...ranked 3rd in the CL in ERA, and led the OAK chain with 127 strikeouts...allowed 2 earned runs or less in 18 of 22 starts.

1998

In his first year of pro ball in the United States, posted a 3.18 ERA in 12 games (11 starts) with OAK's Rookie-level Arizona Summer League entry...fanned 62 in 56.2 innings (9.8 K's per 9.0 innings)...ranked among ASL leaders in strikeouts (3rd), ERA (5th), and innings pitched (5th).

1997

Went 9-3 with 3 CG and a 2.71 ERA in 18 games (7 starts) with Oakland-West of the Dominican Summer League.

PERSONAL

Jesus Delacruz Colome...is the youngest of 8 children...signed by OAK as a non-drafted free agent Sept. 29, 1996.

CAREER

In first season in Washington, led MLB with franchise-record 47 saves...pitched for Team USA in World Baseball Classic and tossed 1.1 scoreless innings during a pair of appearances...pocketed a hold in a 2-0 win over Mexico on March 7...has stranded 45 of 53 baserunners inherited (85%) in 223 big league games spanning 4 seasons...using age on October 1 (end of season), at the age of 23, became the youngest player in MLB history to record 40-save season...trumped SFG's Rod Beck (48 saves at the age of 25 in 1993) and MON's Ugueth Urbina (41 saves at the age of 25 in 1999)...was the 2nd player drafted in 2003 to make his major league debut...the first: current-teammate Ryan Wagner (with CIN)...was the first of Montreal's selections from the 2001, 2002 or 2003 drafts to reach the big leagues with the Expos...in 2000, was drafted out of high school in the 26th round by the Padres, but did not sign... signed by Expos scout Dana Brown.

One year removed from leading MLB in saves, produced solid season, going 7-4 with 29 saves and a 3.19 ERA (26 ER/73.1 IP) in 68 appearances...with 91 in the bag, will enter 2007 just 9 saves shy of 100...notched 29 saves in 33 opportunities (88%)...thus, ranked 5th in the NL in save percentage...29 saves ranked 8th in the NL...compared to 2005 season, saves (47 to 29) and save opportunities (54 to 33) were down significantly...posted 13 saves in 14 opportunities (93%) against NL East foes...posted a .215 batting average against to rank 3rd among NL closers with at least 25 saves...opponents hit just .183 (20-for-109) with runners on base, including .185 (12-for-65) with RISP...7 relief wins led the Nationals and tied for 4th in the NL (tied for 6th in MLB)...fanned 8.5 batters per 9.0 innings...allowed 13 home runs, 6 of which came in blown saves (all 4 blown saves included at least one home run allowed), to tie for 2nd among NL relief pitchers behind only CHI's Roberto Novoa...9 of 13 home runs allowed were hit by right-handed batters...the 4 blown saves (September 6 vs. STL, July 9 vs. SDP, May 13 at ATL and April 10 at HOU)...was significantly better after the All-Star break (2-0, 16 saves, 2.30 ERA) than before (5-4, 13 saves, 3.86 ERA)...went season's first 11 games without a save, then recorded a pair of saves within 24 hours, April 15-16 at FLA...suffered blown save in first save opportunity of 2006 on April 10 at HOU (Lance Berkman game-tying solo homer in 10th inning)...successfully converted a season-best 11 straight save opportunities, July 18-Sept. 2...in 18 appearances when pitching on zero days' rest, went 1-0 with a 1.33 ERA (3 ER/20.1 IP) and successfully converted 12 of 13 save opportunities...stranded 11 of 12 (92%) inherited baserunners...retired 47 of 68 (69%) first batters faced...excluding 5 intentional walks, issued just 2.1 walks per 9.0 innings pitched...when the count reached 2 strikes, opponents hit just .154 (24-for-156).

Game-By-Game Highlights: On May 7, recorded final 4 outs to record first save of 2006 at RFK in a 5-4 win vs. PIT...on September 3, had a busy day, as he pitched in both games of day-night twinbill vs. ARI...fired 3.0 scoreless innings, retired 9 of 10 batters faced, fanned 5, and notched a win in the afternoon, as well as a save in the evening... became just the 2nd pitcher in this franchise's 38 NL seasons to earn a win and a save in the same day...according to Retrosheets Dave Smith's surreal MLB database, Ugueth Urbina turned the win-save trick for the Expos on August 13, 1998 at COL...that twinbill was necessitated as a result of the April '98 Columbine tragedy.

In breakout sophomore campaign, led MLB with franchise-record 47 saves in first complete season as a closer...recorded 2 more saves than Bob Wickman and Frankie Rodriguez, who ranked 2nd in MLB with 45...set new franchise mark with 1-2-3 9th inning and 44th save in an 8-6 win vs. ATL on September 9...broke John Wetteland's former club mark (43 in 1993)...with 40th save on August 24 vs. CIN (game No. 126), reached the 40-save plateau quicker than any closer in franchise history...on May 13 vs. CHI, in 97th career game, finally "allowed" an inherited runner to score...had successfully stranded the first 25 inherited in first season and a half in the big leagues...first inherited runner scored via a botched rundown between 3rd base and home plate, as Gary Bennett dropped a throw that would have resulted in an out...closed out 7-5 win vs. PIT on June 30 to match a MLB record for saves (15) in a single month...now shares record with STL Lee Smith (June of 1993) and NYY John Wetteland (June of 1996)...posted 31 saves prior to the All-Star break to set a new franchise record, which had been shared by both Rocky Biddle (2003) and Jeff Reardon (1982) with 22 apiece...was named National League Pitcher of the Month for June in a balloting, conducted by MLB, of major media outlets throughout baseball...also was named DHL Delivery Man of the Month for June, a new award sanctioned by MLB, MLBAM and DHL Delivery...went 0-0 with 15 saves and a 0.00 ERA in 16 June appearances to earn the citations...for the month, he struck out 14 in 16.1 innings and posted a .180 batting average against...he posted a save in 15 of Washington's 20 June victories...8 of 15 June saves came in one-run contests...established franchise record by successfully converting 26 straight save opportunities, April 26-July 2, in a single season...broke Mel Rojas' former club mark (23 straight in 1996) with 24th consecutive conversion, June 29 vs. PIT...established franchise record by earning a save in 15 consecutive appearances from June 5-July 2...posted a 0.00 ERA (0 ER/11.2 IP) and 8 saves in August...at 58 percent, Cordero led the NL in saving the highest percentage of his team's wins...only TBR's Danys Baez (61%) saved a higher percentage in the AL...besides saves, ranked among NL leaders in save opportunities (first with MLB-leading 54), relief ERA (3rd at 1.82), relief batting average against (5th at .198), baserunners allowed per 9.0 innings (2nd with 9.0) and blown saves (tied for 4th with 7)...earned the save in an NL-leading 22 games decided by one run...saved 8 of Washington's 9 wins over ATL, but did suffer 3 blown saves at the hands of the Braves...opponents hit just .139 when the count reached 2 strikes...did not allow a homer to a batter on the first pitch...won NL Rolaids Relief Man Award with 125 points (3 more than MIL's Derrick Turnbow).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Worked a scoreless 9th to establish career high with 15th save in a 6-3 win vs. FLA on June 5...pitching in Orange County for first time, notched 20th save in high-emotion 6-3 win at LAA on June 14 (altercation between managers Frank Robinson and Mike Scioscia in 7th inning)...with 41st save, August 26 vs. STL, tied Jeff Reardon (1985) and Ugueth Urbina (1999) for 2nd on franchise's single-season saves list...matched franchise single-season saves record with 43rd save in nightcap of August 31 twinbill at ATL.

SAVE RULE

A closer look at the save rule for relief pitchers (rule 10.20 in the Official Baseball Rules):

10.20 Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all 3 of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with the lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or

(b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces; or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

(no more than one save may be credited in each game)

2004

Continued advanced development for a pitcher just 22 years old or 18 months out of college...one of NL's top rookies...in 2nd big league season, went 7-3 with 14 saves and a 2.94 ERA...began the season in middle relief and posted 8 holds before assuming the closer's role from Rocky Biddle the first week of June...established new Expos rookie record with 11th save in 8-5 win on July 31 at FLA...surged past Dale Murray, who in '74, at the age of 24, posted 10 saves and a remarkable 1.03 ERA in 32 games with Montreal...7 wins ranked 2nd on the staff behind only Livan Hernandez...led Expos relievers in wins, games finished (40) and saves...fanned more than a batter per inning (83 SO in 82.2 innings)...limited opposing batters to a team-best .221 batting average against...inherited 12 baserunners in 2004, none of which scored...led all MLB rookies in ERA and batting average against...ranked among NL Rookie leaders in wins (tied for 3rd), saves (2nd), games (tied for 2nd), innings (3rd with 82.2) and strikeouts (2nd with 83)...only ARI's Greg Aquino posted more saves among NL rookies...pitched well in middle relief, going 1-1 with 8 holds, one save and a 2.18 ERA through June 6...after the Expos bullpen struggled to finish games, was named Expos closer by Frank Robinson on June 8...did not receive his first save opportunity until 8 days later, on June 16 vs. MIN and was charged with a blown save when the Twins scored twice in the 9th to send the game to extra innings...MIN eventually won, 5-4, in 11 innings...however, converted 11 save opportunities in a row from June 19-August 12...posted a 2.78 ERA in 21 games during the same time span...after a trio of poor appearances, ERA was a season-high 3.66 on August 23...allowed only one earned run in final 13 appearances or 18.2 innings to finish season with a 2.94 ERA... ERA when pitching in consecutive games was 6.28...with one-day rest, ERA was 0.50...2 days rest: 3.16...3 or more days: 3.05...recorded saves on back-to-back days just once: July 22 at NYM and July 23 vs. FLA...pitched the 9th inning on September 29 vs. FLA and thus, is the last member of the Expos to retire a batter in Montreal...after the game, dedicated his game cap to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY...the Expos went 37-32 when Chad pitched...was 2-0 with 7 saves and a 2.70 ERA at Olympic Stadium...posted 3 saves against both NYM and PHI...induced 3 GIDPs...9 of 14 saves came at home, including 7 at The Big O (2 at Hiram Bithorn Stadium)...6 of 8 home runs allowed came with 2 strikes...4 blown saves: June 16 vs. MIN, August 13 vs. HOU, August 23 vs. LA and September 25 vs. PHI...retired first batter faced 48 times in 69 relief appearances...fanned a career-high 5 batters in only 2.1 innings, Sept. 5 vs. ATL...worked scoreless 9th inning to protect one-run lead and successfully convert first career save opportunity at Coors Field, August 20 at COL (W4-3)...pocketed 8th and final hold of the season on June 4 at CIN...earned first save of the season with 2.0 scoreless innings on May 30 vs. CIN: with the score 5-2, worked a scoreless 8th inning...Rocky Biddle was slated to come in the game until Endy Chavez hit a solo homer in the bottom of the 8th to make the score, 6-2...without a save situation, Robinson did not insert Biddle...Cordero then worked a scoreless 9th to nab the save.

Completed a dream baseball season at just the age of 21...began the year with Cal-State Fullerton as the nation's most accomplished closer, went to the College World Series, signed his first professional contract, made a brief-but successful tour of Single-A ball before making his big league debut with the Expos in late August...signed first professional contract on June 27...met the Expos at Shea Stadium on June 30 and threw a live bullpen session before B.P., then left to begin pro career with Brevard County of the Single-A Florida State League...went 1-0 with one hold, one save and a 1.64 ERA (2 ER/105.1 IP) in 12 games out of the bullpen for the Expos after having his contract purchased from Brevard County on Aug. 29...worked scoreless ball in 11 of his 12 big league appearances...stranded all 8 baserunners he inherited in part because he retired the first batter faced in each of his 12 big league appearances...made his big league debut on August 30 at Florida...notched his first big league save on September 18 at New York (NL)..the save preserved a 1-0 win for Javier Vazquez and the Expos...earned his first career win just 2 days later, in a 10-inning 4-3 victory, September 20 at New York (NL)...worked a scoreless 9th before Todd Zeile launched a game-winning solo homer in the 10th...set down Juan Pierre on August 30 at FLA for first big league strikeout...tossed a 1-2-3 9th inning on September 18 at NYM to become the 3rd youngest player to record a save for the Expos...retired Garcia (K), Timo Perez (K) and Mike Piazza (4-3)...Chad turned the first save trick when he was 21 years and 184 days...the only 2 Montreal pitchers to trump Cordero in terms of youth were Joe Gilbert (21 years, 15 days) and David Palmer (21 years, 171 days)...the only pitcher to record a save at a younger age in 2003 was ANA's Francisco Rodriguez (21 years, 94 days), April 11 vs. OAK...made his professional debut on July 4 vs. Vero Beach (Dodgers)...allowed 2 hits and walked one in 1.0 scoreless inning...for the season, limited opposing FSL batters to a .198 mark and struck out 17 in 26.1 innings.

CAREER

Returns to the United States after spending the 2006 season in Japan, where he played for the Hokkaido Nippon Ham Fighters of the Pacific League...enters his 10th professional season, 7th in the US...will play under Manny Acta for a 2nd time...did so while pitching for Licey in the 2003 Dominican Winter League...started pro career with 2 years in the Dominican Summer League with SFG in 1998 and 1999...lone big league experience came in 2004, when he appeared in 18 games (7 starts) for CWS...signed by scout John Dipuglia (SFG).

2006

In only season in the Pacific Rim, went 3-5 with a 4.91 ERA in 8 starts with the Japan Series-winning Hokkaido Nippon Ham Fighters of the Japanese Pacific League.

2005

Spent the entire year with Charlotte of the Triple-A International League, going 6-8 with a 5.00 ERA in 21 starts... exited CWS spring training on the 15-Day DL with a strained right shoulder...was assigned to Charlotte upon coming off the DL...made first start, May 11 vs. Ottawa...tossed his 3rd professional complete game, August 12 at Richmond, allowing one run on 6 hits...fanned 10.

2004

Pitching for Triple-A Charlotte, dominated the International League, was a mid-season International League All-Star, and earned Baseball America Post-season Triple-A All-Star honors...efforts at Triple-A earned first taste of big leagues during 4 stints with CWS...with the ChiSox, went 2-4 with an 8.27 ERA (30 ER/32.2 IP) as a starter and 0-1 with a 3.78 ERA (7 ER/16.2 IP) in 11 relief appearances...made big league debut on May 13 vs. BAL in a starting role...didn't figure in the decision after allowing 5 runs on 6 hits, including 4 home runs, in 4.1 innings...earned his first major league win on June 26 vs. CHI, tossing 6.0 innings of 3-run ball in CWS's 6-3 victory...was recalled to CWS for the final time August 31, and went on to post a 2.16 ERA in 10 September appearances, all but one in relief...with Charlotte, ranked 3rd in the IL in ERA...tossed 2.0 shutout innings in the Triple-A All-Star Game against the Pacific Coast League...was twice named the IL Pitcher of the Week: April 8-18 (2-0, 0.00 ERA) and July 19-25 (1-0, 2.57 ERA)...won 8 of first 9 starts...posted a .238 batting average against in the IL.

In first year at the Triple-A level, went 5-7 with a 3.97 ERA in 27 games (18 starts) with Charlotte...went 3-5 with a 3.70 ERA as a starter and 2-2 with a 5.40 ERA as a reliever...entered the season as CWS' No. 8 prospect according to Baseball America...following the season, went 1-0 with a 3.48 ERA with Licey of the Dominican Winter League.

2002

Went 3-5 with a 2.70 ERA in 12 starts with SFG's Shreveport club of the Double-A Texas League before being dealt to CWS in a July 28 trade that brought Kenny Lofton to SFG...with trade, was assigned to Birmingham of the Double-A Southern League...went 4-0 with a 3.48 in 7 SL games (6 starts)...with Shreveport, went 1-1 with a 1.80 ERA in 4 starts in April before landing on the Disabled List April 25 with sprained left ankle...did not pitch again until June 15...tossed a complete-game, but lost, July 3 at Wichita...worked 8.0 innings of one-run ball...made 2 Southern League playoff appearances (one start) for Birmingham, going 0-1 with a 6.75 ERA...following the season, pitched for Licey of the Dominican Winter League, going 2-4 with a 3.50 ERA (17 ER/43.2 IP) in 12 relief outings.

2001

Was limited to just 15 games (12 starts) with Hagerstown of the Single-A South Atlantic League because of injuries to his right shoulder and lower back...went 1-3 with a 3.57 ERA in 10 games (9 starts) before going on the Disabled List May 26 (lower back strain)...returned June 9, and made 2 starts before going on the Disabled List again on June 16 with a strained right shoulder...returned July 15, and faced just 2 batters that night at Greensboro before shutting it down again due to the same strained shoulder...went on the DL the next day...was reinstated from the DL August 29, and made a pair of relief appearances before season's end, tossing a combined 3.0 scoreless innings...pitched for Grand Canyon of the Arizona Fall League following the season...performed well, going 0-0 with a 2.40 ERA in the AFL.

2000

In his first year of pro ball in the United States, went 3-4 with a 4.16 ERA in 11 starts with the Rookie-level Arizona Summer League Giants...made 3 relief appearances with Salem-Keizer of short-season Single-A Northwest League at the end of the year...ranked among ASL leaders in strikeouts (5th with 58) and batting average against among starting pitchers (2nd at .237)...did not allow a homer in 62.2 Arizona Summer League innings...went 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA in first 3 starts.

1999

Started 3 games for the Dominican Summer League Giants of San Pedro...posted a stellar 0.75 ERA...struck out 19 in 12.0 innings.

1998

Signed by SFG as a non-drafted free agent on March 20, and assigned to the Dominican Summer League Giants of San Pedro...pitched in 14 games (5 starts) in pro debut.

PERSONAL

Felix Antonio Diaz...graduated from David Ortiz High School in Las Matas de Farfan, Dominican Republic.

CAREER

After reaching big leagues for first time in 8th professional season, will sport versatility in hopes of securing spot on Manny Acta's bench...has professional experience at all 4 infield positions and in the outfield...has swiped 58 of 125 bases at the minor-league level (46%) in the last 2 years...stole "only" 67 bags in first 6 professional seasons.

2006

Made solid first impression with the Nationals after playing above Double-A for the first time in 8-year pro career...combined to hit .270 with 36 stolen bases for Triple-A New Orleans and Double-A Harrisburg and earn first big league cup of coffee...Nationals purchased contract from Harrisburg July 21...made major league debut that night vs. CHI as a pinch runner in the 8th inning...was thrown out trying to steal 2B...in first big league at-bat the next day, lined out to Aramis Ramirez as a pinch hitter...was optioned to Harrisburg July 23...after being outrighted July 26, had contract purchased August 22 and remained with the Nationals the remainder of the season...appeared in 13 games (2 starts).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Recorded first big league hit in first big league start (SS), the 2nd game of a September 1 twinbill vs. ARI...beat out an infield single off former teammate Livan Hernandez in the 2nd inning...went 2-for-4.

In Minor Leagues: Established career highs in hits (117), runs and stolen bags (36) at 2 minor-league levels...16 doubles also matched career high...led all Nationals minor leaguers with 36 stolen bases...at .270, tied for 6th in Nationals minor-league system in batting...for 2nd straight season, led the EL in strikeout frequency (fanned once every 13.0 at-bats)...was named EL mid-season All-Star as a utility player...posted 3 hits, a homer and 2 RBI in Triple-A debut on August 23 at Iowa...with Harrisburg, ranked 4th in EL in stolen bases with 33...posted season-best 4 hits on June 2 at Binghamton...pitched in one game for the Senators...allowed 4 runs in 1.0 inning on May 21 vs. Akron.

Eclipsed the 100-game plateau for the first time as a professional...posted career highs with 3 triples, 11 home runs and 50 RBI in 2nd season with Harrisburg...played every position except pitcher and catcher...paced the EL in strikeout frequency (fanned just once every 10.0 at-bats)...finished 4-for-4 with 2 RBI, May 11 at Altoona...went 4-for-4 with a double, homer and one RBI on June 22 vs. Norwich.

2004

Advanced to Double-A for the first time and hit .261 with 15 stolen bases in 71 games with Harrisburg...went 20-for-46 (.435) with 4 doubles,2 triples and 7 RBI during season-best 11-game hitting streak, May 31-June 10...appeared most frequently at 3B (33 games), followed by 2B (28), SS (4) and LF (4).

2003

Reached 20 stolen-base plateau for the first time, but struggled at the plate, batting .216 in 86 games with Single-A Sarasota of the Florida State League...was Sarasota's primary 2B...closed strong, batting .311 in 13 August contests... hit .300 (12-for-40) with runners in scoring position and 2 outs.

2002

Batted .257 in first foray in the Florida State League...played only 2B...notched 3 straight 2-hit efforts, April 4-6.

2001

In first season on US soil, combined to hit .318 (67-for-211) for Augusta of the Single-A South Atlantic League and BOS' Rookie-level GCL entry...began season in GCL and posted multi-hit efforts in 11 of 21 games...went 2-for-4 with 2 RBI in US debut on June 21 at GCL Twins...hit .408 in the GCL before being promoted to South Atlantic League on July 23...went 1-for-6 in first 2 SAL games, then posted a 10-game hitting streak, July 25-August 5...hit .378 (14-for-37) during the 10-gamer.

2000

Hit .329 in 2nd straight season with BOS' entry in the Venezuelan Summer League...posted .440 on-base percentage thanks to 12 walks in 25 VSL contests.

1999

Began pro career by hitting .212 in 48 games in the Venezuelan Summer League...swiped 7 bases in as many attempts.

CAREER

Hopes to again bounce back from injuries...has played in only 279 games and received just 969 at-bats the last 5 seasons due to a myriad of injuries...has been robbed of 2 complete seasons (2005 and 2002) the last 5 years...however, is still just 28 years old (does not turn 29 until September)...once regarded as one of baseball's premium prospects...has 16 career outfield assists in just 105 major league games in the outfield...signed by Gregorio Machado (NYM).

Posted stellar numbers in limited at-bats due largely to platoon situation and injuries...one of 9 Nationals centerfielders, and was limited to just 33 games (19 starts) after beginning the year at Double-A Harrisburg and missing a combined 76 games due to left hamstring, right hamstring and right shoulder injuries...hit .356 (31-for-87) with 4 homers and a career-high 18 RBI...had contract purchased from Harrisburg, May 20, and went 2-for-4 as the starting CF that night vs. BAL...went on the 15-Day DL May 22 with a strained left hamstring...missed 42 games before being reinstated on July 6...hit safely in his first 6 games (3 starts) back, going 9-for-17 (.529) with 2 homers and 7 RBI...hit .441 (15-for-34) with 3 homers and 12 RBI in first 11 games after DL stint...sustained strained right hamstring on July 21 vs. CHI while running to first on his game-winning 2-run single in the 8th...was limited to pinch-hitting duties for next 15 games...jumped back into the starting lineup, playing CF, on August 9 vs. FLA....August 25 at ATL, separated his right shoulder in the 9th inning as he dove back to first base on a Brian Schneider lineout to Jeff Francoeur in right...was placed on the 15-Day DL, August 26, and missed the season's final 34 games...had surgery on September 7 to repair the shoulder, a procedure performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Reached base safely in 6 straight plate appearances, July 9-16, going 4-for-4 July 9 vs. SDP (L9-10), stroking a game-tying, pinch-hit RBI single in the 7th inning, July 15 at PIT (L6-7), and connecting for a game-tying, pinch-hit 2-run homer in the 7th the next day at PIT (W8-4 in 11)...smacked 2 game-winning hits in a 3-game span, July 18-21...hit a 2-out RBI single in the 9th, July 18 at FLA, in Washington's 7-6 win...July 21 vs. CHI, had a 2-run single in the 8th that gave Washington a 7-6 triumph...in Kirk Gibson-like fashion, circled the bases with a strained right hamstring during his pinch-hit, 2-run homer in the 6th inning July 22 vs. CHI...had a pair of sacrifice flies Aug. 9 vs. FLA...was 3-for-3 with a walk and a sacrifice fly before separating his right shoulder, Aug. 25 at ATL.

In Minor Leagues: Hit .298 (28-for-94) with 8 doubles, 4 homers and 19 RBI in 28 games with Harrisburg before having his contract purchased by Washington, May 20...went on the 7-Day DL, April 10, with a strained right groin.

Did not play during '05 regular season after having successful right foot surgery (navicular fracture/screw surgery) performed by Dr. Schon in Baltimore, MD on April 11.

2004

Began season with CLE, but was claimed off waivers by CWS on August 16...played in just 62 games for CLE and Buffalo of the Triple-A International League due to a navicular fracture in his right foot...did not see action after July 4... was placed on the 15-Day Disabled List, by the ChiSox, on August 17...earned spot on first Opening Day roster...hit .276 for CLE in April, but just .170 thereafter...made 21 starts in CF, 15 in RF and 5 in LF....remarkably, recorded 9 OF assists in just 42 games...collected season-high 3 RBI, May 9 at BAL...was optioned to Buffalo on June 11.

Started the season with Buffalo, but hit .273 with 5 home runs and 14 RBI in 28 games with CLE after being recalled on August 15...combined to hit .382 (21-55) vs. DET, KCR and MIN, but went hitless in 11 at-bats against CWS...made 25 starts in RF...on August 15 vs. TBR, went 0-for-4 in first major league action since 2001...homered in consecutive games, August 31 vs. TOR and September 3 at DET ...turned the same trick September 16-17 vs. KCR...posted consecutive 3-hit games on September 10-11 at KCR...hit .353 in his final 14 games...began '03 with Buffalo...blasted 24 home runs in 118 games...led the International League in homers and was tied for 2nd in RBI at the time of his promotion to the Indians...was named to the IL All-Star team..hit .273 with 2 homers and 16 RBI in the Venezuelan Winter League.

2002

Missed entire season after suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee making a catch against the CF wall in March 4 Grapefruit League contest at PIT...underwent surgery, March 21 at Cleveland's Lutheran Hospital, in a procedure performed by Dr. Mark Schickendantz and Dr. Louis Keppler to repair the ACL and meniscus.

2001

Named NYM's No. 1 prospect by Baseball America...was cited by same publication as the 18th-best prospect in baseball prior to the season...was recalled by NYM from Norfolk of the Triple-A International League on May 8...was selected to play in the All-Star Futures Game in Seattle, but did not play (in big leagues)...collected his first major-league hit (single off Pedro Astacio) and RBI in his debut, May 8 at COL...hit first big league home run on June 23 vs. ATL off Tom Glavine... hit .221 in 25 Venezuelan Winter League contests...was traded to CLE in blockbuster 8-player deal, Dec. 11.

2000

Was named the Double-A Eastern League's Rookie of the Year and was selected to the EL post-season All-Star Team... ranked 5th in the EL in triples, 6th in home runs and 7th in both runs scored and slugging percentage (.487)...was selected to play with the World Team at the All-Star Futures Game, which was played at ATL's Turner Field on July 9.

1999

Limited to just 3 games...began the season on the 15-Day DL (fractured vertebra)...underwent season-ending surgery to repair a torn labrum in left shoulder, July 9 at the Hospital for Special Surgery in NYC (Dr. David Altchek).

1998

Was named to the Topps/NAPBL Single-A All-Star Team, the South Atlantic mid- and post-season All-Star teams and Baseball America's Single-A All-Star squad...was named by BA as the No. 1 Prospect in the SAL...ranked 2nd in the SAL in slugging percentage (.584) and steals (49), 3rd in extra-base hits (55), 4th in home runs (27) and total bases (243).

1997

Combined to hit .229 with one homer and 14 RBI for Single-A Kingsport of the South Atlantic League and the GCL Mets.

1996

Hit .360 with 10 RBI in 24 games with the GCL Mets...went 5-11 (.455) in the GCL playoffs...played one game at SS.

PERSONAL

Alexander Jose Escobar...single...attended El Santuario High School in Valencia, VEN...played 5 years in Criollitos Independent League and was selected the Most Valuable Player twice.

CAREER

Hopes to make favorable impression with new organization after being acquired from SEA in December...with Nationals debut, will become the 2nd player from Colombia to play for this franchise...the first: SS Orlando Cabrera, who played 8 seasons for the Expos...along with Cabrera, was born in town of Cartagena...entered the 2006 season rated as SEA's No. 8 prospect according to Baseball America...signed by scout Curtis Wallace (SEA).

2006

Enjoyed 4 stints with SEA in big league debut...struck out 34 in 36.0 innings of work, but also walked 24...started season with Tacoma of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League, and was recalled to SEA on May 14 after posting 4 saves and a 3.43 ERA in 13 PCL games...in big league debut that night at LAA, worked the final 3.2 innings to close out a 9-4 SEA win and earn first major league save...became just the 2nd pitcher to record a save of 3.0 innings or more in his debut, joining BOS' Mike Stanley, who worked a 4.0-inning save in his first game on April 16, 1977 at CLE...worked 1-2-3 7th inning to notch first career hold at the big league level, September 17 at KCR...with SEA, posted a .237 batting average against when facing opposing right-handed batters...batting average against in September was .197...earned first big league win on September 9 vs. TEX...tossed 2.2 shut-out innings to close out a 3-2 walk-off SEA victory in 13 innings...pitched for Cardenales de Lara of the Venezuelan Winter League following the season.

In minor leagues: Went 1-3 with 10 saves and a 3.18 ERA in 28 games with Triple-A Tacoma...batting average against was .204 in the PCL, including a .187 mark by opposing left-handed batters...surrendered just one home run in 45.1 innings...while with Tacoma, fanned 10.9 batters per 9 innings.

Spent the majority of the year with San Antonio of the Double-A Texas League before an August 1 promotion to Triple-A Tacoma...with San Antonio, batting average against was .231, .193 average when facing opposing right-handed hitters...in the TL, tossed 12.1 straight scoreless innings and notched 7 saves in last 10 appearances before being promoted to Tacoma...made one appearance with Tacoma before being placed on the DL, August 4 (right triceps strain)...was out of action until August 16...appeared in 3 games during the PCL playoffs.

Did not play in 2006 while rehabbing from right-shoulder surgery (SLAP tear) performed on May 8...by the age of 27, had anchored MIN infield that has helped claim 3 consecutive AL Central titles...has posted a stout .979 fielding percentage the last 5 seasons (50 errors in 2423 total chances from 2002-06)...is a .265 hitter with one home run (Game 2 of 2002 ALDS at OAK) and 2 RBI in 13 post-season contests...has played in at least 140 games 5 of last 7 seasons...67 career triples rank 7th among active players (despite being just 29 years of age)...among active top 8 in triples, is only player whose a "twentysomething"...averaged 3.35 pitches seen per plate appearance during 6-year big league career (13501 pitches in 4030 career plate appearances)...was teammates with 1B Nick Johnson and former-National RHP Tony Armas Jr. on 1996 GCL Yankees club that claimed league championship...signed by NYY scout Victor Mata.

Did not play in 2006 while rehabbing from May 8 season-ending surgery on right shoulder to repair a SLAP tear...the procedure took place in Cincinnati, OH and was performed by Dr. Timothy Kremchek, the Nationals Senior Orthopedic Consultant and Cincinnati Reds Medical Director and Chief Orthopedic Surgeon and Nationals Team Orthopedist Ben Shaffer...before the shoulder ailment arose, played in 5 Grapefruit League contests for the Nationals, going 2-for-9 with one RBI...had laser surgery on eyes prior to '06 campaign.

Struggled for much of first season in the NL, but finished strong for Nationals in September...primarily with Vinny Castilla to form left side of infield that committed just 31 errors, down 28 percent from 2004, when the Expos left side of the infield made 43 miscues...hit just .192 through the first game of an August 31 twinbill at ATL, but batted .333 (29-for-87) with 9 doubles, one triple, one homer and 12 RBI in final 26 contests...was a better hitter at RFK (.230) than on the road (.211), but all 4 home runs came outside of DC...homered twice at Shea Stadium and Ameriquest Field...hit well over .300 against NL East foes FLA (.346, 18-for-52) and NYM (.327, 18-for-55)...batted .583 (7-for-12) when putting a 3-1 pitch in play...however, hit just .158 with 2 strikes...batted .242 (74-for-306) when hitting in the No. 8 hole...performed better when hitting right-handed (.242) as opposed to left-handed (.160)...notched 3 game-winning RBI...played in more than 140 games for the 5th time, including 4th straight campaign...started 133 games...when in starting lineup, Washington went 70-63 (.526).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Hit first National League home run, April 22 at NYM off Tom Glavine...went 16-for-40 (.400) during a season-best 11-game hitting streak, April 22-May 3...homered in back-to-back games, June 17-18 at TEX...had not gone deep in consecutive games since September 11-12, 2004...via 2-run double in 2nd inning, posted first game-winning hit as a National in 7-4 win on June 20 at PIT...posted 2 hits and 2 RBI in 7-2 win at NYM, August 21...hit solo homer off Jae Seo in 10-inning 6-5 victory, September 15 at NYM...one day later, posted 2 hits and season-high 3 RBI in 5-1 win at SDP...game-winning 2-run double in the 5th inning off Jake Peavy erased SDP's 1-0 advantage...posted 3 hits and 3 RBI in a 4-0 win on September 26 at FLA.

Hit .274 with 8 home runs and 46 RBI in 6th and final season with the Twins...starting SS on MIN's 3rd consecutive AL Central Division-winning club...made just 12 errors...ranked 2nd among AL SS with .983 fielding percentage...103 double plays ranked 4th among all MLB shortstops...ranked among AL leaders in batting against left-handed pitching (2nd at .326) and sacrifice hits (5th with 13)...put the ball in play, fanning just once every 9.8 plate appearances (8th in AL)...moved into 2nd on the Twins' All-Time triples list with 58th 3-bagger, April 14 at CLE...posted season-high 10-game hit-streak May 4-14 (19-for-46, .413)...registered first career 5-hit game, May 7 at OAK...matched career high by scoring 4 runs on June 27 vs. MIL...posted season-high 4 RBI, July 8 vs. DET...homered in consecutive games, September 11-12 at DET...hit .333 (5-for-15) during MIN's 4-game ALDS loss to NYY.

Led the AL in triples as MIN again claimed AL Central title...committed career-best 11 errors...legged out game-winning RBI double in 13th inning, May 1 vs. TB...posted 4-hit efforts on May 15 vs. KC and June 19 at KC...went 13-for-36 (.361) during 8-game hitting streak, May 30-June 7...scored season-high 4 runs, June 19 at KC...laced game-winning RBI single in 10th inning, June 29 vs. MIL...hit .406 during 9-game hitting streak from July 25-August 3...then posted another 9-gamer, August 11-20...collected season-high 4 RBI, September 5 vs. TEX...hit first home run since September 11, 2002—a span of 600 plate appearances—September 13 at CLE...ranked 3rd in AL in hardest to double-up (133.5 at-bats per GIDP) and sacrifice bunts (12)...went 2-for-13 (.154) in 4 ALDS games against NYY.

CAREER

Joined the Nationals on November 6 after spending first 7 pro seasons with LAD organization...career record is 62-45, and thus, owns a .579 winning percentage as a pro...pitching for Single-A Vero beach, threw a pair of no-hitters in 2002 (April 21 vs. Jupiter and July 4 vs. Brevard County)...peaked as LAD's No. 5 prospect, according to Baseball America, entering 2004...was rated No. 8 entering 2003...signed by LAD scout Mitch Webster, who played for the Expos from (1985-88).

2006

Went a combined 11-5 with a 3.58 ERA in 26 starts with Las Vegas of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League and Jacksonville of the Double-A Southern League...was designated for assignment and outrighted off the 40-man roster in January, and began the year in Jacksonville...was named SL Pitcher of the Week for the period ending June 11 (2-0, 0.00 ERA in 2 starts)...with Jacksonville, allowed 3 runs or less in 11 of his 12 starts, and allowed only 6.6 hits per 9.0 innings...batting average against in the SL was .138 with RISP...placed on the Disabled List, May 6-15, with a strained right hamstring...went 4-0 with a 1.08 ERA (3 ER/25.0 IP) in last 4 SL starts, May 25-June 10, to earn a promotion to Las Vegas...posted a 2.52 ERA for Las Vegas in 5 starts in August.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Struck out a season-high 10 batters on 2 occasions: May 31 at Montgomery and August 16 vs. Portland...July 4 at Portland, provided Independence Day fireworks with a 5th-inning solo home run.

Started the season with Vero Beach of the Single-A Florida State League after beginning the year on the 7-Day Disabled List with a strained right hamstring...made the jump to Double-A Jacksonville on May 6...went 2-2 with a 2.92 ERA in 5 July starts...did not pitch during Jacksonville's post-season march to the SL Championship.

2004

In lone complete season at the Triple-A level, went 7-7 with a 5.05 ERA in 25 games (22 starts) with Las Vegas of the Pacific Coast League...was 1-1 with a 3.48 ERA in 4 April starts, 6-6 with a 5.38 ERA in 21 games (18 starts) thereafter...as a starter, went 6-7 with a 4.73 ERA (59 ER/112.1 IP)...allowed a career-high 22 home runs...was on the 7-Day Disabled List May 23-June 3 (right shoulder stiffness).

Earned mid-season Southern League All-Star honors, and was named the SL's Most Outstanding Pitcher after going 10-4 with a league-best 2.43 ERA in 23 starts...also notched Baseball America Double-A All-Star accolades, and was named the RHP on Topps' Double-A All-Star Team...ranked 5th in the SL with 130 strikeouts...batting average against was just .179 (24-for-134) with runners in scoring position...made the jump to Las Vegas August 10 for first taste of Triple-A...went 1-2 with a 10.08 ERA in 5 PCL starts...had his contract purchased by LAD following the season.

2002

With Vero Beach, was a mid-season Florida State League All-Star, and led the league with an organization-leading 139 strikeouts...promoted to Jacksonville, August 10, for first stint at Double-A...went 1-1 with a 10.64 ERA in 3 SL starts...also made a pair of playoff starts for Jacksonville...was rated by Baseball America as the FSL's No. 8 prospect...tossed a no-hitter April 21 vs. Jupiter, striking out 6 and walking 3 in a 5-0 win...the no-no was Vero Beach's first individual no-hitter since August 28, 2003, when Felix Rodriguez turned the trick (Roberto Duran, Ron Hollis and Joe Jacobsen combined for a no-hitter June 28, 1995)...also threw a rain-shortened 6.0-inning no-hitter, July 4 vs. Brevard County, allowing one run in a 5-1 victory...walked 2, fanned 7...Brevard County's Brandon Watson scored the lone run on a first-inning sacrifice fly...became just the 2nd pitcher in Vero Beach history to throw 2 no-hitters in a season, joining Sid Fernandez, who accomplished the feat in 1982.

2001

Went 9-11 despite a 3.38 ERA in 27 games (26 starts) with Wilmington of the Single-A South Atlantic League...worked a team-high 144.0 innings...allowed 3 runs or less in 22 of 26 starts...on June 7 vs. Macon, fired 7.0 no-hit innings, but was removed from the game by manager Dino Ebel due to a pitch limit...walked 3, fanned 9, but pitch count exceeded 100...went 3-2 with a 1.82 ERA in 6 August starts.

2000

Was assigned to Great Falls of the Rookie-level short-season Pioneer League...appeared in 12 games, all but one as a starter, and went 3-1 with a 4.75 ERA...batting average against was .221 (3rd-lowest among PL starting pitchers)...went 2-0 with a 2.63 ERA in final 5 PL starts.

CAREER

Flashed solid bat in 18 big league games with the Nationals in 2006...will compete for Nationals' back-up catching job.

2006

In 10th professional season, finally received first taste of the big leagues...did not waste opportunity, batting .293 (12-for-41) with 3 doubles, 2 home runs and 6 RBI in 18 games after having contract purchased by the Nationals on August 1...hit first (and to date only) 2 big league homers on August 20 at PHI...both homers came at Randy Wolf's expense...tallied 4 RBI...became only the 2nd player in franchise history to record first 2 big league home runs in the same game...the other: Bret Barberie, August 2, 1991 vs. PHI...notched 2nd straight 2-hit effort, August 22 at FLA...hit safely in career-best 5 straight games, September 10-24, at a .385 (5-for-13) clip with a double and 2 RBI...posted RBI in back-to-back games, September 19-20 vs. ATL...went 4-for-10 (.400) when facing opposing right-handed pitchers...started 13 games for Frank Robinson...when starting behind the plate, Washington went 5-8...defensively, did not throw out any of 9 basestealers.

Game-By-Game Highlights: In his major league debut on August 9 vs. FLA, started at catcher and went 1-for-2 with a hit by a pitch...doubled off FLA's Dontrelle Willis in first big league plate appearance...became the first National to post a hit in first big league plate appearance since Rick Short, June 10, 2005 vs. SEA.

In Minor Leagues: Hit .292 (35-for-120) with 10 doubles, 2 homers and 11 RBI in 43 games with Triple-A New Orleans...went 16-for-39 (.410) with 6 doubles, one homer and 5 RBI in 11 games, July 9-31, prior to being recalled by Washington...posted 5 three hit efforts (April 7 at Round Rock, June 17 at Round Rock, July 1 vs. Oklahoma, July 14 vs. Round Rock and July 20 at Albuquerque)...in 20 games at Zephyr Field, hit .321 (17-for-53)...hit .316 (18-for-57) with runners on base.

In his 2nd and final year in the DET chain, hit .246 with 6 homers and 34 RBI in 81 games with Toledo of the Triple-A International League...hit .349 with 9 RBI in 13 games in April and just .225 in 68 games the rest of the way...made one start at first base, April 17 vs. Durham, and one in left field, August 16 vs. Charlotte.

2004

Signed with DET as a minor league free agent, and appeared in a combined 69 games with Erie of the Double-A Eastern League and Toledo...started with Erie, and hit .389 with 2 homers and 10 RBI in 18 games before making the jump to Toledo, May 19...appeared twice at catcher with the Mud Hens for his first taste of Triple-A action (went 0-for-5 with a run scored), and returned to Erie May 25...hit .244 in his next 21 games, and joined Toledo for a 2nd time June 28...hit .208 with 3 homers and 7 RBI in 19 games before returning to Erie for the final time August 16...with Erie, hit .407 with 4 homers and 11 RBI in 15 May contests.

Playing for Carolina, was a mid-season Double-A Southern League All-Star...hit .282 with 9 doubles, 2 homers and 13 RBI in 41 games in the season's first half to nab the citation.

2002

Missed the entire season after undergoing off-season right-shoulder surgery.

2001

Started the year on the Disabled List due to off-season surgery on his abdomen, and after hitting .238 with 16 RBI in 29 games with Brevard County of the Single-A Florida State League, made the jump to Portland of the Double-A Eastern League on June 4...hit .329 in 23 games in June with Portland...hit .396 during a 13-game hitting streak, June 20-July 3...with Brevard County, went 1-for-28 in first 9 games, but hit .315 in next 20 games to nab promotion.

2000

In his first season at the Double-A level, hit 5 homers and 17 RBI in 37 games with Double-A Portland...following the season, was named the best defensive catcher in the FLA system by Baseball America...was sidelined 3 games into the season with a strained right thumb...was out of action until coming off the DL, July 21...belted a pair of homers August 6 vs. Trenton...made 8-game rehab stint with the GCL Marlins, July 11-19, prior to returning to Portland.

1999

Hit .268 with 40 RBI in 81 games with Single-A Brevard County...went on the Disabled List, May 7, with a broken right thumb, and didn't return to action until June 21...hit .239 (16-for-67) with 13 RBI in 21 games before the injury and .277 with 27 RBI in 60 games after...batted .363 with runners on base, including a .333 average (24-for-72) with RISP.

1998

Played in a professional-high 113 games with Kane County of the Single-A Midwest League...posted professional career highs with 22 doubles and 50 RBI.

1997

Selected by FLA in the 4th round of the First-Year Player Draft...was assigned to the Rookie-level Gulf Coast League Marlins...appeared in just 2 games before making the jump to Utica of the short-season Single-A New York-Penn League.

PERSONAL

Brandon Harper...married the former Joanna Valentine on October 7, 2006...graduated from Hobbs (NM) High School in 1994...played one year at College of the Southwest (Hobbs, NM) in 1995 before transferring to Dallas Baptist University, where he was an NAIA 2nd-Team All-American in 1997.

GONE²

By going deep twice off Randy Wolf on August 20, 2006 at Bank One Ballpark, Brandon Harper became the 2nd player in franchise annals to record his first 2 big league home runs in the game game...the first player to lay claim to this distinction was Bret Barbarie, who also turned the trick at PHI's expense, on August 2, 1991 via solo homers of Danny Cox and Wally Ritche at Stade Olympique.

2006

Returned to the mound in 2006, making 6 big league starts with Washington, after missing the entire 2005 season because of "Tommy John" ligament replacement surgery...made solid impression despite not being a member of the Nationals' big league camp during spring training...did not, however, pitch in the big leagues after June 28 due to right elbow soreness... visited Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL, but an exam revealed no structural damage to the elbow...recorded quality start in each of first 4 assignments...walked more than 2 batters just once in 6 big league assignments (3 walks on June 11 vs. PHI)...pitched on FOX Saturday Afternoon Baseball on May 27 vs. LAD...dazzled, but did not get a decision in game eventually won by LAD, 3-1...went pitch for pitch with Derek Lowe, allowing one run on 5 hits...walked 2, struck out 3...left with the game tied, 1-1...start was first at the Major League level since having UCL reconstructive surgery in September of 2004...dazzled in next assignment, allowing just 2 hits (both from Ryan Howard) in 7.0 shut-out innings in a 6-0 blanking of PHI, June 11 at RFK...walked 3 and struck out 4 to garner 2nd win of career, first since July 4, 2004 vs. TOR...allowed only 2 homers in 36.2 innings...did not allow a run in the first inning...went 1-0 with a 1.80 ERA (4 ER/20.0 IP) in 3 starts at RFK... when toeing the rubber, Washington went 1-5.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Posted quality start, June 16 vs. NYY, in front of 44,749 fans in first career start against the Bronx Bombers...allowed 3 runs on 8 hits in 6.0 innings, but NYY rallied to win, 7-5.

In Minor Leagues: Made 2 rehab starts with Harrisburg in the Double-A Eastern League, August 2 vs. Altoona and August 11 at Reading, going 0-1 with a 3.00 ERA (2 ER/6.0 IP)...however, elbow soreness persisted, and as a precaution, was shut down thereafter for the remainder of the season...was 3-2 with a 2.64 ERA (13 ER/44.1 IP) in 8 starts for Harrisburg prior to having contract purchased by the Nationals...was Harrisburg's Opening Day starter.

Missed the entire season after undergoing "Tommy John" ligament replacement surgery in September 2004.

2004

Made his major league debut with MON, starting 3 games June 29-July 9 while spending the majority of his season with Double-A Harrisburg...went 5-6 with a 2.87 ERA (25 ER/78.1 IP) in 14 starts with Harrisburg before getting recalled June 21...made his major league debut June 29 at PHI, taking the loss after giving up 8 runs on 7 hits in 2.2 innings...allowed just one run on 6 hits in 5.0 innings July 4 vs. TOR at Hiram Bithorn Stadium in San Juan, Puerto Rico to earn his first big league win...with Harrisburg, earned Eastern League Pitcher of the Week honors for the week of May 10-16 (2-0, 0.60 ERA)..was on the inactive list August 3-26 while at the Summer Olympics in Athens...underwent "Tommy John" ligament replacement surgery September 16, a procedure performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL.

Pitching for Brevard County, ranked 5th in the FSL in ERA...allowed more than 3 earned runs just twice in his 21 starts...with Harrisburg, earned the victory and hit a game-winning grand slam in Double-A debut, Aug. 10 at Altoona (Game One).

2002

Was a mid-season Midwest League All-Star with Single-A Clinton...won career-best 12 games and set career highs with 146.2 innings and 99 K's...allowed one or no runs in 13 of his 25 starts...was 3-0 with a 2.25 ERA in April...was the Lumberkings' Pitcher of the Month in May (4-1, 2.60 ERA)...went 7-1 with a 2.43 ERA (15 ER/55.2 IP) in 10 starts through May 31...was winless in 5 starts in Aug. despite a 2.86 ERA...ended season on the DL (strained right rhomboid).

2001

Made only 7 starts with Vermont of the short-season Single-A New York-Penn League, going 2-2 with a 2.27 ERA while limiting the oppposition to a .172 batting average...innings were limited by elbow pain...was winless in his first 5 starts before earning wins in his last 2 with a combined 11.0 shutout innings, July 26 vs. Staten Island and July 31 at Utica.

2000

Was assigned to the Rookie-level GCL Expos...allowed 5 runs on 5 hits in 2.2 innings in his pro debut July 22 at the GCL Yankees...earned his first professional victory by striking out 7 in 5.0 hitless innings August 14 at the GCL Pirates.

CAREER

Once of baseball's top pitching prospects, especially among lefthanders, hopes to recapture form flashed during 3-year span from 2002-04...has struggled since left-shoulder strain of the subscapularis muscle during Spring Training in 2005...that '05 season, did not pitch until that May...following the season, on September 26, 2005, had a successful procedure (posterior capsular release) of the left shoulder performed by Dr. Timothy Kremchek...intense rehab program led to resumption of throwing...began throwing off a mound that January...control has suffered since the injury...in 49 starts the last 2 seasons, has issued 3.7 walks per 9.0 innings...issued just 2.6 walks per 9.0 innings in first 4 pro campaigns (2001-04)...has not won consecutive starts since claiming the win in 3 straight assignments, May 31-June 10, 2004 with Double-A Harrisburg...entered '06 as the Nationals' No. 7 prospect (the top left-handed pitcher), per Baseball America...entered '05 campaign rated as the Nationals' No. 1 prospect per BA...according to BA, held down the No. 2 slot entering both 2003 and 2004 seasons (trailed only RHP Clint Everts in both instances)... also rated by Sports Weekly as the Nationals' top pitching prospect entering '05...in 2004, in first exposure to hitting as a pro, went 5-for-13 with a pair of doubles and one RBI while with Harrisburg of Double-A Eastern League...signed by Expos scout Darrell Brown.

2006

Struggled for 2nd straight season in Carolina League...issued a career-worst 3.8 walks per 9.0 innings...despite struggles, led team in starts (28) and innings (148.1), and tied for team lead with 6 wins...posted 10 quality starts, including 3 straight from April 23-May 3...for 2nd straight season, did not win consecutive starts...worked at least 5.0 innings in 19 of final 20 starting assignments...walked 3 or less in 21 of first 22 starts on the season...went 2-1 with a 2.73 ERA during a 5-start span, May 25-June 16...3 of 6 wins came in May...posted a .229 batting average against in 5 June starts...ERA through the end of June was 4.77...ERA in July, August and September was 6.47...scattered 2 hits and a walk, and fanned 5, in 8.2 scoreless innings on June 16 vs. Frederick, but did not garner a decision...fanned a season-best 7 on May 20 vs. Salem...batting average against with runners in scoring position was .233...issued 15 walks to lead off an inning...balked career-high 5 times.

2005

Entered Spring Training in battle for potential spot in Washington's starting rotation, but strained left shoulder derailed opportunity and hindered development...went just 3-9 with a 4.93 ERA in 22 games (21 starts) for Potomac of the Single-A Carolina League...pitched in 3 spring contests for the Nationals, including club's inaugural Grapefruit League contest vs. NYM...was shut down soon thereafter and entered into exercise rehab program...did not pitch in a regular-season game until May 9...nabbed first win via 7.0 shut-out innings, June 5 vs. Myrtle Beach...2nd win came June 26 vs. Frederick with 8.0 scoreless innings of 2-hit ball...went 2-0 with a 3.03 ERA in 5 June starts...struck out a season-high 8 twice: June 15 vs. Wilmington and August 29 at Kinston...struggled with control, issuing a career-high 51 walks...went at least 5.0 innings in 15 of 16 starting assignments beginning June 1.

2004

Improved yet again, leading all Expos minor leaguers in wins (11) and strikeouts (131)...2.77 ERA ranked 2nd in chain behind only Everts (2.45)...for efforts, was named Expos Minor League Pitcher of the Year for 2nd straight season... was honored—along with OF Ryan Church (Minor League Player of the Year)—on field prior to Expos-Marlins contest on September 28 at Olympic Stadium...began season with Brevard County of Single-A Florida State League...allowed one earned run or less in 7 of 10 FSL starts...did not allow an earned run in 3 consecutive starts or 20.0 innings, April 28-May 9...earned the win in all 3 games...walked 8 batters in first 7 FSL outings...pitching for Harrisburg, made Double-A Eastern League debut on May 31 vs. Akron...won each of first 3 Double-A starts...recorded first 10-strikeout game of career, June 21 at Reading...went 2-1 with a 2.49 ERA in August/Sept...rated by Baseball America as Montreal's No. 2 prospect entering '04...following season, was rated by same publication as the No. 4 prospect in the Eastern League and the No. 7 prospect in Florida State League.

Combined on 13-5 record and a 3.14 ERA while pitching for both Savannah of the Single-A South Atlantic League and Brevard County...named Expos Minor League Pitcher of the Year...opened '03 with Savannah...tossed first career shutout in nightcap of June 19 twinbill at Augusta...allowed 2 or fewer earned runs in 17 of 23 SAL starts...was 3-3 with 5.92 ERA on May 25, but went 6-2 with a 2.12 ERA in the SAL thereafter...was promoted to Florida State League in mid-August...went a perfect 4-0 with a 0.72 ERA in 4 starts for Brevard County, fanning 23 and walking only one... entered season rated as No. 2 prospect in Expos chain according to Baseball America.

2002

Posted 1.37 ERA in 16 starts for Vermont of short-season Single-A New York-Penn League in breakout season... paced NY-P League in ERA, innings (91.2) and starts...ranked 2nd among circuit's starting pitchers with .188 batting average against...following season, was named to NY-P League All-Star team (as left-handed pitcher)...also earned spot on Baseball America's Short-Season Single-A All-Star team...went 3-1 with a 0.45 ERA in 7 starts at Vermont's Centennial Field...didn't allow more than 5 hits in any start...posted sub-2.00 ERA in 3 of season's 4 months...lone exception: 2.01 ERA in July...touched for 2 earned runs or less in 14 of 16 starting assignments...did not allow more than 3 earned runs all season...tossed season-high 8.0 innings of shut-out ball, August 17 vs. Tri City...closed season by tossing 7.0 shut-out innings in each of final 2 starts, August 28 vs. Tri City and September 3 vs. Oneonta.

2001

Opened pro career with 2-2 record and 5.24 ERA in 8 games (5 starts) for Montreal's Rookie-level Gulf Coast League entry...posted solid strikeouts (7.3) and walk (3.1) ratios per 9.0 innings...scattered 2 hits and 2 walks in 3.0 shut-out innings in pro debut, July 16 vs. GCL Marlins...fanned 4...nabbed first pro win in first game of doubleheader, August 3 vs. GCL Dodgers...posted a 1.38 ERA in 3 July starts...touched for only one home run in 34.1 innings.

PERSONAL

Michael David Hinckley (Mike)...family: wife LeAnna, daughter Cora Lynne ...a '01 graduate of Moore (OK) High...was named All-State and Oklahoma City Player of the Year as a senior...also won the Ferguson Jenkins Outstanding Student Athlete Award, given annually to recognize Oklahoma's top high school baseball and softball student athletes.

SAM RICE'S DYSLEXIC DEBUT

Sam Rice, Hall of Fame class of '63 (one of 3 players to don a Washington cap in the HOF), has the most hits in big league history (2,987) without being a member of the exclusive 3,000-hit club (of which there are currently 26 members). However, Rice's big league debut strangely came as a pitcher. On August 7, 1915 vs. CWS, Rice pitched out of the bullpen. In the same game, teammate and fellow future Hall-of-Famer Walter Johnson started in right field for the Senators due to an injury.

Rice pitched much of his first 2 AL seasons before shifting to the outfield, where he completed his stellar career as a .302 hitter with 1078 RBI in 20 seasons (19 with Washington, one with CLE). In baseball lore, he is perhaps best known for a controversial play in the 1925 World Series, a series ultimately claimed by the Pirates in 7 games.

In one of the most famous plays in World Series history, Rice fell into the stands in Game 3 , seemingly robbing PIT's Earl Smith of a home run. With he and the ball out of view in the crowded stands, the umpire could not tell if Rice had held on to the ball. Rice emerged with the ball safely in his glove and Smith was called out, prompting an argument by PIT's bench. Rice was cryptic about the play, guarding the details of what happened in the stands as if he enjoyed the intrigue. Several years later, prompted by the Hall of Fame, Rice penned a letter explaining the incident, asking that it not be opened until after his death. In part, it read: "At no time did I lose possession of the ball." Sam Rice had kept the information of his most famous play a secret all those years.

CAREER

Begins first season of 3-year contract in 2007...contrary to perhaps popular belief, has produced stronger offensive and defensive numbers in 3 years with the Nationals/Expos than during 3-year tenure with NYY...a closer look:

YEAR CLUB	AVG	G	AB	R	H	2B	3B	HR	RBI	SH	SF	HP	BB	SO	SB-CS	SLG	OBP	E

After signing 3-year contract extension (that runs through 2009 season), quietly turned in one of the best offensive seasons in the NL...seemed destined to complete first injury-free campaign, but suffered fractured right femur on a freak collision with RF Austin Kearns in the 8th inning on September 23 at NYM (came on a David Wright popup in "no man's land")...had successful surgery performed by Dr. Peter Dzenis and Nationals orthopedist Dr. Ben Shaffer that night at Queens Hospital New York...is expected to be ready for '07 Spring Training according to Dr. Shaffer...regardless, did not make a trip to the DL for the first time in career...hit .290 (145-for-500) with 46 doubles, 23 home runs, 77 RBI, 11 stolen bases and 110 walks in 147 games...posted career highs in both on-base (.428) and slugging (.520) percentages...posted career highs in virtually every offensive category...ranked among NL leaders in doubles (tied for 7th), walks (tied for 3rd), IBB (tied for 7th with 15), on-base percentage (4th), OPS (8th at .948) and HBP (tied for 10th with 13)...lived up to "patient hitter" label by ranking 2nd in NL having seen 4.28 pitches per plate appearance...led the NL by earning a walk once every 5.71 plate appearances...ranked 3rd in MLB having taken 64.9 percent of pitches seen...took 1746 pitches in all to rank 4th in MLB...recorded 2nd-best single-season on-base percentage (.428) in franchise annals (Tim Raines posted a .429 OBP in 1987)...the .428 OBP was the best posted by a franchise left-handed batter...joined SFG's Barry Bonds, SDP's Brian Giles and HOU's Morgan Ensberg as the only 4 players to walk 100 or more times in 2006, yet not record 100 or more strikeouts...'06 totals also rank among franchise's single-season top 10 in doubles (tied for 4th), walks (tied for 5th) and OPS (9th)...with 100 runs scored, combined with Alfonso Soriano to become the 5th set of franchise teammates to score 100 or more runs (first since Vlad Guerrero and Jose Vidro in 2002)...for first time in career, played in vast majority of games (147)...batted .306 with 39 RBI at RFK...10 homers at RFK tied Ryan Zimmerman for 2nd on club behind Alfonso Soriano (24)...since the Nationals moved to Washington prior to the 2005 season, 17 home runs at RFK rank 2nd behind only Soriano's 24...batted above .300 in April (.341), June (.318) and September/October (.304)...at .304 (43-for-142), batted above .300 against opposing left-handed pitchers for a 3rd straight season...5 home runs against left-handed pitchers were a single-season career high (as were 18 long balls against opposing righthanders)...hit cleanup for Frank Robinson 112 times, going 106-for-380 (.279) with 16 home runs and 65 RBI...finished 7-for-19 (.368) with one walk with the bases loaded...46 doubles and 110 walks established franchise single-season records for a first baseman...struggled with the glove, posting a career-high 15 errors (or one more than his total the previous 3 seasons) to lead all MLB first basemen...when in the starting lineup, Washington went 63-80 (.441).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Down 4-0, sparked eventual 9-5 win on April 5 at NYM with 3-run shot to put the Nationals on the board...one day later, blasted 3-run game-tying homer off Pedro Martinez just one batter after Jose Guillen had been hit by a Martinez pitch...thus, became the franchise's first player to hit 3-run home runs in consecutive games since 2000 (Orlando Cabrera, September 21 vs. FLA, September 22 vs. ATL)...registered a trio of 2-homer games (April 20 at PHI, May 5 vs. PIT and May 28 vs. LAD)...with none on and 2 outs in the bottom of the 10th inning, hit first career game-ending home run in Nationals' 4-3 win on July 1 vs. TBR...laced game-winning 2-run double to snap 4-4 deadlock in 11-inning 8-4 win at PIT on July 16...laced game-winning 2-run single with 2 outs in the 7th innng to snap a 3-3 tie in an eventual 6-5 win vs. SFG on July 27...by going 2-for-4 with a homer and one RBI on September 19 vs. ATL, became the first Washington National to go deep on his birthday...the most recent franchise player to go deep on his birthday was Brad Wilkerson (June 1, 2004 vs. ATL).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Posted 2 hits on Opening Day, April 4 at PHI...the hits were his first on Opening Day...the Opening Day start was NJ's 3rd, but his first in the field...was NYY's DH on Opening Day in both 2002 and '03 (was a combined 0-for-7 on Opening Day for NYY)...left the April 26 contest vs. PHI with contusion on the back of left leg...did not play the following day, but returned to Washington's lineup on April 29 vs. NYM...3rd of 3 hits—an RBI double in the 8th inning—snapped a 3-3 tie in an eventual 4-3 victory, May 9 at ARI...homered and doubled off soon-to-be Hall-of-Famer Greg Maddux in a 5-4 win, May 15 vs. CHI...went 3-for-3, but left June 2 contest vs. ATL with reflux associated with chest and stomach symptoms...on June 7, in first game after NL Co-POTW citation (see above note), accounted for all of the offense in the Nationals' 2-1 win vs. OAK via a 2-run homer off Barry Zito...laced bags-loaded 3-run double to trigger 4-3 win vs. OAK on June 9...after DL stint, hit first homer in a 4-2 win at FLA, July 31...posted 3 hits, including a double, August 2 vs. LAD...first-inning RBI double on August 12 at COL was not only the game-winning hit, it triggered the franchise's first 3-game sweep at Coors Field...hit 3-run homer and posted season-high 4 RBI in a 9-2 victory, August 14 at COL...posted the game-winning RBI in back-to-back games, August 14 at COL and August 15 at PHI...sustained right heel contusion on September 3 vs. PHI attempting to beat out a swinging bunt...after September 8 pinch-hit appearance (walk), returned to starting lineup, going 2-for-4 with a home run and 3 RBI, on September 11 vs. ATL...homer on September 11 off John Smoltz was the back half of Washington's 3rd set of back-to-back homers (Rick Short hit first homer off Smoltz).

Rehab Assignment: Played in 3 games for New Orleans of the Triple-A PCL, July 23-25...went 0-for-6 with a walk.

In first opportunity as everyday player, suffered through injury-plagued campaign in initial NL season...played in only 73 games (70 starts) due to a lumbar strain and a fractured right cheekbone...Montreal went 33-37 (.471) with Johnson in the starting lineup, 34-58 (.370) when he was not...injured lower back at the tail end of Spring Training and missed the first 46 games of the season...was reinstated from the 15-Day DL on May 28...played excellent defense, posting a .994 fielding percentage...went 8-for-18 with 2 doubles, 2 home runs (including 2nd career grand slam) and 10 RBI, August 10-15, to earn first NL Player of the Week citation...momentum was halted on August 20 by fractured right cheekbone (read above)...as in '03, saw exactly 4.28 pitches per plate appearance in '04...would have ranked 3rd in MLB with enough plate appearances to qualify...only Jamey Carroll (4.38) and Brad Wilkerson (4.29) saw more pitches per at-bat among Expos...however, walk ratio was down...earned one walk every 5.8 plate appearances in '03...that number shrunk to one BB every 7.4 plate appearances in '04...played in first game of season, May 28 at CIN (Montreal went 15-31 in April and May in his absence)...after going 2-for-10 in first 3 games, went 14-for-31 (.452) with 6 doubles, one homer and 3 RBI in his next 9 games...closed strong, going 10-for-27 (.370) with 5 walks in final 9 games...reached base safely at least 2 times in a game 34 times in 70 starts (49%)...swiped 6 bags to match career total entering the season...6 of 7 homers came off right-handed pitchers (exception was homer off southpaw Eric Milton, June 29 at PHI).

Rehab Assignment: Went 6-for-30 (.200) with a double, homer, 5 RBI and 8 walks during his 9-game rehab assignment with Brevard County (6 games) of the Single-A Florida State League and Edmonton (3) of the Triple-A PCL.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Collected the first NL hit of career via 5th-inning single, May 29 vs. CIN off Jose Acevedo...finished the game 2-for-4 with a double...June 5 at CIN, combined with Tony Batista on the Expos' first set of back-to-back homers of '04...down 3-1 with 2 outs in the 9th, Batista homered off Danny Graves...on a full count, Johnson then followed suit with game-tying homer (his first as a National Leaguer) to hand Graves his 5th blown save (CIN prevailed, 6-3)...homered in back-to-back games, August 14-15 vs. HOU...thanks to 2nd career grand slam (off Chad Qualls), posted season-high 4 RBI in an 8-3 win, August 14 at HOU.

In 2nd full big league campaign, hit .284 with 14 home runs and 47 RBI in just 96 games...at-bats were limited due to a stress fracture in right hand (see below)...led the American League-Champion Yankees with a .422 on-base percentage...OBP would have ranked 3rd among American Leaguers—tied for 7th in MLB—with enough plate appearances to qualify...legged out a career-best 33 extra-base hits, including a career-high 19 doubles...also posted career-best .472 slugging percentage...was hitting .300 as late as September 23, but ended the season in an 0-for-17 slide to finish at .284...ranked 5th in baseball, 2nd in the American League, by seeing 4.28 pitches per plate appearance...the only 4 to see more pitches per plate appearance in 2003: Brad Wilkerson (4.37), Adam Dunn (4.33), Edgar Martinez (4.32) and Bobby Abreu (4.31)... posted more walks than strikeouts (70 BB, 57 SO) for the first time in his big league career...had fanned more than twice as much as he walked (98 SO, 48 BB) during his rookie campaign of 2002...from one season to the next (2002 to 2003), recorded 22 more walks despite receiving 32 fewer plate appearances...earned at least one walk in 17 consecutive games, April 16-May 3...the 17-game walk streak was the longest turned in by a Yankee since Willie Randolph turned the trick over 2 seasons from 1980-81... among big leaguers with at least 400 plate appearances, tied for 3rd in baseball in walk rate (one BB every 5.8 plate appearances) during the 2003 campaign...only Barry Bonds (BB every 3.7 PA) and Jason Giambi (BB every 5.3 PA) walked with more frequency...was placed on the 15-Day DL on May 17 with a stress fracture of the 3rd metacarpal bone of the right hand...missed 61 games before being reinstated on July 25...hit .304 with 11 home runs and 36 RBI while hitting in the No. 2 hole of the Yankees' lineup...posted a .430 on-base percentage to help set up the meat of the Bronx Bombers' batting order...hit 14 home runs, one shy of his 2002 career high (15)...came up just one homer shy despite recording 54 fewer at-bats than in his rookie campaign...started 96 games for the Yanks (60 at 1B, 30 as the DH)...posted a .991 fielding percentage at first base (5 errors in 551 total chances)...had a hand in 44 double plays... posted first multi-homer game on May 21 at MIN in a 15-1 victory...posted career-high 4 hits, including first career grand slam, in a 10-7 win, August 8 vs. SEA...matched career high with 4 hits on August 30 at BOS...6 of 14 home runs came in August...hit .253 with the bases empty, .320 with runners on base.

2002

Batted .243 with 15 home runs and 58 RBI in 129 games in first full big league season...made 59 starts at 1B, 49 at DH and one in LF (June 18 at COL)...was named to the Topps Rookie All-Star Team...recorded first sacrifice hit of his professional career in 9th inning in an April 19 win vs. TOR...left May 4 contest vs. SEA after experiencing pain in right knee (MRI exam was negative with bone bruise)...posted career-high 4 RBI on both May 15 and 16 vs. TB...tallied 11 RBI in 4 games from May 12-16...on August 7 vs. KC, left game after injuring his left wrist while catching a Raul Ibanez line drive...MRI and CAT scan examinations on August 8 at Beth Israel North Hospital revealed a bone bruise of the left wrist...placed on 15-day D.L. on August 10 (retroactive to August 8) with a left-wrist strain...was reinstated from the 15-Day DL on Sept. 3 after missing 24 games...Postseason: batted .182 (2-for-11) with one RBI in 3 ALDS contests... was recipient of the James P. Dawson Award for '02 as Yankees' outstanding rookie in spring training (voted by NY baseball writers)...hit .272 with a team-leading 5 homers and 12 RBI in 26 games to earn the citation.

2001

Returned to action after missing the 2000 season...received first taste of big leagues, but not before beginning the season with Triple-A Columbus...was recalled by NYY on August 21...went 2-for-4 with one RBI in big league debut on August 21 at Texas...first major league hit was an RBI single in the 2nd inning...became the first Yankee to collect 2 hits in a big league debut since Mike Pagliarulo (3 hits on July 7 at MIN) and Vic Mata (2 hits on July 22 vs. MIN) turned the trick in 1984...hit first big league home run—a 2-run shot off Hideo Nomo—in a September 9 win vs. Boston...registered his first career 3-hit game on September 23 at BAL...missed 3 games with bruised left foot after being hit by pitch in the 13th inning on September 30 vs. BAL (game was an eventual tie)...was not a member of any of NYY's 3 post-season rosters...was named best defensive 1B in the Triple-A International League...was ranked the No. 2 prospect in NYY organization by Baseball America...led the IL with a .407 OBP...reached base safely in 96 of 110 games...registered a walk in 12 straight games from April 24-May 6...a strained left thumb forced DL stint from May 18-June 2...was selected to play in the 2001 MLB Futures Game at SAFECO Field, July 8...selected as the starting 1B in the Triple-A All-Star Game on July 11 at Indianapolis...was named the IL Batter-of-the-Week for period ending July 15...hitting .615 in 5 games to earn the award...reached base 7 times in 8 plate appearances during a July 12 double-header vs. Richmond...hit 2 home runs in a game twice: July 13 vs. Richmond and July 29 at Charlotte.

In May suffered a torn ulnar collateral ligament in his right thumb and missed most of the season...was limited to 59 games at Double-A Chattanooga and 6 with the GCL Reds...on November 6, was added to CIN's 40-man roster.

2000

Had a spectacular season at Single-A Dayton...hit .306 with 27 homers, 104 RBI and 18 stolen bases in 136 games...led all CIN minor leaguers in homers and RBI...made bid to win the Midwest League Triple Crown...ranked first in homers, tied for first in RBI and ranked 6th in hitting...also ranked among MWL leaders with 136 games (1st), 110 runs scored (1st), 270 total bases (1st), 66 extra-base hits (1st), a .558 slugging percentage (2nd), 148 hits (3rd), 37 doubles (3rd), a .415 on-base percentage (3rd) and 90 walks (5th)...among all minor league batters, ranked 5th in runs scored...in July put together one of the hottest streaks by any player in baseball...from July 16-29, was named MWL Player of the Week in consecutive weeks...in July led all minor leaguers with 14 homers...from July 17-27, homered in 11 of 12 games (.568, 12 home runs, 24 RBI), including a 10-game homer streak from July 17-24 (10 HR, 20 RBI)... the 10-game homer streak set a Midwest League record and was the longest in the minor leagues in 2000...from July 22-24, reached base safely in 14 consecutive plate appearances (9 hits, 5 walks), the longest streak in the minor leagues in '00...posted 5 hits on July 21 vs. Lansing.

Spent the season at Single-A Rockford...36 doubles tied for 2nd in the Midwest League.

1998

In his first professional season hit .315 with one homer and 14 RBI in 30 games at Rookie-level Billings...appeared in 2 games at third base...following the season, was rated as CIN's No. 3 prospect by Baseball America.

PERSONAL

Austin Ryan Kearns...wife's name is Abby...the couple 2 kids, Aubrey and Brady...in 1998 graduated from Lafayette (KY) High in Lexington, KY...was an excellent prep pitcher, going 6-3 as a senior...when not pitching, played either SS or 3B...following senior season (.500, 9 homers, 43 RBI) was named Mr. Baseball in the Commonwealth of Kentucky... in 1997 was a member of the USA's National Junior Team and hit a team-best .478 with 5 homers and 14 RBI... in the World Championships, helped Team USA win a bronze medal by hitting .615 (8-13)...was offered a baseball scholarship to the University of Florida but chose to sign with CIN.

FIRST-ROUND FODDER

Austin Kearns is one of 15 former first-round selections who enter the 2007 season under contract with the Washington Nationals...a closer look at the list (by date):

Began season with Iowa of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League, but was acquired by MIL on April 14 in exchange for RHP Doug Johnson...was assigned to Indianapolis of the Triple-A International League...posted a batting average against of .184 when facing left-handed batters in the IL...enjoyed 3 stints with MIL...registered a 1.26 ERA in 36 games overall with MIL...allowed just one unearned run in final 23 games or 20.1 innings beginning August 6...earned his first big league victory, August 30 vs. LAD...allowed just one home run in 28.2 innings (Steve Finley, May 2 vs. ARI).

Recorded a 5.91 ERA in 10 games with CHI in big league debut, but spent the majority of the season with Iowa of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League...in 15 PCL appearances, allowed just 2 runs and 12 hits in 16.2 innings before being recalled to CHI on May 18...made big league debut, May 21 at ATL, allowed one run in 0.2 inning, but picked up a hold in CHI's 8-4 triumph...was, however, optioned back to Iowa following the game...surrendered only 3 earned runs and 12 hits in 20.0 innings (17 games) with Iowa, May 22-June 28, before being recalled to CHI again, July 2...was touched for 5 runs in 0.1 inning that night at PHI, but allowed just one earned run in next 8 appearances or 9.2 innings...was optioned to Iowa, August 6...batting average against of .200 ranked 2nd among Pacific Coast League relievers.

1998

Acquired by CHI late in the off-season, combined to go 2-5 with 5 saves and a 3.77 ERA in 62 games with Triple-A Iowa and West Tennessee of the Double-A Southern League...was named a mid-season Southern League All-Star despite a June 6 promotion to Iowa for Triple-A debut.

1997

Won 11 games and posted 3 saves in 36 games (15 starts) with ATL's top 2 affiliates in Durham (Triple-A International League) and Greenville (Double-A Southern League).

1996

Went to CIN's minor league Spring Training camp, but contract was loaned to ATL, March 22...was eventually traded to ATL, June 11...combined to go 6-11 with a 3.70 ERA in 32 games for ATL's Single-A affiliates in Macon (South Atlantic League) and Durham (Carolina League)...following the season, was named the Arizona Fall League's Pitcher of the Year.

1995

In pro debut, was assigned to Billings of the Rookie-level Pioneer League...ranked among PL league leaders in saves (4th) and appearances (5th).

CAREER

Thanks to a .997 career fielding percentage, enters the 2007 season as the best fielding first baseman in the history of MLB...has played 9 big league seasons with ARI (1998-2000), PHI (2000-02), TBR (2003 and 2005-06) and NYY (2004)... has finished in the Top 10 in fielding percentage in each of his 7 seasons as a full-time 1B, including a MLB-leading .998 mark with TBR last year (did not qualify in 2000 or 2004)...set an AL record for most consecutive errorless games by a first baseman with TBR in 2003 (121 games from May 9-September 28)...gained extensive experience in the outfield in 1999 and 2000...played collegiately at San Diego State...was the 2nd overall selection in the 1996 First-Year Player Draft by MIN, but became a free agent on a technicality (not tendered an offer by the Twins by stated deadline)...was then signed by ARI as a free agent on October 15, 1996...played in only 120 minor league games (all in 1997) before making his big league debut as ARI's Opening Day 1B in 1998...signed by scout Steve Springer (ARI).

In final season with TBR, was the top fielding 1B in MLB with a .998 fielding percentage (2 errors in 916 total chances)... offensively, batted just .224 with 11 home runs and 31 RBI in 114 games...was released by TBR on September 11... batted only .197 in 71 games before the All-Star break, but rebounded in the 2nd half by hitting .264 in 43 games... belted 4 homers in the season's first 10 games, including 3rd career Opening Day homer, a 2-run shot off Rodrigo Lopez at BAL...became the 3rd Ray in franchise history to hit at least 3 homers in the season's first week, joining Greg Vaughn (2000) and Jorge Cantu (2005)...after initial surge, went homerless in his next 56 games or 176 at-bats...hit 7 homers in final 38 games with the D-Rays...7 of his 11 homers came off lefthanders...before '06, had not gone deep off a southpaw since Aug. 11, 2003 vs. BAL (Eric DuBose)...batted .329 with 3 homers when leading off an inning.

Game-By-Game Highlights: 7th-inning solo home run on April 9 at TOR tied the score at 2-2 (TBR eventually won, 5-2)...posted a season-high 3 hits, April 12 vs. BAL...last appearance before September 11 release was as a defensive replacement on September 1 vs. SEA.

Was TBR's 1B against right-handed pitching and primary pinch hitter...committed just 4 errors...went 10-for-21 with 2 homers in the pinch...batting average as a pinch hitter (.476) was highest by a big leaguer with at least 20 at-bats since PHI's Alex Arias (.545) in 1999, and the best by an American Leaguer since KCR's Kevin Seitzer (.550) in 1991...led AL pinch hitters with 7 RBI...the 10 pinch hits were also a club record...joined TEX's David Dellucci as the only AL players with 2 pinch-hit home runs...hit first career pinch-hit homer, June 13 vs. MIL off Ricky Bottalico...2nd pinch-hit home run snapped a scoreless ballgame in the 9th inning, August 14 at CLE off Bob Wickman...that pinch long ball accounted for the game's only run...it was just the 3rd time in MLB history a 1-0 game was decided by a pinch-hit homer...hit .306 after the Mid-Summer Classic...10 of 12 homers came in the season's 2nd half, including 9 in a 25-game stretch from July 31-September 3...belted 100th career home run on August 26 vs. LAA off Kevin Gregg...hit a team-leading .368 in August...led TBR with a .312 batting average at Tropicana Field...gave TBR a 6-5 walk-off win on September 11 vs. TOR via a fielder's choice...the game-ending RBI was 4th as a Devil Ray, tying Fred McGriff and John Flaherty for the most in club history...placed on the 15-Day Disabled List, May 2-19, with a strained right groin.

2004

Signed with NYY on March 2 after mutually agreeing with TBR that the option on his contract for the 2004 season would not be exercised...was limited to just 7 games (4 starts) due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder...started the season on the DL, and after 3 rehab games with Tampa Bay of the Florida State League was activated on April 17...returned to the DL on May 1 and had season-ending surgery on May 11, a procedure performed by Dr. Lewis Yocum.

2003

Ranked 4th in the American League with 59 extra-base hits, including a career-high 37 doubles in 145 games with TBR...started 141 games at 1B, 3rd most in the AL...posted the 2nd-highest fielding percentage among big league first basemen, behind only CWS' Paul Konerko (.9979 to .9977)...led TBR with 64 walks, and ranked 2nd in doubles, homers (19) and extra-base hits...also ranked 2nd on the team with a career-best .348 on-base percentage...posted 26 game-tying or game-winning RBI...accounted for 3 of TBR's 10 walk-off RBI...only Fred McGriff, who had 3 walk-off RBI in 2000, has notched as many in a single season for TBR...hit .333 (14-for-42) during a career-high 12-game hitting streak, September 2-13...was on the 15-Day DL from April 14-28 with a strained right oblique.

2002

In final season with PHI, ranked 3rd among National League 1B with a .996 fielding percentage in 153 games...made only 6 errors...first miscue came on June 18 vs. CWS in PHI's 67th game...batted .302 on the road, but 8 of 13 long balls came at The Vet...hit .306 with 3 homers and 15 RBI in September...went 3-for-3 with 2 walks on April 17 at FLA.

2001

In finest big league season, posted career highs with 90 RBI, 75 runs scored, 71 walks and 157 games with PHI...reached 20-homer plateau for the 2nd time (22 in 1998)...ranked 3rd among National League 1B with a .996 fielding percentage...launched 3 game-winning home runs, including a 3-run, 9th-inning blast off Ugueth Urbina on May 25 vs. MON...the 3-run shot, which came on a 0-2 count with 2 outs, gave PHI a 10-8 win.

2000

Batted just .232 with 8 homers and 40 RBI in 72 games with ARI before being dealt to PHI on July 26 with LHP Omar Daal, RHP Vincente Padilla and RHP Nelson Figueroa in exchange for RHP Curt Schilling...with ARI, only 11 of 59 starts were at 1B...with PHI, 43 of his 52 starts were at 1B...also started 9 games in LF with PHI and 47 games in RF with ARI...was on the 15-Day DL from May 25-June 8 with a strained right groin.

CAREER

Was acquired by Washington on September 1, 2006 after spending the previous 6 seasons in DET's organization...38 of 147 career safeties (26%) have been infield hits, including 23 bunt hits...in 3 big league seasons, is hitting .322 (49-for-152) against lefthanders and just .249 (98-for-393) against righthanders...entered the 2003 season rated as DET's No. 7 prospect per Baseball America...originally drafted as a shortstop, did not convert to the outfield until 2nd pro season...signed by scout Gary York (DET)...name, Nook, when pronounced correctly, should rhyme with cook or look.

Spent majority of season in the Tigers' minor league system, but seized late-season opportunity with the Nationals after being acquired in trade on September 1 in exchange for a player to be named or cash considerations...hit .300 (27-for-90) with 3 doubles, a triple, a homer, 8 RBI and 2 stolen bases in 27 games (25 starts) with the Nationals...in less than one month (27 games, 90 at-bats) with Washington, legged out 8 bunt hits to tie for 10th in MLB (7th in the NL)...only Ryan Zimmerman (11) legged out more bunt hits among Nationals...defensively, locked down center field and the gaps for the Nationals, making numerous diving catches to thwart opponent rallies...after being acquired, Washington pitchers allowed just 8.96 hits per game...before the trade (through August 31), Nationals pitchers allowed 9.6 hits per game...hit safely in 21 of 25 starts, including 11 consecutive starts from September 16-28 (.333, 14-for-42)...27 hits ranked 3rd among Nationals in September/October...went 11-for-21 (.524) when leading off an inning.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Made Nationals debut as a pinch hitter in afternoon affair on September 2 vs. ARI...later that night vs. ARI, went 2-for-4 in first start with the Nationals (teams played split "doubleheader" that, according to Elias Sports Bureau, wasn't a doubleheader)...hit lone home run on September 10 at COL off Jeff Francis...8th-inning RBI single snapped a 4-4 tie in Washington's eventual 5-4 win on September 12 at ARI...notched season-high 3 hits, September 27 vs. PHI.

In Minor Leagues: Did not earn a roster spot with DET out of spring training...began season with Toledo of the Triple-A International League...batted .185 in 19 games with the Mud Hens before being sent to Erie of the Double-A Eastern League...batted .247 and swiped 9 bases in 20 games with the Sea Wolves...in all, combined to hit .218 at the 2 levels.

Signed by BOS as a minor league free agent on March 7 and assigned to Portland of the Double-A Eastern League... missed season's first 2 months while recovering from off-season right-shoulder surgery...returned from DL on June 10.

2003

Was claimed off waivers by TBR and assigned to Triple-A Durham, where he hit .267 with 25 doubles, 17 homers, 64 RBI and 23 steals in 112 games...batted .327 (17-for-52) with a pair of homers and 14 RBI over his first 14 games to earn a promotion to the big league club...in 13 games with the Devil Rays, hit .216 (8-for-37) with a homer and 4 RBI.

2002

Started '02 on ATL's 15-Day DL (strained right calf)...after rehab stint, was reinstated, June 17...was traded to DET, June 19...13 stolen bags tied for most among AL rookies...hit .304 for DET in July with a team-leading 4 homers.

2001

Missed nearly the entire year with an inflamed sesamoid bone in right foot, appearing in only 13 games June 2-16 for Triple-A Richmond...hit .318 (14-for-44) with 4 homers and 8 RBI before having surgery on the foot, June 22.

2000

Playing with Richmond, ranked 5th in the IL with 32 steals...was recalled to ATL, July 28...started each of his first 3 games, but went just 1-for-12 (.083) with an RBI...returned to Richmond, August 15...was a September call-up for ATL.

1999

Led Richmond squad with 21 stolen bases despite missing nearly 2 months of action with a strained groin...was named Most Exciting Player in the International League in Baseball America's annual Best Tools survey of league managers.

1998

Was a Southern League All-Star and a Baseball America Double-A All-Star for Greenville of the Double-A Southern League...ranked 4th in the league with both 22 home runs and 35 steals, and 3rd with a .410 on-base percentage and a .543 slugging percentage...named Most Exciting Player and Fastest Runner in the Southern League in Baseball America's annual Best Tools survey of league managers...stole 28 bases without getting caught...earned a promotion to the big league club in September...made big league debut as a pinch runner Sept. 4 at NYM...notched first big league hit, Sept. 15 vs. PHI, a single off Tyler Green in first start...cracked first major league home run, Sept. 23 at FLA, a pinch-hit solo blast off Rob Stanifer...had off-season surgery to repair a loose capsule in left shoulder.

1997

Ranked 4th in the Carolina League and 2nd in the Braves organization with 35 steals for Durham of the Single-A Carolina League...named a Carolina League All-Star...tied for 2nd in the league with 7 triples.

1996

Posted a .419 slugging percentage in 116 games for Macon of the Single-A South Atlantic League...hit for the cycle, July 8 vs. Columbus...in August, fractured his right middle finger and missed the remainder of the season.

1995

1994

PERSONAL

George Paul Lombard...1994 graduate of Atlanta's The Lovett School, where he played baseball and football...spurned football scholarship from the University of Georgia to sign with ATL while on a cruise to Hawaii for his senior class trip.

2004

Hit .242 in 79 games for CIN during 2 big league stints (18 games from June 1-June 25, 61 games from July 26-end of season)...also batted .273 with 9 homers and 44 RBI in 75 games with Triple-A Louisville...began the season at Louisville...paced the Bats in hits (56), HR (7) and RBI (34) upon being promoted on June 1 to take the roster spot of disabled INF Juan Castro...in 23 games prior to that promotion, hit .341 with 3 home runs and 18 RBI...from June 1-25 hit .152 in 18 games for CIN before he was optioned to Louisville, as Aaron Harang came off the DL...on July 26, was recalled again following an injury to OF Jason Romano...in 61 games during 2nd stint in CIN, hit .261 with 7 homers and 26 RBI...started 65 games for CIN (41 at SS, 24 at 3B)...hit .371 during a 10-game hitting streak, August 4-15.

HONDO

The 3 white seats located in the upper deck at RFK Stadium mark the longest home runs hit by the greatest slugger in the history of the Washington Senators, Frank Howard, at RFK Stadium. A 4-time American League All-Star (1968-71), Howard hit 237 of his 382 career long balls during a 7-year tenure with the Senators from 1965-71. He led the AL in home runs twice (hit 44 in both 1968 and '70) and finished 2nd with a career-high 48 in 1969 (former Senator and then future Hall-of-Famer Harmon Killebrew hit 49 that year for MIN). Howard later managed SDP and NYM.

Began season with CIN, but struggled, hitting .213 in 59 games...was optioned to Louisville on June 16...on July 25 had season-ending surgery to repair a dislocated left ankle...sustained injury on July 24 at Rochester...suffered injury in home-plate collision...made 47 big league starts (42 at SS, 3 at 2B, 2 at 3B)...3 starts at 2B were his first in MLB at that position (May 9 vs. MIL, May 10 vs. MIL and May 17 at MIL)...from April 11-May 7, with Barry Larkin injured, started 24 of club's 25 games at SS and hit .255 with 2 homers, 8 RBI and 6 stolen bases...Puerto Rican native hit first homer of 2003 on April 20 vs. MON at San Juan's Hiram Bithorn Stadium (solo off Luis Ayala).

2002

During 2 stints with TOR, hit .227 with 8 homers, 34 RBI and 5 stolen bags in 85 games...began season with TOR and hit .226 in 79 games (.303 in April)...was optioned to Syracuse on July 18...returned to TOR as a September callup... with Syracuse, hit safely in 16 of first 17 games, including season-best 11-game hitting streak, July 25-August 7.

2001

Combined to hit .270 with 17 stolen bases in 108 games for Syracuse and Double-A Tennessee...made big league debut, hitting .260 in 49 games for TOR...was summoned by TOR, August 3, and made big league debut that night as TOR's starting 3B...went 2-for-5 with a double and one RBI...first hit was an RBI-double off Jose Mercedes...began big league career with 4-game hitting streak...on August 23 at MIN, hit first career homer, a 2-run shot off Travis Miller.

2000

Spent the season with Tennessee...was a member of Howe Sportsdata's All-Teen Team...was rated the organization's No. 2 prospect by Baseball America...arm was rated the best of any TOR minor league infielder.

1999

In first full season as a pro, hit 14 home runs and swiped 21 bags for Hagerstown of the Single-A Carolina League... after season, was rated the No. 1 prospect in TOR's organization by Baseball America.

1998

In first pro season combined to hit .375 for Single-A St. Catherines and Single-A Dunedin...first pro hit was a 10th-inning, pinch single. Aug. 13...was rated by Baseball America as the No. 4 prospect in the NY-P League and No. 3 in TOR's organization...was selected first overall by Santurce in the Puerto Rican Winter League's annual draft.

PERSONAL

Felipe Lopez...wife's name is Jennifer...has one daughter, Chaydin...a '98 graduate of Lake Brantley (FL) High...set school records by hitting .521 with 15 doubles, 7 homers, 28 RBI and 34 stolen bags as a senior...was Florida's Player of the Year and USA Today All-USA selection...rated by Baseball America as the USA's top prep defensive SS...uncle, Roberto Lopez, played minor-league ball in MIL's organization.

CAREER

Has averaged 7.9 strikeouts per 9.0 innings during minor league career...one of few players to own the distinction of being traded twice in the same week and ending up with original club...on July 22 and 31, 2003, was acquired by PIT and then BOS in a pair of trades that, among others, sent Jeff Suppan to BOS and INF Freddy Sanchez to PIT.

2006

Combined to go 7-11 with a 4.40 ERA in 26 starts for New Orleans of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League and Harrisburg of the Double-A Eastern League...began season with Harrisburg, but spent majority of season with New Orleans... paced the Zephyrs with 115 strikeouts, and finished 2nd with 128.2 innings...also ranked 2nd on the club in starts... allowed 3 earned runs or less in 16 of 24 assignments...tossed a season-high 7.0 innings on 2 occasions, but suffered the loss in both contests: April 29 vs. Nashville and June 26 vs. Iowa...went just 1-4 in final 6 starts, August 10-September 3, despite posting a 3.27 ERA in that span.

2005

For 4th straight season, pitched primarily in relief, posting a 5.98 ERA in 35 games (6 starts) for Pawtucket of the Triple-A International League...struggled mightily in April, registering a 37.12 ERA...fanned 9 during 8.0 scoreless innings during the month of May...went 2-0 with a 0.98 ERA (2 ER/18.1 IP) in May and June...earned lone save, July 25 vs. Ottawa, thanks to a scoreless 9th inning...joined the PawSox rotation on August 15...went 0-2 with a 7.66 ERA in 6 starts, as opposed to 3-2 with a 4.76 ERA in 29 appearances out of the bullpen...limited opposing right-handed batters to a .250 mark, but those batting from the left side hit .381.

Spent majority of season at Pawtucket, but made big league debut during 2 stints with BOS...made 49 relief appearances in all, 38 of which came in a PawSox uniform.

With BOS: After 172 minor league appearances spanning 6-plus seasons, earned first promotion to the big leagues on May 21 when RHP Scott Williamson was placed on the 15-Day DL with right elbow inflammation...made big league debut on May 22 vs. TOR, earning the victory with 1.0-plus inning of relief in BOS' 5-2 triumph...replaced Pedro Martinez to start the 7th inning with the score tied 2-2...retired the side in order, including a strikeout of Simon Pond for the first out...following a Mark Bellhorn RBI single in the bottom half of the 7th, allowed a Reed Johnson bunt single to lead off the 8th and was pulled in favor of Alan Embree, who picked off Johnson at first...after surrendering a run in his next outing, May 26 vs. OAK, tossed 7.0 straight scoreless innings over his next 5 games May 27-June 4...allowed 9 runs in 2.2 innings in his next 3 outings before returning to Pawtucket on June 16 to make room on the roster for Trot Nixon...was recalled July 2, and picked up the loss that night in ATL when he gave up a Nick Green 3-run homer in the bottom of the 12th...was optioned to Pawtucket after the game.

With Pawtucket Ranked 3rd among PawSox hurlers with a 3.74 ERA...worked 2.0 innings or more in 19 of his 38 outings, including 8 of his last 11...was 1-2 with a 2.55 ERA in 15 games, April 8-May 19, prior to first jump to BOS... May 14 at Charlotte, recorded all 9 outs in his 3.0 innings of work via strikeout, while allowing only one hit...went 2-1 with a save and a 3.75 ERA (15 ER/36.0 IP) in 23 games after returning to Pawtucket for good, including a 2.53 ERA (6 ER/21.1 IP) in 9 August contests...earned his lone save July 20 at Columbus, working a perfect 9th to secure a 5-4 victory...had a 2.91 ERA (11 ER/34.0 IP) on the road and a 4.59 ERA (17 ER/33.1 IP) at McCoy Stadium.

Combined to make 45 relief appearances for Portland of the Double-A Eastern League (34 outings), Altoona of the Eastern League (3) and Pawtucket (8)...had made just 4 career relief appearances over 5 pro seasons prior to 2003, none since 2001...saved 14 games, 2nd to only Sarasota's Juan Perez (18) among BOS farmhands...went 3-1 with a team-high 14 saves and a 2.25 ERA (10 ER/40.0 IP) in 34 outings with Portland, while limiting Eastern League foes to a .212 average prior to his trade to PIT on July 22...posted no record and a 2.25 ERA (1 ER/4.0 IP) in 3 appearances with Altoona...was reacquired by the Red Sox July 31 and went 2-1 with a 1.93 ERA (3 ER/14.0 IP) over 8 outings with Pawtucket the rest of the way in his first career Triple-A experience...pitched at least 1.0 inning in 43 of his 45 outings...tossed 2.0 innings or more 9 times...had 53 strikeouts in 58.0 innings, an average of 8.2 K's per 9 innings... did not allow a hit with the bases loaded all season (0-for-9)...posted a .120 batting average against with runners in scoring position...earned his first professional save on April 27 at New Haven with a scoreless 9th inning...did not allow a run over his final 9 Portland outings, going 1-0 with 4 saves in 10.0 innings June 28-July 21...made his Triple-A debut with Pawtucket on August 1 at Buffalo...closed his campaign with 9.2 scoreless innings over his last 5 appearances, earning 2 wins, striking out 10 and walking just one in that stretch.

2002

Made his Double-A debut, spending the entire season at Trenton of the Double-A Eastern League...finished 5-12 with a 5.31 ERA in 27 starts, 2nd-most on the club...ranked 2nd among BOS farmhands and 3rd in the Eastern League with 127 strikeouts...pitched 5.0 innings or more in 20 of 27 starts...allowed 2 runs or less in 11 starts...received a loss or no-decision in 12 starts in which he allowed 3 earned runs or less...posted 8.2 punchouts per 9.0 innings...9 of the 12 homers he allowed were solo shots...struck out 10 and limited New Britain to just 3 hits in 6.0 innings to earn his first win, April 30...had his best month in May (1-1, 3.64 ERA, 5 starts).

2001

Went 9-12 with a 3.35 ERA in 25 games (24 starts) for Sarasota of the Single-A Florida State League...allowed 2 earned runs or less in 16 of his 25 starts...had 123 strikeouts in 145.0 innings, an average of 7.6 strikeouts per 9 innings...pitched at least 5.0 innings in 23 of his 25 starts...after going 1-3 with a 5.79 ERA in 5 April outings, went 8-9 with a 2.77 ERA in final 20 starts...earned a win in lone relief appearance, April 21 vs. Fort Myers, limiting the Miracle to a run on 3 hits and no walks in 6.0 innings...fanned 7....tossed 7.0-inning complete game, June 19 at Jupiter, but took the loss after being touched for 3 unearned runs.

2000

Made just 2 appearances for the Rookie-level GCL Red Sox before being promoted to Augusta of the Single-A South Atlantic League...went 9-6 with a 4.64 ERA in 23 starts to help the GreenJackets to an 83-58 mark and a division title... struck out 107 in 120.1 innings (8.0 per 9.0 innings)...went 6-1 with a 3.07 ERA at home...struck out 14 in a win August 20 vs. Asheville, allowing just one hit in 8.1 innings...went 3-1 with a 2.80 ERA in August.

1999

Began the year with Augusta, going 2-4 with a 6.30 ERA in 10 starts before completing the season with Lowell of the short-season NY-P League, where he turned in a 3.68 ERA and an 0-3 mark in 11 starts...pitched his best in August, posting a 1.80 ERA in 20.0 innings.

1998

Signed as a non-drafted free agent in January and pitched for the Dominican Summer League Red Sox and the Rookie-level Gulf Coast Red Sox...fanned 50 in 51.0 GCL innings...ranked 4th in the GCL with a .219 batting average against.

In his first full season at the Double-A level, went 8-8 with one save and a 5.20 ERA in 29 games (18 starts) with Huntsville...began season in the starting rotation, but went 0-3 with a 9.47 ERA in 5 starts and was sent to the bullpen...went 2-0 with a save and a 3.20 ERA in 11 relief appearances, May 10-June 16...rejoined the rotation on June 23, and went 6-5 with a 4.63 ERA in 13 starts the rest of the way...earned 2nd save of pro career in opener of a May 18 doubleheader at Birmingham.

Spent majority of 2001 with High Desert of the Single-A California League, but also got first taste of Double-A...tied for 3rd among MIL minor leaguers with 134 K's...with High Desert, fanned 121 in 112.2 innings (9.7 K's per 9.0 innings).

2000

Pitched in both a starting role and out of the bullpen with Beloit of the Single-A Midwest League...went 1-0 with a 4.79 ERA in 15 relief appearances before switching to the starting rotation in mid-June...finished 4-7 with a 3.50 ERA in 13 starts thereafter...posted a stellar .209 batting average against...earned first pro victory on April 12 at Peoria...the win snapped a personal 18-game losing streak to begin career.

1999

Went 0-7 with a 6.97 ERA in 15 games (7 starts) with Ogden of the rookie-level Pioneer League...began year in the starting rotation, going 0-6 with a 9.71 ERA...shifted to the bullpen and went 0-1 with one save and a 3.05 ERA...as a reliever, posted a .197 batting average against to rank 3rd among PL relief pitchers...earned first pro save, August 19 at Medicine Hat with 3.0 hitless innings.

1998

Pitching for Helena in first year of pro ball in the United States, led the Pioneer League with 9 losses.

1997

At the age of 17, fanned 17 in 16.1 innings in 11 games (2 starts) with MIL's Dominican Summer League entry.

PERSONAL

Luis Martinez...signed with MIL as a 16-year-old on October 12, 1996...has one son: Luis.

CARLOS' CURSE

The last franchise left-handed pitcher to win more than 3 games in a starting role was Carlos Perez, who pocketed 7 wins for the 1998 Expos...since the 1998 campaign, 12 different southpaw starters have toed the rubber for the Nationals or Expos, but none have won as many as 4 games...a look at the 12 left-handed pitchers to start at least one game, for Washington or Montreal, since Perez's 7-win effort in 1998:

Matt Blank
Bruce Chen
Scott Downs
John Halama
Ted Lilly

CAREER

Southpaw has averaged 9.3 strikeouts per 9 innings in 8 minor league seasons with CWS...in 2004, pitched in 11 games (one start) with CWS...signed by scout Denny Gonzalez (CWS).

2006

Began season with Charlotte of the Triple-A International League, but spent majority of '06 with Birmingham of the Double-A Southern League...started the season on Charlotte's DL (strained left elbow)...made season debut April 22, and after 7 appearances and a 14.21 ERA, was again placed on the DL with the same injury...was activated on June 5, and reported to Birmingham...posted a 2.17 ERA in 29.0 innings from July 13 through the end of the season...struck out 48 in 46.0 innings with the Barons...final outing of the season was in a starting role in the 2nd game of a September 2 doubleheader vs. Huntsville...allowed just one run on 3 hits in 6.0 innings to earn the victory.

2005

Led Charlotte with 8 wins, 40 appearances and 132.2 innings pitched...however, paced the IL with 14 losses, and was 5th in the league with 60 walks...went 7-9 with a 4.05 ERA in 18 starts and 1-5 with a 4.96 ERA in 22 relief appearances...was named IL Pitcher of the Week for the period ending July 3 (2-0, 1.93 ERA, 2 starts)...pitched for Aguilas of the Dominican Winter League following the season...went 1-1 with 3 saves and a 2.25 ERA in 14 DWL contests.

2004

Career shifted to the 'pen for the first time...made 11 appearances (one start) with CWS in big league debut...was recalled from Birmingham on June 18, and made big league debut on June 19 at MON...got the start, and allowed 11 runs on 10 hits in 3.0 innings...the 11 runs allowed were the most by a starting pitcher in a debut since STL's Mike Busby yielded 13 runs (8 earned) in 4.0 innings, April 7, 1996 at ATL...was recalled for a 2nd time, Sept. 1...appeared in 10 games out of the 'pen in September, posting a 1.80 ERA...was a Southern League mid-season All-Star, and earned a spot on the World Team at the New York Mercantile Exchange Futures Game, played at Minute Maid Park during the All-Star break ...named SL Co-Pitcher of the Week for the period ending May 13 (2-0, 0.75 ERA, 2 starts)...won first 6 starts with Birmingham, which extended winning streak to 12 games dating to 2002...the 12-game winning streak tied a SL record.

Made 49 appearances with Charlotte in first taste of Triple-A...tied for club lead in appearances, and successfully converted each of 6 save opportunities...struck out 63 batters in 55.0 innings (10.3 per 9.0 innings)...batting average against when facing left-handed batters was .128...allowed just one earned run in final 13 appearances, or 16.2 innings, beginning with the nightcap of a July 26 doubleheader at Louisville...fanned 6 of 10 batters faced, June 9 at Ottawa...went 3-1 with a 4.50 ERA while pitching for Aguilas of the Dominican Winter League following the season.

2002

Entered season rated by Baseball America as CWS' No. 9 prospect, and as owning the best curveball among CWS farmhands...went on to post a 2.61 ERA in 51 appearances with Birmingham...excluding April, ERA was 2.07...for the season, batting average against was .231 and fanned 9.7 per 9.0 innings...registered scoreless inning streaks of 13.1 (May 8-25) and 11.1 (June 10-28)...fanned 10 batters in 7.1 innings in the Southern League Championship Series, during which Birmingham swept Jacksonville in 3 games...following the season, pitched for Aguilas of the Dominican Winter League, going 4-0 with 4 saves and a 1.55 ERA in 30 relief appearances...struck out 74 in 40.2 winter-league innings...was named DWL Pitcher of the Year and DWL Rookie of the Year...became the first pitcher in DWL history to win both awards in the same season.

2001

Was stingy, allowing just 4.6 hits per 9.0 innings with Kannapolis of the Single-A South Atlantic League...the 4.6 hits allowed per 9.0 innings led all full-season Single-A pitchers and ranked 2nd in all of minor league baseball...tied for the SAL lead with 60 appearances...the 60 games also ranked 3rd in minor league baseball...struck out 115 in 79.2 innings (12.9 punchouts per 9.0 innings, which led Single-A pitchers and ranked 6th among all minor league relievers)...ranked 4th among all minor-league pitchers with a 1.16 batting average against...during 15-appearance span, April 14-May 19, worked 22.1 straight scoreless innings...allowed just one run in a 42.1-inning, 29-game span from April 14-June 16.

2000

Struck out 44 in 38.1 innings with Burlington of the Single-A Midwest League (10.2 per 9.0 innings)...did not allow a home run in his first 20 appearances or 35.0 innings.

1999

After signing with CWS as a non-drafted free agent on December 20, 1998, reported to the ChiSox's Rookie-level Arizona Summer League entry...first pro save came on July 3 vs. ASL Diamondbacks...tossed scoreless baseball in 12 of 14 appearances, but combined to allow 11 runs (9 earned) in the other 2 relief appearances.

CAREER

The Nationals' first true homegrown product...grew up in Ellicott City, MD (39 miles from DC) and is a George Washington University grad...just the 3rd player from GW, the first pitcher, to reach the big leagues, joining C John Flaherty and current BAL manager Sam Perlozzo, who played for MIN in '77 and SDP in '79... high-school teammates at St. Joe's (MD) High included TEX's Mark Teixeira and CWS' Gavin Floyd...was signed by Nationals scout Alex Smith.

2006

One season removed from being named Nationals Minor League Pitcher of the Year, reached big leagues in 5th professional season...went 3-8 with a 4.80 ERA (56 ER/106.0 IP) in 21 games (20 starts) for Washington despite not being a member of the Nationals' big league camp during spring training...became just the 5th franchise left-handed pitcher to start at least 20 games as a rookie, the first since Carlos Perez (23 starts in 1995)...the other 3 southpaw rookie starters to reach the 20-start plateau: Brian Barnes (27 starts in 1991), Joe Hesketh (25 starts in 1985), and Balor Moore (22 starts in 1972)...ranked among NL rookie pitchers in starts (8th with 20) and batting average against (10th at .244)...began the season with New Orleans of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League...was 0-0 with a 2.41 ERA upon having contract purchased by the Nationals on April 27...made big league debut that night at STL, pitching on 3 days' rest...took the loss despite allowing zero earned runs in 5.0 solid innings...was touched for 3 runs in the first inning via Jim Edmonds' 3-run shot, which came after Ryan Zimmerman throwing error extended the inning...in all, allowed just 3 hits and 4 walks...struck out 2, including Edmonds for first career big league K...nabbed first career win in 6-2 victory, May 2 at NYM...limited NYM to one run on 2 hits in 7.0 innings...walked 2, fanned 6...allowed hits to only Paul Lo Duca (homer, single)...at the age of 25 years and 9 months, became the youngest left-handed starting pitcher to earn a win for the Nationals/Expos franchise since southpaw Matt Blank (25 years, 2 months) turned the trick on June 16, 2001 vs. TOR...pitching in front of family and friends, pocketed win in RFK Stadium debut, May 7 vs. PIT... thus, became the franchise's first left-handed starter to garner wins in consecutive starts since southpaw Matt Blank turned the trick in 2001 (June 16 vs. TOR and June 21 at NYM)....did not allow more than 3 earned runs in a start until 10th big league starting assignment...was optioned to New Orleans on July 30 after struggling in previous 3 starts (0-2, 11.91 ERA in 3 starts from June 30-July 18)...after stint with New Orleans (went 1-0 with a 2.73 ERA in 6 PCL starts, fanning 28 in 26.1 innings)...was recalled from New Orleans on September 5 and made triumphant return with 5.0 innings of 3-hit shut-out ball on September 6 vs. STL (Washington won, 7-6, thanks to a 2-run 9th inning)...finished strong after return, going 0-1 with a 3.48 ERA in 5 September games (4 starts)...posted only one win (June 8 vs. PHI) in last 17 big league starts despite allowing 3 earned runs or less 11 times in that span...went 0-5 with a 6.59 ERA (38 ER/52.2 IP) in final 11 big league starts after final victory (June 8 vs. PHI)....posted solid batting average against of .244 (96-for-393)...finished 2-4 with a 4.04 ERA (25 ER/55.2 IP) in 11 starts at RFK, as opposed to 1-4 with a 5.66 ERA (31 ER/49.1 IP) in 10 games (9 starts) on the road...pitched best on normal (4 days') rest, going 3-3 with a 3.95 ERA (25 ER/57.0 IP)...went 0-5 with a 5.87 ERA (30 ER/46.0 IP) in 9 starts on more than 4 days' rest...first big league

CAREER

Enters 2007 hoping to stake claim as the Nationals' undisputed ace, but again must address health issues after injury plagued 2006 campaign...made only 8 starts due to a nerve issue in right elbow (see note in 2006 section on the procedure)... is expected to be ready for Spring Training...although vast potential came to fruition in 2005, career came full circle a year prior, in 2004...was Montreal's first pick (5th overall) in the 1996 First-Year Player Draft out of Orange-Stark (TX) High... became a free agent on a technicality (not tendered an offer by the Expos by stated deadline) and signed with ARI as a free agent on November 7, 1996...after going 3-4 with a 5.04 ERA for the D-Backs from 2002-03, was acquired by Montreal in final week of Spring Training to add depth to a starting rotation that began the season without Tony Armas Jr. (May '03 right-shoulder surgery)...is 14-16 with a 3.84 ERA (144 ER/337.1 IP) in 58 starts or 3 seasons with the Nationals/Expos... has 30 quality starts in 58 assignments (52%) since returning to "original" franchise.

Made just 8 starts while again struggling with injuries, specifically a right forearm strain, for a majority of the season... missed 130 games during a pair of DL stints in 2006...finished 1-2 with a 4.43 ERA (20 ER/40.2 IP) before pitching for a final time on July 9 vs. SDP...lasted only 1.0 inning that afternoon and was placed on the DL on July 14 (retroactive to July 10)...on July 20, had successful surgery performed by Nationals Orthopedist Dr. Ben Shaffer and Nationals hand consultant Dr. Richard Barth at Sibley Hospital in Washington, DC...during the 75-minute procedure, the lacertus fibrosis was released and the median nerve was explored and decompressed...several areas of constriction within the nerve were released, thus leaving the nerve healthy and free of compression...earlier in the season, missed 58 games while on the DL, April 22-June 23, with right forearm tightness...posted 4 consecutive quality starts, April 10-June 23, going 1-1 with a 2.60 ERA (8 ER/27.2 IP)...posted a stellar strikeout-to-walk ratio of 4.7/1 (42 SO, 9 BB)... fanned 9.3 batters per 9.0 innings (42 SO in 40.2 IP)...went 0-0 with a 3.95 ERA (6 ER/13.2 IP) in 3 starts at RFK... was 1-0 with a 3.15 ERA (7 ER/20.0 IP) in 4 starts on normal (4 days') rest, but 0-2 with a 5.66 ERA (13 ER/20.2 IP) in 8 starts on more than 4 days' rest...posted a batting average against of .167 (3-for-18) with RISP and 2 outs...3 of 4 homers allowed were solo shots...when toeing the rubber, Washington went 4-4...in early February, politely and respectfully declined overtures from Team USA to participate in the inaugural World Baseball Classic...dominated in Spring Training, going 2-1 with a 2.01 ERA (5 ER/22.1 IP) in 5 Grapefruit League starts.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Earned lone win and matched career high with 13 strikeouts in a 2-1 victory at FLA, April 15...the win also snapped the Nationals' 6-game losing streak...the 13 punch outs tied for 8th all-time on the franchise's single-game list, and also tied a Washington Nationals record previously set August 4, 2005 vs. LAD by Patterson himself...a list of the 7 Nationals/Expos pitchers to record more than 13 strikeouts in a single game: Bill Gullickson (franchise record 18 K, September 10, 1980 vs. CHI), Floyd Youmans (15 K, Sept. 27, 1986 vs. PHI), Jeff Fassero (14 K, Aug. 11, 1996 vs. CHI), Jeff Juden (14 K, July 1, 1997 at TOR), Pedro Martinez (14 K, June 14, 1997 vs. DET), Bob Sebra (14 K, July 1, 1987 vs. CHI) and Javier Vazquez (14 K, April 9, 2003 at CHI)...left June 29 start at TOR 2 pitches into the 4th inning with fatigue in right arm.

Rehab Assignment: From June 7-17, made 3 rehab starts, 2 with Single-A Potomac and one with Triple-A New Orleans...went 0-1 with a 4.05 ERA (6 ER/13.1 IP)...walked 4, fanned 13 during the 3 minor-league assignments.

Produced long-awaited break-out season, going 9-7 with a 3.13 ERA in 31 starts...as Nationals most dominant starter, more than doubled career win total (7) entering '05...established career highs in every major category, including innings... had never thrown as many as 198.1 innings during any season as a pro...posted sub-3.00 ERA for majority of season... registered 19 quality starts, including 10 in an 11-start span from July 4-August 24...tied for 10th in the NL with a team-leading 185 strikeouts...also ranked among NL leaders in ERA (9th), batting average against (8th at .233), strikeouts per 9.0 innings pitched (tied for 7th with a team-leading 8.4) and night ERA (8th at 2.85)...posted the 9 wins despite suffering from the 7th-worst run support in the NL (12th in MLB) at 3.86 (runs only count while in the game)...allowed 2 runs or less 20 times in 31 starts...on 8 occasions, was touched for one earned run or less, but relegated to a loss or no-decision...despite posting 10 quality starts in 15 assignments, went just 1-5 with a 3.39 ERA (34 ER/90.1 IP) against NL East foes...lone NL East win came April 26 vs. PHI (W3-1)...thus, went 8-2 with a 2.92 ERA (35 ER/108.0 IP) against non-NL East competition...was 6-3 with a 3.08 ERA in 19 starts at RFK, but took the loss in final 3 September decisions in DC...3 road wins trumped career total (2) entering the season...endured DL stint, May 24 (retro to May 16)-May 30 with back spasms...missed approximately 2 starts...led Washington with 27 K's in June...finished stellar month of July with just a 1-1 record, despite posting a 1.54 ERA (7 ER/41.0 IP) in 6 starts...however, Washington scored only 9 runs in the 6 starts...one more July nugget: fanned 10.5 batters per 9.0 innings pitched (48 SO/41.0 IP)...4 August wins established a single-month career high...in fact, had never won more than 2 games in a single month...paced Washington with 4 wins, 34 strikeouts and a 2.21 starters' ERA in August...threw 16.0 pitches per inning, or 2.4 fewer than 2004...went 0-0 with a 3.29 ERA (5 ER/13.2 IP) in a pair of starts on 3 days' rest...posted more than one win against only one club (COL, 2)...limited opponents to .203 mark with RISP and 2 outs...opponents hit just .166 when the count reached 2 strikes...fanned career-high 13 and did not walk a batter in first career shutout, April 4 vs. LAD (W7-0)...was opposed by, among others, Greg Maddux, Jason Schmidt, John Smoltz, Mike Hampton (twice), Russ Ortiz, Jon Lieber, Jamie Moyer, Kenny Rogers and A.J. Burnett...when toeing the rubber, Washington went 17-14.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Pitched well, allowing 2 runs in 7.0 innings, in his '05 debut, April 10 at FLA...took the loss as Josh Beckett went the distance in FLA's eventual 9-0 win...fired 7.0 4-hit shut-out innings to nab first win, April 15 vs. ARI...improved to 2-0 with a 1.32 ERA against his former club...worked 7.0 more scoreless innings on April 21 vs. ATL...left in line for the win, but 2-run error with 2 outs in the 9th inning gave ATL a 2-1 victory...after 5 straight no-decisons, finally earned win on June 11 vs. SEA...touched for only one run on 6 hits in 7.0 strong innings in eventual 2-1 victory...stuck with no-decision in a 1-0 loss at PHI, July 9, despite allowing only 2 singles in 7.0 scoreless innings... also matched career high with 8 K's in the July 9 no-decision...ended string of 6 straight no-decisions by pocketing the win, thanks to 8.0 shut-out innings, in a 4-0 victory, July 19 vs. COL...scattered 3 hits and 2 walks, while fanning 5...dominated hot-hitting HOU—allowed one run on 6 hits in 8.0 innings, while striking out a career-high 10—but was relegated to 12th no-decision of season, July 24 at RFK...earned the win in Nationals' 6-5 victory, August 9 at HOU... was pitching in Space City for the first time...grew up just 110 miles east of Houston in Orange, TX...took a Coors Field shutout into the 8th, but settled for 3rd win in as many starts in Nationals 9-2 win, August 14...allowed just one run on 9 hits in 8.0 innings...for a 2nd time in '05, took the loss in a 1-0 setback, August 19 at NYM...allowed just one run in 7.0 innings, but was outdueled by Jae Seo...pitched into the 9th inning to earn the win in a 5-3 victory vs. CIN, August 24...left August 30 start at ATL after 2.2 innings due to stomach cramps...in first start at Petco Park since April of '04 groin injury, was touched for just one-run on 3 hits in 2nd career complete game, a 5-1 win, September 16 at SDP...seemingly was always the Nationals' starter when club played on national TV...started on ESPN Sunday Night baseball, May 1 vs. NYM...also pitched on ESPN2 on July 4 vs. NYM...was also the starter on Nationals' first appearance on FOX Saturday afternoon baseball, July 9 at PHI.

Emerged in first extended opportunity at the big league level...went 4-7 with a 5.03 ERA in 19 starts sandwiched around a 10-plus week stay on the DL with a right groin strain...otherwise, took the ball every 5th day as needed...flashed talent that made him one of MLB's top prospects...fanned 99 in 98.1 innings (9.06 K's per 9 innings)...set career highs in virtually every major category...in many instances, topped career totals entering the season...after being acquired, pitched in one Grapefruit League contest before making his Expos debut on April 10 vs. NYM...the start was perhaps his best of the season...earned the win for the Expos nearly 8 years after Montreal took Patterson as the 5th overall pick in the '96 Draft... scattered 2 hits and just one walk in 7.0 shut-out innings...struck out 6 and needed just 86 pitches as Montreal won, 1-0... went 1-2 with a 3.57 ERA in April before sustaining a severely strained right groin in the 5th inning on April 27 at SD... ranked among NL league leaders in batting average against (.200) at the time of the injury...was barely able to walk after the game...was placed on the DL the next day and returned home for a period before resuming rehab at the club's minor-league complex in Viera, FL...made a pair of rehab starts for Single-A Brevard County and Double-A Harrisburg before slowing down with tightness in the same groin...missed 66 big league games in all before returning to the mound on July 16 at ATL...13 of 19 starts came against NL East foes...when toeing the rubber, the Expos went 7-12 (1-6 in Patterson's final 7 starts)...walked 2.4 batters per game before groin injury...walked 4.8 per 9 innings after the injury...limited opponents to a .202 mark with RISP...posted 7 quality starts.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Faced ARI, his former club, for the first time on August 11 at The Big O...earned the win...allowed 3 runs (2 earned) on 6 hits in 6.2 innings...walked one, struck out 6 in the Expos' 7-3 win...stellar 8.0-inning effort in opener of Sept. 15 twinbill at FLA was the longest career start...gave up 2 runs on 6 hits as Montreal bested Carl Pavano and the Fish, 6-2...started and took the loss in the last game in Montreal Expos history, October 3 at NYM...went 4.1 innings, allowing 4 runs on 4 hits...walked 3, struck out 3 in a game eventually won by NYM, 8-1... fanned a career-high 8 on 3 occasions: April 27 at SDP, July 31 at FLA and September 10 at ATL.

Opened season with Triple-A Tucson...after a pair of starts for the Sidewinders, was recalled by ARI on April 11 in preparation for a starting assignment 4 days later vs. COL...was sent back to Tucson following the game...returned to ARI on May 28 when Brandon Webb was placed on the DL...was optioned back to Tucson, July 8...made 10 more starts with Tucson, going 5-3 with a 2.92 ERA...finished 5.0 innings shy of qualifying for what would have been the PCL's ERA crown...in Sept., returned to ARI...worked 2.0 scoreless innings to earn first pro save, Sept. 7 at SFG.

2002

Joined the Diamondbacks during 2nd half...made 5 starts in the heat of a pennant race...with the home field in the Division Series hanging in the balance, took the ball in the regular season finale, Sept. 29 at COL, and posted an 11-8 win...touched for 2 runs in 5.0 innings...5 days earlier at STL, blanked the Central Division titleholders on one hit over 6.0 frames, fanning 8...left the scoreless tie without a decision...subbing for the injured Rick Helling, made his big league debut on July 20 at SDP...worked 6.0 innings, allowing one run and 3 hits in front of 54,980 at The Q...departed trailing 1-0, but ARI rallied for a 7-1 win...took the hill again on July 25 vs. SD and spun 7.1 shut-out innings...scattered 5 hits while posting his first big league win...picked up his first major league hit on July 25 at SDP off Tom Davey... began the year in extended spring training to continue strengthening his elbow.

2001

While finishing rehabilitation from elbow surgery, opened '01 on the DL for 2nd straight year...pitching for Single-A Lancaster, made his '01 debut, May 13...made 2 Cal League starts before advancing to Double- then Triple-A.

2000

Missed majority of the season with elbow surgery...opened the year on the DL due to a right elbow strain...had "Tommy John" ligament-replacement surgery performed by Dr. James Andrews on May 25 in Birmingham, AL.

1999

Opened the year with El Paso, but season was interrupted to go and pitch for the U.S. in the Pan American Games...part of Team USA that earned Silver Medal and qualified for 2000 Sydney Olympics...made 2 starts in Winnipeg, including the opener against Canada (ND)...earned the win over Panama in the quarterfinals...upon return from international action, was the Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Week, June 7-13...was D-Backs' Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Month for June...led Texas League starters with 10.6 K's per 9.0 innings...following season, pitched in the Arizona Fall League.

1998

Paced the California League in ERA and batting average against (.217)...also ranked 4th with 148 strikeouts...following the season, was rated the 2nd-best prospect in the California League in a Baseball America poll of league managers.

1997

Spent first pro season with South Bend of the Single-A Midwest League...pitched better than his 1-9 record indicated... posted a solid 3.23 ERA and fanned 95 batters in 78.0 innings (10.96 per 9 innings).

PERSONAL

John Hollis Patterson...single...as a senior at West Orange-Stark High School, was named to USA Today's prep All-America squad with a 7-2 record and a 0.77 ERA in 72.1 innings, fanning 142.

CAREER NOTES

One of the Nationals' late-season surprises, hopes to duplicate efforts and become mainstay in Washington's rotation... led the Nationals minor league system in 2006 with a 3.11 ERA...signed by scout Junior Noboa (ARI).

2006

Seized late-season opportunity, going 2-1 with a 3.86 ERA in 8 games (3 starts) with Washington...had contract purchased from Harrisburg, September 2...made big league debut that day in the first game of doubleheader vs. ARI, allowing one hit in 2.0 scoreless innings of relief...first 5 appearances were out of the bullpen (5.2 innings)...followed with 3 starts, going 2-1 with a 4.70 ERA (8 ER/15.1 IP)...worked 6.0 shutout innings of one-hit ball in his first start, September 19 vs. ATL...posted another quality start the next time out, giving up 2 runs on 4 hits in 6.1 innings on September 25 at NYM...was touched for 6 runs on 6 hits in 3.0 innings in final '07 outing on September 30 vs. NYM.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Dazzled in his first big league start September 19 vs. ATL, facing just one over the minimum in 6.0 innings...allowed a 2-out single in the first inning (Chipper Jones) before retiring the next 16 straight.

In minor leagues: Tied for 3rd in the Eastern League with an organization-best 3.11 ERA, going 8-6 with one save in 31 games (16 starts) overall...8 wins tied Oscar Alvarez for the Harrisburg lead...first 12 appearances were out of the bullpen...made the switch to the starting rotation in mid-May...16 of his last 19 appearances were starts...went 2-1 with a 2.97 ERA in relief and 6-5 with a 3.16 ERA as a starter...posted 8 quality starts, and allowed 2 runs or less in 13 of his 16 starts...was tabbed as the Nationals' August Pitcher of the Month (1-1 with a 1.95 ERA in 6 games/4 starts)... with RISP, posted a .206 (29-for-141) batting average against, including an 0-for-11 mark with bags loaded.

both games of a twinbill vs. ARI the day prior...2nd save came on September 28 vs. PHI...recorded 27th and final out at 2:07 am on Sept. 29 as game did not begin until 11:32 pm on the 28th)...worked 1-2-3 innings for both saves... recorded holds in back-to-back games just once (September 16-17 vs. MIL)...fanned 4 thrice to match career high while pitching in relief: April 26 vs. CIN, July 9 vs. SDP and September 11 at ARI...suffered 3 blown saves (July 4 vs. FLA, Sept. 8 at COL and Sept. 11 at ARI)...successfully retired 56 of 83 first batters faced (67%)...posted a 2.92 ERA (16 ER/49.1 IP) in 44 appearances at RFK...pitched slightly better before the All-Star break (3.23) as opposed to after (3.52)...went 2-2 with a 3.04 ERA (8 ER/23.2 IP) when pitching on zero days' rest...went 0-2 with a 2.57 ERA (12 ER/42.0 IP) in 36 games against NL East foes...opponents went just 1-for-15 (.067) with the bases loaded...closed strong, posting a 0.96 ERA (1 ER/9.1 IP) in final 9 appearances of 2006.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Notched first career hold with a scoreless 7th inning on April 8 at HOU...struck out only batters faced, Alex Rodriguez and Robinson Cano, with potential tying and winning runs in scoring position on June 16 vs. NYY...efforts earned 6th hold...worked season-long 2.1 innings, July 9 vs. SDP.

Ground through injury-plagued season, but pitched well when not on the DL, going 2-4 with a 3.60 ERA in 15 games (one start)...began the season in the minors...was recalled from New Orleans on April 25 after Joe Horgan was optioned...made '05 debut that night with 2.0 scoreless innings vs. PHI...fired 3.0 no-hit scoreless innings of relief to earn first win in 9-3 victory, May 6 at SFG...walked 4, fanned 2...pitched on May 25 at CIN, but was placed on the DL that night with a torn right labrum...had arthroscopic surgery performed by Dr. Wiemi Douoguih on May 31 to repair labrum tear (labrum/rotator cuff debridement) in right shoulder...began throwing 6 weeks later...returned to action on September 8 at FLA after missing 102 games...made first big league start of the season on Sept. 28 at FLA...despite not learning of assignment until 4:10 p.m., worked 3.0 scoreless innings and tallied the game-winning RBI in the Nationals' 11-1 win via a 2nd-inning infield single...posted batting average against of .218...stranded 9 of 10 inherited baserunners (90%)...retired 13 of 14 (93%) first batters faced...2 of 4 losses came in extra-inning games...both wins came against SFG...went 1-0 with a 1.35 ERA (1 ER/6.2 IP) at RFK, where opposing batters hit just .130 (3-for-23)... opponents hit just .179 when the count reached 2 strikes...when appearing, Washington went 5-10.

Rehab Assignment: Began a rehab assignment with New Orleans, August 26...posted a 2.57 ERA in 4 games (2 starts)...went 3.0 innings in final rehab tuneup, Sept. 5 at Iowa...was reinstated from the DL by Washington, Sept. 6.

Split season not only between Triple-A and big leagues, but between CWS and Expos organizations...combined on a 4-1 record and a 2.81 ERA in 11 big league games (4 starts) for the ChiSox and Expos...began season with Triple-A Charlotte and made 2 starts for CWS before being acquired by the Expos in 3-player deal that sent Carl Everett back to the Windy City...performed well after the trade for both Edmonton and Expos...pitched just twice for the Expos before missing 29 games with a strained left oblique...was placed on the 15-Day DL on August 15 (retro to August 14)...was reinstated from DL on September 14...allowed only one run in his final 8 games (one start) or 17.1 innings with the Expos...made 2 starts for CWS during a pair of big league stints...was recalled on May 29, pitched that night vs. ANA (took the loss) and was optioned back to Triple-A the same day...earned the win on June 24 vs. CLE, allowing one run on 6 hits in 5.0 innings, in his final outing with the ChiSox...after the trade, was recalled by the Expos on August 6...was issued No. 51, the same number worn by—among others—Randy Johnson during his stint with the club (1988-89)...went 3-0 with a 1.54 ERA (4 ER/23.1 IP) in 9 games (2 starts) for the Expos...earned the win in his Expos debut, August 7 at HOU..allowed only one homer in 32.0 big league innings (Jeff Conine, September 28 vs. FLA)...this, after allowing 7 homers in only 28.2 innings as a CWS rookie in '02...walked more than one batter only twice in 11 games (4 starts)...CWS and Expos went 3-1 in Jon's 4 starts...posted a 4.19 ERA in a starting role (9 ER/19.1 IP)...ERA in relief was 0.71 (1 ER/12.2 IP)...opponents hit just .179 after the 6th inning.

In minor leagues: Combined to go 7-4 with a 3.39 ERA in 17 Triple-A games (16 starts) for Charlotte and Edmonton... posted an impressive 2.7/1 strikeout-to-walk ratio...allowed 2 or fewer runs in 12 of 16 starts for the 2 clubs...went 6-3 with a 3.11 ERA in 14 games (13 starts) for Charlotte...went 3-0 with a 1.30 ERA (6 ER/41.2 IP) in 8 starts in May and June...allowed 3 or fewer runs in 3 of his final 4 starts in the ChiSox organization...went 4-1 with a 1.83 ERA in 8 road starts for the Knights...with the trade, went from the International League to the Pacific Coast League...was 1-1 with a 4.50 ERA (9 ER/18.0 IP) in 3 starts for Edmonton upon being recalled.

Game-By-Game Highlights: On August 13 vs. HOU, in first start at Olympic Stadium, worked 4.2 no-hit shutout innings AND collected his first big league hit, a 2-run opposite-field home run off future Hall-of-Famer Roger Clemens... however, left the game—and was placed on the 15-Day DL just 2 days later—due to a left oblique strain...not only had a no-hitter intact at the time of his exit, finished one out shy of recording the win...matched career high with 4 strikeouts on 3 occasions, the last coming September 15 at FLA (in relief)...worked a scoreless 8th inning in the Expos' final game, October 3 at NYM.

In minor leagues: Pitching for Triple-A Charlotte, fanned season-high 9 in 7.0 shut-out innings, June 9 at Buffalo.

Spent season with Triple-A Charlotte...won 7 of 8 decisions, including last 5...averaged 6.8 K's per 9.0 innings... posted 12 quality starts...went 5-0 with a 2.90 ERA at home...was 2-0 with a 2.25 ERA (6 ER/24.0 IP) in April and 2-0 with a 2.17 ERA (9 ER/37.1 IP) in August...however, posted a 5.97 ERA from May-July...only loss came on May 12 at Toledo...was on the DL from June 30-July 17 with right shoulder inflammation...first post-DL appearance came in relief on July 17 vs. Norfolk...threw his only complete game in nightcap of August 15 twinbill at Indianapolis...went season-high 8.0 scoreless innings in first game of August 20 doubleheader at Richmond...tabbed by Baseball America as the No. 5 prospect in the White Sox organization entering the 2003 season.

2002

Rebounded from '01 shoulder surgery to make 8 appearances (6 starts) in rookie season with CWS...was a member of CWS' Opening Day roster for first time...threw 1.1 scoreless innings in major league debut on April 2 at SEA... pitched out of a 2-out, bases-loaded jam in the 7th by retiring Jeff Cirillo...retired all 4 batters faced...went 1-1 with a 6.75 ERA as a starter and, when toeing the rubber in a starting role, CWS went 3-3...made first career start on April 16 vs. CLE...lasted only 4.0 inings, allowing 3 runs, but didn't get a decision...was 1-1 with a 12.15 ERA in 4 home starts and 0-0 with a 0.75 ERA in a pair of road starts...was 0-1 with a 9.82 ERA upon being optioned to Charlotte... went 2-0 with a 3.21 ERA in September with the ChiSox after being recalled on Sept. 2...earned his first career win—in relief—on Sept. 3 at TOR...limited opposing batters to a .196 mark after the break, compared to .290 prior.

2001

Ranked 4th among International League starters in opponents average (.226) and 5th in K's per 9.0 innings (8.0)... went 2-2 with a 2.31 ERA and 34 strikeouts in August...in '01, was rated by Baseball America as the No. 2 prospect in the White Sox organization behind OF Joe Borchard...underwent season-ending shoulder surgery, May 24...the procedure was performed by Dr. James Andrews...surgery involved repairing a Type 2 achromium, a rotator cuff debridement and a labral repair...began rehab, May 28, in Tucson...was 1-3 with a 5.79 ERA in 6 starts for Charlotte before the injury...posted his first win for the Knights, May 8 vs. Indianapolis, fanning 8 in 6.0 innings..participated in several weeklong rehab sessions during the off-season at the CWS training complex in Lisle, IL.

2000

Was named Minor League Player of the Year by Baseball America and The Sporting News after going 16-4 with a 2.66 ERA and 187 strikeouts for Single-A Winston-Salem and Double-A Birmingham...became the 2nd White Sox player (Frank Thomas, 1990) and first Sox pitcher to earn the award...ranked by Baseball America as the No. 1 prospect in the organization and the Best Pitching Prospect in the Carolina League...was tabbed a First-Team Minor League All-Star by the same publication...finished 6th in the minor leagues in wins and strikeouts, and 14th in K's per 9.0 innings (10.2)...led CWS minor leaguers in strikeouts and wins...also ranked among the CWS' top 5 in winning percentage (2nd), complete games (T2nd), shutouts (T3rd) and ERA (5th)...limited opponents to a .226 batting average against, including a .179 mark at Birmingham...posted a 3.8/1 strikeout-to-walk ratio at the 2 levels...made 19 quality starts...spent most of the season at Winston-Salem, winning 11 of 14 decisions to win the Charles W. Lubin Award...was leading the CL in K's (124) and wins (11) at time of his promotion to Birmingham...selected to the CL mid-season All-Star Team... won 10 straight decisions, April 16-June 16, posting a 1.98 ERA...promoted to Birmingham on July 21...tied for 2nd among Southern League pitchers in shutouts (2) despite making only 8 starts...recorded a career-high 14 K's in 2-hit complete-game victory on August 29 vs. Huntsville...also tossed a 2-hitter on July 28 vs. Jacksonville...was named the organization's Player of the Month for August (4-1, 2.85 ERA).

1999

Spent most of the season at Rookie-level Bristol...averaged 10.4 strikeouts and just 2.5 walks per 9 innings pitched... struck out 7 batters in only start at Winston-Salem.

PERSONAL

Jon Erich Rauch...married to Erica...couple have one child, Aubrey, born on December 6, 2007...attended Morehead (KY) State...was a preseason 3rd-Team All-America selection at Morehead State per Baseball America...led team with 6 complete games and 103 strikeouts in 88.0 innings in '99...graduated from Oldham County (KY) High where he played baseball and basketball...earned All-Region and All-District honors in baseball as a senior...earned First-Team All-State Academic honors all 4 years.

CAREER NOTES

Has hopes of capitalizing on opportunity to claim permanent spot in rotation...is reunited with Manny Acta...pitched for Acta with Kissimmee in 2000, going 12-5 with a 2.68 ERA in 24 starts...since last pitching for HOU in 2004, has pitched in 3 different organizations, but has yet to win a game at the big league level...spent entire '06 campaign with CWS' Triple-A Charlotte affiliate and did not pitch in the big leagues for the first time since 2000...is 8-2 with a 2.98 ERA (28 ER/84.2 IP) in 17 career games (14 starts) against NL East clubs...signed by scout Mike Maggart (HOU).

Went 12-10 with a 3.40 ERA in 29 games, all but one as a starter, with Charlotte of the Triple-A International League... ranked among IL leaders in innings (first with 187.2) and complete games (first with 5), wins (4th), strikeouts (2nd with 148), games started (3rd) and ERA (9th)...allowed only 168 hits in his 187.2 innings...batting average against with RISP was .167 (27-for-162)...8 of his 12 wins came at Knights Castle...beginning May 1, went 10-8 with a 2.98 ERA in 24 games (23 starts)...including a 4-hit shutout in his lone playoff start, September 6 at Toledo, posted a 0.26 ERA (1 ER/34.0 IP) in final 5 appearances (4 starts) of the season.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Was Charlotte's Opening Day starter April 6 at Toledo and earned the win...tossed his first complete game on May 1 at Buffalo, allowing 2 runs on 5 hits in a 6-2 victory...suffered a pair of complete-game losses on the road, allowing just one run in 8.0 innings, May 18 at Indianapolis, and 2 runs in 8.0 innings, May 29 at Richmond...notched a 7.0-inning complete-game win in the first game of an August 8 doubleheader vs. Durham...in his final regular-season start of the year, September 1 vs. Richmond, allowed just one unearned run and 3 hits, while fanning 8 and walking none...in Game One of Charlotte's IL semi-final series at Toledo, struck out 12 and walked one in the 5-0 triumph (Charlotte lost the best-of-5 series 3-1)...in lone relief appearance, August 29 vs. Columbus, worked a perfect 7th inning.

CAREER

One of MLB's rookie suprises of '06, reached big leagues for first time after 8-plus minor-league seasons (302 games)... in minors, batting average against was .218 (360-for-1653)...despite slender frame, has averaged an astounding 10.2 strikeouts per 9.0 innings during 8-year minor-league career with MIN, NYM, MIL and Nationals/Expos organizations...has posted strikeout-to-walk ratio of at least 3.0/1 three times in 8 pro seasons (3.5 in 2005, 3.1 in '01 and 3.4 in '98).

One of the Nationals' true unexpected surprises of the 2006 season...went 3-0 with 9 holds, one save and a 3.43 ERA in 54 games out of the bullpen for Frank Robinson after being recalled for good on May 23...the 9 holds ranked 3rd among Nationals behind only Jon Rauch (18) and Mike Stanton (10)...stranded 21 of 30 inherited baserunners (70%) to rank 3rd among NL rookies (ATL Macay McBride-79.6% and SDP's Cla Meredith-76.3%)...originally had contract purchased by the Nationals on April 14, but did not pitch and was optioned back to Triple-A New Orleans on April 19... walked one in 0.2 scoreless inning and earned a hold in big league debut on May 25 vs. HOU...in first 8 appearances, Washington went 7-1...worked scoreless relief in 10 of first 11 big league appearances...was significantly better after the All-Star break (3-0, 7 holds, 2.04 ERA) than before (0-0, 2 holds, 6.10 ERA)...strung together season-best 10.1 consecutive scoreless innings from July 6-August 5...closed strong, going 2-0 with 5 holds and a 0.54 ERA (1 ER/16.2 IP) in 15 Sept./Oct. appearances...all 3 wins in 2006 came at RFK...in 12 appearances on zero days' rest, posted a 1.08 ERA (1 ER/8.1 IP)...stranded 21 of 30 (70%) inherited baserunners...allowed 8 runs (7 earned) in just 0.1 inning on July 5 vs. FLA...without that appearance, ERA would have been 2.40...allowed just one hit and fanned 6 while firing 7.0 scoreless innings in 5 appearances against NL East-champion NYM...retired 30 of 54 (56%) first batters faced... opponents hit .151 (16-for-106) when the count reached 2 strikes...when appearing, Washington went 27-27.

Game-By-Game Highlights: With tying and winning runs on first and second base, respectively, retired Chipper (K) and Andruw Jones (popout) to record first save of career via a 7-6 win on August 25 at ATL...worked a 1-2-3 9th on July 26 vs. SFG and was rewarded with first big league victory as the Nationals scored twice in the bottom of inning to win, 4-3...worked season-high 3.0 innings thrice: October 1 vs. NYM, July 28 at LAD and July 3 vs. FLA.

Thanks to 70 K's and just 20 walks in 76.2 innings with Harrisburg of the Double-A Eastern League, posted career-best 3.5/1 strikeout-to-walk ratio...ERA in the 9th inning was 1.88 (5 ER/24.0 IP)...went 1-2 with 5 saves and a 1.42 ERA (5 ER/31.2 IP) in 19 appearances on the road.

In minor leagues: Posted a 0.86 ERA in 9 May appearances...struck out a season-high 5 in 2.2 innings on May 26 at Reading...thanks to 7.1 scoreless innings, earned 3 saves in as many appearances, May 30-June 8.

Combined to go 2-3 with 3.98 ERA (24 ER/54.1 IP) pitching for both Harrisburg and Huntsville of the Double-A Southern League...struggled, posting a 7.71 ERA in the Eastern League before being dealt to MIL on June 6...pitched well thereafter, registering a stellar 1.62 ERA in 26 appearances with MIL's Huntsville affiliate.

2003

Did not pitch in 2003...had surgery to repair ulnar-collateral ligament in right elbow on May 8... procedure was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL.

2002

After being claimed off waivers by NYM in November of '01, spent half of '02 season with Binghamton of the Double-A Eastern League before being dealt to the Expos in a 7-player trade that sent, among others RHP Scott Strickland to the Mets and LHP Bruce Chen to Quebec...combined on 16 saves and a 3.12 ERA for the 2 clubs.

2001

Went 5-2 with 13 saves and a 3.16 ERA in 33 games out of the bullpen for New Britain of the Double-A Eastern League...started strong, earning 2 wins and 4 saves in first 6 appearances, which spanned 7.2 scoreless one-hit innings, April 7-18...fanned only 3 batters faced, April 13 vs. Portland...fanned at least one batter in 29 of 33 EL appearances...walked more than one batter only twice in those same 33 games...finished game in 27 of 33 outings.

2000

Won career-high 9 games pitching predominantly for Fort Myers of the Single-A Florida State League...ranked 3rd among FSL relievers in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (11.43)...went 8-0 with 4 saves and a 3.42 ERA through the end of May.

1999

Took major step forward with stellar season, going 4-1 with a 1.42 ERA in 60 games out of the bullpen with Quad city of the Single-A Midwest League...ranked among MWL leaders with a career-high 23 saves (2nd), 13.2 strikeouts per 9.0 innings pitched (3rd) and 54 games finished (3rd)...led the league in appearances.

1998

Posted a 2.25 ERA in 23 games during professional debut with Elizabethtown of the Rookie-level Appalachian League...ranked 3rd in the Appy League in games finished (21)...stellar performance, specifically batting average against of .151 and 16.3 strikeouts per 9.0 innings pitched, spoke to degree of domination.

2006

Struggled offensively through much of season, but righted ship late and posted numbers comparable to those posted in previous seasons...posted career-high 55 RBI...hit just .223 through August 4, but batted .324 (44-for-136) with 9 doubles, one homer and 21 RBI in 42 games thereafter...hit .344 (22-for-64) beginning September 5...hit safely in career-high 11 straight games, September 5-20, at a .361 (13-for-36) clip with 3 doubles, 5 RBI and 3 walks...3 of 4 home runs came at RFK...with the bases loaded, went 4-for-11 with 3 walks and one HBP to record a .533 OBP...hit .305 (43-for-141) with 2 outs...batted above .300 in May (.308), August (.333) and September (.306)...endured first career DL stint, May 11-25 (left hamstring strain)...posted twice as many hits against PHI (22) than any other opponent (11 against FLA and NYM)...when batting 6th, batted .347 (17-for-49) with 4 doubles and 9 RBI...hit .231 prior to the All-Star break, .286 after...grounded into career-high 14 double plays...made 500th career start at catcher on August 4 at SDP (0-for-4)...in 111 starts at catcher (2nd-highest total of career), Washington went 45-66 (.405)...for first time since 2002, did not lead either MLB or the NL in percentage of would-be basestealers thrown out...gunned down 21 of 79 (27%) would-be basestealers in 2006... appeared defensively at 1B for the first time on October 1 vs. NYM...did not have the luxury of a regular spring training... was a member of the Team USA during the World Baseball Classic...shared catching duties with Jason Varitek and former-teammate Michael Barrett...went 0-for-6 in the tournament, but started Team USA's opener vs. Mexico...represented MLB in the annual tour/series of Japan after the season, playing for SFG-manager Bruce Bochy.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Blasted 9th-inning 2-run shot off Derrick Turnbow to turn 3-2 defeat into 4-3 victory, June 3 at MIL...also gunned down 2 would-be basestealers in the game...went 3-for-4 with a double, homer and 2 RBI on July 9 vs. SDP...laced opposite field 2-run double in 2nd inning off Tom Glavine to account for Nationals' offense in a 2-1 win vs. NYM, August 11...doubled, homered and notched 3 RBI in a 9-6 win on August 16 vs. ATL...laced pinch-hit RBI single, Sept. 6 vs. STL, to record first pinch RBI since hitting pinch grand slam on Sept. 15, 2003 vs. ATL... season-best 4 hits on September 25 at NYM matched career high for 4th time...laced game-winning 2-run single to snap 1-1 tie in an eventual 3-1 win vs. PHI on September 28...the hit was significant, however, because it came at approximately 1:15 am (on Sept. 29), as the game did not begin until 11:32 pm due to rain.

Approached career highs in most offensive categories in 2nd season as starting catcher...was again one of MLB's top defensive catchers...appeared defensively behind the plate 113 times, making 105 starts...caught 926.2 innings, or 64 percent of the Nationals' innings...posted a catcher's ERA of 3.88 (400 ER/926.2 IP) to tie for 4th in the NL among those making at least 100 starts behind the dish...excluding pitcher caught stealings, threw out 29 of 77 would-be basestealers (37.7%)...paced the NL, and ranked 2nd in MLB, in catcher's caught stealing percentage (among qualifying catchers with at least 0.4 attempts against per game)...ranked 3rd in MLB by gunning down 29 would-be basestealers...11 double plays ranked 2nd in MLB among catchers (SFG's Mike Matheny, 13)...3 passed balls tied for fewest in MLB among catchers starting at least 100 games (KCR's John Buck, CLE's Victor Martinez and NYM's Mike Piazza also surrendered just 3 passed balls)...4 catcher pickoffs tied for 3rd in MLB...posted highest slugging percentage (.409) of career as an everyday catcher...for much of season's 2nd half, battled right-shoulder bursitis, an ailment largely responsible for reduction in games played to 116 (from 135 in 2004)...did not play in the Nationals' last 10 games (bursitis)...batted .316 against clubs outside the NL East...all 10 home runs came off righthanders...last long ball against a southpaw: July 9, 2004 vs. PIT off John Grabow in Puerto Rico...7 of 10 home runs came while batting 7th...hit at least 10 home runs for 2nd consecutive season...25 hits with RISP matched 2004 career high...reduced strikeout total (48) by 24 percent compared to 2004 (63)... established career high with 10-game hitting streak, July 28-August 17...hit .438 (14-for-32) with 3 doubles, 3 homers and 6 RBI during the 10-game run..when a starting backstop, Washington went 52-53 (.495).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Trailing 3-2, laced game-winning 2-run double with 2 outs in the 9th inning off Dan Kolb, April 12 at ATL (Washington held on to win, 4-3, after 31-minute rain delay in 9th)...game-winning single snapped 3-3 tie in eventual 7-3 win, April 17 vs. ARI...snapped 1-1 deadlock with game-winning solo shot in eventual 5-1 win, April 29 vs. NYM...broke 3-3 tie with game-winning 2-run 8th-inning single off Shigetoshi Hasegawa, June 10 vs. SEA (W9-3)...solo homer on June 15 at LAA off Bartolo Colon accounted for lone run in emotional 1-0 win...blooped tie-breaking and game-winning RBI single off southpaw Mike Gonzalez in 8th inning of 5-4 victory, June 22 at PIT...2nd career extra-inning homer, a solo shot with 2 outs in the 12th inning, accounted for the decisive run in a 5-4 win at CHI...the win capped a 3-game sweep of the Cubs...posted game-winning RBI single off Pedro Martinez in 3-2 win vs. NYM on July 5...matched career high with 4 hits—all singles—on July 18 vs. COL...posted 6 straight hits, July 17-18...posted game-tying 2-run double with 2 outs in the 9th off Braden Looper, Aug. 20 at NYM...the 2-run double capped Nationals' comeback from 8-0 deficit (NYM won 9-8 in 10 innings)...led the Nationals with a .381 OBP in August...gunned down Juan Pierre (267 career stolen bases) and Luis Castillo (281 career stolen bases) in the same game on Sept. 6 vs. FLA.

DON'T DO IT!

RK	NL CATCHER (2004-06)	G	GS	SB	C-CS	C-CS%
1.	Yadier Molina	292	268	60	51	45.9
2.	Brian Schneider	369	341	142	83	36.9
3.	Jason LaRue	283	267	112	49	30.4
4.	Mike Matheny	300	281	125	53	29.9

2004

Posted outstanding numbers both offensively and defensively in first full season as a front-line catcher...contended for Gold Glove, as numbers show he was NL's top defensive backstop...for 2nd straight season, led MLB catchers having thrown out 47.8 percent of would-be basestealers (Henry Blanco 2nd at 44.6 percent)...percentage increased from the season prior (46.7% in 2003, 47.8% in 2004)...was part of MLB-leading 16 double plays...set franchise record for fielding percentage (.998) in a single season by a catcher...appeared in career-high 135 games...started career-best 125 contests (3rd in MLB, trailed only Jason Kendall [145] and Jorge Posada [126])...gunned down big league-best 33 would-be basestealers (Kendall 2nd with 31)...ranked 2nd among MLB catchers having caught 1114.0 innings (Kendall first with 1259.0)...recorded 4 catcher pickoffs to rank 2nd in MLB (Benji Molina first with 5)...despite youthful pitching staff, Brian's 3.86 catcher's ERA ranked 4th among catchers with 90 or more starts...tied for 5th in MLB with .998 fielding percentage...helped the Expos rank among MLB's best clubs in number of would-be basestealers caught stealing (tied for 3rd with 38) and fewest stolen bases allowed (2nd with 58)...Montreal went 52-73 with Brian as its starting catcher...posted career highs in at-bats (436), runs (40), hits (112), triples (3), homers (12), RBI (49), walks (42) and total bases (174)...12 home runs tied for 5th among NL catchers...number of walks rose (42 from 37), while strikeouts fell (63 from 75) compared to 2003 totals...recorded first 10 RBI of 2004 via the long ball...did not record an RBI without a homer until driving in the decisive run in a 3-2 win on May 18 vs. MIL in San Juan...15 RBI in August set a new single-month career high...with 2, was the only Expo to hit more than one homer in '04 at Hiram Bithorn Stadium... hit 2 home runs off left-handed pitchers (May 14 at ARI off Casey Fossum and July 9 vs. PIT off John Grabow)....8 of 12 home runs came while hitting in the 8-hole.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Raised primarily in the Northampton, PA (Allentown) area, hit a 2-run homer off Kevin Millwood in his first at-bat at new Citizens Bank Park, April 17 (HBP in first plate appearance)...had never homered in Pennsylvania...eclipsed the 100 career RBI plateau with game-winning 3-run homer off Steve Sparks, May 16 at ARI... tallied 3 extra-base hits in a single game for the first time in his career on June 22 vs. PHI...snapped 1-1 tie with game-winning solo homer with one out in the 8th in Expos' 2-1 victory on July 9 vs. PIT...established new career high with 10th home run on August 8 at HOU off Dan Miceli...blasted 2nd career grand slam on August 11 vs. ARI off Brandon Webb...matched career high with season-high 4 hits, September 5 vs. ATL.

In 4th season with the Expos, caught a majority of the club's games for the first time (98 games, 95 starts, 841.0 innings)...solid play—especially behind the plate—coupled with injuries to fellow-backstop Michael Barrett, resulted in the increased playing time...37 of career-high 46 RBI came in "home" games (27 at Olympic Stadium, 10 at Hiram Bithorn Stadium in Puerto Rico)...led all big league catchers who played in at least 90 games by throwing out 46.7 percent of would-be basestealers (TB's Toby Hall, 41.2% and ANA's Benji Molina, 40.8% ranked 2nd and 3rd respectively)...established career highs in numerous offensive categories, including hits (77), doubles (26), home runs (9), RBI (46), total bases (132), walks (37), games (108) and at-bats (335)...posted a team-leading 3.75 catcher's ERA...combined with Michael Barrett and Edwards Guzman to allow just 40 stolen bases on the year...the 40 SB allowed was MLB's leading mark (STL ranked 2nd with 55)...caught 6 of the 10 shutouts recorded by Montreal pitchers in '03 (April 11 vs. NYM, April 24 vs. ARI, June 23 vs. PIT, August 18 vs. SF, August 28 vs. PHI and September 18 vs. NYM)...caught one of the Expos' 2 complete-game shutouts: Javier Vazquez, August 18 vs. San Francisco...from July 27-September 11, started 39 of 43 games behind the plate, including streaks of 13 (July 27-August 9) and 12 games in a row (August 11-23)...in all, was 30-for-138 (.217) with 11 doubles, 2 home runs and 14 RBI during the 39-game stretch...posted first career multi-homer game in a 3-2 victory on April 18 in Puerto Rico vs. CIN...2nd long ball—off Scott Williamson in the 10th inning—was a game-ending homer...lifted a tie-breaking and game-winning 3-run homer off southpaw Dan Plesac with 2 outs in the 7th inning in a dramatic 5-3 win vs. PHI, May 25...doubled and homered en route to career-high 5 RBI, June 6 in Puerto Rico vs. TEX...hit first career grand slam—as a pinch hitter—Sept.15 vs. ATL...was the first Expo to hit a pinch slam since Chris Widger in '98...the pinch homer was one of 4 hit by Montreal in 2003...Montreal went 49-46 (.516) with Schneider as its starting backstop...hit 3 homers against left-handed pitchers after entering the season with none.

2002

Served as Michael Barrett's backup during first complete big league season...despite limited duty, threw out 43.5 percent (20 of 46) would-be basestealers...started 57 games...named the Expos' winner of the Roberto Clemente Award, recognizing community service...caught 5 of Expos' 9 complete games, including 2 straight, Aug. 18 (Ohka) and 19 (Colon) vs. SDP...appeared twice in the OF: June 4 vs. PIT and June 9 at CWS.

2001

Spent majority of season with Triple-A Ottawa, but made most of opportunity with Montreal...hit .317 in 27 games... began season in International League, but was recalled for the first time on June 18...went 2-for-6 and was optioned back to Ottawa...played in 18 of 25 games (9 starts) after being recalled in September...hit .314 with 5 RBI during the season's final month...slugged first career home run off Scott Elarton on September 22 vs. COL...the 2-run shot proved to be the difference in Montreal's 3-1 win...gunned down 4 of 7 big league would-be basestealers...led Ottawa in doubles (27)...was named the Ottawa Lynx Player of the Month for August (.329 with 10 RBI in 23 games).

2000

Made a great impression in the spring, earned Eastern League All-Star status and reached the big leagues for the first time...injury to veteran Chris Widger yielded first big league stint ahead of schedule...spent final 6 weeks of season with Montreal...made his major league debut on May 26 at SDP, going 0-for-1 after coming in the game as a defensive replacement in the 9th...went 2-for-3 in first career start on May 27 at SD...first big league hit was a 6th-inning double off Matt Clement...posted first career RBI on June 2 at BAL.

1999

Named Eastern League post-season All-Star in first complete Double-A campaign...set career highs in home runs (17) and RBI (66)...started 112 games behind the plate and led all EL catchers with a .992 fielding percentage...started each of the Senators' 9 playoffs games as Harrisburg captured 4th consecutive Eastern League title...posted 13-game hitting streak, July 5-19...went 5-for-5 with 2 doubles, July 19 vs Reading...participated in the Arizona Fall League... ranked by Baseball America as the No. 7 prospect in the Expos chain due in part to agility and quickness behind the plate, along with a strong and accurate throwing arm.

1998

Hit .299 for Cape Fear and was promoted on May 19 to Single-A Jupiter of the Florida State League.

1997

Playing with Cape Fear, emerged as a top-notch defensive player while posting solid offensive numbers...was named to South Atlantic League mid-season All-Star team.

1996

Returned to GCL Expos for 2nd straight season...led club with 24 walks.

1995

Drafted and almost immediately reported to the Gulf Coast Rookie League immediately after HS exams...skipped graduation ceremonies at Northamption (PA) High.

PERSONAL

Brian Duncan Schneider...married the former Jordan Sproat on Nov. 6, 2004...the couple have one daughter, Tatum (3/3/2007) and 2 dogs: Dinger and Ribbie...graduate of Northampton (PA) High, where he excelled at baseball and basketball...was named Player of the Year in Lehigh Valley in both 1994 and 1995...nicknamed "Hoops"...enjoys practicing all sports, especially golf.

CAREER

Has limited opposing right-handed batters to a .202 batting average (60-for-297) since the beginning of 2005, a total that includes a .193 mark (11-for-57) when facing big league right-handed batters in '06...has averaged 9.9 strikeouts per 9.0 innings as a pro...fanned 39 strikeouts in 28.1 innings in 21 appearances with Washington in 2006...in 2 appearances, Sept. 17-23, fanned 7 straight batters to match franchise record set by Steve Renkp (Oct. 3, 1972 vs. NYM [G1]) and Pedro Martinez (June 8, 1997 vs. CHI and Aug. 20, 1997 vs. STL)...enters '07 as the only player from the franchise's 2001 First-Year Player Draft class to have played in the majors...signed by scout Darrell Brown (MON).

Dominated right-handed batters at both the big league and minor-league levels...combining major and minor league numbers, posted a .177 (33-for-186) batting average against when facing opposing right-handed batters in 2006... made big league debut, appearing in 21 games after having his contract purchased from New Orleans, August 8... fanned 39 batters in 28.1 innings (12.4 punchouts per 9.0 innings) with the Nationals...retired 17 consecutive right-handed batters, September 12-30...struck out all 6 batters faced on September 17 vs. MIL...is the only reliever in franchise annals to do this...the 6 straight strikeouts by a reliever were one shy of the NL record held by ARI's Randy Johnson, who fanned 7 straight on July 19, 2001 at SDP...the 6 K's were also one shy of the franchise record for a pitcher...Expos starters Steve Reko (Oct. 3, 1972 [G2] vs. NYM) and Pedro Martinez (August 20, 1997 vs. STL) each fanned 7 straight...tossed 7.0 straight scoreless innings in 4-plus appearances September 12-27...18 of the 24 outs (75 percent) recorded in a 6-game span from Sept. 10-27 were K's...retired 15 of his 21 first batters faced (71.4%).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Made his big league debut August 8 vs. FLA, retiring the side in order in the 7th...picked up his first big league hold September 27 vs. PHI despite allowing 2 runs in 1.1 innings.

In minor leagues: Started the year at Double-A Harrisburg, and posted a 4.76 ERA (6 ER/11.1 IP) in 8 games...on May 4, was promoted to Triple-A New Orleans...struck out 60 and gave up just 25 hits in 47.1 PCL innings (11.4 K's and just 4.8 hits per 9.0 innings)...posted a .152 batting average against with the Zephyrs, including a .125 mark (12-for-96) by opposing right-handed batters...opponents hit just .114 (5-for-44) with RISP.

Combined for a 4-3 record and a 5.50 ERA at 4 levels of the Washington organization, including one rehab appearance with the Gulf Coast League Nationals...spent the first month of the year with Double-A Harrisburg, where he posted a 2.63 ERA and a .191 batting average against in 8 appearances...was transferred to New Orleans, May 4, and notched 4 saves and 28 strikeouts in 20.0 innings spanning 16 games before going on the DL on June 15 with a strained right elbow...following season, played for the Peoria Saguaros of the Arizona Fall League (2-1, 4.05 ERA in 12 appearances).

2004

Received his first taste of Triple-A level with Edmonton of the Pacific Coast League, going 2-1 with a 4.39 ERA in 17 games (one start) in a pair of stints...started the year at Double-A Harrisburg and posted 3 saves and a 2.61 ERA in 9 games before a May 11 promotion...returned to Harrisburg on May 20...after giving up a run in 2.0 innings in his first game back May 22 at Portland, went on to throw 13.0 straight shutout innings in his next 10 games through June 13, racking up 5 saves and 18 strikeouts in the process...made lone pro start in the 2nd game of an August 26 doubleheader vs. Salt Lake City, allowing one run in 3.0 innings...fanned 7 and did not figure in the decision.

In first season at Double-A, went 9-2 with 4 saves and a 2.84 ERA in 49 appearances with Harrisburg of the Eastern League...worked more than 1.0 inning in 32 of 49 games...went on the DL, May 13 (strained right groin)...was reinstated, May 22...posted a 1.61 ERA in 10 June appearances...picked up the win in 3 straight appearances from July 2-9.

2002

Split year with Clinton of the Single-A Midwest League and Brevard County of the Single-A Florida State League, going a combined 3-5 with 16 saves and a 1.57 ERA in 45 games...began with Clinton...struck out 42 in 27.1 innings and registered a .156 batting average against...began year with 13.0 straight scoreless innings through May 5...earned a June 17 promotion to Brevard County...batting average against when facing FSL right-handed batters was .103 (7-for-68).

2001

Was assigned to Vermont of the short-season New York-Penn League...tossed 11.0 consecutive scoreless innings in 10 games to begin pro career...embraced a July 17 promotion to Single-A Jupiter of the Florida State League...threw 8.1 straight shutout innings (6 games) to begin FSL tenure...struck out 20 in 15.2 FSL innings (11.5 per 9.0 innings).

CAREER

Hopes to return to big leagues for first time since 2004...pitched with STL from 2002-04, going 20-10 with a 4.77 ERA in 83 games (40 starts)...when toeing the rubber in a starting role, STL went 25-15 (.625)...has pitched in 3 independent leagues during his pro career: Western League (2000), Frontier League (1998) and the Atlantic League (2006)...missed the 2005 season after undergoing October '04 surgery to repair a torn labrum in right shoulder... pitched for Team Italy at the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney (1-1, 1.17 ERA)...spent that summer pitching for Rimini of the Italian Baseball League...signed by scout Jeff McKay (KCR).

2006

Signed a minor league contract with CHI on February 2, but had his contract voided on March 3 after experiencing lingering discomfort in his surgically-repaired right shoulder...signed with Bridgeport of the independent Atlantic League, and made 10 relief appearances beginning August 1...went 1-0 with 2 saves and a 0.84 ERA in the Atlantic League...also appeared twice in the playoffs, allowing a run in 1.0 inning of Game 2 of the semifinals at Long Island and tossing 2.0 shutout innings in Game 2 of the championship series vs. Lancaster...recorded first save, August 13 at Newark, pitching the final 2.0 innings of a 6-4 victory...following the season, pitched for Estrellas of the Dominican Winter League.

2005

Missed the entire season after undergoing off-season surgery to repair the labrum in right shoulder.

2004

Made STL's Opening Day roster and made 4 stints with the Cardinals...struggled in April (10.13 ERA) and was optioned to Memphis of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League on April 20...worked 3.0 innings in next stint with STL, June 11-17...allowed a pair of runs in 5.0 innings (5 games) during 3rd stint with the Redbirds, August 11-22...was recalled for a final time on September 27...appeared in 2 games before season's end...was not on any of STL's 3 post-season rosters...with Memphis, went 7-4 with 2 saves and a 4.33 ERA in 33 appearances (8 starts)...went 4-0 with a 5.32 ERA in 8 starts and 3-4 with 2 saves and a 3.06 ERA in 25 games out of the bullpen.

In lone full big league season, went 9-5 with one save and a 5.56 ERA in 46 games (16 starts)...opened the season in the starting rotation, but moved into the bullpen in July and made just one start the rest of the way...went 5-4 with a 6.33 ERA as a starter, 4-1 with a 3.95 ERA as a reliever...when toeing the rubber in a starting role, STL went 10-6... tossed his first career complete game on May 28 vs. HOU...allowed only 6 hits and did not walk a batter in STL's 3-1 win...was the losing pitcher in Roger Clemens' 300th career victory on June 13 at NYY...earned only big league save on August 12 at PIT...retired only batter faced, Carlos Rivera, to record final out in STL's 10-6 win.

2002

Went 11-5 with a 4.02 ERA in 24 starts and was named the Cardinals Rookie of the Year by the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA...also received one third-place vote in the NL Rookie of the Year voting...started the year with Triple-A Memphis, and had his contract purchased by STL on May 3...won first 5 decisions, including his big league debut on May 4 vs. ATL...allowed 2 runs on 5 hits in 7.0 innings in STL's 3-2 win...retired the first 10 batters faced before Marcus Giles smacked a solo homer...became STL's first rookie starter to win first 5 big league decisions since Allen Watson turned the trick in 1993...when starting, STL went 15-9...offensively, led STL pitchers with 12 hits while ranking 5th among MLB pitchers in batting (.240)...received the starting nod and took the loss in STL's first game after Daryl Kyle's death, June 23 at CHI...received NL Rookie of the Month Award for June (3-1, 3.14 ERA, 5 starts)...was on STL's Division Series and NLCS rosters, but did not appear in a game.

2001

Went 7-13 with a 5.34 ERA in 32 games (18 starts) with Edmonton of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League...went 5-8 with a 5.42 ERA as a starter, 2-5 with a 5.11 ERA in relief...pitched for Aragua of the Venezuelan Winter League after the season, going 3-3 with a 3.06 ERA in 12 games.

2000

Pitched for the Chico Heat of the independent Western League before signing with Rimini of the Italian League...went 12-1 with a 1.71 ERA in 15 starts in Italy...also pitched for Team Italy at the Summer Olympics in Sydney, going 1-1 with a 1.17 ERA in 15.1 innings...made starts against South Africa and Netherlands...pitched in relief against the USA.

1999

Pitching for Hickory of the Single-A South Atlantic League, struck out 66 in 69.1 innings (8.6 per 9.0 innings)...went 1-4 with a 4.86 ERA (20 ER/37.0 IP) as a starter and 3-2 with one save and a 3.06 ERA (11 ER/32.1 IP) in relief...in final 5 appearances, allowed just one run in 13.2 innings.

1998

Posted 10 wins and a 2.95 ERA in 16 starts with Springfield of the independent Frontier League...ranked 2nd in the FL in wins and strikeouts (92)...also ranked 4th with 110.0 innings pitched.

1997

Appeared in 29 games (one start) with Lansing of the Single-A Midwest League...was released, July 30.

1996

Assigned to Spokane of the Rookie-level Northwest League...posted 43 strikeouts in 47.0 innings (8.2 per 9.0 innings).

PERSONAL

Jason William Simontacchi...last name is pronounced sigh-mon-TATCH-ee...graduated from Freemont (CA) High School in '92...attended De Anza CC from 1992-94, San Jose State University from 1994-95 and Albertson (IA) College from 1995-96...earned NAIA 2nd Team All-American honors in 1996 at Albertson after going 13-2 with 9 complete games and a 1.74 ERA...while working way through independent ball, worked as a cab driver and tow-truck driver.

In Minor Leagues: Earned PCL Player of the Week honors for the period ending of June 25...hit .429 (9-for-21) with 5 doubles, a homer and 8 RBI to pocket the citation.

After missing the entire 2004 season due right hand, wrist and elbow injuries, hit .370 with 17 doubles, 8 homers and 46 RBI in 65 games with Triple-A Tacoma while enjoying a pair of stints (15 games overall) with SEA...was recalled to SEA for the 2nd time on August 5, and appeared in just 6 games before tearing the ACL in his left knee on August 10 vs. MIN...had surgery on September 27 to repair the ACL, a procedure performed by Dr. Lewis Yocum in Los Angeles...began the season on the 15-Day DL with a torn meniscus in his left knee, and was reinstated and optioned to Tacoma on April 14...batted .363 with 15 doubles, 7 homers and 40 RBI in 57 games with Tacoma before being recalled to SEA, July 3...was optioned back on July 26...overall with Tacoma, batted .418 (28-for-67) with RISP and .397 (29-for-73) against left-handed pitchers...posted a season-best 11-game hitting streak, May 7-20 (.405, 17-for-45)...after going hitless the next game, May 21, hit safely in next 10 contests, May 24-June 4.

2004

Missed the entire year with injuries to his right hand, wrist and elbow...had surgery February 27 on Peoria, AZ to remove hook of hamate bone in his right hand, a procedure performed by Dr. Beth Purdy...underwent surgery on April 20 in Seattle to repair a tear in a ligament in his right wrist, a procedure performed by Dr. Carlton Keck...August 1-13, made a rehab assignment with SEA's Rookie-level Arizona Summer League entry, but was shut down with right-elbow tendinitis.

2003

After missing nearly all of April to recover from a torn ACL he suffered in June 2002, hit a combined .316 with 14 doubles and 35 RBI in 65 games with Triple-A Tacoma and Double-A San Antonio...began the year with San Antonio... missed 3 weeks from May 30-June 17 with left-knee patella tendinitis...earned a July 25 promotion to Tacoma...posted 10 RBI in 18 games with Tacoma before suffering a season-ending injury, a torn meniscus, in the left knee.

2002

At the age of 20, made major league debut with SEA, on May 25 vs. BAL...went 0-for-3...appearing in 8 games with the Mariners before sustaining a left-knee torn ACL on June 4 at OAK...injury occurred while running the bases...was rounding third base on a Desi Relaford double...first big league hit was a single off Ryan Rupe on May 28 at TBR... belted first home run, in just 12th MLB at-bat, on May 29 at Tropicana Dome off Tanyon Sturtze...was placed on the 60-Day Disabled List, June 5...while with Double-A San Antonio, missed all of April with a fractured right thumb.

2001

Led the Single-A California League and SEA chain with a .336 batting average in a professional-high 114 games with San Bernardino...earned spots on Baseball America's CL All-Star squad, SportsTicker's All-Prospect team and SportsTicker's All-Teen club...also played in the mid-season CL All-Star game...was named San Bernardino's MVP... finished 2nd in the CL with a .418 OBP...ranked 4th with 151 hits...missed season's final 10 days with a fractured right ankle...batted .381 in 64 games beginning June 1...was named the CL's Player of the Month for July (.443, 28 RBI, 25 games)...was named the CL's Player of the Week for the periods ending July 8 (.429, 5 RBI) and July 29 (.586, 10 RBI)...beginning July 8, posted a 25-game hitting streak...went 48-for-107 (.449) with 26 RBI during the 25-gamer.

2000

Was a mid-season and post-season Midwest League All-Star with Single-A Wisconsin despite missing 2 months due to injuries...went on the Disabled List for the first time on June 12 (fractured metacarpal in left hand)...was reinstated on July 13, and after just 6 games, landed on the DL again with scapho-lunate ligament damage in left hand...named the Midwest League's No. 3 prospect by Baseball America...played with Team Australia in the 2000 Summer Olympics.

CAREER

Native of Villa Clara, Cuba has spent the last 5 seasons at the Triple-A level and in the Mexican League (2004 and 2006)... has not appeared in the big leagues since 2001...was signed by NYM scouts Isao O'Jimi and Omar Minaya (NYM).

2006

Signed minor-league contract with STL, Aug. 4...was assigned to Memphis of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League...got the job after playing well with Olmecas de Tabasco of the Mexican League...hit .329 with 10 doubles, 2 homers and 10 RBI in 22 PCL contests...following the season, played for Estrellas in the Dominican Winter League.

2005

In his lone year in CWS' chain, batted .302 with 24 homers and 77 RBI in 115 games with Charlotte of the Triple-A International League...led the club in RBI, hits (137) and slugging percentage (.518)...posted a season-best 18-game hitting streak, May 8-June 19...was ruled in violation of the minor league drug testing program.

2004

Signed by Montreal on April 29 after being released by PIT in Spring Training and appearing in 16 games with Cancun of the Mexican League...assigned to Edmonton of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League...hit .337 in his first 24 games...hit .268 in his next 31 games, and was released on August 5...signed a minor-league deal with DET 4 days later.

2003

Batted .274 with 7 homers and 52 RBI in 115 games with Norfolk of the Triple-A International League before contract was sold to PIT, Aug. 22...was assigned to Nashville of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League...notched 10 RBI in 10 games.

2002

In injury plagued season, appeared in just 54 games with Triple-A Norfolk...on left leg, sustained a compound fracture of the tibia and fibula during a home plate collision on July 2 vs. Richmond...underwent surgery that night at Sentara Norfolk General Hospital in Norfolk, VA, and missed the remainder of the season...also was on the DL, April 16-May 5, with a strained rib cage muscle and May 22-May 28 with a strained right hamstring.

2001

Spent the majority of the year with Triple-A Norfolk...enjoyed a pair of stints with NYM, appearing in a career-best 13 games from April 9-15...performance earned September promotion...played in 13 games for the Mets.

2000

Batted .272 with 25 doubles, 11 homers and 70 RBI in 120 games with Norfolk...played in 8 games with NYM as a September call-up, collecting his first big league extra-base hit (a 3-run double in the bottom of the 8th on September 30 vs. MON that gave NYM a 4-2 lead and the win) and RBI (September 19 at ATL).

1999

In his first year of pro ball in the United States, made his big league debut with NYM...spent majority of season with Binghamton of the Double-A Eastern League and Norfolk of the Triple-A International League...earned NYM Minor League Player of the Year after hitting a combined .319 with 27 doubles, 25 homers and 96 RBI in 124 games with Binghamton and Norfolk...went a combined 0-for-7 in his first 2 games with Binghamton April 9-10, and then went 13-for-23 (.565) with 3 doubles, 6 homers and 14 RBI in his next 6 games, April 13-19...hit a pair of homers on both April 13 vs. Portland and April 19 at Portland...was promoted to Norfolk on July 5... then had contract purchased by NYM on September 1...made his big league debut September 12 at LAD, pinch hitting in the top of the 9th...laced a single into right field off Jeff Williams...had been recalled to NYM on July 28, but was optioned back a day later without playing.

PERSONAL

Jorge Luis Toca...makes his off-season home in Miami, FL with his wife Livinia and son Ainivil...played for the Cuban National Team in 1994 and 1995, and was teammates of Livan Hernandez, Orlando Hernandez and Rolando Arrojo... his Villa Clara club won 3 consecutive Cuban National Championships from 1993-95...defected to the Bahamas in March of 1998...took a 16-foot boat over 17 hours to make the journey...played youth baseball with Rey Ordonez.

CAREER

Lefthander continues successful return from September 2003 left-elbow reconstructive surgery (a.k.a. "Tommy John" surgery)...NYM's first-round selection in the 2000 First-Year Player Draft, has not pitched at the big league level since going 6-9 with a 5.24 ERA in 33 games (18 starts) for CLE in 2003 (just 3rd complete pro season)...rated NYM's No. 5 prospect entering the 2002 season according to Baseball America (also NYM's No. 8 in '01, CLE's No. 9 entering '03)...was the first left-handed pitcher taken in the 2000 First-Year Player Draft...following the draft, agreed to terms with NYM on a large bonus, but accepted lesser contract after left-elbow ligament damage was discovered.

Enjoyed a pair of stints with the Nationals, making 2 starts April 20-26 and appearing in 13 games (6 starts) from August 6 to the end of the year...went 4-3 with a 6.44 ERA in 15 games overall...won his first start April 20 at PHI (3 earned runs in 5.2 innings) and took the loss April 25 vs. CIN (4 earned runs in 1.1 innings) before being optioned back to New Orleans April 26...tossed 7.0 innings of one-run ball August 11 vs. NYM to earn the win in his first start back with Washington...made 5 more starts before pitching out of the bullpen for the rest of the year...went 3-3 with a 7.75 ERA (31 ER/36.0 IP) in his 8 starts...posted a pair of holds and did not allow a run in 7 relief appearances (7.1 innings), retiring 6 of the 7 first batters he faced.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Earned the win April 20 at PHI in his first big league appearance since September 16, 2003 with CLE...surrendered 4 runs (3 earned) on 2 hits and 4 walks in 5.2 innings in the 10-4 triumph...allowed only a Paul Lo Duca first-inning solo home run, and 4 hits in all, in his August 11 start vs. NYM...left with a 2-1 lead, which proved to be the final score as he outdueled Tom Glavine...retired 13 of the next 14 batters he faced after the homer... only one other runner reached second base in his 7.0 innings (a Jose Reyes 3rd-inning double).

In minor leagues: Went 7-7 with a 4.05 ERA in 21 starts with New Orleans...struck out a season-high 9 batters in 6.0 shutout innings April 9 vs. Round Rock, his first start of the year...won 3 straight starts May 8-19, allowing just 2 earned runs in 19.0 innings (0.95 ERA)...in a 9-start span June 13-July 25, notched a 2.88 ERA (18 ER/56.1 IP), allowing 3 runs or less in 7 of the starts and 4 in both of the other 2...in his next - and final - start with New Orleans on July 30 at Portland, yielded 7 runs in 6.0 innings...was then recalled to Washington August 6...walked 26 batters in 124.1 Pacific Coast League innings, an average of just 1.9 per 9 innings.

Went combined 8-11 with a 4.83 ERA in 28 games (21 starts) at 3 levels in CLE's system...tossed 132.1 innings after missing the entire '04 campaign due to shoulder surgery...averaged 6.5 K's per 9.0 innings.

In minor leagues: Began season with Kinston of the Single-A Carolina League...made first post-surgery start on April 10 vs. Winston Salem...earned the win...graduated to the Double-A Eastern League in May...recorded quality starts in 4 of 5 EL starting assignments...allowed only one run on 5 hits and a walk in 7.2 innings during 2005 Triple-A debut, May 31 vs. Toledo...shifted to 'pen for much of season's final month and posted a 1.89 ERA.

Pitching for CLE, showed flashes during his rookie campaign in the major leagues...first big league season came to a halt in September due to a torn ligament in his left throwing elbow that required surgery...tied for 4th among AL rookie pitchers in strikeouts (88), tied for 8th in wins (6)...also ranked among AL rookie leaders in innings (6th with 111.2), ERA (5th at 5.24)...made the club after an impressive spring (1-0 with a 1.59 ERA in 7 Grapefruit League contests)...worked 3.0 one-hit shut-out innings in big league debut on April 4 at KCR...with a scoreless 8th inning, picked up first major league win on May 16...beginning May 28, spent the remainder of his season in the starting rotation...recorded first win as a starter on June 27 vs. CIN thanks to 7.0 shutout innings of 5-hit ball...tossed a complete game, one-hit shutout, July 8 vs. NYY...did not walk a batter and struck out 5 during the masterpiece...the feat was the first one-hitter by an Indian since Bartolo Colon turned the trick on September 18, 2000 at NYY, and the first by a CLE rookie since Tom Kramer on May 24, 1993...also became the first CLE rookie pitcher to throw a complete game, one-hit shutout since Herb Score went the distance on July 30, 1955 at BAL...in addition to being the first one-hit complete-game shutout by an Indian in Jacobs Field, it was the first one-hit complete-game shutout by a CLE pitcher in Cleveland since Tom Candiotti on Aug. 3, 1987 vs. NYY...was the first big league rookie pitcher to toss a one-hit, zero-walk, complete-game shutout since Kerry Wood (May 6, 1998 vs. HOU, famous 20-K effort)....had successful reconstructive surgery, performed on left elbow by Dr. Lewis Yokum, on September 29 in Los Angeles, CA.

2002

Finished 17-5 with a 2.94 ERA in 27 games (26 starts) at Buffalo of the Triple-A International League and Akron of the Double-A Eastern League...17 wins and 162.1 innings led all CLE minor league pitchers while his 2.94 ERA ranked 4th...was CLE's Minor League Pitcher of the Year...was awarded a spot on the EL Post-Season All Star team...among EL leaders, led the circuit with 2 shutouts, while the 13 wins tied for 3rd (was leading at time of promotion)...was named to the Double-A All-Star team at mid-season and pitched for the United States squad in the Futures Game, played July 7 in Milwaukee (one K in 0.2 scoreless inning)...following the season, was voted as owning the "best control" and "curveball" in the Eastern League in a survey of league managers conducted by Baseball America.

Pitched for St. Lucie of the Single-A Florida State League and Binghamton of the Double-A Eastern League in pro debut...won the Doubleday Award at St. Lucie, awarded annually to the club's MVP...named to the Florida State League All-Star team...following the season, was rated NYM's No. 5 prospect according to Baseball America.

Did not sign until September 5...thus, did not play professionally.

PERSONAL

William Henry Traber (Billy)...single...graduated from El Segundo (CA) High in 1997...attended nearby Loyola Marymount College...went 10-4 with a 3.13 ERA in 18 games (17 starts), 4 complete games, as a junior at LMU in 2000...in 123.2 innings, fanned a LMU school-record 156...selected a first team All-America by Collegiate Baseball and 2nd-team Louisville Slugger All-American...also named the West Coast Conference Pitcher-of-the-Year.

Posted a 1.98 ERA and set a franchise record with 25 saves in 52 appearances with Triple-A Iowa and was named CHI's Triple-A Pitcher of the Year...was recalled by CHI on August 30, and made debut the next night vs. LAD...fanned 2, walked one and allowed one hit in 2.0 scoreless innings...appeared in 6 games for CHI down the stretch, going 0-2 with a 3.00 ERA (2 ER/6.0 IP)...was a mid-season and season-ending Pacific Coast League All-Star, ranking 2nd in the PCL in saves while posting a .181 batting average against (opposing right-handed batters hit just .158)...batting average against with RISP was .081...struck out 65 in 54.2 innings (10.7 K's per 9.0 innings)...registered 14 saves and recorded a 1.25 ERA (3 ER/21.2 IP) in his final 21 games with Iowa to earn his promotion to CHI...set Iowa franchise record with 23rd save, August 20 vs. Memphis...broke Marc Pisciotta's record from 1997...was on the DL, May 27-June 2, with a right groin strain and June 21-27 with a right shoulder strain...ERA in 11 April appearances was 0.90...posted season-best 12.1 consecutive scoreless innings, July 5-August 4...notched 6 saves and a 0.82 ERA in 9 August appearances.

Was a mid-season Southern League All-Star for Double-A West Tennessee...posted 21 saves to tie for 2nd in the SL...started the season at Single-A Lansing and appeared in 3 games before promotions to West Tennessee and, eventually, Iowa...posted a combined 1.88 ERA at the 3 stops...combined for 76 strikeouts in 62.1 innings, an average of 11.0 K's per 9 innings....with West Tenn, tossed 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings over 13 appearances, April 20-May 27...posted 9 saves in that same span...finished the year at Iowa.

Released by the Rockies on March 23...signed with Fort Worth of the independent Central League and pitched in a starting role for the final time...fanned 113 in 111.1 innings (9.1 per 9.0 innings)...allowed 2 runs or less in 11 starts.

2002

In 4th year at the Single-A level, went 6-9 with a 4.96 ERA in 30 games (17 starts) for Single-A Asheville of the Single-A South Atlantic League...was 3-7 with a 5.93 ERA (54 ER/82.0 IP) in 17 starts and 3-2 with a 1.80 ERA (5 ER/25.0 IP) in 13 relief appearances...16 of his first 19 appearances were starts...then made 10 straight appearances out of the bullpen before ending the year with a start on August 29 vs. Columbus.

2001

Appeared in only 7 games (4 starts) for Rookie-level Casper and short-season Single-A Tri-City...went 4-0 despite a 5.65 ERA...underwent right knee surgery in April.

2000

Registered a .214 batting average against in 13 starts with short-season Single-A Portland of the Northwest League... allowed 2 earned runs or less in 11 starts, including each of his final 5...went 2-1 with a 1.88 ERA in those 5 starts...in 69.0 innings, allowed just one home run, which came in his final start, August 25 vs. Eugene.

1999

Made 28 starts for Asheville, striking out 133 in 143.0 innings...was 0-4 with an 8.38 ERA (18 ER/19.1 IP) in his first 5 starts...went 1-1 with a 2.65 ERA (10 ER/34.0 IP) in 6 August starts.

1998

Made pro debut with the Arizona Rookie League Rockies, going 7-2 with a 2.22 ERA in 12 games (11 starts) before an August 22 promotion to short-season Single-A Portland...made 2 starts in the Northwest League, and allowed 4 runs in 10.0 innings for a 3.60 ERA.

PERSONAL

Jermaine Russell Van Buren...graduated from Hattiesburg (MS) High School, where he earned Mississippi Player of the Year honors in 1998...fanned 148 in 76.0 innings as a senior (1.95 batters per inning).

RAIN

In 2 seasons since baseball returned to Washington, DC in 2005, the Nationals have lost only 2 home games to inclement weather, with rain being the culprit both times...after enjoying a rainout free inaugural season in 2005, Washington baseball fans endured a pair of rainouts at RFK in 2006:

CAREER

Acquired by the Nationals as part of 8-player deal with CIN...came to Washington, along with RF Austin Kearns and INF Felipe Lopez in a trade that promises to positively affect the Nationals roster for the forseeable future...with the trade, returned to throwing sidearm, or 3/4 (had thrown sidearm since college days at Houston)...the change, along with the tutelage of Nationals pitching coach Randy St. Claire, produced exciting returns in less than 3 months time... enters just 5th pro season already having amassed 134 big league appearances...was the first player from the 2003 First-Year-Player Draft to reach the big league...was recalled by CIN just 6 weeks after being selected with the 14th overall selection in the 2003 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of Houston...notched a 1.66 ERA in 17 games with CIN in 2003 after making just 9 appearances at the minor-league level...is named after Hall of Famer Nolan Ryan...signed by scout Jimmy Gonzales (CIN), who subsequently joined the Nationals scouting ranks as Western Supervisor in November of 2006.

2006

Performed well after being acquired from CIN on July 13 as part of an 8-player trade with CIN...the least heralded of the 3 players acquired from CIN, however, proved worth, posting a 3-3 record, 3 holds and a 4.70 ERA (16 ER/30.2 IP) in 26 games out of the bullpen...after the trade, reported to Triple-A New Orleans...in 5 PCL appearances with the Zephyrs from July 17-29, scattered 4 hits in 8.0 scoreless innings to earn promotion to the Nationals...was recalled on July 31 and made debut with the Nationals that night at SFG, earning a hold...after struggling in first 2 appearances, posted a fine 3.54 ERA in final 24 appearances with Washington...suffered 2 blown saves, both of which came during the season's final homestand...capped the season not allowing a home run since August 14 vs. ATL (24 appearances or 24.2 innings ago)...worked 13.2 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run, August 19-September 7... when appearing, the Nationals went 10-16...was the victim of 5 unearned runs...

Game-By-Game Highlights: Fanned 3 in 2.0 scoreless innings, August 25 at ATL, and pocketed first win as a National (and first at the big league level since July 4, 2005 at SFG)...worked a season-high 2.1 innings on August 19 at PHI and did not allow a run.

In minor leagues: Pitching for Triple-A New Orleans of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League, worked 8.0 scoreless innings in final 5 appearances to earn first promotion to Washington...allowed only 4 hits and a walk in those 8.0 scoreless innings...was 1-3 with a 6.34 ERA in 35 games out of the bullpen for Louisville of the Triple-A International League upon being acquired by the Nationals.

Appeared in only 42 games through July 7 with CIN before missing the remainder of the year with inflammation in right shoulder...went 3-2 with 12 holds and a 6.11 ERA, and was placed on the 15-Day Disabled List, July 8...had 11 holds and a 3.54 ERA in 26 games through the end of May...allowed just one run in his first 11.1 innings, spanning 10 appearances...from June 1 until going on the DL, was touched for 20 runs in 17.2 innings in 16 appearances...notched a 4.56 ERA in 27 outings at home and a 7.77 ERA in 15 road contests...recorded his first career plate appearance May 7 vs. LAD, laying down a sac bunt and reaching on a fielding error...later came around to score first big league run.

2004

Made 49 appearances in 2 stints with CIN, posting 8 holds and a 4.70 ERA...ranked 10th among NL rookie pitchers in appearances...made CIN's Opening Day roster, and went 2-1 with 4 holds and a 6.75 ERA (11 ER/14.2 IP) in 18 games before being optioned to Louisville of the Triple-A International League...registered a 2.70 ERA in 15 games there, including his first pro save, June 9 at Pawtucket, and was recalled by CIN on July 4, when Mike Matthews went on the DL...worked in 31 games with CIN the rest of the way, notching a 3.89 ERA (16 ER/37.0 IP)...tossed 13.2 consecutive scoreless innings in 10 appearances, August 11-29, allowing only 2 hits in that span...was on the bereavement list, September 20-23, while attending the funeral of his grandfather...made 2 appearances upon his return, but then shut it down for the rest of the season because of flexor pronator tendinitis in his right forearm.

Selected by CIN as the 14th overall pick in the First-Year Player Draft, and after just 9 minor league appearances with Double-A Chattanooga and Triple-A Lousiville, made his major league debut on July 19...spent the remainder of season with the big league club, going 2-0 with 6 holds and a 1.66 ERA in 17 games...in debut July 19 vs. HOU, came on in relief to start the 7th, and retired all 5 batters he faced...turned 21 years old just 4 days prior to his debut... became the youngest pitcher to appear for CIN since lefthander Rosario Rodriguez debuted in 1989 at 20 years, 55 days...tossed 6.0 straight shutout innings in first 5 games...posted a .173 batting average against and struck out 25 times in 21.1 innings...picked up first big league win — despite suffering a blown save — August 2 vs. SFG...finished first pro campaign with 5 holds and 10.2 consecutive scoreless innings in final 8 appearances...with Chattanooga, tossed 5.0 shutout innings before a July 3 promotion to Lousiville...made just 4 appearances there before having his contract purchased by CIN.

PERSONAL

Ryan Scott Wagner...graduated from Yoakum (TX) High School in 2001...played collegiately at the University of Houston, where he went a combined 8-6 with 16 saves and a 2.13 ERA in 62 games in 2 seasons...also struck out a combined 212 batters in 122.2 innings (15.6 K's per 9.0 innings)...in 2003, was named as a First-Team All-American by Baseball America after recording a UH single-season record 15 saves and breaking a 39-year-old NCAA Division I record with 16.8 punchouts per 9 innings (148 K's/79.1 IP)...Murray State's George Dugan held the previous record with 16.2 strikeouts per 9 innings in 1964...also was a Collegiate Baseball Magazine First-Team All-American, a USA Today Sports Weekly First-Team All-American and a Louisville Slugger First-Team All-American...earned First-Team All-South Central Region honors by American Baseball Coaches Association/Rawlings, and was honored as a member of the 2003 Silver Glove All-Series team (the 5-game regular-season series with Rice University)...154 strikeouts in 2003 is the 3rd-highest single-season mark in UH history...was a teammate of MIN's Jesse Crain at the University of Houston in 2002...when drafted by CIN, was ranked by Baseball America as the 3rd-best prospect in the state of Texas and the 5th-best right-handed pitcher among draft-eligible players...at Yoakum High School, was a 2-time Most Valuable Player of District 29-3A...as a senior in 2001, was named First-Team All-Area and First-Team All-State...also earned First-Team All-District in football and basketball.

CAREER

One of MLB's undisputed young star attractions...finished 2nd in 2006 Rookie of the Year voting...finished just 4 points behind FLA's Hanley Ramirez in voting conducted by the BBWAA...was the 2nd player, the first position player, from the 2005 First-Year Player Draft to reach the big leagues (ATL RHP Joey Devine—27th overall—was first)...was the 2nd of 2 Virginians to be selected in the first 4 picks of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft (SS Justin Upton from Great Bridge, VA was taken by ARI with the draft's first overall selection)...baseball experience expands far beyond the college level, as he was named MVP at the FIFU II World University Games, played during the summer of 2004 in Taiwan...led or tied for the Team USA club lead in all 3 triple crown categories, hitting .468 with 4 home runs and 27 RBI...for his efforts, was named USA Baseball's Athlete of the Year in 2004...while playing for Team USA, was teammates with 3B Alex Gordon, who was taken 2nd overall by KCR in the 2005 First-Year Player Draft...defensive propensity at the hot corner forced Gordon's shift to first base for the summer...using wood bats, summer offensive numbers (.468, 4 homers, 27 RBI) also out produced those of Gordon (.388, 4 homers, 12 RBI)...played summer ball with, among others David Wright and B.J. Upton during their high school days in the Norfolk/Virginia Beach, VA-area.

Turned in the finest rookie season in the history of the franchise...hit .287 with 47 doubles, 3 triples, 20 home runs, 110 RBI and 11 stolen bases in 157 games...finished 2nd in NL Rookie of the Year balloting, 4 points behind FLA's Hanley Ramirez...was counted on for defense, but became middle-of-the-order mainstay for the Nationals...20 home runs matched Brad Wilkerson's 2002 franchise rookie record...one of MLB's top clutch hitters in 2006...paced MLB with 64 hits with runners in scoring position...in all, batted .323 (64-for-198) with RISP, including a .366 (49-for-134) mark from June 6 through the end of the season...110 RBI were the most posted by a rookie since STL's Albert Pujols notched a remarkable 130 in 2001...became only the 3rd NL rookie in 53 seasons (beginning with 1954) to post 100 or more RBI (Mike Piazza 112 in '93 and and Pujols 130 in '01)...also became just the 5th rookie since 1988 to record 100 RBI in a season, joining Hideki Matsui (106, '03), Pujols (130, '01), Carlos Beltran (108, '99) and Mike Piazza (112, '93)...paced MLB rookies with a franchise-rookie record 25 go-ahead RBI, a team-leading 12 of which were game-winning RBI...also led MLB rookies in RBI, doubles, walks (61) and longest hitting streak (hit .406 [28-for-69] with 8 doubles, 2 homers and 13 RBI in 17 games, June 28-July 18)...ranked among top 3 NL rookies in multi-hit games (2nd with 50), runs (3rd with 84), hits (2nd with 176), total bases (3rd with 289) and extra-base hits (2nd with 70)...29 multi-RBI games were the most posted by an MLB rookie since Pujols tallied 34 in 2001...was the first rookie 3B to play in 157 games since Dick Allen played in all 162 for PHI in 1964...47 doubles tied for 2nd on the all-time list among rookies...joins Pujols (2001), Fred Lynn (1975) and Vada Pinson (1959) behind only Johnny Frederick (52) of the 1929 Brooklyn Robins...posted 3 walk-off hits in a 19-day span June 18-July 6, including a 2-run homer June 18 vs. NYY, a 3-run homer July 4 vs. FLA and an RBI single July 6 vs. FLA...also worked a bases-loaded walk in the 11th inning on the afternoon of September 2 vs. ARI to give the Nationals a true "walk-off" 7-6 win...strung together 3 hitting streaks of 10 or more games in 2006...not only is that the most among MLB rookies, the only rookie with as many as 2 double-digit hit streaks was FLA's Hanley Ramirez...posted a .965 fielding percentage which tied STL's Scott Rolen and CHI's Aramis Ramirez for the NL lead...homered on April 30 at STL to establish new franchise rookie record for home runs in March/April with 4...bested former mark (3) shared by Michael Barrett (1999), Mike Lansing (1993), Andres Galarraga (1986) and Coco Laboy (1969)...franchise rookie-record 17-game hitting streak, June 28-July 18, trumped Endy Chavez's now-former club rookie record 16-game hitting streak (Sept. 10-27, 2002)...33 July hits were the most posted by a franchise rookie in a single month since Casey Candaele collected 35 safeties as an Expos rookie in May of 1987...saw 3.88 pitches per plate appearance (2645 pitches/682 plate appearances)...led the Nationals in doubles and RBI...hit .327 (102-312) and blasted 10 of 20 homers at cavernous RFK Stadium...paced the Nationals in RBI in June (18), July (19), August (20) and September/October (21)...batted .290 (78-for-269) with 21 doubles, 8 homers and 52 RBI in 69 games against NL East foes...hit 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th, but performed best when batting in the 6th slot (.304, 5 HR, 16 RBI in 30 games)...finished strong, batting .320 (41-for-128) with 24 RBI in his last 31 games.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Reached the 100-RBI plateau on Sept. 22 at NYM via a 3rd-inning RBI single off Orlando Hernandez...doubled, homered and posted career-high 5 RBI on August 18 at PHI.

Completed dream season, producing success at the collegiate, minor league and big league levels...effort was both stellar and unique...began year as UVa's 3B...capped season as Frank Robinson's starting 3B in a pennant race...using wood bats, hit more homers (9) in 5 weeks of Double-A ball than in 3 seasons at UVa swinging an aluminum bat...on June 7, was the first draft selection in the history of the Nationals, the 4th overall selection out of Virginia...upon being promoted on Sept. 1, became the 2nd franchise first-rounder to reach the big leagues in the same season he was drafted...joined Chad Cordero, who pitched for the Expos in August of 2003 after being selected 20th overall in June...also became the first player to be signed and developed exclusively by the Washington Nationals...in other words, was the Nationals' first home-grown product, as opposed to those drafted and/or developed by the Expos...in 2nd at-bat, collected first big league hit, a double off Vicente Padilla, September 2 vs. PHI...with the initial hit, became the youngest franchise player (20 years, 339 days) to record a hit since Vladimir Guerrero in Sept. of 1996...was also the first player from the '05 draft to record a hit in the big leagues...hit .397 (23-for-58) with 10 doubles and 6 RBI in 20 games for Washington...September performance reminiscent of the most successful September call up in MLB history: Hall-of-Famer Stan Musial hit .426 (20-for-47) for STL after being recalled from Triple-A Rochester in September of '41....in the throes of a Wild Card chase, made first major league start, at SS, on Sept. 7 vs. FLA...doubled in first plate appearance against John Smoltz, September 11 vs. ATL...later in the same game, snapped 6-6 tie with 2-out go-ahead single in the 8th inning off Chris Reitsma (ATL, however, rallied to win the game with 3-run 9th inning)...down 5-4, led off 9th inning with double to spark game-tying rally and eventual 6-5 win in 10 innings, Sept. 15 at NYM...started 12 games (11 at 3B)...hit .318 (7-for-22) with 2 strikes...went 16-for-42 (.381) with 6 doubles in 15 games at RFK...hit above .300 against all 5 teams faced...when in the starting lineup, Washington went 4-8.

In minor leagues: Began pro career with 4-game stint in the Single-A South Atlantic League...went 0-for-4 in professional debut, June 21 vs. Charleston, but rebounded with trio of multi-hit games, June 22-24...hit first pro homer on June 22 at Charleston...posted 3 hits, including a double, in Double-A debut on June 25 vs. Akron...after slow start, adjusted to bat .372 (58-for-156) in final 41 Double-A games...following season, was rated by the same publication as the No. 5 prospect in the Eastern League, despite playing in just 63 games for Harrisburg.

"THIS" CLOSE

In a balloting conducted by the Baseball Writers Association of America, FLA's Hanley Ramirez nipped Ryan Zimmerman by 4 points in the 2006 Rookie of the Year vote...a look at the NL's closest vote since 1980:

PERSONAL

Ryan W. Zimmerman...single...following the 2006 season, established the ziMS Foundation, dedicated to the treatment and ultimate cure of Multiple Sclerosis by funding comprehensive support and educational programs...the ziMS Foundation will host local events in hometown of Virginia Beach, VA, and in Washington, DC to raise funds for the Foundation...also plans to be an active participant in the National MS Society and the Washington, DC chapter...in 1995, mother, Cheryl, was diagnosed with MS, a chronic and unpredictable disease that affects the central nervous system...participated in the Nationals' 2006 Winter Caravan...a standout at nearby University of Virginia...hit .393 with 6 home runs and 59 RBI as a senior in 2005 and helped Virginia earn a 2nd consecutive NCAA berth...capped collegiate career as a .355 career hitter with 47 doubles and 140 RBI in 3 seasons at UVa...helped the Cavaliers end the program's 8-year post-season void with a pair of NCAA berths in '04 and '05...despite playing just 3 collegiate seasons, Zimmerman is ranked among Virginia's all-time top 10 in hits (6th with 250), doubles (5th with 47) and RBI (7th with 140)...established a new school record for hits in a season (92)...was first UVa player to be selected in first round since Seth Greisinger was tabbed with 6th overall selection in the 1996 First-Year Player Draft.

SECOND TO NONE

Although Ryan Zimmerman finished 2nd in the 2006 NL Rookie of the Year voting, it is interesting to note that 8 current Hall-of-Famers finished 2nd in their respective Rookie of the Year votes:

WASHINGTON NATIONALS MEDICAL TEAM

Benjamin Shaffer, MD
NATIONALS ORTHOPEDIST

Lee Kuntz
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Michael McGowan
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Kazuhiko Tomooka
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

BENJAMIN SHAFFER, MD

Dr. Benjamin Shaffer begins his second year as team orthopedist and head team physician with the Washington Nationals. In addition to his duties as Nationals' Team Orthopedist, he serves as Head Team Physician to the NHL's Washington Capitals and orthopedic consultant to several area schools. Trained at the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopedic Clinic, Dr. Shaffer has also served as Director of Sports Medicine and Team Physician to the Georgetown University Hoyas athletic teams from 1992-2000, and the WUSA Washington Freedom women's professional soccer team during their three-year existence. Dr. Shaffer, the founder and director of DC Sports Medicine Institute, practices orthopedic sports medicine in the Washington Orthopedics and Sports Medicine group, and is on the medical staff of Sibley Memorial Hospital.

LEE KUNTZ

Lee Kuntz enters his first season with the Nationals after being named Head Athletic Trainer on January 12, 2007. Kuntz graduated from Lock Haven (PA) University, majoring in Health and Physical Education with a specialization in Athletic Training. Following graduation he was named a graduate assistant at Tennessee Tech, where he worked with the Golden Eagle football team, taught classes and earned a Master of Arts in Health and Physical Education. After a short stint at Glen Mills (PA) High, Kuntz accepted a job as a minor league athletic trainer with the Cleveland Indians. He worked his way up through their minor league system, reaching Double-A in 1988. Kuntz left baseball and took a clinical athletic training position with the Sports Medicine Center of Macon, GA, but after a year out of the game, resumed his athletic training career in baseball, again within the Indians' minor-league system. After a four-year tenure at the Triple-A level in Buffalo, Kuntz was named Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Kansas City Royals from 1999-2002. Following the 2002 season, Kuntz returned to the Cleveland Indians as Minor League Rehabilitation Coordinator and Medical Point person. Lee has a wife, Leslie, and two children, Leah and Emily.

MICHAEL McGOWAN

Mike McGowan enters his second season as Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Washington Nationals. Before being elevated to his current position, he served the Nationals in a dual role as minor league Athletic Training and Rehabilitation Coordinator in 2005. Mike held that same position with the Montreal Expos in 2003 and 2004 after serving as the Rehabilitation Coordinator solely in 2002. A native of Chicago, IL, Mike started his professional baseball career in 1993 in the Florida Marlins minor-league system. From 1996-1999, he simultaneously served as head athletic trainer with Single-A Brevard County and as Marlins minor league Rehabilitation Coordinator. McGowan has also gained valuable experience working winter-league ball in Mexico, Puerto Rico, and the Arizona Fall League (1997). He makes his home in Melbourne, FL with his wife, Heather, and children Brittany, Jacob and Michael.

KAZUHIKO TOMOOKA

Tomooka is entering his sixth season with the Nationals organization as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator. "Kazu" spent the prior 4 seasons with the Florida Marlins, the last three as Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coordinator. He began his baseball career with FLA in 1998 as an intern, and is a '98 graduate of the University of Florida with a degree in athletic training, thanks in part to a scholarship from PBATS in 1997. Tomooka is a certified member of not only the National Athletic Trainers Association, but of the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the Professional Baseball Strength and Conditioning Society. Born in Tokyo, Japan, Tomooka came to the United States in 1995. While in Japan, he played football (cornerback) for Rikkyo University. He is single and resides in Fujimi-shi in Japan during the off-season.

2007 MEDIA GUIDE

WASHINGTON NATIONALS 2006 TEAM NOTES

2 DOWN, MANY MANY MANY TO GO

The Washington Nationals completed their 2nd season with a 71-91 (.438) record...the Nationals finished 5th in the NL East, 26.0 games behind NYM.

- The Nationals' 71-91 effort ran the franchise's all-time record to 2907-3115-4...the Nationals are now 152-172 (.469) in 2 seasons since relocating from Montreal following the 2004 campaign.

SOME 2006 FACTS

The 2006 Nationals employed the services of a franchise-record and MLB-leading 57 players, trumping the former club mark, 55, set by the 2005 Nationals...a franchise-record 29 pitchers toed the rubber for the Nationals, 12 of which started at least one game for Frank Robinson and pitching coach Randy St. Claire.

- The Nationals' 71-91 (.438) record ranked 14th in the NL and for 25th in MLB.
- The losing season was the franchise's 22nd in 38 NL campaigns.
- The Nationals never owned a winning record in 2006...with a 5-1 loss vs. PHI on August 30, Washington fell a season-high 22 games below .500 at 55-77...from there, the Nationals finished 16-14.
- The Nationals registered losing records in extra-inning games (7-11), games started by an opposing right-handed starter (47-68), games on natural grass (71-88), shutouts (3-8), two-run games (9-20), road games (30-51), games on artificial turf (0-3), day games (26-27), night games (45-64), games against NL East rivals (31-42), games against the NL West (13-19), and in interleague play (7-11).

71-WIN SEASON'S SILVER LINING

Washington's 71-91 record will render the 6th selection in the 2007 First-Year Player Draft...the Nationals will pick behind TBR (first overall), KCR (2nd), PIT (3rd), CHI (4th) and BAL (5th)...MIL, in a quirk of fate, will pick one slot behind the Nationals in the 2007 First-Year Player Draft for the 3rd consecutive season.

YOUTH SERVED

18 rookies appeared in at least one game for the Nationals in '06...only FLA (first, 22) and SEA (2nd, 19) employed more.

- Washington tied BOS for 3rd in MLB as 11 of the 18 rookies were pitchers...only FLA and SEA, with 12 apiece, utilized more rookie pitchers in 2007.
- 9 players, including 7 pitchers, made big league debuts as Nationals this season: Bill Bray (MLB debut on June 3 at MIL), Brett Campbell (September 7 at COL), Melvin Dorta (July 21 vs. CHI), Brandon Harper (August 9 vs. FLA), Mike O'Connor (April 27 at STL), Beltran Perez (afternoon game on September 2 vs. ARI), Santiago Ramirez (May 24 vs. HOU), Saul Rivera (May 25 vs. HOU) and Chris Schroder (September 8 vs. FLA).
- When Beltran Perez pocketed the win in first big league start on September 19 at RFK, he became the first franchise pitcher to earn a win in his initial big league start since Dan Smith (June 8, 1999 vs. BOS).

RFK, SWEET RFK

In 2006, for a 2nd straight season, the Nationals posted a 41-40 record at RFK Stadium...after beginning the 2006 campaign by dropping 9 of their first 10 home contests, the Nationals went a stellar 40-31 (.563) at RFK beginning with a 6-0 win vs. PIT on May 5.

- By posting identical 41-40 home records each of their first 2 seasons in DC, the Nationals are the first Washington-based big league club to notch a winning home record in consecutive seasons since the 1952 and 1953 Senators went 42-35 and 39-36, respectively, at Griffith Stadium.

WHERE WERE YOU IN 1992?

2006 was Jose Vidro's 15th season with the Nationals/Expos franchise...drafted in the 5th round in 1992, Vidro is the franchise's longest tenured player (Brian Schneider, 1995, ranks 2nd)...Vidro was one of only 11 big leaguers in 2006 to have played at least 15 exclusive and consecutive pro seasons with their original organization...a closer look:

PLAYER	FRANCHISE	YEAR	HOW ACQUIRED
Garrett Anderson	LAA	1990	First-Year Player Draft (4th round)
Craig Biggio	HOU	1987	First-Year Player Draft (first round)
Derek Jeter	NYY	1992	First-Year Player Draft (first round)
Mike Lieberthal	PHI	1990	First-Year Player Draft (first round)
Jorge Posada	NYY	1991	First-Year Player Draft (24th round)
Mariano Rivera	NYY	1990	non-drafted free agent
Tim Salmon	LAA	1989	First-Year Player Draft (3rd round)
Mike Sweeney	KCR	1991	First-Year Player Draft (10th round)
Bernie Williams	NYY	1986	non-drafted free agent

- The franchise's longest tenured player, Jose Vidro, made his 8th Opening Day start on April 3 at NYM and finished 3-for-5...Vidro, whose Opening Day reign began on 1998 (but does not include '99, as Wilton Guerrero started at 2B), has now hit safely in 7 consecutive season openers at a .484 clip (15-for-31) with 2 home runs and 8 RBI...Vidro's 15 hits on Opening Day since the beginning of the 2000 season are the most in MLB...Todd Walker ranks 2nd with 14.

OPEN SESAME

NYM spoiled the fun by topping the Nationals, 7-1, in the April 11 home opener at RFK Memorial Stadium.

- Vice President Cheney becames the 8th sitting Vice President to christen a new season by throwing out the ceremonial first pitch at Washington's home opener, the first since Hubert Humphrey did the honors in 1968...a look at the 8 Vice Presidents, who they served under, and Washington's record when making the initial offering:

DATE/OPP	VICE PRESIDENT FIRST PITCH	PRESIDENT SERVED UNDER	RESULT
April 19, 1912 vs. PHI	James Sherman (R)	Taft	W6-0
April 20, 1917 vs. PHI	Thomas Marshall (D)	Wilson	L4-6
April 22, 1920 vs. BOS	Thomas Marshall (D)	Wilson	W8-5
April 13, 1926 vs. PHI	Charles Dawes (R)	Coolidge	W1-0
April 21, 1939 vs. NYY	John Garner (D)	F. D. Roosevelt	L3-6
April 14, 1942 vs. NYY	Henry Wallace (D)	F. D. Roosevelt	L0-7
April 18, 1944 vs. PHI	Henry Wallace (D)	F. D. Roosevelt	L2-3
April 9, 1959 vs. BAL	Richard Nixon (R)	Eisenhower	W9-2
April 11, 1966 vs. CLE	Hubert Humphrey (D)	Johnson	L2-5
April 10, 1968 vs. MIN	Hubert Humphrey (D)	Johnson	L0-2
April 11, 2006 vs. NYM	Richard Cheney (R)	Bush	L1-7
TOTALS	8 Vice Presidents	7 administrations	4-7

- Washington fell to 3-1 when Republican Vice Presidents make the first pitch...on the other side of the isle, Democrats, are 1-6, with Thomas Marshall accounting for the lone victory (W8-5 vs. BOS) in 1920.

HOT CORNER COMINGS AND GOINGS

On April 3 at NYM, Ryan Zimmerman became the franchise's 10th different Opening Day 3B since Larry Parrish (1975-81) and Tim Wallach (1982-91) monopolized the position for 17 straight seasons from 1975-91.

- Since Parrish and Wallach left the Expos, the franchise has employed Vinny Castilla (2005), Tony Batista (2004), Fernando Tatis (2003, '01), Chris Truby (2002), Michael Barrett (1999-2000), Shane Andrews (1996-98), Sean Berry (1994-95), Frank Bolick (1993) and Bret Barberie (1992) on Opening Day at the hot corner.

AND ON THE 7TH DAY ...

With a 3-1 loss vs. ATL, April 23, the Nationals received their 2nd dose of exposure on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball.

- The Nationals are 0-2 on SNB, as NYM doubled up Washington, 6-3, on May 1, 2005 at RFK...before becoming the Nationals, the franchise's last SNB exposure came May 28, 1995 (Expos' 5-1 win vs. LAD at The Big O).

RAUCH FANS 4 FOR HISTORY

By fanning 4 in the 8th inning on April 26 vs. CIN, Jon Rauch became just the 2nd pitcher in the franchise's 38 NL seasons to record 4 strikeouts in a single inning in 2006...the first was Montreal's Steve Kline (7th inning on August 17, 1999 at SFG... LAD's Brad Penny (2nd inning onb Sept. 23 vs. ARI) was the only other pitcher to fan 4 in a single inning in '06.

- Rauch fanned David Ross, Bronson Arroyo, future-teammate Felipe Lopez (who reached first base on a wild pitch) and Adam Dunn.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Washington went 7-11 in interleague play...all 18 games came against clubs from the proximate AL East...since the inception of interleague play in '97, the Nationals/Expos are 88-87 (.503) all-time against the AL.

- Notes from '06 interleague play: the AL went a remarkable 154-98 (.611) in interleague action...Washington won 3 of its 6 interleauge series by taking 2 of 3 from BAL (May 19-21), NYY (June 16-18) and TBR (June 30-July 2).

- Nationals' designated hitters combined to bat .226 (7-for-31) with 2 doubles and 2 RBI in '06...the 7 hits accounted for by Washington designated hitters were the franchise's fewest since '02, when they went just 3-for-35...since interleague play's inception in '97, this franchise's DHs are batting .229 (77-for-336) with 11 doubles, 4 homers and 27 RBI in 89 games in AL parks...the 4 to homer as a DH: Wil Cordero (June 27, 2003 at TOR), Jose Vidro (June 14, 2001 at NYY), Orlando Merced (June 5, 1999 at TOR) and Sherman Obando (June 18, 1997 at BAL).

- Jose Vidro's 25 interleague hits tied COL's Jamey Carroll and PIT's Freddy Sanchez for the most in the NL.

NATIONALS GO A PERFECT 6-0 ON "PAINT THE TOWN RED HOMESTAND"

With a 6-5 win over SFG on July 27, the Nationals completed just the 4th undefeated homestand consisting of 6 or more games in the franchise's 38 NL seasons...Washington finished the homestand 6-0, going 3-0 against both CHI (July 21-23) and SFG (July 25-27).

- The homestand coincided with the Lerner Family and their Partners assuming control of the Nationals...the "Paint the Town Red" marketing campaign was devised to deliver a message to fans throughout DC, VA, and MD that ownership intended to improve the fan experience for those attending games at RFK...fans responded to the outreach, as crowds of 30,000-plus were on hand for 5 of the 6 games, enjoying red carpet treatment that included enhanced concessions, premium giveaways, players greeting fans at the gates prior to the game and bands playing outside the stadium.

- The Nationals went 6-0 to record their first perfect homestand of 6 or more games since September 6-12, 1993, when Montreal swept a pair of 3-game sets from CIN and COL.

- The 6-0 'stand was only the 2nd in the storied history of baseball in Washington, DC...from July 13-17, 1967, the Senators went a perfect 6-0 at RFK, posting 3 wins apiece over DET and CLE.

- Some more facts from the perfect homestand: Washington hit .313 (60-for-192) en route to posting 16 doubles and 39 runs (6.5 per game)...yet, the Nationals were out homered, 10-6, by SFG and CHI...in fact, 4 times in the 6 contests, an opposing batter recorded a multi-homer game (Aramis Ramirez twice, Ray Durham and Elizer Alfonzo all notched 2-homer efforts), yet Washington prevailed each time...the Nationals went 18-for-59 (.305) with runners in scoring position during the homestand...meanwhile, Nationals starting pitchers posted 5 quality starts and finished 4-0 with a 3.96 ERA (17 ER/38.2 IP)...Randy St. Claire's bullpen posted 5 holds, 3 saves and a 3.52 ERA (6 ER/15.1 IP).

NATIONALS' FEEL-GOOD WEEKEND

During the weekend of June 30-July 2, the Nationals had 3 significant press conferences in less than 48 hours time...each announcement spoke to the club's pledge to building an organization predicated on long-term success.

- On Sunday, July 2, the Nationals announced they'd agreed to terms with amateur free-agent shortstop Esmailyn Gonzalez of the Dominican Republic...Gonzalez, who was recently rated by ESPN as one of the Top 10 Free Agents in Latin America, will receive a $1.4 million signing bonus...he began his pro career by reporting to the Dominican Summer League Nationals later that week...per MLB guidelines, he cannot begin his playing career until next season, likely with the Nationals' Gulf Coast League entry...on Saturday, July 1, the Nationals officially signed their 2 first-round selections in last month's First-Year Player Draft, OF Chris Marrero (15th overall) and RHP Colton Willems (22nd overall), both of which hail from Florida and have been teammates on various all-star teams in the past...Chris and Colton later reported to Melbourne, FL, where they'll begin their pro career with the Nationals' Rookie-level Gulf Coast League entry...in all, the Nationals eventually agreed to terms with 25 players from June's First-Year Player Draft, including 7 of their top 8 selections...on Friday, June 30, the Nationals announced they'd agreed to terms with OF Stephen Englund of Bellevue, WA, the club's 2nd-round selection (70th overall) in the 2006 Draft.

SORIANO IS THE NATIONALS' MAN OF STEEL AT THE ALL-STAR GAME IN PITTSBURGH

Alfonso Soriano started in left field and batted lead off for the National League during the All-Star Game, played Tuesday, July 11, at PNC Park in Pittsburgh...Soriano, who was voted on to the NL club by both the fans and players, finished the game 1-for-2 with a stolen base...the All-Star citation was the 5th of Soriano's career...Soriano was named MVP of the 2004 Mid-Summer Classic, played at HOU (2-for-3, homer, 3 RBI).

- Soriano became the first franchise player to start for the NL since 2B Jose Vidro ('02, '03)...he's also the first franchise player to be voted an All-Star Game starter since Vidro in '02 (2003 start due to Marcus Giles injury).

- Alfonso became only the 3rd player in MLB history to start at least one Mid-Summer Classic at both 2B and the OF... the other 2: Jackie Robinson, Pete Rose...he'll also become just the 14th position player to be elected to start in both leagues...he joins a list that included his manager, Frank Robinson, as well as Dick Allen, Ken Griffey Jr., Vladimir Guerrero, David Justice, Kenny Lofton, Mark McGwire, Graig Nettles, Steve Sax, Ted Simmons, Johnny Temple, Manny Trillo and Dave Winfield.

- At the All-Star break, Soriano was the only player in MLB to record a Triple Double in '06, posting double-digit totals in homers, stolen bases and outfield assists.

THE TRADE

On the afternoon of July 13, the Nationals completed a trade with CIN that involved 8 players...thanks to the additions of Austin Kearns, Felipe Lopez and Ryan Wagner, the trade promises to have positive affects on the franchise for years to come, as all 3 players acquired were 26 years or younger at the completion of the 2006 campaign. .

- A look at the 2nd-half performances of those acquired from CIN...Austin Kearns (.250, 8 HR, 36 RBI, 7 GWRBI, .381 OBP), Felipe Lopez (.281, 2 HR, 22 RBI, 21 SB, .362 OBP), Ryan Wagner (3-3, 3 HLD, 4.70 ERA in 26 G).

JULY HEAT

Thanks to a 14-11 mark in July and a 15-14 record in Sept./October, the Nationals posted winning records in 2 of the season's final 3 months...July's 14-11 mark rendered Washington's first winning month since going 20-6 in June of '05.

TALE OF 2 OFFENSIVE HALVES

The Nationals offensive output has been discernibly superior since the arrival of Austin Kearns and Felipe Lopez from CIN as part of an 8-player trade, July 13...a closer look:

PERIOD	G	REC	PCT	R	R/GM	HR	AVG	OBP	SLG

FRANK'S RANK

On September 30, the Nationals announced that Frank Robinson will not return as manager in 2007...Robinson's tenure as Nationals/Expos manager ends after 5 seasons, during which he compiled a 385-425 record...he capped his 16-year managerial career with a record of 1065-1176 (.475)...he ranks 46th on the all-time managerial win list...his stay as franchise manager included a pair of winning seasons ('02, '03) and the memorable '05 campaign, during which the Nationals finished 81-81 and remained in the pennant race until the season's final 10 days in their inaugural season in the nation's capital...in more than 50 seasons in the game, Robinson has served baseball in nearly every conceivable position: player, player/manager, manager, coach, Team USA manager, front-office executive and administrator.

- With a 10-4 win on April 20 at PHI, Frank Robinson became the 53rd manager in big league history to reach the 1000-win plateau.

CENTURY NOTE

With Alfonso Soriano (119) and Nick Johnson (100) recording the 19th and 20th 100-run seasons in franchise history, know that Alfonso and Nick are the franchise's 5th set of teammates to reach the 100-run plateau in the same season.

- The first 4 sets of teammates to record 100 or more runs in the same season came in 2002 (Vladimir Guerrero-106, Jose Vidro-103), 2000 (Vladimir Guerrero-101, Jose Vidro-101), 1987 (Tim Raines-123, Mitch Webster-101) and 1983 (Tim Raines-133, Andre Dawson-101).

RECORD BOOK REWRITTEN

A look at some of the franchise records set during the Nationals' 2006 season...these records span 38 NL seasons beginning with 1969, the Expos' first campaign in Montreal: Most team runs scored (746); most consecutive one-run wins (12 from June 3-July 5); most players used, season (57); most pitchers used, season (29); most relief appearances (517); most relief innings (557.0); most hit batsmen, pitching staff (92).

- Individual records set in '06 include: most extra-base hits (Soriano, 89); most homers (Soriano, 46); most homers, right-handed hitter (Soriano, 46); most homers, road (Soriano, 22); most homers, month of May (Soriano, 12); most homers, pre All-Star break (Soriano, 27); most hits, rookie (Zimmerman, 176); most RBI, rookie (Zimmerman, 110); longest hitting streak, rookie (Zimmerman, 17 games).

THANKS 2-PLUS MILLION

The Nationals capped their 2006 season with a total attendance of 2,153,056 to rank 21st in MLB (11th in the NL)...that worked out to 26,581 patrons per opening...incidentally, the Nationals' neighbor, BAL, finished 20th in MLB in attendance at 2,153,139 (26,582 per game)...the 2 Beltway clubs combined to draw 4,306,195 fans in 2006.

CHEAP LEATHER

After tying for 5th in MLB in fielding in 2005, the Nationals' .978 fielding percentage in '06 ranked last (30th) in MLB...the Nationals last ranked last in the NL in both errors and fielding percentage in '99...a look at the club's defensive struggles:

- The Nationals' 131 errors ranked 30th in MLB behind 29th ranked CIN (128) and rendered 69 unearned runs, or 23 more than the 2005 Nationals allowed...Washington commited multiple errors in a single game 29 times, including 6- (September 8 at COL) and 5-miscue (August 20 at PHI) contests...Washington commited 10 errors in a 3-game span, September 7-9 at COL, but did not make more than a single error in any contest thereafter (20 games).

IS THERE A DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE

The Nationals made 24 DL moves in 2006 affecting 19 different players...no big league team was stifled by the injury bug more than the Nationals in 2006, as they lost 1,615 games to the DL.

- 5 players (Ryan Drese, John Patterson, Jose Guillen, Robert Fick and Alex Escobar) endured multiple stints on the DL...7 players missed more than 100 games: Luis Ayala (162), Brian Lawrence (162), Cristian Guzman (162), Ryan Drese (155), Zach Day (117), John Patterson (130) and Joey Eischen (109).

WALKING IS GOOD FOR YOU ...

Washington's 116 walks received in July represented the franchise's largest single-month walk total since the '02 Expos tallied 125 free passes in April...thus, the Nationals' .378 July OBP not only led MLB, it set a franchise single-month club record...the former single-month club record for OBP was held by the '94 Expos (.372 OBP in June).

FIRST BLOOD

The Nationals scored first in a franchise-record 11 straight games, July 23-August 4, going a healthy 7-4 in that span...the last club to draw first blood in 11 straight games was the 2005 White Sox, April 18-29 (11 games)...the last NL club was the 2002 Braves (11 games).

THE RETURN OF THE ONE-RUN WONDERS

Washington won 10 consecutive one-run contests from August 11-September 26...a 14-inning 8-7 setback on September 27 vs. PHI ended the 10-game one-run string of wins.

- The 10-game win streak in one-run games was the longest in MLB this year and the longest in MLB since ... well, the 2005 Nationals posted 12 straight wins in games decided by the minimum from June 3-July 5.

MEET THE NEW BOSS ... (NOT THE) SAME AS THE OLD BOSS

From the time that The Lerner Family and Partners assumed control of the franchise on July 21, the Nationals went 31-35 (.470)...the Nationals' record prior to the Lerner's gaining control was 40-56 (.417).

PINCH ME, I AM DREAMING ...

Washington sported among the best benches in MLB in 2006...consider that in 2006 pinch-hitting situations, the Nationals ranked among MLB's top 2 in walks (first with 44), on-base percentage (first at .377), hits (2nd with 67), RBI (tied for 2nd with 40), home runs (tied for 2nd with 8), doubles (tied for 2nd with 14) and runs (2nd with 34).

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY

In the month of September, the Nationals announced Player Development Contracts (PDC) with Columbus of the Triple-A International League (2-year PDC through 2008), Potomac of the Single-A Carolina League (4-year PDC extension through 2010), Hagerstown of the Single-A South Atlantic League (2-year PDC through 2008) and Vermont of the short-season Single-A New York-Penn League (2-year PDC extension through 2008).

- By aligning with Columbus and Hagerstown, the Nationals affiliations with New Orleans of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League and Savannah of the Single-A South Atlantic League will expire following the 2006 Rule 5 Draft.

CASTO, ZINCOLA NAMED NATIONALS MINOR LEAGUE PLAYER AND PITCHER OF THE YEAR

Following the '06 minor league season, Nationals Minor League Director Andy Dunn named INF/OF Kory Casto (.272, 24 doubles, 20 homers, 80 RBI, .379 OBP with Double-A Harrisburg) and Zechry Zinicola (combined 4-1, 12 saves, 1.65 ERA, 34 SO in 32.2 innings for short-season Single-A Vermont, Single-A Potomac and Double-A Harrisburg) their Minor League Player and Pitcher of the Year.

- Casto was named Nationals Minor League Player of the Year for a 2nd consecutive year...following the 2006 season, he played in the Arizona Fall League...meanwhile, Zincola was the Nationals' 6th-round selection in the 2006 First-Year Player Draft out of Arizona State, where his 18 career saves rank 3rd on the school's all-time list.

MORE MINOR LEAGUE ACCOLADES

Xavier Nady posted 4 hits and David Wright homered as NYM outlasted the Nationals, 3-2... Wright's solo shot in the 3rd inning was his 3rd career long ball off Livan Hernandez...the Nationals appeared to tie the game in the bottom of the 8th, but 1B-umpire Tim Tschida (umps had rotated on Ryan Zimmerman's double to LF) called Alfonso Soriano out at home when replays confirmed that C Paul Lo Duca had dropped the relay throw... Washington went 2-for-13 with RISP.

Ryan Zimmerman hit his first career homer off Billy Wagner in the 9th inning before Jose Guillen went deep in the 10th as the Nationals posted a 9-5 comeback win at NYM...Washington won despite trailing 4-0...Guillen's 2-run shot was the 5th extra-inning homer of his career...by hitting 3 long balls, the Nationals hit more than 2 homers in a single game for the first time in 46 games (or 8/15/05 at PHI)... Washington's 'pen allowed only a meaningless run in 6.0 strong innings.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS 2007 MEDIA GUIDE

HISTORY & RECORDS

BASEBALL RETURNS TO OUR NATION'S CAPITAL

On Wednesday, September 29, 2004, Major League Baseball selected the Washington, D.C. proposal as its choice for relocation of the Montreal Expos. Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig made the announcement. Relocation of the club was subject to certain contingencies, including a formal vote of ownership at the next owners' meeting in November and passage of legislation by the District of Columbia Council to provide for financing and construction of a ballpark on the Anacostia River waterfront in Southeast Washington. MLB has also provided the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida the required notice of MLB's intent to move forward with relocating the team.

The D.C. agreement also included financing for the refurbishing of RFK Stadium, where the Washington, D.C. franchise will play through the 2007 campaign.

"Washington, D.C., as our nation's capital, is one of the world's most important cities and Major League Baseball is gratified at the skill and perseverance shown by Mayor Williams throughout this long process," Selig said. "There has been tremendous growth in the Washington, D.C. area over the last 33 years and we in Major League Baseball believe that baseball will be welcomed there and will be a great success."

Selig also said: "I would like to thank the representatives who worked on behalf of Northern Virginia, Norfolk, VA, Las Vegas, Portland, OR, Monterrey, Mexico and others for devoting so much time and energy in their attempts to bring a Major League Baseball team to their communities."

At the time, Washington, D.C. was the largest market in the country in terms of population (5.4 million) and television market size (8th) without a Major League Baseball team.

Concurrent with the D.C. legislative process necessary to fulfill the agreement reached among the D.C. Government, the D.C. Sports and Entertainment Commission and the Expos, Major League Baseball will begin to accept and review bids of prospective ownership groups.

Even though Washington, D.C. baseball has a long history with the American League, the team will play in the National League East Division, which in fact marks its return to its baseball roots. The first Washington, D.C. franchise joined the National League in 1886 and was part of the NL, except for a two-year hiatus in 1890-91, until the National League contracted Washington and three other franchises in 1900.

But a year later, Ban Johnson organized the American League and included Washington, D.C. as one of its charter franchises. Although the original Senators were mostly mediocre throughout their history, they fielded one of the game's greatest all-time pitchers, Walter "Big Train" Johnson and made three trips to the World Series, winning it in 1924 in a seven-game series against the New York Giants. In 1925, the Senators lost in seven games to Pittsburgh and lost in five games to the Giants in 1933.

The second incarnation of the Senators came in 1961 in the form of an expansion team. Like its predecessor, the Senators often finished in the second division and had only one winning season in their 11-year history. The Senators moved after the 1971 season and Washington, D.C. was without Major League Baseball until 2005.

THE HISTORY OF BASEBALL IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

When the first professional baseball games were played in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., the enduring symbol of freedom in America - the Statue of Liberty - was still two years away from being dedicated. There were 38 states in the Union and what would become the State of Oklahoma had yet to be settled. More than seven decades had passed since Washington, D.C. became the capital of the United States and baseball was quickly evolving into the National Pastime.

A Washington team was admitted to the National League in 1885 and played during the League's 10th professional season in 1886. Washington played 12 years in the National League - 1886-89 and 1892-99 - but was part of a four-team contraction in 1900 as the National League went from 12 franchises to eight.

Later that same year, former Western League president Ban Johnson was organizing a second Major League to compete with the National League and announced plans to include a franchise in the nation's capital. The new League was called the American League and began play in 1901.

This Washington franchise was awarded to James Manning and Detroit businessman Fred Postal. Manning retired later that year and Tom Loftus replaced him as the club's primary executive. The Senators finished in sixth place in 1901 with a 61-72 mark and would eventually be sold to an ownership group including Thomas C. Noyes, Benjamin Minor and Harry Rapley, among others.

The first of two individual tragedies struck the organization in only its third season as the Senators lost a key figure when future Hall of Fame outfielder Ed Delahanty was tragically killed in July 1903 when he was swept over Niagara Falls. Delahanty was the reigning American League batting champion and his sudden death took its toll on the team as the Senators finished the campaign with a 43-94 mark.

Effective for the 1905 campaign, the team name was changed to Nationals. Newspaper accounts use the names Senators and Nationals interchangeably for the next five decades.

While it took 12 years before the Nationals finished a season with a winning record, the signing of 20 year-old pitcher Walter Johnson in 1907 would signify a key moment in the franchise's history. Under first-year manager, Clark Griffith, the 1912 Washington Club posted a 91-61 mark and ended up in second place, 14 games behind the eventual World Champion Boston Red Sox.

Johnson appeared in a remarkable 50 games that year - 37 as a starter - and went 33-12 with a league-leading 1.39 ERA and 303 strikeouts. The following year he was even better as he led the Nationals to their second consecutive 90-win season. "Big Train" went 36-7 with 11 shutouts and a 1.14 ERA, which still stands today as one of the lowest ERAs by a starting pitcher in a single season.

In 1912, 40 year-old team president Thomas C. Noyes fell ill to pneumonia and eventually succumbed to the disease. Noyes had been instrumental in the franchise's improvements since he took over and was replaced as team president by Minor, a prominent Washington attorney. Minor, unable to devote the necessary time to the club, subsequently sold the controlling interest to Griffith and Philadelphia businessman William Richardson in 1919.

Following a 75-78 season in 1923, Griffith made a controversial decision by appointing 27 year-old second baseman Stanley "Bucky" Harris as field manager. Harris was the fifth manager in the previous five seasons for the Nationals, but he guided one of the great reversals in baseball history as the Nationals in 1924 won more games than ever before, 92, and captured their first American League pennant.

In the 1924 World Series, the Nationals took on famed manager John McGraw and the New York Giants. The Series was one of the closest in history as four games were decided by a single run, including the deciding Game Seven. On the strength of Walter Johnson's four innings of relief pitching - on two days' rest - and the Series clinching hit by Earl McNeeley in the bottom of the 12th inning, the Nationals won their first and only World Series Championship.

United States President Calvin Coolidge, who threw out the ceremonial first pitch on three occasions during the Series, paid tribute to the hometown victors immediately following the victory:

"I have only the heartiest praise to bestow upon the individual players of both teams. Naturally, in Washington, we were pleased to see Walter Johnson finish the final game, pitching for our home team. Everybody was pleased to see him come back at the close of the last game. The three contests I witnessed maintained throughout a high degree of skill, and every evidence of high-class sportsmanship which will bring to every observer an increased respect and confidence in our national game."

The following year, Harris once again led the Nationals to a record regular season finish as they posted 96 wins and clinched a second-straight American League pennant. Their second trip to the World Series was just as close but this time they came up short in a seven-game Series to the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Senators had a 7-6 lead entering the bottom of the eighth in Game Seven, but could not hold it as the Pirates scored three runs in the inning off Johnson and held on to clinch the Series victory.

Johnson concluded his amazing 21-year playing career with Nationals in 1927 with career totals of 417-279, a 2.36 ERA, 3,508 strikeouts and a big league-record 110 shutouts. He was among the first class of inductees into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, in 1936.

The "Big Train" was not gone from the Washington scene long as Griffith brought him back to replace Harris as the Nationals' manager in 1929. Despite posting three straight 90-win seasons, Johnson was removed from his post after the 1932 season and replaced by Joe Cronin, the team's 26 year-old shortstop.

Cronin's first season with the Nationals produced the franchise's best regular season mark ever at 99-53 and its third American League pennant. Washington again faced the New York Giants in the Fall Classic but fell in five games to a team led by the pitching of Carl Hubbell (20 IP, 0 ER) and the hitting of Mel Ott, who clinched the Series for New York with a 10th-inning homer in Game Five.

The Nationals franchise then fell on hard times. Washington won just 66 games in '34 and the team posted only two more winning seasons the next 25 years. The team name was officially changed to Senators for the '56 campaign.

Calvin Griffith, who became team president after his father's death in 1955, was granted permission to seek relocation in Sept. 1960, and an announcement was made in Oct. 1960 that the Senators were being moved to Minneapolis, MN.

At that time, the American League announced plans to expand by two teams for the 1961 season. One team would be located in Los Angeles and the other in Washington, D.C.

EXPANSION SENATORS

An expansion draft was conducted in Boston on December 10, 1960 and the Senators selected the following players at $75,000 each:

PITCHERS	CATCHERS	INFIELDERS	OUTFIELDERS
Pete Burnside	Pete Daley	Chester Boak	Joe Hicks
Dick Donovan	Dutch Dotterer	Bob Johnson	Chuck Hinton
Rudy Hernandez	Gene Green	Billy Klaus	Marty Keough
Ed Hobaugh		Dale Long	Jim King
Johhny Klippstein		Jim Mahoney	Willie Tasby
Hector Maestri		John Schaive	Gene Woodling
Carl Mathias		Coot Veal
Bobby Shantz		Bud Zipfel
Dave Sisler
Tom Sturdivant
Hal Woodeshick

The expansion Senators fared no better than their predecessors, as they lost at least 100 games in each of their first four seasons. In 1964, the Senators acquired five players in a deal with the Los Angeles Dodgers for pitcher Claude Osteen. One of those five players was slugging outfielder and the 1960 National League Rookie of the Year, Frank Howard.

An imposing presence at 6-7, 250 lbs., Howard brought a much-needed offensive punch to the Senators lineup and the Senators win total increased in each of his first three seasons in Washington. After struggling again in 1968, new team president Robert Short brought in Hall of Fame outfielder Ted Williams as the new manager of the Senators.

Howard and his teammates responded to the "Splendid Splinter" during his rookie managerial campaign as Washington's win total improved 21 games to 86 in 1969. It was also Howard's best year in the Majors, as he batted .296 with 48 home runs, 111 RBI and 111 runs scored and finished fourth in the balloting for American League Most Valuable Player.

Unfortunately, the team was unable to build upon their success in '69. The Senators lost 92 games in '70 and 96 in '71. On Sept. 21, 1971, owners approved the transfer of the Senators to Arlington, TX, where it became the Texas Rangers.

After 71 years in the American League and nearly 100 since the debut of professional baseball in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., hosted its "final" regular season on September 30, 1971 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium. The Senators moved after the 1971 season and Washington, D.C. was without Major League Baseball until 2005.

BASEBALL IN WASHINGTON, D.C. —TIMELINE

1883	The first recorded meeting of a professional baseball team and the United States President took place at the White House. The Cleveland franchise in the National League met with President Chester A. Arthur.
January 1886	The National League admitted the Washington franchise to begin play in the National League for the 1886 season. Washington replaced the Providence franchise.
March 1900	Washington was one of four franchises contracted when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to 8. Reportedly, the franchise was purchased for $10,000.
January 1901	Former Western League President Ban Johnson formally organized the American League with eight franchises, including the Washington Senators.
April 26, 1901	Washington Senators played their first game in the newly established American League against the Philadelphia Athletics at Shibe Park. The Senators won 5-1.
April 29, 1901	The Washington Senators defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 5-2, in the first AL game played in Washington, DC.
July 2, 1903	Washington future Hall of Famer OF Ed Delahanty was killed when he was swept away over Niagara Falls.
1904	Following '04 season, Washington team named changed, effective in 1905, to Nationals. Newspaper accounts use "Senators" and "Nationals" interchangeably for next 5 decades.
August 2, 1907	Nineteen-year-old Walter Johnson made his Major League debut with Washington and lost to Detroit, 3-2. The future Hall of Famer gave up his first hit to Ty Cobb, a bunt single.
September 7, 1908	Washington pitcher Walter Johnson shut out the New York Yankees (then called Highlanders) for the third consecutive game over a span of four days.
April 14, 1910	United States President William Howard Taft became the first President to throw the first pitch prior to a Major League Baseball game.
October 30, 1911	Clark Griffith was named manager of the Washington franchise, where he would remain a prominent figure - as manager and then owner — until his death in 1955.
May 19, 1918	Washington defeated Cleveland, 1-0 in 18 innings, in the first Sunday baseball game played in Washington, DC. Reportedly, a crowd of more than 15,000 was in attendance at American League Base Ball Park.
November 10, 1919	Clark Griffith became Washington club owner and president when he joined William Richardson in purchasing the controlling interest of the Senators for $175,000.
May 14, 1920	Walter Johnson defeated the Detroit Tigers for his 300th career victory.
July 1, 1920	Walter Johnson pitched first no-hitter in Nationals history, defeating the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park, 1-0. The lone baserunner allowed reached on a Bucky Harris error.
September 29, 1924	The Washington Nationals defeated the Boston Red Sox, 4-2, behind the pitching of Walter Johnson and clinched the first pennant in franchise history.
October 10, 1924	The Nationals defeated the New York Giants, four games to three, to win the World Series, the first and only in the history of the franchise.
May 2, 1926	Walter Johnson wins 400th career game with a 4-3 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.
August 2, 1927	Washington celebrated Walter Johnson Day at Griffith Stadium on the 20th anniversary of his big league debut. Johnson was presented with gifts prior to the game against DET.
October 15, 1928	Former Washington pitcher Walter Johnson signed a 3-year contract to manage the team.
August 8, 1931	Bobby Burke pitched the first no-hitter at Griffith Stadium by a Nationals pitcher, defeating Boston, 5-0.
September 21, 1934	The Washington Nationals defeated the St. Louis, 2-1, and clinched their third and final American League pennant.
February 6, 1936	Washington Nationals pitcher Walter Johnson was part of the first class of players voted into the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY.
November 5, 1940	Walter Johnson was defeated as a Republican candidate in an attempt to run for a U.S. House of Representative seat from the State of Maryland.
May 28, 1941	The Washington Nationals hosted the New York Yankees at Griffith Stadium in the first night game ever held in Washington, DC. Future Senators general manager George Selkirk hit a pinch-hit grand slam off future Senators pitching coach Sid Hudson in the top of the eighth inning to propel the Yankees to a 6-5 win.
1946	Washington surpassed one million fans for the first and only time in franchise history, establishing a franchise record for single season attendance (1,027,216). The Senators also drew more than one million fans on the road (1,055,171) that season.
September 7, 1947	Washington's Joe Kuehl hit the only home run by the home team at Griffith Stadium all year long. It was an inside-the-park homer against the New York Yankees.
April 17, 1953	New York Yankees outfielder Mickey Mantle was credited with what many consider to be the longest home run in baseball history. It was estimated to have traveled 565 feet at Washington's Griffith Stadium off Senators pitcher Chuck Stobbs.
1956	Washington team named officially changed to Senators, effective for 1956 season.
1957	Washington's Roy Sievers became the first player in franchise history to lead the American League in home runs with 42. Sievers outdistanced future Hall of Famers Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox (34) (38) and Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees (34) to capture the home run title.
October 27, 1960	Washington Senators president Calvin Griffith was granted permission to move the franchise to Minneapolis. The American League also admitted an expansion team to Washington, DC, to replace the Senators.
November 17, 1960	A native of Washington and head of the Federal Aviation Administration, Elvin Quesada was awarded the expansion Washington Senators.

September 21, 1961	The Washington Senators played their final game at Griffith Stadium and lost to the Minnesota Twins, 6-3, before 1,498 fans.
April 9, 1962	D.C. Stadium, later renamed Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium in 1969, was opened as the new home of the expansion Washington Senators. The Senators defeated the Detroit Tigers, 4-1, before a crowd of 42,143 fans including President John F. Kennedy.
August 1, 1962	An all-time Washington record crowd of 48,147 fans attend a doubleheader at D.C. Stadium against the New York Yankees.
September 12, 1962	Washington pitcher Tom Cheney established a big league record when he struck out 21 batters during a 16-inning victory at Baltimore.
April 11, 1966	Emmett Ashford became the first African-American umpire to work a Major League game when he worked the Cleveland-Washington opening day game at D.C. Stadium. U.S. Vice President Hubert Humphrey was among the crowd of 44,468.
June 12, 1967	The Washington Senators defeated the Chicago White Sox, 6-5, in 22 innings at D.C. Stadium, marking the longest night game in baseball history. It required 6 hours, 38 minutes and ended at 2:43 a.m.
April 8, 1969	NYY spoiled the managerial debut of Ted Williams at RFK Stadium in Washington, 8-4. More than 45,000 fans - including President Richard Nixon - were in attendance.
June 5, 1969	Washington held the first overall pick in the Major League Baseball Rule 4 Draft for the first and only time since the draft's inception in 1965. The Senators chose outfielder Jeff Burroughs from Wilson High School in Long Beach, Calif.
July 22, 1969	For the first time in its history, the All-Star Game was postponed due to rain. The game was played the following day at RFK Stadium and hometown favorite Frank Howard delighted the fans with a homer.
September 30, 1971	The 10,852nd and seemingly-final game played in Washington ended in a forfeit win for the New York Yankees. The Senators led 7-5 with two out in the top of the 9th when fans stormed onto the field, tearing it up. The field could not be cleared and the umpire called the game.
September 29, 2004	Baseball returns to Nation's Capitol for first time in 33 years as Major League Baseball selected the Washington, D.C. proposal as its choice for relocation of the Montreal Expos. Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig made the announcement. Relocation of the club was subject to certain contingencies, including a formal vote of ownership at the next owners' meeting in November and passage of legislation by the District of Columbia Council to provide for financing and construction of a ballpark on the Anacostia River waterfront in Southeast Washington. MLB has also provided the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida the required notice of MLB's intent to move forward with relocating the team. The D.C. agreement also includes financing for the refurbishing of RFK Stadium, where the Washington, D.C. franchise will play through the 2007 season.

WASHINGTON, D.C. BALLPARKS

Pro baseball teams were formed in our nation's capital beginning in the early 1870s and those franchises played their games in ballparks commonly known as Swampoodle Grounds, Capitol Grounds and Boundary Field.

In 1892, the Washington Senators joined the expanding National League and began playing their home games at a site that would host professional baseball games into the early 1960s. From 1892-99, the Senators played at National Park, which had a seating capacity of approximately 6,500. Although never finishing above sixth place, the team drew fairly well, including more than 200,000 fans in 1896.

When the National League contracted from 12 franchises to eight following the 1899 season, the team was disbanded. However, it would only be two seasons before a professional team occupied that site again.

During those 2 years, former Western League president Ban Johnson was working to put together a 2nd Major League to rival the NL. In 1901, the American League began play with 8 franchises, including the Washington Nationals.

This franchise would play its home games on the same site as the previous National League Washington team, but the ballpark was appropriately renamed, American League Base Ball Park and the capacity was expanded to nearly 10,000.

On March 17, 1911, tragedy struck the American League Base Ball Park. The all-wooden ballpark and four surrounding buildings were completely destroyed by a fire started by a plumber's blow lamp and a strong wind. American League Base Ball Park could not be saved as plumbers working on the park's drain pipes had shut off the water supply and by the time fire fighters arrived, the grand stand and bleachers were engulfed in flames. At the time, the loss of the ballpark was estimated at $20,000.

Thomas C. Noyes, president of the Washington franchise, gained approval from the Board of Directors to announce that work would begin immediately on a new ballpark with a steel grandstand. With the players at Spring Training and Opening Day less than a month away, crews worked tirelessly to get the ballpark ready for the home opener.

By Opening Day 1911, the grandstands were sufficiently erected for the Nationals to host the Boston Red Sox with President William Howard Taft in attendance. The work on the ballpark continued when the team was on the road and was completed on July 24, 1911 at a final cost of approximately $100,000. Seating capacity was more than 27,000, including a presidential box near the first base dugout.

In 1920, the American League Base Ball Park was renamed Griffith Stadium in recognition of the franchise's owner and president, Clark Griffith. The only major alteration to the ballpark was also made in 1920 as the double-decked stands were extended from the bases to the foul poles.

During the late-1930s and 1940s, Griffith Stadium had another part-time tenant - the famed Homestead Grays of the Negro Leagues. Originally from Pennsylvania, the Grays played half of their games at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh and half at Griffith Stadium when the Washington franchise was on the road. Some of the most revered players in Negro League history played for the Grays, including Josh Gibson, Buck Leonard, Cool Papa Bell and Sam Bankhead, as they won nine Negro League championships.

Griffith Stadium, which also hosted the Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1937 and 1956 and three World Series in 1924, 1925 and 1933, remained the home of the Washington franchise until it was moved to Minneapolis following the 1960 season.

The expansion Washington Senators played their inaugural season at Griffith Stadium in 1961 before moving into District of Columbia Stadium for the 1962 season.

After having been the site of professional baseball in Washington, DC, since 1892, the final game at Griffith Stadium was played on September 21, 1961 as the Senators fell to the Minnesota Twins, 4-3, before a crowd of 1,498 fans. Griffith Stadium was demolished in 1965 and is now utilized by Howard University. Nearly 1,000 of the original seats from Griffith Stadium were moved to a Spring Training facility near Orlando, Fla., Tinker Field. Those seats remain there today.

A federally-owned stadium, District of Columbia Stadium was a new three-tiered, multi-purpose facility constructed near the Potomac River at a cost of approximately $24 million. The Senators signed a 10-year lease on September 29, 1961 with the D.C. Armory Board for the stadium, which had a seating capacity of 45,016.

On April 9, 1962, the Senators played their first regular season game at District of Columbia Stadium. A crowd of 42,143 - including President John F. Kennedy — saw Senators pitcher Bennie Daniels defeat the Detroit Tigers, 4-1. Interestingly enough, Daniels suffered the loss at both the final game at Ebbets Field in 1957 and the final game at Griffith Stadium in 1961.

Under the direction of the D.C. Armory Board, the stadium was officially renamed Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium on January 18, 1969.

The 1969 Major League Baseball All-Star Game was the fourth hosted by the Senators and the second at RFK Stadium (also first game in 1962). Despite the American League dropping a 9-3 decision to the National League, Washington fans saw future Hall of Famer Willie McCovey hit a pair of homers and hometown favorite Frank Howard hit one as well.

In 1971, the Senators played their final season at RFK Stadium before moving to Arlington, Texas. The final regular season Major League Baseball game was played at RFK on September 30, 1971. Washington hosted the New York Yankees before a crowd of just 14,460 in a game that was never finished. The Senators were holding on to a 7-5 lead with two outs in the top of the ninth inning when fans rushed the field. The umpiring crew could not clear the field and the game was forfeited to the Yankees, 9-0.

RFK Stadium has hosted 16 exhibition games involving Major League teams since the Senators moved in 1971. A portion of the proceeds from most of the games was donated to various charities. Attendance at the 16 contests averaged more than 27,600 per game. Following is a listing of those games:

DATE	TEAMS/SCORE	ATTENDANCE	DATE	TEAMS/SCORE	ATTENDANCE

April 7, 1991	BOS 6, BAL 5	43,264

On March 14, 2006, Washington, DC Mayor Anthony Williams, the D.C. Sports & Entertainment Commission and the Washington Nationals unveiled plans for a 41,000-seat state-of-the-art baseball stadium located in Southeast DC. Seven weeks later, on May 4, ground was officially broken on the ballpark site. The new ballpark's opening is slated for April of 2008.

THE TRADITION OF OPENING DAY IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

Each Major League Club has its own unique celebration to mark the opening of the Major League Baseball season, but Opening Day in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., was always a special and sometimes historic event. Washington, D.C.'s Opening Day tradition dates to April 14, 1910. William Howard Taft, the 27th President of the United States, attended the home opener of the Washington Senators against the Philadelphia Athletics. Numerous other government officials, including Vice President James Sherman, joined President Taft at the ballpark.

An overflow crowd of 12,000 fans—the largest baseball crowd in Washington at that time—gave President Taft an standing ovation as he made his way to his seats on the first-base side. Team president Thomas C. Noyes then took the 2 managers—Washington's Jimmy McAleer and Philadelphia's legendary Connie Mack—to meet the President.

Just prior to the start of the game, umpire Billy Evans walked over to President Taft's box and presented him with a new baseball. Evans instructed President Taft that he was to throw the ball from his seat in the stands to Senators pitcher Walter Johnson, who was standing at home plate, to officially commence the start of the American League championship season. After giving the ball briefly to First Lady Helen Taft, the President adjusted his gloves and made a good throw to Johnson, who immediately gave the ball to catcher Charles Street to have it secured in a safe place.

President Taft watched the entire game, a 3-0 Washington victory in which Johnson hurled a one-hit, complete-game shutout. After the game, Johnson sent the historic ball to the White House accompanied by a note to President Taft asking for his autograph on the ball. President Taft returned the ball after penning the following on it:

"For Walter Johnson, with the hope that he may continue to be as formidable as in yesterday's game. William H. Taft."

Although President Taft was the first to throw out a ceremonial first pitch, it was not the first time a President of the United States attended a Major League Baseball game. Benjamin Harrison, the 23rd U.S. President, is believed to be the first sitting President to attend a Major League game when he witnessed a NL game between Cincinnati and Washington in June 1892. That wasn't even the first interaction with a professional baseball team as nine years earlier President Chester A. Arthur welcomed the Cleveland franchise of the National League to the White House.

Having the President throw out the ceremonial first pitch at Washington's home opener was such an enormous success—not only in the nation's capital but around the country—that it led to the American League granting Washington permission to open the American League championship season one day before the rest of the League. This action was approved on December 13, 1927, in recognition of the U.S. President throwing out the ceremonial first pitch.

Including President Taft's precedent-setting throw in 1910, 11 different Presidents have attended a home opener of the Washington Senators a total of 46 times. The Senators posted a 23-23 mark in home openers with a President present.

President Taft (2-0) and Woodrow Wilson (3-0), the 28th U.S. President, were the only two to never see the Senators lose. The only U.S. Presidents never to see Washington win a home opener were Lyndon Johnson (0-3) and Richard Nixon (0-2). Following is the breakdown of Washington's record on Opening Day, listed by President:

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES	WASHINGTON'S RECORD ON OPENING DAY
Woodrow Wilson (D)	3-0 (1.000)
William Howard Taft (R)	2-0 (1.000)
George W. Bush (R)	1-0 (1.000)
Calvin Coolidge (R)	3-1 (.750)
Warren Harding (R)	2-1 (.667)
Dwight Eisenhower (R)	4-3 (.571)
Franklin Roosevelt (D)	4-4 (.500)
Harry Truman (D)	3-4 (.429)
John F. Kennedy (D)	1-2 (.333)
Herbert Hoover (R)	1-3 (.250)
Richard Nixon (R)	0-2 (.000)
Lyndon Johnson (D)	0-3 (.000)
TOTAL	24-23 (.511)
Democrats	11-13 (.458)
Republicans	13-10 (.565)

Prior to the Senators move to Texas in 1972, each President since Taft was in attendance for a Washington Senators home opener at least once. Several Presidents had to miss on occasion, including President Taft in 1914 because of the sinking of the Titanic and President Wilson in 1918 and 1919 because of World War I.

Since 1972, the tradition of Presidents and Opening Day has continued in other Major League cities. The only President to never throw out a ceremonial first pitch at an Opening Day game was Jimmy Carter. President George W. Bush has continued the legacy, having thrown out the ceremonial first pitch at RFK Stadium on April 14, 2005 to usher the return of baseball to the nation's capitol. He also did the honors at Miller Park in Milwaukee in April of 2001.

WASHINGTON, DC AND THE WORLD SERIES

Washington, DC has hosted three World Series, with the original Washington Nationals claiming the 1924 World Championship. Washington needed 7 games to top the favored New York Giants, a club that was appearing in its 8th World Series in 14 seasons and was managed by John McGraw. The Nationals won despite Walter Johnson losing each of his first 2 starts. However, Washington won, 4-3, in 12 innings as Johnson came out of the 'pen to earn the win in Game 7. The 1924 World Series remains the 2nd of only 4 World Series to be decided in extra innings of the decisive 7th game.

The Washington Nationals would go on to play in two more Fall Classics, losing both. As defending World Champions in 1925, the Nationals won 92 games and claimed another NL Pennant, but lost to Pittsburgh in 7 games. The Pirates topped the Nationals, 9-7, in Game 7 as Walter Johnson squandered a 4-0 lead after the first inning and eventually suffered the loss. The New York Giants provided payback for the '24 Series by winning the 1933 World Series over the Nationals in 5 games.

THE HISTORY OF THE MONTREAL EXPOS (1969-2004)

The city of Montreal had a long association with professional baseball even before it was awarded a Major League franchise in 1968. On April 18, 1946, the Montreal Royals, a minor league affiliate of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the International League, secured their place in baseball history when Jackie Robinson made his professional debut and became the first African-American to play professional baseball in the 20th Century.

More than two decades later as the National League was seeking to expand by two franchises, former Montreal city councillor Gerry Snyder presented the city's formal bid during an owners' meeting in Mexico City, Mexico. Six months later on May 27, 1968, it was announced that Major League Baseball was expanding outside the United States for the first time as Montreal was awarded a National League franchise to begin play in 1969.

Despite some early concerns about the team's financing, Montreal met its initial deposit deadline and officially became a member of the National League on August 14, 1968. Charles Bronfman, a distillery magnate and an original investor, was named chairman with Paul Beaudry and Lorne Webster as vice-chairmen. John McHale was named president and chief executive officer, while Jim Fanning was appointed the team's first general manager.

On September 5, 1968, the Montreal franchise named Gene Mauch field manager. Mauch was returning to familiar ground as he played two seasons for the minor league Montreal Royals in 1943 and 1944. McHale also announced that the team would be known as the Expos, in recognition of Expos 67, an international exhibition that attracted 50 million visitors to the city in 1967.

Only five days later, pitcher Dave Hartman became the first player to sign a contract with the Expos. Hartman never actually played for the Expos or made it to the Major Leagues. However, an expansion draft was conducted on October 14, 1968 and the Expos selected the following 30 players:

Manny Mota, Mack Jones, John Bateman, Gary Sutherland, John Billingham, Donn Clendenon, Jesus Alou, Mike Wegener, Skip Guinn, Bill Stoneman, Maury Wills, Larry Jackson, Bob Reynolds, Dan McGinn, Jose Herrera, Jim Williams, Angel Hermoso, Jim Grant, Jerry Robertson, Don Shaw, Ty Cline, Garry Jestadt, Carl Morton, Larry Jaster, Ernest McAnally, Jim Fairey, Jose Laboy, John Boccabella, Rob Brand and John Glass.

The Expos' first home ballpark was Jarry Park, a converted minor league stadium named after former councillor Raoul Jarry in 1927. Jarry Park's initial capacity was 3,000, but was expanded to 28,450 as the ballpark met MLB standards.

Montreal made its National League debut on April 8, 1969 at Shea Stadium in New York against one of the National League's last expansion teams, the Mets. The Expos held off a furious 9th inning rally to claim an 11-10 victory. Pitcher Dan McGinn hit the first home run in franchise history, a solo shot off future Hall of Famer Tom Seaver in the 4th inning.

Jarry Park hosted its first regular season game six days later as 29,814 fans witnessed Major League Baseball in Canada for the first time. Despite facing a St. Louis Cardinals lineup that featured names such as Lou Brock, Curt Flood, Dal Maxvill and Joe Torre, the Expos treated their fans to an 8-7 win.

One of the highlights of the inaugural season came on April 17 at Connie Mack Stadium in Philadelphia. Bill Stoneman, later a general manager of the Anaheim Angels, pitched the franchise's first no-hitter in defeating the Phillies, 7-0. The Expos would go on to finish the season with a 52-110 mark.

The following season saw Montreal improve by 21 games under Mauch. 26 year-old pitcher Carl Morton went 18-11 with a 3.26 ERA en route to being named 1970 NL Rookie of the Year. In 1973, the Expos made their first pennant chase as they won 79 games and were in the race for the National League East title until the last weekend of the season.

After a few disappointing seasons, the Expos in 1977 moved into Olympic Stadium, which was the main venue for the 1976 Olympic Games. A crowd of 57,592 fans attended the first game at The Big O as the Expos fell to the Phillies, 7-2.

Montreal begun to form the nucleus of a team that would bring home its first NL East title with players such as Ellis Valentine, Andre Dawson, Warren Cromartie, Gary Carter and Steve Rogers. The Expos won 95 games in 1979 only to fall two games shy of the title and was again in the pennant race until the final game of the season 1980.

In '81, the Expos finally cleared the hurdle as they won the NL East's second half title in a season shortened by a players' strike. In a best-of-5 Divisional Series, Montreal topped first-half champion Philadelphia, three games to two, and advanced to its first NLCS.

The NLCS against Tommy Lasorda's Los Angeles Dodgers went down to the ninth inning of the fifth and deciding game. With the game tied at 1-1, Dodgers outfielder Rick Monday hit a two-out solo homer off Rogers. The Expos put two runners on in the bottom of the ninth, but could not tie the score as Los Angeles advanced to the World Series.

In 1982, Montreal hosted the first Major League Baseball All-Star Game to be held outside of the United States. The National League won its 11th consecutive Midsummer Classic on the strength of a home run by Cincinnati's Dave Concepcion. Five players represented the Expos on the NL squad: Carter, Rogers, Dawson, Tim Raines and Al Oliver.

Montreal remained competitive throughout much of the next decade, including 91 wins in 1987 by a team led by Raines, Andres Galarraga, Hubie Brooks and Tim Wallach.

Bronfman sold the franchise to team president Claude Brochu on June 14, 1991. The next season Brochu appointed long-time Montreal coach Felipe Alou as field manager. Alou guided the Expos to 87 victories and a second place finish in his first year at the helm and then improved upon that with 94 wins in 1993.

The 1994 season saw a core group of players such as Larry Walker, Marquis Grissom, Moises Alou, Pedro Martinez, Ken Hill and John Wetteland storm out to a 74-40 mark - the best in the Major Leagues - and a six-game lead in the newly-formed National League East on August 11. However, the season was never completed. A players' strike began the following day that would wipe out the remainder of the 1994 schedule.

After the changing economics of the baseball landscape forced the Expos to trade some of those core players, the '95 team finished in last place in the NL East. It was only the second time since '77 that Montreal finished in last place.

Two years later, Martinez continued to establish himself as one of the top starting pitchers in the Major Leagues. He posted a 17-8 record with a 1.90 ERA, 305 strikeouts and 13 complete games en route to being the first Expos' pitcher to win the National League Cy Young Award. That winter, Martinez was traded to the Boston Red Sox.

The 1998 season was marked by stellar individual performances on the field and uncertainty off the field. 22 year-old outfielder Vladimir Guerrero displayed his immense talent by setting six Montreal records, including the club single season home run mark. Also, 24 year-old closer Ugueth Urbina recorded 34 saves with a 1.30 ERA, and Alou became the franchise's most successful manager with his 521st victory on August 19.

Off the field, Brochu continued to struggle in an attempt to finalize funding for a new downtown ballpark and announced his willingness to sell his shares of the franchise. In 1999, Jeffrey Loria was officially approved as the Expos controlling person following a buy-back of Brochu's shares. In February 2002, Major League Baseball approved the sale of the Florida Marlins to Loria and the sale of the Expos to Major League Baseball and the 29 other Major League Clubs. A new Expos senior management team was announced: Tony Tavares (president), Omar Minaya (general manager) and Hall of Famer Frank Robinson (field manager). Baseball Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig also announced the formation of a relocation committee to seek a permanent home for the franchise.

The 2003 and 2004 seasons saw the Expos make baseball history by playing a portion of their home schedule at Hiram Bithorn Stadium in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Fans in Puerto Rico celebrated the return of Major League Baseball to the island country. The Expos drew nearly 530,000 fans and posted a 20-23 mark over their 43 games played at Hiram Bithorn Stadium during the two-season trial. On September 29, 2004, Commissioner Selig announced the formal approval of the relocation of the Expos franchise to the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., for the 2005 season.

SERIES NOTES

The Nationals/Expos are 1-10-1 in the last 12 season series against ATL (Expos went 7-6 in 2000)...only 2 of 19 games between the Nationals and ATL were decided by one run in 2006...this, after 11 of 19 games were one-run affairs in '05...Washington was not swept in a series by ATL in 2006 for the first time since 2000...Nationals bench coach Pat Corrales spent the last 17 seasons as a member of Bobby Cox's staff in ATL...of the division's managers and coaches, only Cox has managed and/or coached in the NL East longer than Corrales...not to be ignored, the Expos' 74-40 record in 1994 represents ATL's only blemish during their run of 14 "straight" division titles...the Expos led the Braves (68-46) by 6.0 games in the NL East when games were halted at the completion of play on August 11.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS

MEDIA

NATIONALS ON TELEVISION

The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network is the television home of the Washington Nationals, and will produce 161 games in 2007. The network is owned by the Nationals and Baltimore Orioles, and can therefore give fans unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game.

In 2007 MASN began carrying a 30-minute pre-game and post-game show, Nats Xtra, for every Nationals game. The network also carries managers, coaches and magazine shows about the Nationals. When both the Nationals and Orioles play simultaneously, MASN offers a second channel, MASN2, to provide the live telecast of the other game. All of MASN's cable and satellite distributors provide a MASN2 channel position, which remains consistent throughout the entire season (visit www.masnsports.com for local listings).

MASN will produce selected Nationals games for broadcast over-the-air on WDCA-TV, Channel 20 in Washington, D.C., primarily on Fridays and Saturdays.

MASN's television territory stretches from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina and covers all or parts of six states and the District of Columbia. The network is carried by most cable and satellite providers in the mid-Atlantic region. For more information visit www.masnsports.com.

TELEVISION VOICES OF THE NATIONALS

DON SUTTON

Don Sutton joins the MASN team in 2007 after a Hall-of-Fame playing career from 1966-88 and 18 years in the broadcast booth as a sports announcer for Atlanta Braves telecasts on Turner Sports. The 61-year-old got his first taste of broadcasting in 1987, when he provided pre- and post-game analysis for NBC's coverage of the National League Championship Series featuring St. Louis and San Francisco. He joined Turner Sports in 1989, one year following his last big league season. Sutton, who was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998, has also served as a course reporter on TBS's professional golf coverage, working the Hawaiian Open, PGA Championship and PGA Grand Slam of Golf, as well as TNT's coverage of the Sarazen World Open Championship. Sutton's pitching career was highlighted by four All-Star appearances (1972-73, 1975 and 1977) and a combined 324 wins with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Houston Astros, Milwaukee Brewers and California Angels. He also pitched in 4 World Series, going a combined 2-3 with a 5.26 ERA with the Dodgers (1974 and 1977-78) and Milwaukee (1982) without winning a championship. Sutton spent the first 15 seasons of his career with the Dodgers before joining the Astros as a free agent in 1981. The righthander was traded to Milwaukee in August 1982, and pitched three seasons there before being traded to Oakland in December 1984. Traded to California in September 1985, Sutton pitched for 2-plus seasons in an Angels uniform until re-signing with the Dodgers in January 1988. Sutton ranks 7th on baseball's all-time strikeouts list with 3,574. San Diego's Greg Maddux is the active player closest to Sutton, ranking 12th with 3,169 strikeouts. Sutton earned Sporting News NL Rookie of the Year honors in 1966 and was the MVP of the 1977 All-Star Game. Sutton makes his off-season home in Rancho Mirage, CA with his wife Mary and daughter Jackie (10). He also has 2 adult children: Daron and Staci.

BOB CARPENTER

Bob Carpenter enters his 2nd season with MASN and the Nationals after 10 years in the TV booth of the St. Louis Cardinals and more than 20 in the major leagues. The St. Louis native debuted in 1984 with Cardinals baseball on the Sportstime Cable Network, then returned in '95 on KPLR-TV and KMOX Radio. He has been nominated for four St. Louis/Mid-America Emmys, winning twice (1996 and '97). His signature home run call "See ... you ... later!" got local and national recognition during Mark McGwire's record-setting home run chase in '98. Carpenter also appeared on TV in the '80s and '90s with the Texas Rangers, New York Mets and Minnesota Twins. One of sports broadcasting's busiest announcers, Bob has worked MLB, college basketball and college football during 17 play-by-play seasons. He has broadcast baseball playoffs, Triple-A All-Star Games, NCAA and NIT Basketball Tournaments and College Football bowl games. His studio work included College Gameday and College Football Scoreboard shows. During his tenure with ESPN, Carpenter has been paired with former major leaguers Buck Martinez, Joe Morgan, Jim Palmer, Ray Knight, Jerry Reuss, Frank Viola and many others. On the basketball side, he worked with Dick Vitale, Bill Raftery, Larry Conley, Jim Valvano and among others. Carpenter announced the 2005 NCAA Basketball Final 4 in his hometown of St. Louis for NCAA International TV. Prior to ESPN, Bob handled a variety of sports for USA Network, including College Basketball and Football, PGA Golf (including The Masters) and Professional Tennis (including the U.S. Open). Bob has announced numerous soccer events at RFK Stadium, starting as the TV voice of Team America in 1983. He also worked several matches during the 1994 World Cup. Carpenter began his broadcasting career in 1976 as baseball play-by-play announcer with the Tulsa Oilers, then St. Louis' Triple-A affiliate. Carpenter earned a Radio-TV-Film degree with honors from the University of Missouri-Kansas City in 1975. Bob and Debbie, his wife of 26 years, have 2 daughters Katie and Allison.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS RADIO

On November 15, 2006, the Washington Nationals named Bonneville International Corporation as its radio partner for the 2007 season. The continuity was appreciated throughout the region, as Bonneville had broadcast both the Nationals' inaugural 2005 season and the 2006 campaigns.

Nationals games can be heard in and around DC on Washington Post Radio (WTWP - 1500AM and 107.7FM), and on one of six radio affiliates throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia, including both Richmond and Norfolk.

Ten exhibition games, as well as the entire 162-game regular-season schedule will be broadcast on Washington Post Radio in 2007.

The Nationals' radio team of Charlie Slowes and Dave Jageler return for a second consecutive season in 2007. Slowes has been with the Nationals since the club's inaugural campaign, while Jageler enters his second year.

Bonneville International is a media company with radio, television, satellite, and advertising properties in Chicago, Phoenix, San Francisco, Washington, D.C., St. Louis, and Salt Lake City.

RADIO VOICES OF THE NATIONALS

CHARLIE SLOWES

Slowes, 45, enters his 10th big league season, his 3rd with the Nationals. Charlie joined the Nationals on February 24, 2005, and it did not take long for him to reacquaint himself with the Washington, DC market. Within days of his Nationals premier, his trademark "Bang Zoom" tag line was a part of the Beltway lexicon. Before introducing the Nationals to their new market in 2005, Charlie spent the previous 7 seasons as a play-by-play voice of Tampa Bay on the Devil Rays Radio Network. He joined the Devil Rays for their inaugural season in 1998. Before his return, Slowes was perhaps best known locally as the play-by-play voice of the Washington Bullets from 1986-97. During his tenure with the Bullets, Slowes did 2 seasons of television simulcasts and enjoyed representing the Bullets in a variety of community-related functions. He also worked at KMOX Radio in St. Louis for three years (1984-86), during which time he was exposed to broadcasting greats Bob Costas and Jack Buck while working in a variety of on-air functions for, among others, St. Louis University, the St. Louis Blues, the St. Louis baseball Cardinals and the St. Louis football Cardinals. Charlie broadcast Tidewater Tides Triple-A baseball for parts of 4 seasons from 1986-92. He has broadcasting experience with NBC (television) and CBS (radio) for their MLB Game of the Week, as well as with the Baltimore Orioles and New York Mets radio networks. He's also dabbled in bowling and boxing for ESPN and MISL soccer (play-by-play with New York Arrows in 1983) in 2-plus decades as a play-by-play broadcaster. Charlie is married to Christina. The couple has 2 sons: Jimmy and Alex.

DAVE JAGELER

Jageler, 35, enters his 2nd season with the Nationals after spending the 2005 campaign as the radio and TV voice of the Pawtucket Red Sox of the Triple-A International League. Jageler joined Gary Cohen (Mets), Don Orsillo (Red Sox), Dave Flemming (Giants) and Andy Freed (Devil Rays) as Pawtucket products who have moved on to the major leagues. Prior to joining Pawtucket, Jageler worked in Boston co-hosting an afternoon talk show as well as serving in various capacities with the Boston Celtics radio network, including fill in play-by-play. Jageler spent 6 years in Charlotte as the voice of UNC-Charlotte basketball and co-hosting a morning drive talk show. While in Charlotte, he built his baseball resume with the Triple-A Charlotte Knights in the 1995, 1996 and 2001 seasons doing play-by-play. Jageler's voice may sound familiar to some in the D.C.-area, as he served as a host on the Virginia Tech Sports Network during the 1993-94 basketball season. He has also served as the studio host for Westwood One's NHL Game of the Week, the Florida State and Texas Longhorns football networks and has done fill-in play-by-play for both the Seminoles and Longhorns. The Windsor, CT native is a graduate of Syracuse University's S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications, where he began his play-by-play career broadcasting Syracuse football and basketball games on WAER and baseball for the Triple-A Syracuse Skychiefs on Time Warner Cable and Empire Sports Network. During baseball's off-season, he can be heard as an ESPN Radio SportsCenter anchor and as the voice of Harvard basketball. Jageler resides in Alexandria, VA. He is married to Jennifer, and the couple has two children, Jared (6) and Sarah (2).

CHARTESE BURNETT

Chartese served five years as Assistant Vice President of Communications for PLAYERS INC, the licensing and marketing for-profit arm of the National Football League Players Association (NFLPA); after having spent two years as Assistant Media Relations Director with the National Basketball Association (NBA) in New York. Burnett began her career in sports communications at her alma mater Georgetown University in 1987, where she served four years in the Sports Information Office, before departing as Director of Sports Information in 1991.

JOHN DEVER

Entering his 10th big league season, John Dever joined the organization as the Montreal Expos Baseball Information Director on February 10, 2003 after spending the previous five seasons in various capacities within the San Diego Padres Media Relations Department. Dever has worked in sports media relations for the University of Virginia, the Richmond Braves and the Rochester Red Wings since graduating from Syracuse University in 1994.

MARK ROGOFF

Mark Rogoff enters his second season with the Nationals as Media Relations Manager, having joined the organization in February 2006. The 26-year-old spent four seasons as a media relations assistant with the Boston Red Sox from 2002-05. Rogoff was born and raised in San Diego, CA, where he began his baseball career as an intern with the Padres from 1999-2001. He is a 2003 graduate of Boston University, earning a B.S. in Communication.

LISA PAGANO

Lisa Pagano enters her third season with the Nationals and first as Media Relations Manager. She spent the previous two years as Communications Assistant. Prior to joining the Nationals, Pagano worked as the Executive Assistant to the General Manager at The Sports Club/LA in Washington, DC. A 2003 graduate of The George Washington University with a BA in Psychology, she is originally from Mineola, NY.

BILL GLUVNA

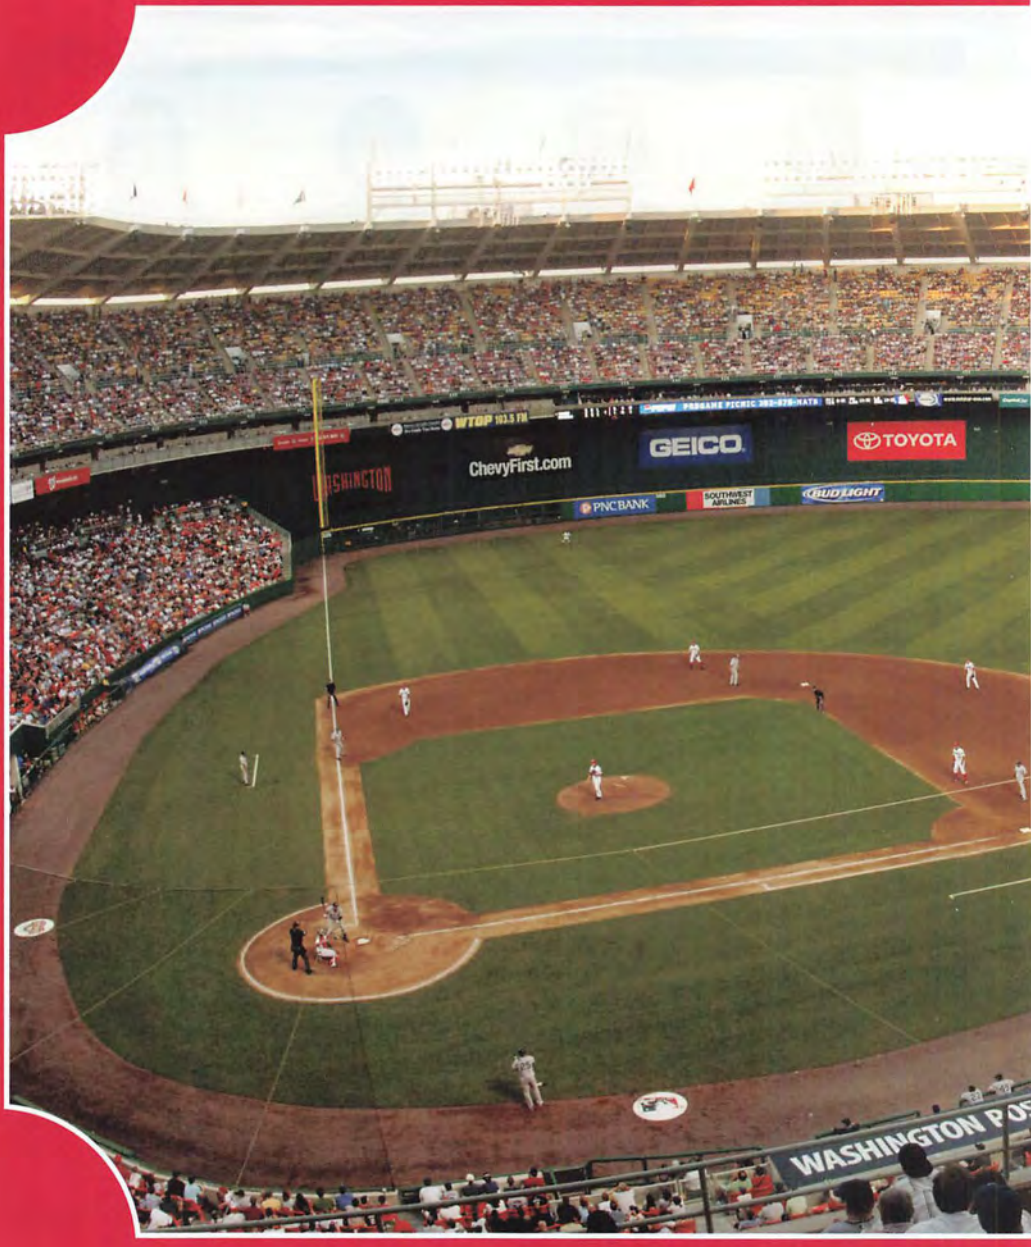

Bill Gluvna enters his first season as Communications Coordinator and 3rd overall with the Nationals organization. Prior to joining the Nationals, Gluvna spent 2004 as a Media Relations Intern with the Cleveland Indians. Gluvna, who has worked in various sports capacities with Georgetown University and NASCAR, graduated with a B.S. in Sport Management from Bowling Green State University in 2005.

MIKE WALLACE

Mike Wallace begins his 35th season in MLB, his sixth with the Washington Nationals. An every-day presence, Wallace enters 2007 with a streak of 2201 consecutive games. His baseball career includes stops with Montreal (2002-04), Florida (1992-2001, was the first equipment manager in Marlins history), Kansas City (1989-91) and Texas (visiting clubhouse manager in Arlington from 1980-88 and Rangers clubhouse assistant from 1973-79).

MATT ROSENTHAL

Entering his 18th season in pro baseball, Matt Rosenthal begins his 6th year with the Nationals organization. He embarked on his career in 1993 during Florida's inaugural season, and was appointed Marlins visiting clubhouse manager in November of 1997. A 1992 graduate of Palm Beach C.C. who later attended Florida Atlantic University, Rosenthal and his wife, Jennifer, have four children: Robert, Jordyn, Riley and Justin.

DIRECTIONS TO RFK STADIUM

FROM REAGAN NATIONAL AIRPORT

Exit National Airport following signs for I-395 and 50 West to Washington. On George Washington Parkway take exit for I-395 North. Stay on 395 North, across the Potomac River, for approximately three miles. Once past the Maine Avenue exit, stay in the left lane of the freeway. I-395 will exit to the right to the Capitol and Senate buildings. Do not follow I-395 North; stay left for the stadium. Proceed straight ahead in the left lanes to the exit at Sixth Street Southeast and Navy Yard. At bottom of the ramp go left at traffic light onto Sixth Street. Stay on 6th Street for .5 miles to Independence Avenue. Turn Right onto Independence Ave. and stay on Independence for 1.1 miles to 19th Street. Turn Left onto 19th Street and travel one block to East Capitol Street. Turn right on East Capitol to the stadium.

FROM CRYSTAL CITY SHERATON

Follow Route 1 North to I-395 North (to Washington). On I-395, follow directions as from National Airport.

FROM UNION STATION

Go East from Union Station along Massachusetts Ave. Continue past Stanton Square on Massachusetts to Lincoln Park (at 12th Street). Go around Lincoln Park to East Capitol Street, turn right onto East Capitol. Follow East Capitol to RFK.

FROM I-66 AND CONSTITUTION AVENUE

Follow Constitution East past the Capitol to Maryland Ave. Turn left on Maryland and go two blocks to Stanton Square. At Stanton Square, turn right onto Massachusetts Ave. On Massachusetts, follow directions as from Union Station.

VIA METRORAIL

To make your visit to RFK easier please consider taking Metro's Blue/Orange Line to the Stadium-Armory Station.

Take the Red Line toward Shady Grove. Travel 3 stops to Metro Center. At Metro Center switch to the Blue-Orange Line towards Addison Rd.-New Carrollton. Travel 8 stops to the Stadium-Armory stop at 19th and East Capitol St. Exit the Metro and follow East Capitol St. to the stadium.

From National Airport Take the Yellow Line towards Mt. Vernon Sq.-UDC. Travel 4 stops to L'Enfant Plaza. At L'Enfant Plaza transfer to the Blue-Orange Line towards Addison Rd.-New Carrollton. Travel 5 stops to the Stadium-Armory stop and exit the Metro. Follow East Capitol St. to the stadium.

AMTRAK®

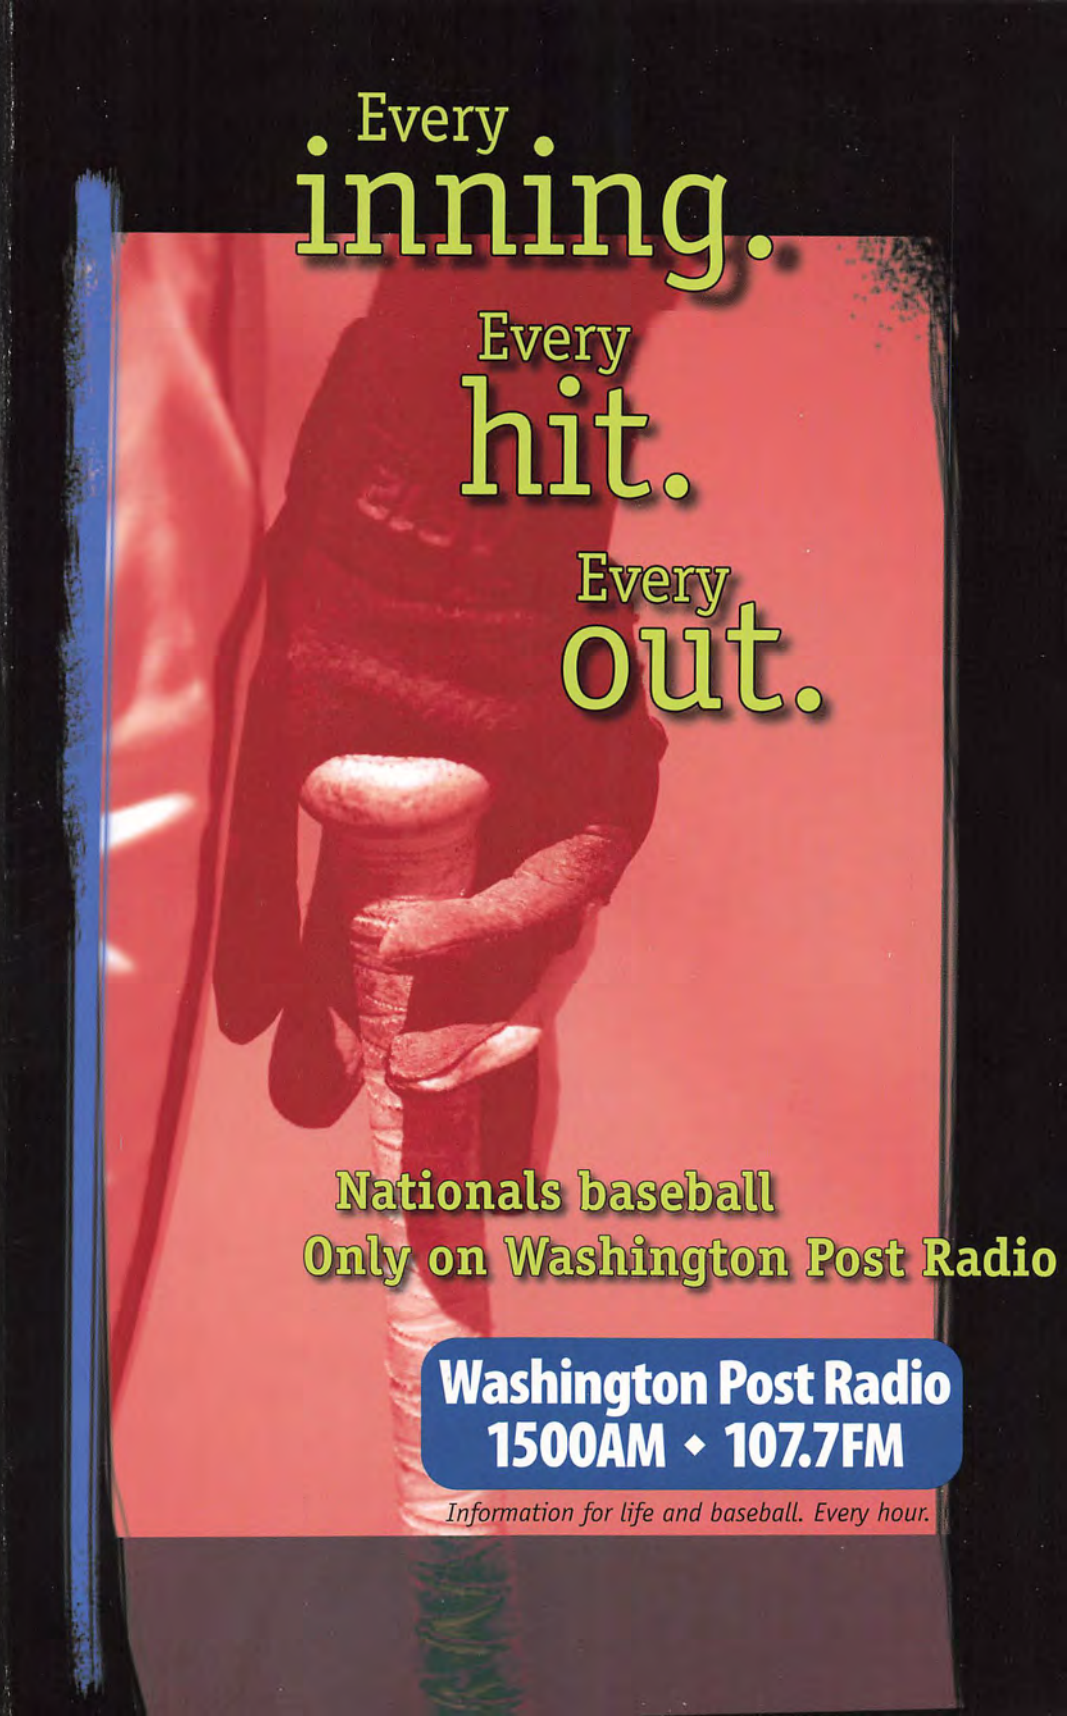

THINK OF IT AS A LUXURY BOX BEFORE YOU EVEN GET TO YOUR SEATS.

No matter where you sit at the ballgame, on the way there you'll feel like a VIP. On Acela Express, we provide comfortable seating and upscale amenities on every train. So stretch out and get some rest, grab a bite to eat in our Café car, and by game time you'll feel more relaxed than the home team. And with frequent departures to Boston, NY and Philly, getting great seats is even easier. Road trips are rough, but with our first class treatment, it'll feel like home field advantage. Book your trip today at 1.800.USA.RAIL or visit Amtrak.com.
